

For the purposes of this regulation consumption on the premises includes consumption of intoxicating liquor in or on any highway open ground or railway station adjoining or near to the licensed premises or club in which the liquor was sold or supplied; and any person consuming intoxicating liquor in or on any such highway open ground or railway station shall be deemed to consume the liquor in such licensed premises or club as the case may be.

Credit prohibited.

8. No person shall—

(1) (a) Either by himself or by any servant or agent sell or supply in any licensed premises or club or dispatch therefrom any intoxicating liquor to be consumed either on or off the premises; or

(b) Consume any intoxicating liquor in or take it from such premises or club;

unless it is paid for before or at the time when it is supplied or dispatched or taken away.

Provided always that if the liquor is sold or supplied for consumption at a meal supplied at the same time and is consumed at such meal, this provision shall not be deemed to be contravened if the price of the liquor is paid together with the price of such meal and before the person partaking thereof quits the premises.

(2) Introduce or cause to be introduced into the area any intoxicating liquor unless it is paid for before it is so introduced.

Long pull prohibited.

9. No person shall either by himself or by any servant or agent in any licensed premises or club sell or supply to any person as the measure of intoxicating liquor for which he asks an amount exceeding that measure.

Dilution of spirits.

10. The sale of whisky, brandy and rum reduced to a number of degrees under proof which falls between 25 and 35, and of gin reduced to a number of degrees under proof which falls between 35 and 45, is hereby permitted, and accordingly, in determining whether an offence has been committed under the Sale of Food and Drugs Acts by selling to the prejudice of the purchaser brandy, whisky, rum or gin not adulterated otherwise than by the admixture of water it shall be a good defence to prove that such admixture has not reduced the spirit more than 35° under proof in the case of whisky, brandy or rum, or 45° under proof in the case of gin.

Explanatory provisions.

(a) Nothing in this Order authorises any licensed premises to be kept open for the sale of intoxicating liquor except during the hours now permitted by law.

(b) The prohibition under this Order of the sale, supply and consumption of intoxicating liquor except on and during certain days and hours is not subject to the exceptions provided for in the Licensing Acts with respect to bonâ fide travellers and the supply of intoxicating liquor at railway stations or any other provisions in those Acts enabling intoxicating liquor to be supplied during closing hours in special cases.

(c) The expression "licensed premises" includes any premises or place where the sale of intoxicating liquor is carried on under a licence.

(d) This Order does not affect the sale or dispatch of intoxicating liquor to a trader for the purposes of his trade or to a registered club for the purposes of the club.

(e) This Order does not affect the sale or supply of intoxicating liquor to or in any canteen where the sale of intoxicating liquor is carried on under the authority of a Secretary of State or of the Admiralty.

(f) In the application of this Order to Scotland the Order shall be read as if the expression "exciseable liquor" were substituted for the expression "intoxicating liquor" wherever the same is used therein.

(g) Paragraphs (a) to (d) inclusive of Article 4 of this Order shall not apply to Scotland.

Exhibition of the Order.

12. The secretary of every club to which this Order applies and every holder of a licence for the sale of intoxicating liquor shall keep permanently affixed in some conspicuous place in the club or in each public room in the licensed premises a copy of this Order and any other notice required by the Board to be so affixed.

Revocation of the Order for the area of Barrow-in-Furness.

13. This Order shall be substituted for the Order of the Central Control Board (Liquor Traffic), made on the twenty-second day of July, 1915, for the area of Barrow-in-Furness, which said Order is hereby revoked.

Commencement of Order.

14. This Order shall come into force on the twenty-second day of November, 1915.

Given under the Seal of the Central Control Board (Liquor Traffic) this eleventh day of November, 1915.

D'ABERNON,

Chairman.

JOHN PEDDER,

Member of the Board.

(L. S.)

DEFENCE OF THE REALM (LIQUOR CONTROL).

ORDER OF THE CENTRAL CONTROL BOARD (LIQUOR TRAFFIC) FOR THE PORTSMOUTH AREA.

Any person contravening any provision of this Order or of the Liquor Control Regulations is liable to imprisonment for six months with hard labour and a fine of £100.

We the Central Control Board (Liquor Traffic) in pursuance of the powers conferred upon us by the Acts and Regulations relating to the Defence of the Realm hereby make the following Order:—

Limits of Area.

1. The area to which this Order applies is the Portsmouth Area, being the area compris-
