

Long Pull Prohibited.

9. No person shall either by himself or by any servant or agent in any licensed premises or club sell or supply to any person as the measure of intoxicating liquor for which he asks an amount exceeding that measure.

Dilution of Spirits.

10. The sale of whisky, brandy and rum reduced to a number of degrees under proof which falls between 25 and 35, and of gin reduced to a number of degrees under proof which falls between 35 and 45, is hereby permitted, and accordingly, in determining whether an offence has been committed under the Sale of Food and Drugs Acts by selling to the prejudice of the purchaser brandy, whisky, rum or gin not adulterated otherwise than by the admixture of water it shall be a good defence to prove that such admixture has not reduced the spirit more than 35° under proof in the case of whisky, brandy or rum, or 45° under proof in the case of gin.

Explanatory Provisions.

(a) Nothing in this Order authorizes any licensed premises to be kept open for the sale of intoxicating liquor except during the hours now permitted by law.

(b) The prohibition under this Order of the sale, supply and consumption of intoxicating liquor, except during certain hours, is not subject to the exceptions provided for in the Licensing Acts with respect to bond-fide travellers and the supply of intoxicating liquor at railway stations or any other provisions in those Acts enabling intoxicating liquor to be supplied during closing hours in special cases.

(c) The expression "licensed premises" includes any premises or place where the sale of intoxicating liquor is carried on under a licence.

(d) This Order does not affect the sale or dispatch of intoxicating liquor to a trader for the purposes of his trade, or to a registered club for the purposes of the club.

(e) This Order does not affect the sale or supply of intoxicating liquor to or in any canteen where the sale of intoxicating liquor is carried on under the authority of a Secretary of State or of the Admiralty.

Exhibition of the Order.

12. The secretary of every club to which this Order applies and every holder of a licence for the sale of intoxicating liquor shall keep permanently affixed in some conspicuous place in the club or in each public room in the licensed premises a copy of this Order and any other notice required by the Board to be so affixed.

Revocation of Previous Order.

13. This Order shall be substituted for the Order of the Central Control Board (Liquor Traffic) made on the thirtieth day of July, 1915, for the Area of the North-East Coast, which said last-mentioned Order is hereby revoked.

Commencement of Order.

14. This Order shall come into force on the twenty-ninth day of November, 1915.

Given under the Seal of the Central Control Board (Liquor Traffic) this eighteenth day of November, 1915.
