To repeal, alter or amend section 19 of the Imperial Continental Gas Association Act, 1870, so as to enable the Association to issue and dispose of ordinary or preference stock at such price, whether equal to, above, or below the nominal amount as the directors think advantageous, and to provide that for the purpose of ascertaining the amount of money which the Association may borrow on mortgage or bond or in respect of which they may create and issue debenture stock as defined by or by virtue of section 3 of the Imperial Continental Gas Association Act, 1893, and the Companies Clauses Act, 1869, the capital of the Association shall be deemed to be fully paid up when the full price at which such capital has been issued has been paid.

To authorize the Association for the purposes of such redemption or payment off as aforesaid to create and issue new debenture stock or to re-issue debenture stock (whether redeemable or irredeemable), and to set aside out of revenue such sums as they may consider proper for the purpose of providing a fund for the redemption at maturity of redeemable debenture stock.

To repeal, alter or amend such of the provisions of section 6 of the Imperial Continental Gas Association Act, 1878, as relate to the qualification of directors, and to prescribe such new qualification as may be specified in the Bill.

To make provisions as to the seal of the Association and as to the conditions under which the same may be attached to documents.

The Bill will or may incorporate such parts of the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, the Companies Clauses Act, 1863, and the Companies Clauses Act, 1869, as may be deemed expedient, and will or may (so far as required for the purposes hereinbefore mentioned) provide that certain of the provisions of the said Acts shall not apply to the Association or shall be amended or varied in their application to the Association, and will alter and amend and repeal so far as may be deemed necessary all or any of the provisions of the Imperial Continental Gas Association Act, 1870, and any other Act directly or indirectly affecting the Association both in respect of the matters hereinbefore specifically mentioned and in respect of other matters, and will vary and extinguish all existing rights and privileges which would interfere with any of its objects and confer other rights and privileges.

Printed copies of the intended Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, on or before the 17th day of December next.
