

make and maintain all such cuts, channels, aqueducts, fish passes, ponds, spawning beds, hatcheries and other works and conveniences adjoining near to or communicating with the Routing Burn, the Seal Burn and the River Coquet or any of such waters as may be found desirable or expedient for the propagation of fish or for the benefit or protection of any fishery in the watershed of the River Coquet. The lands lastly herein referred to are:—

All those pieces or parcels of land situate in the parish of Newtown aforesaid and numbered 7, 10, 11, 12 and 13 on the $\frac{1}{2500}$ Ordnance Map, Northumberland, Sheet XLIV, 10 (second edition, 1897), and also all those pieces or parcels of land in the parish of Tosson aforesaid and numbered 29 and 30 on the same Ordnance Map, and also all those pieces or parcels of land situate in the parish of Newtown aforesaid and numbered 7, 30, 31, 32 (part of), 33, 34 and 36 on the $\frac{1}{2500}$ Ordnance Map, Northumberland, Sheet XLIV, 11 (second edition, 1897).

13. To exempt the Corporation from the operation of section 92 of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, so as to enable them to acquire parts only of certain properties, and from the provisions of that Act relating to superfluous lands; and in other respects to vary or modify the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts in their application to the Corporation and their water undertaking, and in particular to confer powers upon the Corporation with reference to the retention, sale, lease, exchange and disposal of lands, to authorize the Corporation to reserve to themselves the water or water rights or other rights, or easements on, in, under or over any lands and hereditaments sold, let or disposed of by them, to make special provision with regard to the amount of compensation to be paid in respect of the lands to be acquired under the intended Act; to provide that in determining the amount of such compensation any buildings erected, alterations made or interest created after the date hereof or such other date as may be mentioned in the intended Act shall not be taken into consideration; to render persons claiming compensation liable to and responsible for their costs in certain events, to make provision for enabling them to amend their claims, and to enable persons under disability to grant easements in, over or affecting any lands for the purposes of the intended Act.

14. To authorize the Corporation to pay for any lands or easements acquired or to be acquired for any of the purposes of the intended Act in water or land instead of in money, and if thought fit to acquire by compulsion or agreement any mines or minerals or rights in respect thereof in or under any lands required to be taken for the purposes of the intended Act, notwithstanding the provisions of the Waterworks Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to mines.

15. To authorize the temporary occupation and use by the Corporation of lands, houses, buildings and hereditaments during the construction of any of the before-mentioned works, and to incorporate or make applicable to those purposes, with such variations as may be proper or requisite, all or some of the provisions of the Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, with respect to the temporary use and occupation of lands, or to make other provision with reference thereto.

16. To vary or extinguish all rights over any lands and properties acquired or to be acquired by the Corporation under the authority of the intended Act, and to empower the Corporation in and upon those lands and in and upon any other lands for the time being held by them in connection with their water undertaking, to exercise all or any of the powers of and to execute all or any of the works mentioned in section 12 of the Waterworks Clauses Act, 1847.

17. To empower the Corporation so far as may be necessary or expedient for executing the purposes of the intended Act and of the special Acts of the Corporation relating to their water undertaking, to lay down, maintain and renew or remove mains, pipes, conduits, meters, tanks, boxes, telephone and telegraph posts, wires and conductors, drains and watercourses and other works and apparatus for or ancillary to the supply of water, or the detection or prevention of waste of water, or the protection of the waters and water supplies of the Corporation, in, under, along, through, over and across, and to break open, cross, alter, raise, lower, stop up, divert or interfere with, temporarily or permanently (and if permanently to extinguish all rights of way over and to vest in the Corporation the site and soil of the same), highways, streets and roads (public and private), bridges, railways, tramroads, tramways, sewers, drains, culverts, rivers, streams, watercourses, footpaths, ways, passages, lanes and other places, and to alter the position of, remove and interfere with (temporarily or permanently) gas and water mains, pipes and works, telegraphic, telephonic, and electric lines, wires, tubes, posts and apparatus, and any other works laid or placed in, under, along or over any such highways, streets, roads, bridges, footpaths, lanes, ways, passages and places, and to confer upon the Corporation in connection with their water undertaking the powers of section 54 of the Public Health Act, 1875, with respect to the laying of water mains.

18. To make special provision for protecting the waterworks property and water supply for the time being of the Corporation, and for preventing the pollution of the streams, springs and gathering grounds and sources of water supply of the Corporation, whether existing or to be acquired under the powers of the Bill, and to confer on the Corporation all necessary powers in that behalf, and to enable the Corporation on any lands within the drainage area of any of their sources of supply, to construct, lay down and maintain drains, watercourses and other works for the more effectual flow of the streams flowing to and to be intercepted by the intended works.

19. To confer upon the Corporation with reference to their water undertaking all or some of the rights, powers and privileges of a local authority under the Public Health Acts and the Rivers Pollution Prevention Acts, and to empower them to exercise such rights, powers and privileges within or without their area for the supply of water as proposed to be extended.

20. To make further and better provision with respect to the supply of water by the Corporation throughout their limits of supply as proposed to be extended, and particularly with respect to the following matters or in the following respects:—
