At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 24th day of September, 1915.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by the Burial Act, 1900, it is provided that, in case it appear to His Majesty in Council, upon the Representation of the Local Government Board, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial ground in any City or Town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, or that burials in any City or Town, or within any other limits, or in any burial grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that no new burial ground shall be opened in such City or Town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such City or Town, or within such limits, or in such burial grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such

Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require: Provided always that notice of such Representation, and of the time when it shall please His Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the Churches or Chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the Parishes affected by such Representation, one month before such Representation is so considered: Provided also that no such Representation shall be made in relation to the burial ground of any Parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such Representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and the Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such Parish:

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the Parish of Falstone, in the Civil Parish of Plashet and Tynehead, in the County of Northumberland; of the Parish of Thorpe St. Andrew, in the Civil Parish of Thorpe (next Norwich), in the County of Norfolk; and of the Parish of Heptonstall, in the Civil Parish of Heptonstall, in the West Riding of the County of York, respectively, ten days' previous notice of their intention in that behalf, have made Representations to His Majesty in Council that, for the protec-
