FRIDAY, 26 NOVEMBER, 1915.

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 24th day of November, 1915.

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS it is provided by Section 2 of the Customs (Exportation Prohibition) Act, 1914, that any Proclamation or Order in Council made under Section 8 of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1879, as amended by the Act now in recital, may, whilst a state of war exists, be varied or added to by an Order made by the Lords of the Council on the recommendation of the Board of Trade:

And whereas it is provided by Section 2 of the Customs (Exportation Restriction) Act, 1914, that any Proclamation made under Section 1 of the Exportation of Arms Act, 1900, may, whether the Proclamation was made before or after the passing of the Act now in recital, be varied or added to, whilst a state of war exists, by an Order made by the Lords of the Council on the recommendation of the Board of Trade:

And whereas by a Proclamation, dated the 28th day of July, 1915, and made under Section 8 of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1879, and Section 1 of the Exportation of Arms Act, 1900, and Section 1 of the Customs (Exportation Prohibition) Act, 1914, the exportation from the United Kingdom of certain articles to certain or all destinations was prohibited:

And whereas by subsequent Orders of Council the said Proclamation was amended and added to in certain particulars:

And whereas there was this day read at the Board a recommendation from the Board of Trade to the following effect:—

That the Proclamation, dated the 28th day of July, 1915, as amended and added to by subsequent Orders of Council, should be further amended by making the following amendments in and additions to the same:—

(1) That the exportation of the following goods should be prohibited to all destinations:—

(5) That the exportation of "Firearms, unrifled, for sporting purposes" which is at present prohibited to all foreign countries in Europe and on the Mediterranean and Black Seas, other than France, Russia (except through Baltic Ports), Italy, Spain and Portugal, should be prohibited to all destinations abroad other than British Possessions and Protectorates.

(6) That the heading "All manufactures and products of cotton, except cotton lace and cotton waste" in the list of goods the exportation of which is prohibited to all foreign countries in Europe and on the Mediterranean and Black Seas, other than France, Russia (except through Baltic Ports), Italy, Spain and Portugal, should be deleted, and there be substituted therefor the heading "All manufactures and products of cotton except cotton lace, cotton wadding, cotton waste and cotton wool."

(7) That the heading "China clay (including China stone and potter's clay)" in the list of goods the exportation of which is prohibited to all foreign countries in Europe and on the Mediterranean and Black Seas, other than France, Russia (except through Baltic Ports), Italy, Spain and Portugal, should be deleted, and there be substituted therefor the heading "China clay (including China stone, ball clay and potter's clay)."

(8) That the exportation of "Egg, yolk and liquid, and albumen" should be prohibited to all foreign countries in Europe and on the Mediterranean and Black Seas, other than France, Russia (except through Baltic Ports), Italy, Spain and Portugal.

(9) That the heading "Terneplates" and "Tinplates, including tin boxes and tin canisters for food packing" in the list of goods the exportation of which is prohibited to all foreign countries in Europe and on the Mediterranean and Black Seas, other than France, Russia (except through Baltic Ports), Italy, Spain and Portugal, should be deleted, and there be substituted therefor respectively the headings "Terneplates and all receptacles made from terneplates" and "Tinplates and all receptacles made from tinplates."

(10) That the heading "Railway material, both fixed and rolling stock" in the list of goods the exportation of which is prohibited to all foreign countries in Europe and on the Mediterranean and Black Seas, other than France, Russia (except through Baltic Ports), Italy, Spain and Portugal, should be deleted, and there be substituted therefor the heading "Railway material, both fixed and rolling stock (except railway waggons the exportation of which is prohibited to all destinations abroad other than British Possessions and Protectorates)."

Now, therefore, Their Lordships, having taken the said recommendation into consideration, are pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the same be approved.

Whereof the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs and Excise, the Director of the War Trade Department, and all other persons whom it may concern, are to take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

Almeric FitzRoy.

ORDER OF THE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES.

(DATED 25TH NOVEMBER 1915.)

SOMERSET AND DISTRICT (FOOT-AND-MOUTH DISEASE) ORDER OF 1915 (No. 8).

The Board of Agriculture and Fisheries, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in them under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1914, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Revocation of Existing Orders.

1. The Somerset and District (Foot-and-Mouth Disease) Orders of 1915 (Nos. 1 to 7) and the Somerset (Glastonbury District) (Foot-and-Mouth Disease) Order of 1915, are hereby revoked.

PART I.

Prohibition of Movement in certain Prohibited Areas.

2. No cattle, sheep, goats, or swine shall be moved out of, or along, over or across a highway, thoroughfare, or drove within any Prohibited Area described in the Schedule hereto, or be permitted by the owner or person in charge thereof to stray upon any such highway, thoroughfare, or drove, and no Movement Licence shall be granted under this Order by an Inspector of a Local Authority which would involve such movement.

Prohibition of Markets, etc., of Animals in Prohibited Areas.

3. No market, fair, sale, or exhibition of animals shall be held in any Prohibited Area.

PART II.

PROVISIONS AS TO ZONE I.

Prohibition of Movement of Animals out of Zone I.

4. No cattle, sheep, goats, or swine shall be moved out of Zone I., described in the Schedule hereto.

Movement into Zone I. for Immediate Slaughter only; Movement within Zone I. for any necessary or expedient purpose.

5.—(1) No cattle, sheep, goats, or swine shall be moved into, or be moved along, over, or across a highway, thoroughfare, or drove within Zone I., except in accordance with the subsequent provisions of this Article.

(2.) No animal shall be allowed by the owner or person in charge thereof to stray upon a highway, thoroughfare, or drove in Zone I.

(3.) An animal may, subject as hereinafter provided, be moved by railway or by vessel without a Licence from premises in Zone II., or from premises not situate within any District which is for the time being a Scheduled District for the purposes of an Order of the Board relating to Foot-and-Mouth Disease, to a railway station or landing place situate within Zone I.; and an animal so moved may be moved from the railway station or landing place to any slaughterhouse or bacon-factory situate within Zone I., if accompanied by a Movement Licence granted by an Inspector of the Local Authority of the District in which the railway station or landing place is situate.

(4.) An animal may, subject as hereinafter provided, be moved by road from any premises in Zone II., or from any premises not situate within any District which is for the time being a Scheduled District for the purposes of an Order of the Board relating to Foot-and-Mouth Disease, to any slaughterhouse or bacon-factory in Zone I., if accompanied, while being moved by road in Zone I., by a Movement Licence granted by an Inspector of the Local Authority of the District in which the slaughterhouse or bacon-factory is situate.

(5.) Where an Inspector of the Local Authority considers it necessary or expedient that an animal in his district should be permitted to be moved for any purpose from premises in Zone I. to any other premises in that Zone, he may authorise such movement by a Movement Licence.

Prohibition of Markets, etc., of Animals in Zone I.

6. No market, fair, sale, or exhibition of animals shall be held in Zone I.

PART III.

PROVISIONS AS TO ZONE II.

Prohibition of Movement out of Zone II. except for Slaughter.

7. No animal shall be moved out of Zone II. described in the Schedule hereto except for the purpose of movement to a slaughterhouse or bacon-factory: Provided that in any case in which the slaughterhouse or bacon-factory is in Zone I. the movement shall be in accordance with Article 5 of this Order, and that in any other case the animal shall be accompanied by a Licence, authorising such movement, granted by an Inspector of the Local Authority of the District in which the premises from which the animal is to be moved are situate, and shall be marked before the movement is commenced, by and at the expense of the owner, in the manner following:—

Cattle.—By the clipping of a broad arrow ↑ about six inches long on the left hind-quarter of each of the cattle and by the clipping of the hair off the end of the tail.

Sheep.—By the clipping of a broad arrow ↑ on the forehead of each of the sheep; and also by the painting or stamping of the letter M, about six inches long, on both sides of each of the sheep with the following composition, namely: Rosin, five parts; oil of turpentine, two parts; and blue or red ochre, one part; melted and used warm; or with some other adhesive composition of a blue or red colour.

Swine.—By the painting or stamping of the letter M, about six inches long, on both sides of each of the swine with the composition above mentioned.

Regulation of Markets, &c., of Animals in Zone II.

8.—(1.) No market, fair, sale or exhibition of animals shall be held in Zone II., except as provided by this Article.

(2.) A market or sale of animals may be held on any premises in Zone II. if the Local Authority are satisfied that the market or sale will be restricted to animals intended for immediate slaughter and the market or sale is authorised by the Local Authority under this Article.

(3.) The Local Authority shall cause a Veterinary Inspector to attend at every market or sale authorised under this Article and examine the animals exposed thereat.

(4.) An animal exposed at a market or sale authorised under this Article shall not be moved therefrom except to a slaughterhouse or bacon-factory, and unless it is accompanied by a Licence authorising such movement granted by an Inspector of the Local Authority of the District in which the market or sale is situate. The animal shall, before such movement, be marked, by and at the expense of the owner, in the manner described in Article 7 of this Order.

PART IV.

GENERAL.

Provisions as to Movement Licences.

9.—(1.) Where the movement authorised by a Movement Licence granted under this Order is movement as often as occasion may require, either between different parts of the same farm, or between different farms, the Licence shall be marked with the words "Occupation Licence," and shall be in force until it is revoked by an Inspector of the Local Authority or of the Board by a Notice served on the occupier of the farm on which the animals then are.

(2.) Every Licence shall specify the name and address of the person to whom the Licence is granted, the number and description of the animals authorised to be moved, and the name or description of the several premises to and from which the animals are authorised to be moved.

(3.) Where animals are moved with a Licence under this Order, unless the Licence is an Occupation Licence, the Licence shall forthwith after completion of the movement be delivered up to an officer of the Local Authority or be delivered up at, or sent by post to, the nearest Police Station in the same District by the person in charge of the animals at the time of completing the movement.

(4.) A Movement Licence granted under this Order, except where it is otherwise expressly authorised by this Order, shall be in force for four days, inclusive of the day of issue, and shall be in the form set forth in the Second Schedule to the Somerset and District (Foot-and-Mouth Disease) Order of 1915 (No. 4), or to the like effect.

(5.) A Movement Licence granted under this Order shall not be available if granted by the owner of the animal to be moved, or by his agent, or by the consignee of the animal, or by the occupier of the farm or premises from or to which the animal is to be moved, or by any individual member of an Executive Committee or Sub-Committee of a Local Authority.

(6.) A copy of a Licence which authorises movement to premises in a District other than the District for which the person granting the Licence acts as Inspector shall forthwith be sent by the Inspector to the Local Authority of the District in which the place of destination is situate.

Movement of Animals through Zones or Prohibited Areas by Railway.

10. For the purposes of this Order, an animal shall not be deemed to be moved into or out of a Zone or Prohibited Area where it is moved through such Zone or Area by railway from a place outside such Zone or Area to another place outside such Zone or Area, without unnecessary delay and without the animal being untrucked within such Zone or Area except for the purposes of feeding or watering the animal within the railway station premises where such untrucking takes place.

Provision as to Farms on borders of Zones or Prohibited Areas.

11. If any farm (except any detached part) is partly within and partly outside a Prohibited Area, the whole shall be deemed to be within the Area. Subject to this provision, if any farm (except any detached part) is partly within and partly outside a Zone, the whole shall be deemed to be within the Zone, and where the farm extends to two Zones the whole shall be deemed to be in the inner Zone.

General Provisions as to Movement.

12. Animals while being moved with a Licence under this Order shall, so far as is practicable, be kept separate from all animals which are not being so moved, and shall be moved by the nearest available route and without unnecessary delay to the place of destination specified in the Licence, and where the place of destination is a slaughterhouse or bacon-factory they shall be there detained until they are slaughtered.

Exception of certain Animals from Provisions as to Movement.

13. Nothing in this Order shall be construed as authorising:—

(i.) movement of an animal which is affected with foot-and-mouth disease, or which has during the preceding twenty-eight days been in any way exposed to the infection of such disease; or

(ii.) movement into or out of a foot-and-mouth disease infected place; or

(iii.) movement of an animal the movement of which is prohibited by notice of an Inspector of the Local Authority or of the Board given under any Order of the Board.

Saving for Orders and Regulations.

14. Movement of animals with a Licence under this Order is subject to any other Order of the Board, and also subject to any Regulation made by a Local Authority under any Order of the Board for prohibiting or regulating the movement of animals.

Power to Restrict the Movement of Persons in Certain Cases.

15.—(1.) An Inspector of the Local Authority acting under their direction may serve a Notice on the occupier of any field, shed, or other place in any Prohibited Area or Zone described in the Schedule hereto, prohibiting the entry of any person into any such field, shed or other place, and thereupon, notwithstanding the existence of any footpath or right of way, no person shall enter the field, shed, or other place to which the Notice relates while any cattle, sheep, goats or swine are therein, otherwise than in accordance with the following regulations, that is to say:—

(i.) The owner of the field, shed or other place, or of the animals therein, or the agent or servants of such owner, may enter such field, shed or other place so far as may be necessary for the feeding or tending of the animals.

(ii.) Any other person may enter such field, shed or other place with a Licence of an Inspector of the Local Authority, or of the Board.

(2.) Copies of such Notice shall be affixed or exhibited by the Inspector in such manner as he shall think desirable for ensuring notification of the restrictions hereby imposed.

(3.) A copy of every such Notice shall forthwith be sent by the Inspector to the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries, Whitehall Place, London, S.W.

Production of Licences; Names and Addresses.

16.—(1.) Any person in charge of an animal being moved, where under this Order a Movement Licence is necessary, shall, on demand of a Justice, or of a constable, or of an Inspector or other officer of the Board or of a Local Authority, produce and show to him the Licence, if any, necessary for the movement, and shall allow it to be read, and a copy of or extract from it to be taken by the person to whom it is produced.

(2.) Any person so in charge shall, on demand as aforesaid, give his name and address to the Justice, or constable, or Inspector or other officer.

Offences.

17.—(1) If an animal is moved in contravention of this Order, the owner of the animal, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the movement, and the person moving or conveying the animal, and the consignee or other person receiving or keeping it, knowing it to have been moved in contravention as aforesaid, and the occupier of the place from which the animal is moved shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(2.) If a person in charge of an animal being moved, where under this Order a Movement Licence is necessary, on demand made under this Order, fails to give his true name and address, or gives a false name or address, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(3.) If any person, with a view unlawfully to evade or defeat the operation of this Order, by washing, or in any other manner, takes out, effaces, or obliterates, or attempts to take out, efface, or obliterate, any mark painted on any animal as required by this Order, the person doing the same, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the same to be done, and the owner of the animal, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(4.) If any person enters any field, shed, or other place in contravention of this Order, or of a notice served thereunder, such person shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

Interpretation.

18. In this Order—

“The Act of 1894” means the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

NORTHWICH URBAN DISTRICT COUNCIL (GAS).

(Acquisition by Northwich Urban District Council of Undertaking of Northwich Gas Company in accordance with Northwich Gas Act, 1915; Winding-up and Dissolution of Company; Provisions incidental to Transfer of Undertaking; Postponement of Arbitration and of Payment of Purchase Money; Maintenance of Undertaking until Transfer; Transfer to and Exercise of Powers of Company by Council, including Existing Powers of Manufacture and Storage of Gas and Residual Products and Maintenance, Erection, &c., of Gas Works on Authorized Gas Lands; Supply of Gas Within Existing Limits of Company by Council; Definition of Limits of Supply; Further Powers of Manufacture and Storage of Gas and Additional Gas Lands; Breaking-up, &c., of Streets, &c.; Meters, Stoves, Pipes, Fittings, &c.; Purchase, Holding, Use and Disposal of Lands; Rates, Rents and Charges; Charges for Supply of Gas; Differential Rates; Quality, Pressure and Testing of Gas; Calorific Power; Incidental Powers in Regard to Supply of Gas; Application of Company's Acts to Council; Financial Provisions; Power to Borrow and Re-Borrow; Sinking Funds, &c.; Accounts of Gas Undertaking; Application of Revenue; Deficiency; Bye-laws; Penalties; Incorporation, Amendment and Repeal of Acts; General and Incidental Provisions; and Other Purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next ensuing Session thereof by the Urban District Council of Northwich, in the county of Chester (hereinafter referred to as "the Council"), for leave to bring in a Bill (hereinafter referred to as "the intended Act") for all or some of the following objects or purposes (that is to say):—

1. To authorize and empower the Council to purchase and acquire, compulsorily or by agreement, the Undertaking of the Northwich Gas Company (hereinafter referred to as "the Company") together with their rights, powers, privileges, property, assets and effects (all of which are hereinafter included in the expression "the said Undertaking"), upon and subject to the terms and conditions specified in the Northwich Gas Act, 1915 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act of 1915"), to empower the Company to sell the said Undertaking to the Council and to provide for the transfer to and vesting in the Council of the said Undertaking subject to all the debentures, mortgages, debts, obligations and liabilities of the Company existing at the date of the transfer thereof or upon and subject to such other terms and conditions as may be prescribed by the intended Act.

2. To provide for the determination by arbitration in accordance with the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts, with respect to the purchase and taking of lands otherwise than by agreement, of the price or consideration to be paid for the said Undertaking or to define in the intended Act the price or consideration to be paid and the terms and conditions of the transfer.

3. To confirm and give effect to any agreement between the Company and the Council respectively which may have been or may be entered into prior to the passing of the intended Act, relating to the sale and purchase of the said Undertaking or otherwise.

4. To empower the Council to carry into effect the terms, conditions and stipulations expressed in or prescribed by section 67 of the Act of 1915 relative to the purchase and sale of the said Undertaking, to enact all necessary provisions for vesting the said Undertaking in the Council, and for the payment of certain costs and expenses incurred and to be incurred by the Company, and to make provision for the winding-up and dissolution of the Company and the distribution of the purchase money and other moneys.

5. To empower the Council to pay compensation to the officers and servants of the Company in accordance with the provisions of the Act of 1915.

6. To empower the Council to discharge any debentures, mortgages, debts, obligations and liabilities of the Company existing at the date of transfer; to provide that the contracts of the Company shall be binding on the Council; that actions are not to abate or be discontinued and other usual transitory provisions, and to make all such other provisions as may be necessary or incidental with reference to or in connection with the transfer of the said Undertaking to the Council.

7. To make such provisions as may be necessary or incidental with reference to or in connection with the transfer of the said Undertaking to the Council, including provision for the postponement of any arbitration for the purpose of determining as aforesaid the price or consideration to be paid for the said Undertaking until after the termination of the present war, and of the payment of the purchase money of the said Undertaking until after such termination of the present war as aforesaid or until the consent of His Majesty's Treasury has been obtained to the borrowing by the Council of the money required for paying such purchase money or until the necessity for such consent, as provided in the intended Act, shall cease.

8. To make provision as to the maintenance and carrying on of the said Undertaking until the same shall be transferred to the Council and pending the completion of the transfer to restrict the powers of the Company in reference to the issue of further capital or expenditure of money on capital account and as to contracts, agreements and other similar arrangements and obligations to be entered into by them.

9. To authorize and empower the Council to exercise in connection with the said Undertaking such of the powers conferred upon the Company by the Northwich Gas Act, 1882 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act of 1882"), and by the Act of 1915 as may be defined or prescribed by the intended Act, or to re-enact or incorporate in the intended Act, with or without modification or amendment, and to make applicable to the Council and to the said Undertaking all or any of the provisions of the Act of 1882 and of the Act of 1915 or either of them, and to repeal those Acts or either of them wholly or in part.

10. To empower the Council to maintain and carry on the said Undertaking when acquired by them, and to manufacture and supply gas for lighting, heating, motive power and other purposes, and to provide, produce, store, convert, sell, dispose of and deal in gas, coal, coke, culm, patent fuel, tar, lime, pitch, asphaltum, ammoniacal liquor, oil and all other residual products resulting from the manufacture of gas, to have and exercise all such powers, rights, authorities and privileges with respect to the supplying of gas as may be necessary, proper or convenient, and generally to carry on the business usually carried on by a gas company.

11. To prescribe the limits for the supply of gas by the Council (hereinafter referred to as "the limits of supply") so as to include the areas respectively comprised within the limits of supply prescribed by the Act of 1882 and the Act of 1915, or such other limits as may be specified in the intended Act, and to define such limits by reference to the existing local areas.

12. To authorize and empower the Council upon the lands described in the First and Second Schedules to the Act of 1882 to maintain and continue the existing gasworks and works connected therewith, and upon such lands as aforesaid and upon the lands hereinafter described to construct, erect, make, maintain, alter, improve, enlarge, extend, renew or discontinue additional and other gasworks, and works for the conversion, manufacture, utilisation and distribution of materials used in and about or resulting from the manufacture of gas and of residual and manufactured products, matters and things, and to manufacture, store, supply and sell gas, and to manufacture, produce, store, convert, utilise, buy, sell, dispose of and deal in coke, coal, patent fuel, tar, lime, pitch, asphaltum, ammoniacal liquor, oil and all other residual and manufactured products, matters and things.

The lands hereinbefore referred to as "the lands hereinafter described" are:—

A piece or plot of land situate on the north-westerly side of New-street, in the urban district of Northwich, and containing 760 square yards or thereabouts, bounded on the north-westerly and north-easterly sides thereof by the authorized gas lands of the Company, on the south-easterly side thereof by New-street aforesaid, and on the south-westerly side thereof by lands and premises belonging to Greenall, Whitley and Company Limited, and in the respective occupations of Patrick Flannery and of Patrick Curley, with the messuages or dwelling-houses now erected and being thereon, and numbered 5, 7, 9, 11, 13, 15, 17 and Back 1 respectively in New-street aforesaid, and in the respective occupations of Michael Miskell, Mary Ann Clossick, Richard Maddock, James Garaghan, Delia Sweeney and Ann Harrison, and with the messuages or dwelling-houses now erected and being thereon and numbered 9 and 10 respectively in Bostock's-court, and in the respective occupations of Patrick Ford and Sarah Jane Tench.

13. To authorize and empower the Council within the limits of supply to construct and lay down, maintain, use, repair and renew mains, pipes, culverts, drains and other works, apparatus and appliances for the purposes of the Council and of the said undertaking (including pipes for conveying ammoniacal liquor and other fluids and for ancillary purposes), and for those purposes and for the general purposes of the intended Act to cross, open, break up, divert, stop up or otherwise interfere with streets (whether dedicated to the public use or not), roads, highways, railways, tramways, bridges, canals, footways, lands, sewers, drains, telegraphic, telephonic and electric wires and apparatus, pipes, and other works.

14. To confer powers upon the Council with reference to the manufacture, purchase, provision, sale, letting, dealing in, fixing, repair and removal of meters, lamps, engines, stoves, ranges, machinery, pipes, fittings, motors, apparatus, appliances, articles and things incidental to the supply, use or consumption of gas, and to exempt the same from liability to distress, and from being taken in execution or in bankruptcy or liquidation proceedings, and to provide that the same shall remain the property of the Council although fixed to the consumers' premises.

15. To empower the Council to purchase or acquire and hold such additional lands and hereditaments as they may require for the purposes of the said Undertaking, and to sell, let or dispose of any lands and hereditaments not required for the purposes aforesaid, and to purchase, take on lease, erect, fit up, maintain and let houses and buildings for persons employed by them and for offices, show rooms and other buildings for the purposes of or in connection with their gas Undertaking.

16. To authorize and empower the Council to levy and recover rates, rents and charges for the supply of gas and residual products, to alter existing rates, rents and charges, to make special provision for the recovery of rates, rents and charges, and for the hire or use of meters, lamps, stoves, machinery, engines and fittings, and, if thought fit, to grant exemptions and discounts and generally to confer all such further and other powers as may be deemed necessary or expedient for effecting the purposes aforesaid, or any of them.

17. To define and fix the price of gas to be charged by the Council and to provide that the Council may charge for gas supplied by them at different rates in different parts of the limits of supply, and for the variation of price according to the purpose for which gas is used, and for a minimum charge for gas laid on to premises having a supply of electricity or power gas.

18. To make provisions with regard to the quality, pressure and testing of gas supplied by the Council and the testing of the calorific power thereof, to prescribe the calorific power of gas so supplied, the apparatus to be used for testing the calorific power and the method of making tests, and to impose obligations and liabilities upon the Council in connection with the maintenance of a standard calorific power; to subject the Council to penalties in certain circumstances; to exclude the provisions of the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1871, relating to illuminating power, and to relieve the Council in certain cases from any liability, obligation, penalty or forfeiture in connection with the pressure, quality or purity of gas supplied by them, and in the case of circumstances beyond the control of the Council.

19. To authorize the Council and any other local authority or any company, body or person to enter into and carry into effect contracts and agreements with respect to the supply by the Council of gas within or beyond the limits of supply, and to confer upon the Council special powers with reference thereto, and to the laying down and maintenance of pipes and apparatus in streets or roads or railways.

20. To authorize the Council to borrow and re-borrow money on such terms and conditions as the intended Act may prescribe for the purposes connected with the purchase of the undertaking of the Company for the extension and improvement of that undertaking, and for all or any of the purposes of the intended Act, including the costs, charges and expenses of and incident to the promotion of the intended Act and the opposition of the Council to the Bill for the Act of 1915, and to charge all such money and the interest thereon on all or any of the undertakings, estates, rates, revenues and other property of the Council and the district fund and general district rate, and to execute, grant and issue mortgages, debentures, debenture stock, annuities and other securities in respect thereof, and to apply any funds or money of the Council to the purposes of the intended Act, to make provision for the repayment of money so borrowed and to provide that moneys borrowed under the powers of the intended Act shall not be reckoned in the limit of borrowing prescribed by the Public Health Act, 1875.

21. To make provision in regard to the borrowing, re-borrowing and repayment of money by the Council, and the formation, maintenance and application of sinking funds and other financial matters.

22. To authorize the Council to invest their sinking funds in statutory securities, including the securities of local authorities, to use any sinking fund instead of borrowing, and to borrow by way of temporary loan, or overdraft for their current expenses as a sanitary authority or for the purposes of their gas undertaking.

23. To make provisions with respect to the accounts to be kept by the Council in respect of their gas undertaking, the application of the revenue arising in connection with that undertaking, the formation of a reserve fund and the application of the moneys standing to the credit thereof, the method of meeting any deficiency in revenues or receipts of the Council on account of their gas undertaking, and the charge thereof upon and the payment thereof out of the district fund and general district rate.

24. To enact all necessary provisions for giving full effect to the purposes of the intended Act or of the general or local Acts in force in the district, and to empower the Council from time to time to make, vary and rescind bye-laws, rules and regulations for the purpose of carrying into effect any of the provisions of the intended Act; to prescribe penalties for ensuring compliance with any such bye-laws, rules and regulations, and any of the provisions of the intended Act, and to make provision as to the authentication and service of notices, orders and other documents, and for imposing, demanding and recovering penalties and expenses, and for the application thereof; the entry of premises; the evidence of appointment of officers of the Council; the indemnification of persons acting under the powers of the intended Act; inquiries by the Local Government Board; the saving for indictments and judges or justices not being disqualified.

25. To confer all such other powers as may be deemed necessary or expedient for effecting the purposes aforesaid or any of them, and to vary or extinguish all existing rights, powers and privileges which would or might in any manner interfere with any of the objects or purposes of the intended Act, and to confer, vary or extinguish other rights, powers and privileges.

26. To incorporate, alter, amend, enlarge, extend or repeal or re-enact, with or without amendment, all or some of the provisions of the Act of 1882 and of the Act of 1915, and any other Act or Acts and Order or Orders relating to the Company or the said Undertaking, and of the Northwich Urban District Council Act, 1914, and any other Act or Acts, Order or Orders relating to or affecting the Council, or which may relate to or be affected by the intended Act.

27. To extend, apply or incorporate, with or without amendment or modification, all or some of the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts; the Gasworks Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1871; the Public Health Acts, 1875 to 1907; the Local Loans Act, 1875; the Arbitration Act, 1889; and any Act or Acts amending or extending those Acts respectively or any of them.

And notice is hereby further given, that on or before the 17th day of December next printed copies of the Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 19th day of November, 1915.

RIVER GLEN.

(Conferring Powers on the Glen Bank Trustees; Defining the Drainage District of the Trustees; Empowering Them to Make and Enforce Bye-laws and Lease Herbage, Preventing Encroachments, Imposing Penalties for Various Offences, Authorizing the Trustees to Assess and Levy Drainage Rates and Powers as to Assessment and Recovery of Same; Power to Borrow Money and Usual Provisions in Connection therewith; Amendment and Repeal of Acts; and other General Provisions.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session by the Trustees or other persons for the time being authorized to maintain and improve the River Glen or the banks thereof (herein referred to as "the Trustees") for leave to bring in a Bill for an Act for the following or some of the following purposes (that is to say):—

1. To confer further powers upon the Trustees in regard to the maintenance and improvement of the River Glen and the drains, dikes or ditches connected therewith.

2. To enable the Trustees to make and enforce bye-laws for securing the better maintenance, control and management of the River Glen and other drainage works; for the prevention of obstructions in the River Glen; for the government and regulation of persons in the employ of the Trustees, and for the preservation of notice boards.

3. To empower the Trustees to lease or let the grass and herbage growing on the occupation roads, droveways, or banks vested in the Trustees, or over which they have control, on such terms and conditions as may be agreed.

4. To enable the Trustees to make it an offence and impose penalties on any person who may throw or cast rubbish or other substances into the River Glen or other drains, dikes or ditches connected therewith, or who set fishing nets, eel traps, or other devices in the River Glen, or who let any water out of that river, except by any existing statutory right, or obstruct the Trustees or their servants in the performance of their duties.

5. To prevent encroachments on the banks of the River Glen or other property vested in the Trustees, and to enable the Trustees to deal with the same.

6. To confer further powers on the Trustees in regard to the banks of the River Glen, and to enforce penalties on persons interfering with the banks, or digging turves, or making soak ditches or dikes within sixty feet of any such bank, or constructing watering places for cattle, or foddering cattle, stock, or swine on the banks of the river.

7. To define the area over which the Trustees may exercise their powers and levy rates and taxes, so as to include the lands and properties defined in the award dated 25th March, 1819, made by the General Commissioners appointed by the Act 41 Geo. III, cap. cxxviii, and being certain lands in the parishes of Thurlby, Baston Pinchbeck, Crowland and Surfleet, the lands of Jonathan Ward in the parishes of Bourne and Thurlby (being the Bourne and Thurlby Fen pastures), the lands formerly of John Presgrave at Tongue End, and also certain lands and enclosed commons of Spalding and Deeping Fen lying between the rivers Welland and Glen; and to enable the Trustees to apportion, assess, rate, charge, collect and recover drainage charges or rates on those lands and upon the Deeping Fen Trustees in the proportions and manner to be prescribed by the Bill.

8. To authorize the Trustees to borrow money for any extraordinary purposes in connection with the repair and upholding of the banks of the River Glen and for other general purposes, and also for the costs of the Bill; to charge the moneys so borrowed upon the property and revenue of the Trustees, and to provide for repayment and reborrowing of the same, and other usual financial provisions.

9. To prescribe the form of assessment, the mode of laying, the form of order, and notices to be given of the making of any drainage tax; to make provision with regard to the manner in which such tax shall be levied; to provide that it may be retrospective or prospective, and by whom it is to be paid, and to make other provisions with regard to the collection and recovery thereof, including power to sue for the same and to distrain on the goods or chattels (wherever situate) of any person failing to pay the tax, power to tenants to pay rates and deduct same from rents, and power to sell or let the lands in respect of which the tax is in arrear.

10. To confer upon the Trustees such further powers and provisions as are usually inserted in Acts of a like nature, or as may be necessary or proper for carrying out the objects and purposes of the Bill.

11. To vary, amend, extend or repeal, so far as may be necessary or expedient for the purposes of the Bill, the provisions of all or some of the following Acts—namely, the Act 41 Geo. III, cap. cxxviii, and any other Act or Order relating to the Glen Bank Trustees; the Deeping Fen Drainage Act, 1856, and any other Act or Order relating to the Deeping Fen Drainage Board or the Deeping Fen Separate Drainage Board; the Act 34 George III, cap. cii, and any other Act or Order relating to the drainage, outfall, or navigation of the River Welland; and all other Acts which may or can affect or interfere with the carrying into execution of the powers and provisions of the Bill.

12. Printed copies of the Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 17th day of December, 1915.

Dated this 15th day of November, 1915.

SWANSEA HARBOUR.

(Postponement of Redemption of Certain Mortgages falling due during and shortly after the War; Agreements between Harbour Trustees and Swansea Corporation as to terms and conditions of Guarantee of Revenue of Trustees; Power to Corporation to Guarantee Moneys Borrowed by the Trustees and Interest thereon; Alteration of Constitution of the Trustees; Power to set apart and Lease Lands, &c., for Particular Trades and Purposes; Amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Swansea Harbour Trustees (hereinafter referred to as "the Trustees") intend to apply to Parliament in the ensuing Session for an Act for all or some of the following purposes (that is to say):—

1. To make provision with reference to the repayment of the principal moneys secured by mortgages granted by the Trustees which the Trustees are or may become liable to redeem during the continuance of the present war and one year after the termination thereof, or during such other period as the intended Act may prescribe, and to provide for the postponement of the redemption of such mortgages to such date or dates as may be provided by the intended Act, and if thought fit to increase the rate of interest payable on such mortgages during the whole or part of the period for which their operation may be continued and extended beyond the date now fixed for their redemption and to make such other alterations of the terms and conditions of such mortgages as may be deemed expedient or as the intended Act may prescribe.

2. To empower the Trustees and the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the county borough of Swansea (hereinafter called "the Corporation") to enter into agreements for varying the conditions under which the Corporation are required to guarantee and pay any deficiency in the income or revenue of the Trustees as prescribed by section 48 of the Swansea Harbour Act, 1901, and the conditions under which the Trustees are required to repay any moneys so guaranteed and paid and the interest thereon.

3. To empower the Corporation to guarantee or pay any moneys which have been or may be borrowed by the Trustees and the interest thereon and to enable the Trustees and the Corporation to enter into agreements relative thereto.

4. To amend and alter the Swansea Harbour Acts, 1854 and 1880, in regard to the constitution of the Trustees

5. To empower the Trustees to set apart and appropriate any lands, lands covered with water, wharves, quays, berths, warehouses, buildings, works and conveniences for the time being belonging to them for the exclusive, partial or preferential use and accommodation of any particular trade, person, company, vessel or class of vessels or goods subject to the payment of such rents and such rates, dues, tolls and charges on vessels and/or goods and subject to such terms, conditions and regulations as they may think fit or as the intended Act may prescribe, and to empower the Trustees to grant leases of any such lands, lands covered with water, wharves, quays, berths, warehouses, buildings, works and conveniences and easements in any such lands for any such purposes as aforesaid and for the purpose of erecting and laying down thereon and therein such wharves, quays, manufactories, buildings, mains, pipes and other works as may be expedient therefor or as the intended Act may prescribe, and to empower the Trustees and any company, body or person to enter into and carry into effect contracts and agreements with reference to any of the matters aforesaid and to confirm and give effect to any such contract or agreement which may have been entered into prior to the passing of the intended Act.

6. To vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which would or might interfere with the objects and purposes of the intended Act and to confer other rights and privileges.

7. To alter, repeal, amend, extend and enlarge some or any of the powers and provisions of the Swansea Harbour Act, 1854, and the Swansea Harbour Act, 1901, and any other Act or Acts relating to the Trustees and their undertaking.

Printed copies of the intended Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 17th day of December next.

NEWCASTLE-UPON-TYNE AND GATESHEAD GAS.

(Extension of Existing Limits of Supply of Gas and Incidental Provisions; Confirmation of Laying of Existing Mains, &c., in Extended Limits; Repeal of Certain Conditions and Restrictions Imposed by Section 27 of Newcastle-upon-Tyne and Gateshead Gas Act, 1901; Acquisition of Lands by Agreement, and Holding and Disposal of Lands; Substitution of Calorific Value Test for Illuminating Power Test, and Relief from Existing Obligations and Penalties; Provisions as to Testing Places and Apparatus; Use of Lands for Manufacture of Gas and Utilization of Residual Products, &c.; Further Powers with Reference to Working Up, Conversion, and Utilization of Residual Products; Purchase of Residuals from Other Companies, Authorities, Bodies, or Persons; Purchase or Taking of Gas in Bulk from Local Authorities, Companies, Bodies, or Persons; Contracts and Agreements; Agreements as to Supply of Gas for Different Purposes and Charges Therefor; Differential Charges, Discounts, Rebates, Allowances, &c., and Confirmation of Discounts, Rebates or Allowances; Laying of Pipes, &c., in Streets Not Dedicated to Public Use, and Pipes for Ancillary Purposes; Exemption of Meters, Apparatus, and Fittings from Distress; Plant Let on Hire or Supplied on Hire Purchase Agreements to remain Property of Company; Entry on Premises and Removal of Apparatus and Fittings; Provisions as to Cutting Off Supply and Disconnecting Meter and Service Pipe in certain Cases, and Payment by Consumer or Occupier of Expense of Reconnection; Financial Provisions; Further Borrowing Powers and Provisions as to Borrowing; Amendment of Existing Provisions as to Raising and Issue of Capital or Exemption of Company therefrom; Redeemable Preference Stock and Debenture Stock; Redemption Fund; Dividend on Preference Stock and Interest on Debenture Stock; Transfer of Stock and Debenture Stock; Closing of Transfer Books; Authentication, &c., of Notices, and Service Thereof; Incorporation, Repeal, Amendment, &c., of Acts; General and Incidental Provisions.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session by the Newcastle-upon-Tyne and Gateshead Gas Company (hereinafter called "the Company") for leave to bring in a Bill for all or some of the purposes and objects following (that is to say):—

To extend the limits within which the Company may supply gas as defined by the Newcastle-upon-Tyne and Gateshead Gas Acts, 1864, 1867 and 1901 so as to include within such limits the following parishes and places:—

In the county of Northumberland—

The urban districts of Cramlington, Seghill, and Weetslade, so much of the urban district of Long Benton as is not now within the limits of supply of the Company, the parishes or townships of Eltringham and Mickley in the urban district of Prudhoe, the parishes or townships of Mason, Dinnington, West Heddon, and Rudchester, in the rural district of Castle Ward, and so much of the main North road and of the public road leading therefrom to the urban district of Cramlington as are situate in the parish or township of Stannington in the said rural district and abut on the said urban district of Weetslade; and the parishes or townships of Horsley, Ovingham and Ovington in the rural district of Hexham.

In the county of Durham—

The parishes or townships of Birtley and Ouston in the rural district of Chester-le-Street and so much of the parish or township of Urpeth in that rural district as lies to the east of the western side of the public road leading from the northern boundary of the parish or township of Pelton to the southern boundary of the parish or township of Lamesley.

To enable the Company to exercise within such extended limits of supply the rights, powers, privileges and authorities which they now have or may exercise within their existing limits as defined by the said Acts for the supply of gas (but freed from and irrespective of any condition or restriction imposed upon the Company by the provisoes to Section 27 of the said Act of 1901) including the powers with respect to demanding, taking and levying rates, rents and charges for and in respect of the supply of gas within such extended limits, the laying down and maintaining, taking up and renewal of mains, pipes and other works connected with the supply and distribution of gas, the opening or breaking-up of streets, roads, bridges and other works, and generally the exercise of the powers of the Gasworks Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1871.

To sanction and confirm the laying down and maintenance within the said proposed extended limits of supply of mains, pipes, and other works connected with the supply and distribution of gas which have been laid down and are now maintained by the Company, and the expenditure of capital and other moneys by the Company in connection therewith; and to provide that such mains, pipes, and other works shall be deemed to have been laid down and maintained under the powers to be conferred upon the Company by the intended Act.

To repeal, alter or amend the provisoes to Section 27 of the said Newcastle-upon-Tyne and Gateshead Gas Act, 1901, or either of them, and to relieve the Company from all or any of the conditions and restrictions imposed upon them by or to which they may be liable under the said provisoes, or either of them, and to amend the said Act of 1901 so far as may be necessary for the purposes aforesaid.

To confer upon the Company further powers of acquiring lands by agreement and to authorize the Company to hold and use such lands for the general purposes of their undertaking and to exercise with respect to such lands and otherwise all such powers as may be necessary or convenient for the purposes of the intended Act and to confer upon the Company all such other powers as are now usually conferred upon gas companies.

To enable the Company, notwithstanding anything contained in the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1871, or the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, or any other enactment of or relating to the Company, to hold or to sell, lease, exchange or otherwise dispose of any lands acquired or which may be acquired by them, and which may not be required for the purposes of their undertaking, and to empower the Company to exercise such powers free from any restrictions or obligations imposed upon them by those Acts or any of them, and to repeal or amend section 15 of the Newcastle-upon-Tyne and Gateshead Gas Act, 1896, and any other provision in any Act of or relating to the Company whereby such sale, lease, exchange or disposal would be prevented, restricted or interfered with.

To repeal, alter or amend the existing provisions of the Newcastle-upon-Tyne and Gateshead Gas Acts, 1864, 1867, 1873, 1879, 1896, and 1901 or any of them, or any other Act relating to the Company and any Act incorporated therewith respectively, relating to the testing of the illuminating power of gas and the liability of or obligations on the Company in respect thereof, and to relieve the Company from any liability, obligation, penalty or forfeiture in connection with the illuminating power of gas.

To render inapplicable to the Company the provisions relating to the matters lastly hereinbefore mentioned of the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1871, and any other general enactment.

To make new provisions with regard to the testing of gas supplied by the Company and to provide for the testing of the gas so supplied in reference to the calorific value thereof in lieu of and in substitution for the testing in reference to the illuminating power thereof, to prescribe the standard calorific value, and to prescribe or make provisions with reference to the apparatus to be used for testing calorific value, and the methods of making tests, and to impose obligations and liabilities upon the Company in connection with the maintenance of a standard calorific value, and to subject the Company to penalties in certain circumstances.

To authorize the Company to discontinue any existing testing place and to remove therefrom any apparatus for testing the illuminating power of gas and to relieve the Company from all or any obligations as to the provision, maintenance or user of such testing places and apparatus, and to make such other provisions (if any) as may be deemed expedient with respect to the provision, maintenance and user of testing places and apparatus for testing the calorific value of the gas supplied by the Company.

To empower the Company on the lands hereinafter described or referred to, to erect, maintain, and use works for the manufacture, storage and supply of gas and the conversion, utilization, storage or dealing with material used in or residual products arising from the manufacture of gas, and to empower the Company upon the said lands to manufacture and store gas and to manufacture, convert, store and deal with residual products arising from the manufacture of gas. The lands hereinbefore referred to comprise:—

A piece of land belonging or reputed to belong to the Company containing 4,665 square yards or thereabouts situate in the parish and county borough of Gateshead in the county of Durham, bounded on the west by land belonging or reputed to belong to the Company, on the north partly by land belonging or reputed to belong to the Company and partly by land belonging or reputed to belong to the North Eastern Railway Company, on the east partly by land belonging or reputed to belong to the Company and partly by land belonging or reputed to belong to the said railway company, and on the south partly by land belonging or reputed to belong to the said railway company, partly by land belonging or reputed to belong to the Company and partly by a street called Team Street.

To confer further powers upon the Company with reference to the working up, conversion and utilization of residual products arising from the manufacture of gas, and to authorize the Company to purchase such residual products from other gas undertakers or from any other Company, authority, body or person, and to utilize, work up, or convert the same and to manufacture other products therefrom, or wholly or partly by means thereof, and to sell or otherwise dispose of any of such residual products and products manufactured therefrom or by means thereof.

To authorize the Company to purchase or take a supply of gas in bulk from any local authority, company, body, or person supplying or authorized to supply gas within any area or limits of supply adjoining or near to the limits of supply for the time being of the Company, or from any company, body, or person producing gas in connection with the carrying on of any works, trade or business by such company, body or person, whether within or outside the limits of supply for the time being of the Company, and to enable the Company and any such local authority, company, body, or person to enter into and carry into effect contracts and agreements with reference to any of the matters aforesaid, and to confer upon the Company and any such local authority, company, body or person, all such powers as may be necessary to give effect to the purposes aforesaid.

To authorize the Company to enter into contracts with any local authority, company, body, or person for a supply of gas for different purposes to any premises within the Company's limits of supply (whether as existing or as proposed to be extended by the intended Act), and subject to such terms and conditions as to price varying according to the purposes for which the gas is to be supplied and otherwise as may be agreed upon between the Company and the authority, company, body, or person taking such supply, and to authorize the Company if they think fit to charge differential prices or to make rebates or allowances varying in amount in certain circumstances or in respect of gas supplied for certain purposes; to make further provision with reference to the allowance by the Company of discounts or rebates from the price of gas, or the making of other allowances in certain cases, including the prompt payment of gas charges, the supply of gas to consumers of large quantities, or the supply of gas to different consumers in varying circumstances, or for different purposes; to confirm any allowances, discounts or rebates already made or agreed to be made by the Company prior to the passing of the intended Act, and, if thought fit, to repeal or amend the provisions of section 31 of the Newcastle-upon-Tyne and Gateshead Gas Act, 1901.

To authorize the Company to place, lay down, repair, maintain, inspect, renew, and extend mains, pipes and apparatus in streets within their limits of supply (whether as existing or as proposed to be extended by the intended Act) which are laid out but not dedicated to public use, and for those purposes to open and break up such streets and to make applicable and authorize the Company to exercise all or any of the rights or powers exercisable by them with respect to the laying of mains, pipes and apparatus in public streets.

To enable the Company, subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the Gas works Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to the laying of pipes to lay down pipes and works in any street, road or highway, and to use the same for any purposes ancillary to their undertaking.

To make such provisions as may be necessary to secure that any meters, dynamos, stoves, appliances, apparatus and fittings when let on hire by the Company, or supplied or installed by the Company under a hire-purchase agreement in respect of which any instalment of purchase money shall remain unpaid, shall remain the property of the Company in cases of distress for rent, bankruptcy, execution or otherwise, and to repeal, amend or extend the provisions of section 35 of the Newcastle-upon-Tyne and Gateshead Gas Act, 1901.

To make such provisions as may be necessary to secure that engines and other plant, stoves or fittings let for hire by the Company or installed under a hire-purchase agreement in respect of which any instalment of purchase money shall remain unpaid and affixed or fastened to the soil or to any part of the premises in which they are situate shall remain the property of the Company, and not become part of the freehold of such premises or belong to the owner of such premises or pass to any grantee, mortgagee, assignee, lessee or other person claiming through or under such owner.

To empower the Company and their officers and servants where any person entering into occupation of premises previously supplied with gas by the Company does not require or take or is not entitled to such supply to enter upon such premises and remove any apparatus, fittings and appliances belonging to the Company in such premises, and to confer further powers on the Company, their officers and servants with reference to the entry upon premises and the removal of apparatus, fittings and appliances belonging to the Company in cases of consumers ceasing to take a supply of gas or of the premises in which such apparatus, fittings or appliances are situate being unoccupied.

To empower the Company in any case in which they are authorised to cut off or discontinue the supply of gas to any premises to enter upon such premises and to disconnect at the meter the service pipe by which a supply of gas is afforded to such premises and to impose penalties upon any person reconnecting or attempting to reconnect any such meter and service pipe or to restore the supply of gas to such premises.

To require the occupier of any premises or the consumer (as the case may be) to pay to the Company the expenses of reconnecting the meter and service pipe or restoring the supply of gas in any case in which the supply has been discontinued in consequence of the default of such occupier or consumer.

To authorize the Company to borrow money on mortgage in respect of their existing or authorized capital in addition to any moneys already so borrowed or raised by the creation and issue of debenture stock, and to increase the amount which the Company may raise under their existing powers in respect of such capital by the creation and issue of debenture stock, and to repeal or amend so far as may be necessary for the purposes aforesaid all or some of the provisions of section 28 of the Newcastle-upon-Tyne and Gateshead Gas Act, 1896, and section 17 of the Newcastle-upon-Tyne and Gateshead Gas Act, 1901.

To alter and enlarge the powers of the Company with reference to the creation and issue of stock and debenture stock, and to alter or amend the provisions of the Newcastle-upon-Tyne and Gateshead Gas Acts, 1864, 1867, 1873, 1879, 1896 and 1901, or any of those Acts with reference to the creation and issue of ordinary or preference stock or debenture stock, and the conditions contained in those Acts with respect to the mode of issue thereof, and as regards any such stock or debenture stock authorized by the said Acts and not created or created and not issued to exempt the Company from all or some of such provisions, and to relieve the Company from all or some of such conditions.

To authorize the creation or issue as the case may be of any such stock or debenture stock on such terms and conditions (including the issue of such stock or debenture stock at a discount) as may be thought fit or as may be prescribed by or defined in the Bill, or as may be prescribed by resolution of the Company.

To provide that any preference stock or debenture stock which has been created under the said Acts or any of them but not issued, or which is authorized by the said Acts or any of them to be created and issued, and any debenture stock to be authorized by or to be created and issued under the powers sought by the Bill, may be issued or created and issued (as the case may be) as redeemable stock or redeemable debenture stock on such terms and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed in or provided for by the Bill or as may be prescribed in a resolution or resolutions of the Company, and to empower the Company from time to time for the purpose of redeeming such redeemable stock or redeemable debenture stock to create and issue other stock or debenture stock either redeemable or otherwise of such nominal amount as may be necessary for providing the moneys required for redemption or for the purpose of substitution for any such redeemable stock or redeemable debenture stock or any part thereof, and to empower the Company to redeem such stock or debenture stock by either or both of such methods, and at or after a fixed date or before such date.

To authorize the directors of the Company from time to time, after providing for the payment of interest on any mortgages, bonds and debenture stock and dividend on any preference stock of the Company and providing for other fixed charges and obligations, to set apart out of revenue such sums, either annual or otherwise, as they may consider necessary to provide for the redemption of any redeemable stock or debenture stock and to enable the directors to accumulate and hold the sums so provided, and to invest the same and the resulting income, and to apply the fund so accumulated in the purchase from time to time for cancellation or the redemption of such redeemable stock or debenture stock.

The Bill will or may effect the foregoing objects with respect to the creation and issue of redeemable stock or debenture stock either by express enactment or by application of or reference to the provisions of the Statutory Companies (Redeemable Stock) Act, 1915.

To make further provisions with respect to the maximum rate of dividend or interest to which any preference stock or debenture stock authorized by the Newcastle-upon-Tyne and Gateshead Gas Acts, 1896 and 1901, or by any other existing Act of the Company, and not created or created and not issued shall be entitled and to increase the rates of dividend and interest on such preference stock and debenture stock as limited by the said Acts or any of them and otherwise to amend the provisions of the said Acts or any of them so far as may be necessary for any of the purposes aforesaid.

To provide that notwithstanding anything contained in any Act relating to the Company or any enactment incorporated therewith stock forming part of the capital of the Company or any debenture stock of the Company may be transferred in sums or multiples of one pound only, and to repeal or amend section 15 of the Newcastle-upon-Tyne and Gateshead Gas Act, 1864, section 9 of the Newcastle-upon-Tyne and Gateshead Gas Act, 1867, and any other provision contained in any Act of or relating to the Company which would prevent or interfere with the transfer of any such stock or debenture stock in the manner aforesaid.

To provide for and authorize the closing of the books of the Company in which transfers of debenture stock are registered for such period prior to the dates for payment of half-yearly interest on the debenture stock of the Company as may be prescribed by the intended Act.

To provide that any notice to be served or given on behalf of the Company, and requiring to be signed by the secretary or other officer of the Company, shall be sufficiently authenticated if the name of the secretary or such other officer be added thereto in print, or if the name or signature of such secretary or officer be appended or reproduced by lithography or by means of a stamp or by any other mechanical means or mode of reproduction, and to provide that any such notice shall be sufficiently served or given if served or given personally or by post or by delivery or otherwise as may be prescribed by the intended Act.

To provide for and authorize the payment of the costs, charges, and expenses of and incidental to the preparing, applying for, obtaining and passing of the intended Act out of revenue or out of capital or partly by one of such modes and partly by the other.

To repeal, alter or amend or to re enact, with or without amendment, all or some of the provisions of the Newcastle-upon-Tyne and Gateshead Gas Acts, 1864, 1867, 1873, 1879, 1896 and 1901, and any other Act, whether general or special, relating directly or indirectly to the Company which would prevent or interfere with any of the objects hereinbefore referred to.

To confer upon the Company all such rights and privileges as may be deemed necessary for effecting the objects of the intended Act, and to vary and extinguish all rights and privileges which would interfere with any of those objects.

To incorporate, with or without amendment, or to render inapplicable, all or some of the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts; the Companies Clauses Acts, 1845 to 1889; the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1847; and the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1871.

Printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 17th day of December next.

Dated this 19th day of November, 1915.

FERNDALE GAS.

(Amendment of Ferndale Gas Order, 1883; Additional Capital and Borrowing Powers; Application of Capital Revenue and Funds; Reserve, Depreciation, Renewal and Special Purposes Funds; Reduction of Capital and Redemption of Shares and Stock and Formation of Redemption Fund; Financial Provisions; Dividends; Lands for Storage of Gas in Parish of Rhondda; Purchase, Sale and Retention of Lands; Breaking up of Streets, Roads and Footpaths; Amendment of Provisions in regard to Quality, Pressure and Testing of Gas; Calorific Standard for Gas Supplied; Regulation of Meters, Engines, Pipes and Fittings; Supply to Persons having a Separate Supply; Entry on Premises; Supply of Fittings, &c.; Charges for Gas; Differential Prices; Prepayment Meters; Cutting off Supplies; Supply of Gas in Bulk; Bye-laws and Regulations; Further Provisions affecting Consumers of Gas; Application, Incorporation and Repeal of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session by the Ferndale Gas Company Limited (hereinafter referred to as "the Company") for leave to bring in a Bill for all or some of the following purposes (that is to say):—

1. To repeal all limitations contained in the Ferndale Gas Order, 1883, confirmed by the Gas and Water Orders Confirmation Act, 1883. (which said Order is hereinafter referred to as "the Order of 1883"), upon the amount of the share capital of the Company for the purposes of their undertaking and upon the amount which the Company may borrow on mortgage upon the security of their undertaking, and to authorize the Company to raise additional capital by shares and stock, ordinary or preference or both, and by borrowing on mortgage, or by the creation and issue of debenture stock for the purposes of the Bill, to make provision as to the rights incident to the respective classes of shares and stock, mortgages and debentures, and as to the appointment of a receiver, and to empower the Company to issue any shares or stock forming part of the additional capital otherwise than by auction or tender, and to such persons in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as the Bill may prescribe.

2. To make provision as to the application of the capital, revenue and profits of the Company and the payment of dividends, to empower the Company to form and make special provisions with respect to reserve, depreciation, renewal and special purposes funds and other funds, and to provide for the application of the funds so formed, and for the investment of the moneys forming such funds, and of the interest to arise therefrom, to repeal the provisions of the Order of 1883 in regard to the maximum rate of interest to be paid by the Company on mortgages, debentures or debenture stock, and, if thought fit, to make provision for the payment of interim dividends or for the dividends on the capital of the Company being paid yearly or half-yearly, and for the closing of the transfer books of the Company in certain cases.

3. To enable the Company to make provision for the reduction of their capital and for the redemption of their ordinary or preference stock or shares, or some part thereof, whether issued before or after the passing of the intended Act, and if thought fit to set aside in order to form a redemption fund for those purposes such portion of their revenues and funds as may be prescribed or provided for by the intended Act, and for the application of such fund for the purchase of such stock or shares for redemption and cancellation in such manner and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed or provided for by the intended Act.

4. To empower the Company on the lands hereinafter described to construct, make, maintain, alter, enlarge and use or discontinue gasholders and other works for the storage of gas, and to authorize the Company to store gas on the said lands accordingly.

The lands hereinbefore referred to are as follows:—

All that piece or parcel of land in the parish of Rhondda (formerly the parish of Ystradfordwg) in the county of Glamorgan, containing in the whole two thousand four hundred and eighty-one square yards or thereabouts situate on the western side of the River Rhondda Fach and to the north-west of the land described in the Schedule to the Order of 1883, on which the existing gasworks of the Company are situate, and bounded on or towards the north by a school house and certain garden ground belonging or reputed to belong to the Rhondda Urban District Council, on or towards the west and south-west in part by certain waste land belonging or reputed to belong to D. Davis and Sons Limited and in part by a roadway leading from Station-road to the Company's gasworks, and on or towards the east by the said River Rhondda Fach.

5. To empower the Company, notwithstanding the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts and the Gasworks Clauses Acts, to sell, let on lease or retain and hold or otherwise deal with or dispose of any lands or interest in or reversion to any lands for the time being belonging to them upon such terms and conditions as they may think fit or as may be prescribed or authorized by the intended Act; to provide that sections 128 to 132 of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, shall not apply to the lands so sold or disposed of, and to authorize the Company on any such lands to erect and maintain and let houses, cottages and buildings for the use of their employees, servants and otherwise, and offices, showrooms and other buildings for the purposes of their undertaking.

6. To empower the Company by agreement to purchase, take on lease or otherwise acquire and to hold lands, houses, offices, showrooms and buildings and rights or easements in or over lands, houses and buildings, for and in connection with their undertaking, and also to appropriate or set apart and use for the purposes of the intended Act any lands from time to time belonging to or held by the Company, or to be acquired by or vested in them under the powers of the intended Act, and to erect and let houses, cottages, showrooms, offices and other buildings, and to sell, let or otherwise dispose of any lands, houses and buildings or other property.

7. To authorize the Company within their limits of supply to maintain, alter and renew or take up and discontinue any existing mains, pipes, tubes, wires and other works of the Company, and to lay down, make and maintain, and from time to time renew or discontinue new or additional mains, pipes, tubes, wires and other apparatus for the purpose of supplying gas, and of procuring, carrying or conveying oil, tar, pitch, asphaltum, sulphate of ammonia, ammoniacal liquor and all other products or residuum of any materials employed in or resulting from the manufacture of gas and other ancillary purposes, and to lay down, place, erect, maintain, renew or remove, either above or under ground mains, pipes, tubes, wires, apparatus, meters and other works and things requisite for supplying gas for motive or other power, or for heating or manufacturing purposes, or for lighting or for any other public or private purpose, for effecting telegraphic or telephonic communication between, to or from the Company's works, offices and other premises, or otherwise for carrying out the objects of the intended Act, and to open, break up, cross, divert, alter or stop up, remove and interfere with, whether temporarily or permanently, all such roads, highways, footpaths, public and private streets, sewers, drains, streams, bridges, railways and tramways, gas and water mains and pipes, telegraphic, telephonic, pneumatic, electric lighting and other tubes, pipes, lines, wires and apparatus as it may be necessary or convenient to pass along, cross, divert, alter or stop up and interfere with for the purposes of the Company for or in connection with the supply of gas or for the purposes of the intended Act.

8. To confer on the Company powers for and in relation to the laying down and maintaining of mains, pipes and apparatus in connection with the supply of gas in, along, across and under streets, roads, footways and places not dedicated to public use.

9. To make provision as regards and to prescribe the quality, calorific power or illuminating power and pressure of gas supplied by the Company, and as to the means and method and place of testing the same, to repeal the provisions of the Order of 1883 and (in their application to the Company) of the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1871, so far as they require the supply of gas of a prescribed illuminating power, and to exempt the Company from penalties in certain cases for insufficiency of pressure, defect of calorific power or excess of impurity in the gas supplied by them.

10. To empower the Company to inspect and examine meters, pipes, engines or fittings used or intended to be used for the conveyance or consumption of gas, and to prohibit the use and require the removal or alteration of meters, pipes and fittings of insufficient size or strength or likely to allow of an escape of gas, and to prescribe the material, size and strength of any meters, pipes and fittings so to be used, and to relieve the Company from any obligation to supply gas to premises in which the meters, pipes or fittings are defective or insufficient as aforesaid, and to empower the Company from time to time to make, vary and enforce bye-laws and regulations for or with respect to the matters aforesaid.

11. To make provision with respect to the supply by the Company of gas to persons having a separate supply of gas or electricity and as to the terms and conditions of such supply, and the minimum annual charges to be made by the Company in respect thereof and in respect of other supplies, and if deemed expedient to relieve the Company from obligations to supply such persons and premises.

12. To make provision for prescribing and regulating the position in which consumers' meters and pipes and fittings connected therewith shall be placed, and to empower the Company to inspect, prescribe and regulate such pipes and fittings, and to prohibit improper or insufficient pipes and fittings, and to enforce the use of anti-fluctuators or other apparatus in connection with gas engines, and to make provision for inspecting and testing the same at the cost of the consumer in certain cases.

13. To empower the Company and their officers and servants, where any person entering into occupation of premises previously supplied with gas by the Company does not require such supply, or where such supply has been or is about to be cut off or discontinued, to enter upon such premises and remove any apparatus, fittings or appliances belonging to the Company in such premises, and to cut off or disconnect such supply at the meter on the consumers' premises or elsewhere, to make provision as to notices to be given by the Company, and for the authentication thereof, and to make all such provisions with respect to such powers and for rendering the same effective as may be prescribed by the intended Act.

14. To empower the Company to manufacture, purchase, sell and let on hire or otherwise deal in, fix and repair or remove meters, pipes, fittings, engines, machines, stoves, ranges, lamps, burners, apparatus, appliances, articles and things incidental to the supply, use or consumption of gas, to provide for the recovery of remuneration, rents and charges in respect thereof, and to exclude the same from liability to distress or to be taken in execution or in any proceedings in bankruptcy, and to provide that apparatus let on hire shall remain the property of the Company notwithstanding that it may be affixed to the soil.

15. To provide for the recovery of rates, rents and charges, differential and otherwise, to make provision as to proceedings with reference thereto, and to empower the Company to allow discounts or rebates for, on or in respect of such rents, rates and charges and the supply of gas, to alter existing rates, rents and charges, to vary the price of gas according to the purpose for which it is supplied, and to make agreements with reference to all or any of such matters, and to confer, vary and extinguish exemptions from the payment of rates, rents and charges.

16. To make provision for securing the payment of rates, rents and charges made by or owing to the Company and for the prepayment thereof in certain cases, and as to the charges to be made by the Company for gas supplied by means of prepayment meters and for the hire of such meters, and to empower the Company to refuse to supply persons in debt to the Company, and to require consumers to give notice in writing to the Company before connecting or disconnecting any gas meter or before quitting premises supplied with gas or discontinuing the consumption of gas, to relieve the Company of the obligation to supply gas in cases where the capacity of the main is insufficient or where a supply would interfere with the sufficiency of the supply of gas for domestic purposes and to limit and define the period within and in respect of which claims may be made and allowed in respect of defective measurement of gas.

17. To make further provision for the cutting off of supplies to consumers, and for the entry upon premises for that purpose, to enable the Company to disconnect service pipes at the meters on the consumers' premises or elsewhere and whether belonging to the consumer or the Company, to impose penalties for the reconnection of service pipes with such meters without the consent of the Company and to impose on occupiers the payment of the expenses of reconnecting a discontinued supply.

18. To empower the Company to supply gas in bulk or otherwise to local and other authorities, companies and persons within or beyond the limits of supply, and to enter into and carry into effect contracts and arrangements with reference to such supply.

19. To empower the Company from time to time to make, vary and rescind bye-laws, rules or regulations for the purpose of carrying into effect any of the provisions of the intended Act, to prescribe penalties for securing compliance with any such bye-laws, rules and regulations and any of the provisions of the intended Act, and to make provision for imposing, demanding and recovering penalties and for the application thereof.

20. To repeal, amend, vary and extend the provisions of the Order of 1883 so far as may be necessary for effecting the objects of the intended Act, and to incorporate with the said intended Act, or make applicable to the Company, and the undertaking, with such variations and exceptions as may be found necessary, all or some of the provisions of the Companies Clauses Acts, 1845 to 1889, the Gasworks Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1871, the Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, the Railways Clauses Act, 1863, and the Lands Clauses Acts and to provide that the intended Act shall be deemed to be a Special Act within the meaning of some or all of the said Acts, and the intended Act will or may amend the provisions of any Act now in force within the limits of supply of the Company or affecting the Company or their undertaking so far as may be necessary or expedient for carrying into effect the purposes of the intended Act.

21. To confer upon the Company all powers, rights, authorities and privileges which are or may become necessary for carrying the powers of the intended Act into effect, to make provision for the payment of the costs of the intended Act, to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which would in any manner impede or interfere with the objects and purposes aforesaid, and to confer other rights and privileges.

And notice is hereby given, that on or before the 17th day of December next printed copies of the Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 19th day of November, 1915.

(Acquisition by Uxbridge Gas Company of undertaking of Eton Gas Company; Financial and other Provisions incidental thereto; Creation of Stock and Vesting in Proprietors of Shares of Eton Gas Company; Cancellation of Shares; Dividends on Shares and Stock; Debts, Mortgages and Liabilities of Eton Gas Company; Extension to Enlarged Undertaking of Existing Provisions Relating to either Company; Extension of Limits of Supply; Definition of Limits; Differential Charges for Gas; Partial Repeal of Eton Gas Act, 1867; Compensation to Directors and Officers; Dissolution of Eton Gas Company; Breaking up of Streets; Laying of Mains for Conveyance of Gas in Urban District of Slough and Parishes of Langley Marish and Datchet; Lands for Storage of Gas; Compulsory Acquisition by and vesting in Uxbridge Company or Extinguishment of Lammass, Grazing and other Commonable Rights (if any) in respect of Lands in Parish of Eton Wick; Ascertainment of Compensation therefor; Entry on Premises of Consumers; Cutting off Supplies; Variation in Price of Gas according to purpose for which Supplied; Application of Funds and Increase of Capital and Borrowing Powers; Incorporation and Amendment of Acts; General and Incidental Provisions.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session by the Uxbridge Gas Company (hereinafter called "the Uxbridge Company") for leave to introduce a Bill for the following or some of the following among other purposes (that is to say):—

1. To transfer to and vest in or to provide for and authorize the transfer to and vesting in the Uxbridge Company, upon such date and under such conditions as may be prescribed by the Bill, of the undertaking (including all rights, powers, authorities and privileges and all rights of making, distributing and supplying gas, and all property, assets and effects, real and personal, including cash balances, reserve depreciation and replacement funds, investments, things in action, books, deeds, accounts, writings and other documents) of the Eton Gas Company (hereinafter referred to as "the Eton Company") or to authorize the Uxbridge Company to acquire and to provide for the sale and transfer to the Uxbridge Company of the said undertaking upon and subject to such terms and conditions and subject to such provisions with regard to the liabilities and obligations of the said Companies respectively or either of them as may be or may have been agreed between the Uxbridge Company and the Eton Company or as may be prescribed by the Bill.

2. To prescribe the consideration (whether in stock or other securities of the Uxbridge Company or in cash or partly in such stock or securities and partly in cash or otherwise) to be paid by the Uxbridge Company to the Eton Company or to the holders of the shares or other securities of that Company for or in respect of any such transfer and vesting or sale and transfer as aforesaid, and to make provisions for and with respect to the allocation of such consideration among such holders as aforesaid, and if thought fit to provide for the creation and issue to and vesting in such holders of shares or securities of the Uxbridge Company, and to require such holders to accept such last-mentioned stock or securities, together with any sum payable under the provisions of the intended Act in cash in substitution either wholly or in part for the shares or securities of the Eton Company held by them.

3. To make provision with respect to the holders of debentures, debenture stock, mortgages or other charges of the Eton Company and if thought fit to constitute such debentures, debenture stock, mortgages or other charges a charge upon the enlarged undertaking of the Uxbridge Company, ranking either pari passu with all or any of the existing debentures, debenture stock, mortgages or charges of the Uxbridge Company or in such other order as the Bill may prescribe or to provide for and authorize the redemption, discharge or payment off of such debentures, debenture stock, mortgages or other charges by the issue or grant of debentures, debenture stock or mortgages of the Uxbridge Company or by the payment of such pecuniary consideration as may be specified or provided for in the Bill or partly in one of those modes and partly in the other.

4. To provide that the books of the Eton Company shall be conclusive evidence of the holders of shares and debenture stock of the Eton Company, and to cancel or provide for the cancellation of all or any of the existing share capital of the Eton Company, and all or any of the existing debentures, debenture stock, mortgages or other charges of that Company, and to provide for and require the delivery up to the Uxbridge Company of certificates for debenture stock or bonds, debentures, mortgages and other securities of the Eton Company.

5. To make provision as to the payment by the Uxbridge Company of interest or dividends on the shares and debenture stocks of the Eton Company in respect of the half-year immediately preceding the date of transfer of the undertaking of the last-mentioned Company.

6. To authorize Trustees, Executors and other persons acting in a fiduciary capacity to accept and hold stock, debentures, debenture stock and other securities of the Uxbridge Company issued to them under the provisions of the intended Act, and to accept any sum payable as aforesaid in cash in substitution for shares, mortgages, debentures, debenture stock, or securities of the Eton Company or to continue to hold such shares, mortgages, debentures or debenture stock as a charge on the enlarged undertaking of the Uxbridge Company (as the case may be), and to provide that all references in transfers, deeds, wills, settlements or other documents or instruments to shares, mortgages, debentures, debenture stock, stock or securities of the Eton Company shall be construed as references to stock, debentures, debenture stock or securities of the Uxbridge Company, together with any sum payable in cash as aforesaid or to mortgages, debentures or debenture stock constituting a charge on the enlarged undertaking of the Uxbridge Company (as the case may be).

7. To make provision with respect to the debts and liabilities of and moneys due or accrued due to the Eton Company and the reserve, depreciation, insurance, renewal and other funds of that Company and the mode of application thereof.

8. To make provision as to the carrying on of the undertaking of the Eton Company between the date of the passing of the intended Act and the date of transfer of the said undertaking, and to impose such restrictions and limitations upon the powers of the Eton Company and the Directors thereof during that period as may be deemed fit.

9. To extend the limits of supply of the Uxbridge Company by including therein, amongst other parishes and places, the area comprised in the limits of supply of the Eton Company, to define the said area by reference to the existing local government areas and parishes or parts thereof, and to provide that the limits of supply of the Uxbridge Company shall include, in addition to the present area, the district and parishes and parts of parishes, all in the county of Buckingham, hereinafter described (that is to say):—

The urban district of Eton;

The parishes of Eton Wick and Boveney;

So much of the parish of Burnham as lies within half a mile in a northerly direction from the centre of the public road leading from Eton Wick to Dorney; and

That part of the parish of Dorney which does not form part of the limits of the Maidenhead Gas Company as defined by the Maidenhead Gas Act, 1876, except the detached part of the said parish; and to enable the Uxbridge Company to supply gas within the said extended limits, and to empower the Uxbridge Company to exercise therein, with or without modifications, all or some of the powers exercisable by them within their present limits of supply, including power to break up streets and roads, to levy and recover rates, rents and charges for the supply of gas and meters and apparatus used in the consumption of gas, and to exercise and enjoy therein or in respect thereof all or any of the rights, powers and privileges usually exercised and enjoyed by gas companies or as may be conferred upon the Uxbridge Company by the intended Act.

10. To extend and apply to the Uxbridge Company and their enlarged undertaking either in lieu of or in addition to or in extension of the provisions applying to that Company or to the Eton Company or their respective undertakings all or any of the provisions of the existing enactments of or relating to the Uxbridge Company and the Eton Company or either of them or their respective undertakings, and to empower the Uxbridge Company to exercise and enjoy with respect to their enlarged undertaking all or any of the powers, rights, privileges and exemptions conferred by such enactments, and all or any of the other powers, rights, privileges and exemptions of the Eton Company, and to make all such adaptations, extensions or modifications of any provisions so extended and applied as may be deemed necessary or expedient in order to render the same applicable to the Uxbridge Company and their enlarged undertaking, and to repeal any of the enactments relating to the Uxbridge Company for which enactments relating to the Eton Company may be substituted.

11. To make such special provisions (if any) as may be specified in the Bill with respect to the actual price to be charged for gas supplied by the Uxbridge Company within their extended area or any part or parts thereof, whether for public lighting or private lighting or any other purpose, and to authorize the charging at different rates or prices for gas supplied in different parts of the said area of supply.

12. To provide that any differential price so to be charged shall not be taken into account in ascertaining the rate of dividend payable by the Uxbridge Company upon their ordinary stock under the provisions applicable to that Company with respect to the sliding scale of price and dividend.

13. To make special provisions in regard to and to alter the illuminating power of the gas supplied in the limits of the Eton Company and the proposed extended limits of the Uxbridge Company, and to alter the prescribed apparatus and burner for the testing of gas.

14. To extend to and authorize the Uxbridge Company to exercise, or, if thought fit, to repeal all or any of the unexercised powers of the Eton Company of raising money by the creation and issue of capital or debenture stock or by borrowing.

15. To make provision for the transfer to the Uxbridge Company of all or any of the officers and servants of the Eton Company and with respect to the terms of their employment and to compensation and gratuities to officers and servants of the Eton Company removed from office, including, if thought fit, power at any time to commute or compound for any periodical payments to be made to such officers and servants by way of compensation or gratuity.

16. To provide for the payment of compensation to directors and officers of the Eton Company for loss of office.

17. To provide for the dissolution and winding-up of the Eton Company, and to make such other provisions with respect to or incidental to or consequential on the matters aforesaid, or any of them as may be deemed necessary or expedient, including provisions in regard to pending actions, subsisting contracts and the collection of outstanding debts.

18. To authorize the Uxbridge Company and the Eton Company to enter into and carry into effect agreements and arrangements for or with respect to all or any of the matters aforesaid, and to confirm any such agreements or arrangements which may have been entered into or may be entered into before the passing of the intended Act.

19. To empower the Uxbridge Company to form and make special provisions with respect to funds for purposes of repair, replacement, renewal or removal of plant, and for other special purposes and contingencies.

20. To authorize the Uxbridge Company within the limits of supply as extended by the intended Act and within the urban district of Slough and the rural district of Eton to maintain, alter and renew or take up and discontinue any existing mains, pipes, tubes, wires and other works of the Uxbridge Company or the Eton Company, and to lay down, make and maintain and from time to time renew or discontinue new or additional mains, pipes, tubes, wires and other apparatus for the purpose of supplying gas and of procuring, carrying or conveying oil, tar, pitch, asphaltum, sulphate of ammonia, ammoniacal liquor and all other products or residuum of any materials employed in or resulting from the manufacture of gas and other ancillary purposes, and to lay down, place, erect, maintain, renew or remove either above or under ground mains, pipes, tubes, wires, apparatus, meters and other works and things requisite for supplying gas for motive and other power or for heating or manufacturing purposes or for lighting or for any other public or private purpose, for effecting telegraphic or telephonic communication between, to or from the Uxbridge Company's works, offices or other premises or otherwise for carrying out the objects of the intended Act, and to open, break up, cross, divert, alter or stop up, remove and interfere with, whether temporarily or permanently, all such roads, highways, footpaths, public and private streets, sewers, drains, streams, bridges, railways and tramways, gas and water mains and pipes, telegraphic, telephonic, pneumatic, electric lighting and other tubes, pipes, lines, wires and apparatus as it may be necessary or convenient to pass along, cross, divert, alter or stop up and interfere with for the purposes of the Uxbridge Company for or in connection with the supply of gas or for the purposes of the intended Act.

21. To empower the Uxbridge Company for the purpose of conveying gas from their existing limits of supply to the parishes and places referred to in paragraph 9 of this notice to lay down, maintain, repair and renew a main or mains, (a) In the Parish of Langley Marish:—Along the road leading from Market-lane, Iver, past Langley Place and St. Bernard's Convent to Slough; (b) In the Urban District of Slough:—Along High-street from the boundary of the Parish of Langley Marish as far as Datchet-road and along Datchet-road to the boundary of the Parish of Datchet; (c) In the Parish of Datchet:—Along the public footpath leading from Slough-road to Datchet-lane at the boundary of the Eton Urban District, and to extend and apply to the said mains and the laying down, maintenance, repair and renewal thereof, the provisions of the Acts and Orders relating to the Uxbridge Company and the provisions of the Gasworks Clauses Acts with respect to the breaking up of streets.

22. To empower the Uxbridge Company to hold and use the lands hereinafter described and thereon or on any part thereof to store gas and to make, maintain, alter, enlarge and use or discontinue gasholders and other works for the storage of gas (that is to say):—

A piece of land in the parish of Eton Wick in the rural district of Eton, containing 2 acres and 1 rood or thereabouts bounded on the north-west for a distance of 139 yards or thereabouts by the Windsor branch of the Great Western Railway, on the west in two lines (measuring 62 yards and 54 yards or thereabouts respectively in length) by the north-eastern and south-eastern boundaries of land belonging to the Eton Urban District Council used as sewage works, on the south by the occupation road leading under the said railway to Eton Cottage, on the south-east by an imaginary line drawn approximately parallel to the said railway from a point on the northern side of the said occupation road 67 yards or thereabouts east of the said railway for a distance of 191 yards or thereabouts to a point 66 yards or thereabouts in a south-easterly direction from a point on the said railway 203 yards or thereabouts from the northern side of the said occupation road, and on the north-east by an imaginary line drawn for a distance of 66 yards or thereabouts between the two points last mentioned.

23. To provide for the acquisition by and vesting in the Uxbridge Company or the extinguishment of all lammas, grazing and other commonable rights (if any) exercisable by the inhabitants or tenants of the Manors of Etoncum-Stockdales and Colenorton over and in respect of the lands in the parish of Eton Wick containing 2 acres and 1 rood or thereabouts described in the last preceding paragraph of this Notice.

24. To empower the Uxbridge Company to purchase and acquire the said lammas, grazing and other commonable rights (if any) (all of which are hereinafter referred to as "the said rights"), or to extinguish the same by agreement or compulsorily upon such terms and conditions and in such manner as may be defined in the Bill.

25. To provide for the appointment of an arbitrator to determine all questions of compensation arising out of the vesting of the said rights in the Uxbridge Company or the extinguishment thereof, and to fix the purchase money or consideration to be paid to the owners and parties interested in the said rights in respect thereof.

26. To fix and regulate the procedure of such arbitrator and the subject matters of his award, and to establish all necessary machinery for the hearing and adjudication of matters referred to him and to make such further and other provision as may be necessary to vest the lands hereinbefore described in the Uxbridge Company freed and discharged from all lammas, grazing and other commonable rights (if any) exercisable over or in respect thereof.

27. To repeal the Eton Gas Act, 1867, or such part or parts thereof as may be thought fit, and to continue in force, and to enable the Uxbridge Company to exercise the powers of the said Act so far as regards the maintenance, construction, alteration and discontinuance of the gasworks of the Eton Company on the lands described in the Schedule to the said Act, and notwithstanding anything in the said Act with respect to the limits within which the Eton Company may supply gas to empower the Uxbridge Company to supply in any part of their extended limits of supply any gas manufactured by them under or by virtue of the powers of the said Act.

28. To make further provision in regard to matters incidental to the undertaking of the Uxbridge Company, including the following:—The regulation of pipes, meters and fittings on consumers' premises; amending the obligations of the Uxbridge Company to give a supply of gas for certain purposes where the capacity of the main is insufficient, or if and so long as any such supply would interfere with the supply for lighting purposes; to enable the Uxbridge Company to enter premises of consumers for certain purposes, and to make further provision for the cutting off of supplies to consumers, and to impose on the occupier the payment of the expenses of connecting a disconnected supply; closing of transfer books previous to declaring half-yearly dividends; empowering the Uxbridge Company to vary the price of gas according to the purposes for which it is supplied, and to enter into contracts for supplying gas for public purposes; appointment of a managing director; authentication and service of notices by the Uxbridge Company, and the recovery of penalties and demands.

29. To empower the Uxbridge Company to apply to the purposes of the intended Act their existing funds and capital and to increase the existing capital and borrowing powers of that Company for the said purposes and for the general purposes of their undertaking or to authorize the said Company to raise for the said purposes additional capital by the creation and issue of new shares or stock either with or without preference, priority or guarantee in payment of interest or dividend or other special privileges, and by borrowing on mortgage and by the creation and issue of debentures or debenture stock whether forming one and the same class with any existing debentures or debenture stock of the Uxbridge Company or otherwise or by any of those means.

30. To empower the Uxbridge Company to raise any sum payable under the provisions of the intended Act in cash by selling or issuing to any person willing to subscribe for the same any of their shares, stock, debentures, or debenture stock so created as aforesaid at such price as the said Company or the directors thereof may think fit.

31. To authorize the Uxbridge Company if they think fit to raise the whole or any part of the said additional capital by the creation and issue of additional amounts of any existing stock or debenture stock ranking pari passu therewith.

32. To remove all statutory limits upon the rate of interest to be paid by the Uxbridge Company on mortgages or debenture stock.

33. The intended Act will vary and extinguish all rights and privileges which would interfere with the objects thereof, and confer such rights and privileges as may be necessary for the purposes aforesaid.

34. The Bill will or may extend and apply to or incorporate with itself the provisions of the Railways Clauses Act, 1863, relating to amalgamation and of the Lands Clauses Acts, the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, the Companies Clauses Act, 1863, and any Act amending the same, with such variations (if any) as may be deemed necessary or expedient, and will or may repeal, alter or amend all or any of the provisions of the Uxbridge Gas Act, 1861, and all or any other Acts of or relating to the Uxbridge Company, the Eton Gas Act, 1867, and all or any other Acts of or relating to the Eton Company.

35. The Bill will or may also incorporate and apply with or without variations or render inapplicable or amend, alter or repeal all or any of the provisions of the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1847, the Sale of Gas Act, 1859, the Sale of Gas Act (Amendment) Act, 1860, and the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1871.

Duplicate plans showing the lands over and in respect of which the said rights are to be acquired by and vested in the Uxbridge Company or extinguished under the powers of the intended Act and a book of reference to such plans and a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette will, on or before the 30th November instant, be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Buckingham, at his office at Aylesbury, and on or before the same day a copy of the said plan and book of reference and a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette will be deposited with the Clerk to the Rural District Council of Eton, at his office, and with the Clerk to the Parish Council of Eton Wick, at his office, or if there be no clerk to the said Parish Council with the Chairman of such Council at his residence.

Printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 17th day of December next.

Dated this 17th day of November, 1915.

In Parliament—Session 1916.

CANADA COMPANY.

(Staying of Winding-up of Company; Extension of Powers and Objects of Company Generally. Issue to Existing Shareholders as Fully Paid-up of Shares of Unissued Capital; Extension of Powers of Company in relation to its Capital; Incidental Provisions as to Capital, Management, Meetings, Accounts, &c., of Company; Capital Recoupment Fund; Re-enactment Amendment, Repeal and Variation of Charter, Acts, Bye-laws, &c.)

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session by the Canada Company (hereinafter called "the Company") for an Act for all or some of the following purposes (that is to say):—

1. To stay the winding-up of the Company and to authorize the Company to carry on their business as a going concern as if the resolution of the proprietors of the Company for such winding-up had not been passed to affirm the validity of any act, matter, or thing done in pursuance of such resolution, and subject thereto to rescind or render of no validity the same resolution or to make such other provision in lieu thereof, or with reference thereto as may be prescribed or provided for by or under the intended Act.

2. To extend, vary and enlarge the powers and objects of the Company, and particularly, but not exclusively, to empower the Company to acquire, hold, sell, exchange, alienate, dispose of, enjoy, work, stock, make merchantable and sell the produce of and otherwise utilize and turn to account in any way lands, waterlots, coalfields, mines, metals, minerals, mineral oil, natural gas, quarries and other rights, easements, rights and interests in lands, and to conduct any mining, mineral, pastoral, agricultural, trading, commercial, financial and other operations in the Dominion of Canada or any other Colony or Dependency of the British Empire and elsewhere, and generally to turn to account the Company's property, rights or interests, and to provide that the Company's Charter and the intended Act shall extend to all such Colonies as aforesaid, and be a Public Act and judicially recognised therein, and to make all convenient, usual, incidental or consequential provisions in relation to any such matters.

3. To empower the Company to acquire, construct, equip, purchase, maintain, improve or alter, turn to account and deal in, charter, hire, work and use railways, tramways, ships and other vessels, engineering, electrical, freezing, gas and coke and other works, abattoirs, wharves, docks, bridges, roads, buildings, or erections, and other works and conveniences as may be requisite or expedient for the purposes of the Company, in or in connection with any lands or easements or rights belonging to them, or the development thereof, or of the mineral and other resources of their property, or for the purposes of the Company's business or otherwise.

4. To empower the Company to purchase, subscribe for, take, acquire, hold, lend on or deal in stocks, shares, debentures, debenture stock or other securities or other interests of any company, corporation, association or society having objects wholly or partly similar to those of the Company, and to promote any companies for the purpose of acquiring or carrying on, facilitating or assisting any business of the Company or any part or parts of the undertaking of the Company, to amalgamate the undertaking of the Company with that of any other company, and to purchase undertakings of other companies or interests therein, or to sell the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof, or any rights or interests therein, for cash or shares or other security or consideration, and on such terms as the Company may consider expedient.

5. To authorize the Company to invest and lend moneys in and on such securities and in such manner and to such persons as may be prescribed or allowed by the intended Act, and to make payments for property acquired or services rendered or for any other consideration in shares or debentures, whether fully or partly paid up or credited as fully or partly paid up or other securities, to draw, accept and discount bills of exchange and promissory notes, to borrow money on loans and on such security as the Company shall think fit, to obtain advances, to act as rent collectors and agents, and to distribute assets in specie and generally to do all such things, and to undertake and carry on any business or operation which the Company or their Directors may consider incidental or conducive to the attainment of any objects of the Company, or capable of being conveniently carried on in connection therewith, or likely, directly or indirectly, to enhance or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights or to be of advantage to the Company.

6. To confer upon the Company, in addition to any existing powers already possessed by it under its Charter and existing Acts, all such other powers in relation to the conduct of its business and the management and turning to account of its property or affairs as may be required or usually exerciseable or convenient to be exercised by companies carrying on similar businesses, or as may be provided by the intended Act.

7. To provide for the fixing and regulation of the capital of the Company, and for the allotment and issue to the existing holders of shares of the Company of shares in the original capital of the Company remaining unissued, and for the allotment and issue of such shares credited as fully paid up, and in such manner and with such rights, obligations and incidents attached thereto as may be prescribed by or under the intended Act, and to provide for the subdivision of the unissued shares in the original share capital of the Company.

8. To authorize the Company or its Directors to issue any unissued shares forming part of the original capital of the Company, with or without such guarantee, preference, priority, rights, privileges, deferred rights or restrictions as may be thought expedient, and to issue the same at or below par or at a premium, and generally to such persons on such terms and with and subject to such provisions and incidents as may be prescribed by or provided for by, under or in pursuance of any provisions of the intended Act.

9. To authorize and provide for the reduction of the capital of the Company from time to time, in such manner and subject to such provisions and incidents as may be provided for by the intended Act.

10. To authorize and provide for the conversion of fully paid shares of the Company into stock, the re-conversion of stock into shares, and the consolidation of shares into shares of larger amount, as and when from time to time thought expedient with and subject to such provisions and incidents as may be provided for by the intended Act, and to define or provide for the determination by the Company or the Directors of the rights, privileges and incidents attaching to any shares or stock resulting from any such process as aforesaid, including participation in dividends or capital, voting, transfer, registration or transfers, and all other matters, and to provide for the application to stock of the provisions of the intended Act and the regulations for the time being of the Company which are applicable to paid-up shares.

11. Generally to empower the Company to re-arrange or re-organise its capital in any manner provided for by the intended Act.

12. To empower and require trustees and others holding any existing shares in the capital of the Company in a representative or fiduciary capacity to accept, hold, dispose of or otherwise deal with any shares issued to them or shares resulting from the conversion of or substituted for such existing shares under or by virtue of the intended Act, and to indemnify them against all liability in respect of all acts bonâ fide done in pursuance of the provisions of the intended Act.

13. To provide that the shares allotted and issued or resulting from the conversion of, or substituted for, the existing shares of the Company by or under the intended Act shall be held in the same rights on the same trusts and subject to the same powers, provisions, charges and liabilities as the shares in respect of which the same shall be issued or from which they result, or for which they may be substituted; were held before or immediately before such issue, conversion or substitution, and so as to give effect to and not revoke any deed, will or other instrument or disposition disposing of or affecting the existing shares, and that such shares are to be or may be accepted and dealt with by persons holding existing shares in a fiduciary capacity in the same manner as such existing shares, with all proper indemnities and other provisions.

14. To empower the Company to raise further capital and funds by borrowing or to borrow for temporary purposes on mortgage or bond or otherwise, or by the issue of debentures or debenture stock or floating or other charges with such rights, privileges, preferences and priorities as may be thought fit, or in such other manner and with or without security as may be defined, provided for or authorized by or under the intended Act, and within any limits therein prescribed, and to define and regulate the forms of security which may be given, the priorities of such securities, and the powers and remedies which may be made exercisable by the Company or the lender in relation to any such borrowing or security and generally the provisions which are to be applicable in relation to any of the matters aforesaid.

15. To define the principles upon which and the funds, moneys or property out of which dividends may be paid or distributed and the powers of the Company generally in relation to the distribution of its profits, the maintenance and setting aside of reserve funds, the manner in which the purposes for which and the investments in which reserve funds may or are to be accumulated, applied, employed or invested, and any other kindred matters, and to make and provide for the making of regulations with respect to all or any of the matters aforesaid.

16. To authorize the Company or its Directors to set aside or appropriate to such extent and in such manner as may be prescribed or provided for by the intended Act any moneys received by or on behalf of the Company from the sale, disposal or conversion of lands or interests or rights therein for the purpose of forming a capital recoupment fund or a fund applicable for the payment off of any principal or interest due from the Company by means of a sinking fund or otherwise or for the redemption of any debenture or other debt, liability or security of or granted or issued by the Company, or to answer or make good any capital loss or depreciation, and to make all necessary or suitable provisions as to the provision, use and investment of the moneys forming or standing to the credit of any such fund and the maintenance of any such fund and the purposes for which the same is to be applicable and to confer upon the Company or its Directors all such other powers, rights or authorities and to make all other necessary, consequential or incidental provisions as may be thought desirable in relation to any such matters.

17. To provide for the different modes in which the Directors, attorneys and agents of the Company may make contracts or engagements on its behalf, and as to the operation, validity and effect of such contracts or engagements and the modes in which they may be varied or discharged in Great Britain and abroad and as to the law to be applicable thereto and the incidents and formalities to affect the same or be adopted in regard thereto, and for the making and revocation of powers of attorney or other authorities for the execution of deeds abroad on behalf of the Company, and as to their operation, validity and effect and generally as to the use of the Company's seal or other seals on behalf of the Company in Great Britain or abroad.

18. To empower the Company from time to time and with or subject to any such formalities or conditions as the intended Act may prescribe, to alter, amend, extend or enlarge any of the powers and objects of the Company as defined by the intended Act.

19. To make provision for and with respect to the regulation and management of the affairs of the Company, the convening and holding of and voting at meetings of the Company, and the business and proceedings to be transacted thereat, the proprietorship of, title to, and registration of, voting and other rights attaching to, transfer and transmission of, calls on certificates and forfeiture of stock or shares of the Company, the constitution, appointment, removal, qualification, disqualification, rotation, remuneration, retirement, powers, duties, rights, privileges, liabilities, indemnity, meetings, proceedings, votes and resolutions of directors (including the governor and deputy governor) and committees of directors, commissioners, local boards, local directors, trustees, auditors, officers, servants, attorneys, agents, and others employed by or acting on behalf of the Company, the keeping and signing of minutes of proceedings at meetings of the Company and the directors, the accounts of the Company and the auditing thereof, and notices to be served by or on behalf of the Company, and generally to provide for the regulation and administration of the Company's business and affairs, and to provide for the winding up and dissolution of the Company, in such manner and with such formalities, incidents and consequences as the intended Act may prescribe, and for the procedure in relation thereto, and to make all or any incidental or convenient provisions with reference thereto, and to empower the directors in the event of a resolution being passed for the dissolution of the Company to petition the Court for the time being having jurisdiction in England to wind up Companies, in the name of the Company or otherwise, that the Company be wound up by and under the jurisdiction of that Court.

20. To make provision for the repeal, variation, modification, alteration or extension of any regulations or bye-laws of the Company for the time being in force, in such manner and subject to such conditions or formalities as may be prescribed by the intended Act.

21. To make provision with respect to the conditions and formalities applicable to the passing and confirmation of resolutions which under the terms of the intended Act are required to be passed and confirmed at successive meetings, the convening and holding of the meetings, the majorities required thereat, and otherwise in regard thereto.

22. To make all such other provisions and regulations as may be deemed necessary or desirable for all or any of the purposes aforesaid, and the conduct of the business of the Company and for effecting the objects of the intended Act, or the better management of the Company's undertaking, and to empower the Company or the directors to make and provide for the enforcement of bye-laws and regulations for or relating to the management of the Company and to provide that the intended Act shall be judicially recognised in all Colonies.

23. To vary and extinguish all rights, powers, and privileges inconsistent with or which would in any way interfere with the purposes of the intended Act, and to confer other rights and privileges, and to provide for the costs, charges and expenses of the intended Act.

24. To repeal the subsisting bye-laws of the Company without prejudice to the validity of the Company's Royal Charter of the 19th August, 1826, or of any instrument, contract, appointment, sale, purchase, act or thing properly executed, entered into, made or done under the said charter, or any of the Acts or bye-laws of or relating to the Company, and to provide that the said charter and all such instruments, contracts, appointments, sales, purchases, acts and things shall (subject to and except so far as the same may be varied by or inconsistent with the provisions of the intended Act) have the same validity, force and effect, as if the intended Act had not been passed.

25. To repeal, re-enact, consolidate, alter, vary, modify, amend, or enlarge the Company's Royal Charter, the provisions of the Acts following or some of them (that is to say) 6 Geo. 4 c. 75, 9 Geo. IV. c. 51, 19 & 20 Vic. c. 23, and the Canada Company's Amendment Act, 1881, and any other Act relating to the Company.

And notice is hereby further given, that printed copies of the intended Act will on or before the 17th day of December next be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 18th day of November, 1915.

Repeal, Amendment, &c., of Acts; General and Incidental Provisions.)

To authorize and provide for the establishment, maintenance and management by the Company of the business of distillation of tar and the utilisation of tar and other products directly or indirectly arising in or resulting from the manufacture or production of gas or the distillation of tar, and to authorize the Company to acquire, establish, carry on and maintain works at which tar may be distilled and at which tar and other products, directly or indirectly arising in or resulting from the manufacture or production of gas or the distillation of tar by the Company or by other companies, local authorities, bodies or persons may be utilised or treated, and to authorize the Company to purchase from any other company, local authority, body or person any such products as aforesaid (other than tar) and to enter into and carry into effect agreements with reference to the utilisation, treatment and disposal thereof, products obtained from the distillation of tar, and to enter into and carry into effect agreements with reference to the matters aforesaid or any of them.

To enable the Company and any other company, local authority, body or person supplying gas or producing tar within the counties of Devon and Cornwall or either of them to enter into agreements with reference to the purchase by the Company of tar or other products as aforesaid and for the carrying on of such undertaking or business upon a co-operative principle either by the Company alone or by the Company and any such other company, local authority, body or person jointly.

To authorize the Company to enter into and carry into effect contracts and agreements with any other such company, body or person, and if thought fit to define the terms and conditions upon which any such contracts or agreements may be entered into or which they may contain.

To confer further powers upon the Company with reference to the working up, conversion and utilisation of tar and of residual products arising directly or indirectly from the manufacture of gas or the distillation of tar and of similar products arising from other manufactures or processes, and to authorize the Company to manufacture other products therefrom or wholly or partly by means thereof, and to sell or otherwise dispose of any of such residual products and products manufactured therefrom or by means thereof.

To empower the Company to carry on any such business or undertaking as aforesaid with or as part of the existing undertaking of the Company.

To authorize the Company to acquire by agreement the lands hereinafter described, together with the tar distillery works and other buildings, machinery, plant, works, conveniences, materials and stores on the said lands, and the business carried on by the executors of the will of the late Thomas Henry Harvey.

The said lands are situate in the parish and county borough of Plymouth, and comprise—

Firstly.—Lands belonging or reputed to belong to and occupied by the representatives of the said Thomas Henry Harvey, deceased, and bounded on the south-east by a yard in the occupation of Messrs. Sparrow and Co., on the east and north-east by the Cattedown Branch of the London and South-Western Railway Company, on the west and south-west by the Cattewater, and on the north-west by the south-easterly boundary of lands belonging or reputed to belong to the trustees of John Bayly, deceased.

Secondly.—Lands belonging or reputed to belong partly to the said trustees of John Bayly, deceased, and partly to the trustees of the Sparrow Estate, bounded on the south-easterly side by the north-westerly boundary of the lands hereinbefore described, on the north-west by a yard owned by the trustees of John Bayly, deceased, and occupied by Messrs. Caldwell and Almond, on the north-east by the Cattedown branch of the London and South-Western Railway Company, and on the west or south-west by the Cattewater.

Thirdly.—Lands known as the Higher Yard and the Breeze Yard belonging or reputed to belong to the trustees of the Sparrow Estate and occupied by the representatives of the said Thomas Henry Harvey, deceased, and situate on the east side of the roadway leading to the wharves at Cattedown and bounded on the south and west by the said roadway and on the north and east by the cliffs.

To empower the Company on the said lands to erect, maintain and use works for the manufacture, storage and supply of gas and to manufacture and store gas.

To empower the Company on the said lands to carry on (if and so far as they may think fit) the works and business to be acquired by them from the representatives of the said Thomas Henry Harvey, deceased, and to enter into and carry on the business of tar distillation, and also on the said lands or any part or parts thereof to manufacture, work up, convert, and utilise, store and deal with materials used in the manufacture of gas and tar and products directly or indirectly arising in or resulting from the manufacture of gas or distillation of tar and similar products arising in or resulting from other manufactures or processes, and to manufacture other products therefrom or wholly or partly by means thereof, and to continue, erect, maintain and to provide and use buildings, machinery, plant, and apparatus for the purposes aforesaid.

To authorize the Company to enter into and carry into effect agreements with the representatives of the said Thomas Henry Harvey and to confirm and sanction or to provide for the confirmation and sanction of any agreement which may have been or may be entered into by the Company with the said representatives.

To enable the Company to acquire lands by agreement and to enable the Company, notwithstanding anything contained in the existing Acts of the Company hereinafter referred to or any of them or in the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1871, or the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, to hold or to sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of as they may think fit any lands acquired or which may be acquired by them and which may not be required for the purposes of the intended Act or their undertaking, and to empower the Company to exercise such powers free from any restrictions or obligations imposed upon them by those Acts or any of them.

To enable the Company to purchase, erect, let or take on lease and to furnish and equip dwelling-houses for persons in their employ, and offices, show-rooms, and other buildings for the purposes of their undertaking.

To repeal, alter or amend the existing provisions of the Plymouth and Stonehouse Gas Acts, 1855, 1879, 1894, 1898 and 1903, and any Act incorporated therewith relating to the testing of the illuminating power of gas and the liability of or obligations on the Company in respect of the illuminating power of the gas supplied by them.

To render inapplicable to the Company the provisions relating to the matters lastly hereinbefore mentioned of the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1871, and any other general enactment.

To make new provisions with regard to the testing of gas supplied by the Company and to provide for the testing of the gas so supplied in reference to the calorific value thereof in lieu of and in substitution for the testing in reference to the illuminating power thereof, to prescribe the standard calorific value, and to prescribe or make provisions with reference to the apparatus to be used for testing the calorific value, and the methods of making tests, and to impose obligations and liabilities upon the Company in connection with the maintenance of a standard calorific value, and to subject the Company to penalties in certain circumstances.

To authorize the Company to discontinue any existing testing place and to remove therefrom any apparatus for testing the illuminating power of gas and to relieve the Company from all or any obligations as to the provision, maintenance, or user of such testing places and apparatus and to make such other provisions (if any) as may be deemed expedient with respect to the provision, maintenance and user of testing places and apparatus for testing the calorific value of the gas supplied by the Company.

To authorize the Company to place, lay down, repair, maintain, inspect, renew and extend mains, pipes and apparatus in streets within their limits of supply which are laid out but not dedicated to public use, and for those purposes to open and break up such streets and to make applicable and authorize the Company to exercise all or any of the rights or powers exercisable by them with respect to the laying of mains, pipes and apparatus in public streets.

To enable the Company subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to the laying of pipes, to lay down pipes and works in any street, road or highway, and to use the same for any purposes ancillary to their undertaking, or for the purposes of the intended Act.

To make provisions with reference to the pipes and other works between the main of the Company and the meter of the consumer, and for prescribing and regulating the position in which consumers' meters and pipes and fittings connected therewith shall be placed and the size, materials and other matters with respect to such pipes and fittings, and to empower the Company to inspect, prescribe and regulate such pipes and fittings, and to prohibit improper or insufficient pipes and fittings, and to make and enforce by penalty or otherwise by-laws and regulations with respect to any of the matters aforesaid.

To require the use by any consumer of gas supplied by the Company of a proper anti-fluctuator in respect of any gas engines used by him.

To prescribe in the case of defective meters the period or periods over which such meters shall be deemed to have been defective and to make provision with respect to allowances to be made by the Company to the consumer or surcharge to be made on the consumer and the recovery thereof.

To enable the Company (in substitution for or in addition to any other powers in that behalf now exercisable by them) to purchase, manufacture, provide, supply, sell, let and deal in meters, dynamos, stoves, heating and other apparatus and any fittings used in or connected with the supply or utilization of gas, and to make such provisions as may be necessary to secure that any such fittings when let on hire or installed under a hire purchase agreement in respect of which any instalment of purchase money shall remain unpaid shall remain the property of the Company in cases of distress for rent, bankruptcy, execution or otherwise.

To make such provisions as may be necessary to secure that engines and other plant, stoves and fittings let for hire by the Company or installed under a hire purchase agreement in respect of which any instalment of purchase money shall remain unpaid and affixed or fastened to the soil or to any part of the premises in which they are situate shall remain the property of the Company and not become part of the freehold of such premises or belong to the owner of such premises or pass to any grantee, mortgagee, assignee, lessee or other person claiming through or under such owner.

To make provision with respect to the supply by the Company of gas to persons or premises having a separate supply of gas or electricity, and as to the terms and conditions of such supply, including the payment of a minimum annual charge, and if deemed expedient to relieve the Company from obligation to supply in the case of such persons and premises and in certain other cases and circumstances to be provided for or prescribed by the intended Act.

To empower the Company to refuse to supply persons in debt to the Company, to require consumers to give notice in writing to the Company before connecting or disconnecting any gas meter or before quitting premises supplied with gas or discontinuing the consumption of gas, and to make provision as to the form and method of service and authentication of notices given by or on behalf of the Company and the recovery of penalties imposed by the Acts relating to the Company or any of them.

To empower the Company and their officers and servants where any person entering into occupation of premises previously supplied with gas by the Company does not require or take or is not entitled to such supply to enter upon such premises and remove any apparatus, fittings and appliances belonging to the Company in such premises.

To empower the Company to supply gas in bulk or otherwise to local and other authorities, bodies, companies, and persons within or beyond the limits of supply of the Company and to enter into and fulfil contracts and agreements with reference to such supply.

To enable the Company to apply their corporate funds and revenues for all or any of the purposes of the intended Act and to empower the Company to raise additional capital for those and other purposes of their undertaking either by increase of any class or classes of ordinary or preference stock or shares or by the creation of new stock or shares either ordinary, guaranteed or preferential, and by borrowing upon mortgage or by the creation and issue of debenture stock or by any one or more of those methods, and to attach to any such new stock, shares, mortgages or debenture stock, such preference or priority of interest or dividends, rights of voting or other rights or advantages as the intended Act may define and to prescribe, regulate or provide for the dividends or interest to be paid on the same.

To provide that any preference stock or debenture stock which has been created under the Plymouth and Stonehouse Gas Acts, 1898 and 1903, or either of those Acts, but not issued, or which is authorized by those Acts to be created and issued, and any preference stock or debenture stock to be created under the powers sought by the Bill, may be created and issued as redeemable stock or redeemable debenture stock on such terms and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed in or provided for by the Bill or as may be prescribed in a resolution or resolutions of the Company, and to empower the Company from time to time for the purpose of redeeming such redeemable stock or redeemable debenture stock to create and issue other stock or debenture stock either redeemable or otherwise of such nominal amount as may be necessary for providing the moneys required for redemption or for the purpose of substitution for any such redeemable stock or redeemable debenture stock or any part thereof and to empower the Company to redeem such stock or debenture stock by either or both of such methods and at or after a fixed date or before such date.

To authorize the directors of the Company from time to time after providing for the payment of interest on any mortgages, bonds and debenture stock and dividend on any preference stock of the Company and providing for other fixed charges and obligations, to set apart out of revenue such sums either annual or otherwise as they may consider necessary to provide for the redemption of any redeemable stock or debenture stock and to enable the directors to accumulate and hold the sums so provided and to invest the same and the resulting income and to apply the fund so accumulated in the purchase from time to time for cancellation or the redemption of such redeemable stock or debenture stock.

The Bill will or may effect the foregoing objects with respect to the creation and issue of redeemable stock or debenture stock either by express enactment or by application with or without modification of the provisions or some of the provisions of the Statutory Companies (Redeemable Stock) Act, 1915.

To authorize the Company to create and apply stock or debentures or bonds as consideration for the purchase of any lands or business which they may acquire under the intended Act and to relieve the Company from any obligation to sell or dispose of such stock, debentures or bonds by auction or tender.

The Bill may provide for constituting the capital to be raised thereunder a separate capital and may exclude such capital from the operation of the provisions of the Company's Acts requiring capital to be sold by auction and may increase the proportion of borrowed money to share capital or stock prescribed by the existing Acts of the Company, and may make special provisions differing from those usually applicable to or to the raising of capital or borrowing of money by gas companies or to the payment of dividend or interest.

To provide for and authorize the payment of the costs, charges and expenses of and incidental to the preparing, applying for, obtaining and passing of the intended Act out of revenue or out of capital or partly by one of such modes and partly by the other.

To repeal, alter or amend or to re-enact with or without amendment all or some of the provisions of the Plymouth and Stonehouse Gas Acts, 1855, 1879, 1894, 1898 and 1903, and any other Act whether general or special relating directly or indirectly to the Company which would prevent or interfere with any of the objects hereinbefore referred to.

To confer upon the Company all such rights and privileges as may be deemed necessary for effecting the objects of the intended Act and to vary and extinguish all rights and privileges which would interfere with any of those objects.

To incorporate with or without amendment or to render inapplicable all or some of the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts, the Companies Clauses Acts, 1845 to 1889, the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1847, and the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1871.

Printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 17th day of December next.

Dated this 19th day of November, 1915.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session by the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Wakefield (hereinafter referred to as "the Corporation" and "the city" respectively) for an Act for all or some of the following objects and purposes (that is to say):—

1. To empower the Corporation to abandon the Oxygrains, Linsgreave and Booth Dean Reservoirs authorized by the Wakefield Corporation Act, 1889.

2. To authorize and empower the Corporation to make and maintain in the township and urban district of Rishworth, in the West Riding of the county of York, the waterworks and other works hereinafter described or some of them (that is to say):—

Work No. 1.—An enlargement and extension of the existing Green Withens Reservoir of the Corporation to be formed by lengthening the existing embankment and raising it throughout to a height of 2 feet 6 inches above the top of the existing embankment.

Work No. 2.—A line of pipes or conduit (to be called the Linsgreave Conduit) commencing in the Linsgreave Catchwater at a point 25 chains measured in a south-westerly direction from Spa Bridge, and terminating in Linsgreave Clough at a point 32 chains measured in a south-westerly direction from Spa Bridge.

Work No. 3.—An impounding reservoir (to be called the New Oxygrains Reservoir) to be formed by means of an earthen or stone work embankment $6\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts in length across the stream called "Oxygrains" at a point on the said stream 13 chains measured in a westerly direction from the Oxygrains Bridge, and extending from the said embankment in a north-westerly direction up the said stream called "Oxygrains" and the Castle Dean Clough for a distance of 37 chains or thereabouts, and in a westerly direction from the said embankment up the said stream called "Oxygrains" and the Wolden Edge Clough for a distance of 29 chains or thereabouts.

Work No. 4.—A line of pipes or conduit (to be called the Oxygrains Conduit) commencing in the intended Oxygrains Reservoir or the embankment thereof at a point 13 chains measured in a westerly direction from the said Oxygrains Bridge and terminating at a point on the Moss Moor Catchwater 9 chains south of Oxygrains Bridge.

Work No. 5.—An impounding reservoir (to be called Upper Booth Dean Reservoir) to be formed by means of an earthen or stone work embankment $1\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts in length across the stream called "Booth Dean Clough" at a point on the said stream $41\frac{1}{2}$ chains measured in an easterly direction from the said Oxygrains Bridge and extending from the said embankment up the said Clough to a point 23 chains east of the said bridge.

Work No. 6.—An impounding reservoir (to be called Lower Booth Dean Reservoir) to be formed by means of an earthen or stone work embankment 2 chains or thereabouts in length across the stream called "Booth Dean Clough" at a point on the said stream 53 chains measured in an easterly direction from the said Oxygrains Bridge and extending from the said embankment up the said Clough to a point $41\frac{1}{2}$ chains east of the said bridge.

Work No. 7.—A Gauge basin to be constructed of masonry and concrete, commencing at a point on the Booth Dean Clough 59 chains or thereabouts measured in an easterly direction from the said Oxygrains Bridge, and terminating at a point $60\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts measured in an easterly direction from the said bridge;

together with all proper dams, walls, embankments, piers, bridges, roads, ways, fences, wells, tanks, cisterns, basins, gauges, filters, filterbeds, sluices, bye-washes, weirs, waste water channels, overflows, meters, inlet works, outfalls, discharge pipes, shafts, tunnels, borings, trenches, pumps, adits, aqueducts, culverts, cuts, catchwaters, channels, conduits, mains, pipes, syphons, stand-pipes, junctions, hydrants, washouts, valves, chambers, drains, telegraphs, telephones, engines, machinery, apparatus, roadways, tramroads, approaches, buildings, houses, works and conveniences connected with the hereinbefore described works, or any of them or incidental thereto or necessary for obtaining, conducting, controlling, storing, intercepting, filtering, cleansing, repairing, maintaining, or managing the same together with full power and right at all times of approach and access to the works aforesaid or any of them.

3. To authorize the Corporation to deviate laterally and vertically from the lines and levels of the intended works shown on the deposited plans and sections hereinafter mentioned to the extent to be shown on the said plans and sections or defined in the intended Act.

4. To empower the Corporation to acquire by compulsion or agreement for the purposes of the intended Act lands and hereditaments and easements and rights in or over lands and hereditaments in the township and urban district of Rishworth in the West Riding of the county of York.

5. It is proposed by the intended Act to take for and in connection with the intended works certain lands being or reputed to be common or commonable lands, of which the following are particulars and the estimated quantity proposed to be taken, namely:—

Name by which the lands are known.	Parish in which the lands are situate.	Quantity within limits of deviation.	Estimated quantity to be taken
Rishworth Moor	Rishworth township	80 acres	14 acres
Moss Moor	Rishworth township	31 acres	nil.

6. To empower the Corporation to purchase by agreement, lands, buildings, and hereditaments, and easements and rights, in, under, and over lands, and to confer full powers upon the Corporation with reference to the retention, holding, user, sale, leasing, exchange and disposal of lands.

7. To exempt the Corporation from the operation of the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts relating to superfluous lands, to authorize the Corporation to acquire easements only in lands, and to make other amendments in the Lands Clauses Acts in their application to the intended Act.

8. To empower the Corporation to divert, collect, impound, take, use and appropriate for the purposes of the intended Act or other the purposes of their water undertaking all such streams, springs and waters as can or may be intercepted or taken by the intended works or as may be found on, in or under any of the lands for the time being belonging to or which may be acquired by the Corporation, or over or in respect of which they have or may acquire easements, and especially the streams called Oxygrains, Linsgreave Clough, Spa Clough, Booth Dean Clough, Pickard Gutter and Stake Gutter, and all tributaries of those rivers and streams above the site of the said intended gauge basin Work No. 7 on the Booth Dean Clough, all of which rivers and streams now flow either directly or indirectly into the Booth Dean Clough, the rivers Ryburn and Calder, the Calder and Hebble Navigation and the Aire and Calder Navigation, or some of them, and to authorize the taking of water from the said rivers and streams or any of them for the purpose of the said undertaking until the said intended reservoirs Works Nos. 3, 5 and 6 shall have been completed.

9. To alter the provisions of the Wakefield Corporation Waterworks Act, 1880, and the Wakefield Corporation Act, 1889, with regard to the compensation water to be given down the Castle Dean Clough and Booth Dean Clough, and to make provision with reference to the quantity or amount of compensation (in water or otherwise) to be given in respect of the proposed taking, impounding or diverting of water, and with reference to the time and manner of the delivery of any compensation water.

10. To authorize the Corporation in connection with the intended waterworks to lay down, maintain, alter and renew mains, pipes, culverts, discharge pipes, telephone or telegraph conductors, wires and posts, and other works in, through, along, under, across and over highways (whether dedicated to the public or not, and whether situate within or without the limits of the Corporation for the supply of water), streets, roads, streams, paths and railways, and for those purposes to extend to such works all or any of the provisions of the Waterworks Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1863; and to empower the Corporation to break up, cross, divert, alter or stop up, close for traffic, remove or otherwise interfere with, either permanently or temporarily, all roads, highways, footpaths or places, pipes, sewers, drains, rivers, streams, watercourses, bridges, tramways, tramroads, and telegraphic and telephone apparatus which it may be necessary to interfere with in constructing or maintaining the works for the time being belonging to or authorized to be constructed by the Corporation or for other the purposes of the intended Act.

11. To constitute the proposed works part of the water undertaking of the Corporation, and to extend and apply thereto all or some of the enactments relating to that undertaking, and to extend and apply all or some of the provisions of the intended Act to all or some of the existing works of the Corporation, and to extend and apply to the water undertaking of the Corporation all or some of the provisions of the Public Health Acts.

12. To empower the Corporation to purchase, and take by compulsion or agreement, and to hold lands for the purpose of protecting from pollution, contamination, fouling or discolouring the waters which may be stored in or taken through any of the works of the Corporation.

13. To empower the Corporation on the one hand and any local authority, company, or person on the other hand, to enter into and carry into effect agreements with reference to the drainage of any lands from or over which any water taken by the Corporation flows, and for more effectually collecting, conveying and preserving the purity of such water, and to authorize the Corporation to purchase land and construct works for those purposes.

14. To extend the period limited by the Wakefield Corporation Act, 1889 (as extended by the Wakefield Corporation Act, 1899, and the Wakefield Corporation Act, 1909), for the construction and completion of the Lee Hill Reservoir (Work No. 7) and the line of pipes or conduit (Work No. 8) authorized by the Wakefield Corporation Act, 1889, and to confer further powers upon the Corporation in relation to the said works.

15. To empower the Corporation to discharge water from any of the intended works into any rivers, streams or watercourses on the line thereof or near thereto or with which such works may be made to communicate.

16. To authorize the Corporation to provide and maintain houses, cottages and buildings for officers and servants connected with the water undertaking of the Corporation.

17. To render persons claiming compensation liable to their costs in certain events, and to make provision for enabling them to amend their claims.

18. To extinguish all public and private rights of way and other rights over the lands acquired under the intended Act.

19. To apply the provisions of the Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, with respect to the temporary occupation of lands near the railway during the construction thereof, to all or some of the waterworks proposed to be authorized by the intended Act.

20. To make further and better provision with regard to the water undertaking of the Corporation, and the supply of water by them, particularly with regard to the following matters:—The prevention and detection of waste of water and the placing in streets, roads and other places of meters, stop-cocks and other works for that purpose; the repair by the Corporation at the expense of the owner of all stop-cocks, communication pipes and works laid down or fixed for the purpose of the supply of water by the Corporation; authorizing persons liable to maintain pipes or apparatus in connection with the water undertaking, to open the ground between the mains of the Corporation and the premises of such persons for the purpose of maintaining, repairing and relaying such pipes or apparatus; authorizing the Corporation to make agreements with any owner or occupier with regard to the laying, maintenance, repair or removal of communication pipes and the breaking up of streets for that purpose, the recovery of penalties from persons not laying communication pipes in accordance with the requirements of the Corporation.

21. To make provision with respect to the supply of water by the Corporation for flushing purposes or for washing horses, carriages or motor-cars, and the charges for water so supplied, and the recovery of penalties and demands.

22. To authorize the Corporation to apply the borrowing powers conferred upon them in respect of the works authorized by former Acts which have not been constructed to the construction of the waterworks proposed to be authorized by the intended Act.

23. To empower the Corporation to borrow or raise further money for the purchase of land and the construction of the works proposed to be authorized by the intended Act, and for all or any of the other purposes of the intended Act, and to charge the moneys so borrowed on the city fund and city rate, the district fund and general district rate or other local rates, and the estates, undertakings, tolls, rates, rents, revenues and other property of the Corporation or any of such securities, and to execute, grant and issue mortgages, stock, debentures and annuities in respect thereof.

24. To exclude from calculations under section 234 of the Public Health Act, 1875, as to the amounts which the Corporation may borrow under that Act, all sums of money raised under the intended Act, and in other respects to make provision in regard to the borrowing powers of the Corporation and the finances of the city.

25. To authorize the Corporation where they are authorized by any statutory borrowing power to raise money for any purpose, instead of exercising such borrowing powers by the issue of a fresh security, to raise the money by utilising any sinking fund established by them.

26. To enact all necessary provisions for giving full effect to the purposes of the intended Act or of the general or local Acts in force in the city, including the making and confirmation of bye-laws, the imposition of penalties for breach of the provisions of the intended Act, or of any bye-laws thereunder, the payment of penalties to the Corporation and the recovery and application of penalties and expenses, the recovery of demands in the county court, penalties for obstructing the execution of the Act, the payment of expenses of carrying the Act into execution, and evidence of appointments and resolutions.

27. To vary and extinguish all existing rights and privileges which would or might in any way prevent, interfere with or delay the accomplishment of any of the objects of the intended Act, and to confer other rights and privileges.

28. To alter, amend, repeal, re-enact or extend, with or without modification, all or some of the provisions of the following local Acts and Orders or public Acts of a local character:—The Public Health Supplemental Act, 1853 (No. 1); the Wakefield Waterworks Act, 1862; the Wakefield Waterworks Act, 1873; the Wakefield Waterworks Act, 1874; the Wakefield Waterworks Act, 1876; the Wakefield Improvement Act, 1877; the Order relating to Wakefield confirmed by the Local Government Board's Provisional Orders Confirmation (Bournemouth, &c.) Act, 1878; the Wakefield Corporation Waterworks Act, 1880; the Wakefield Corporation Act, 1887; the Wakefield Corporation Act, 1889; the Wakefield Corporation Water Act, 1894; the Wakefield Corporation Electric Lighting Order, 1894; the City of Wakefield Order, 1895; the Wakefield Corporation Act, 1899; the Wakefield Corporation Market Act, 1900; the Wakefield Order, 1900, confirmed by the Local Government Board's Provisional Orders Confirmation (No. 12) Act, 1900; the Wakefield Order, 1901, confirmed by the Local Government Board's Provisional Orders Confirmation (No. 6) Act, 1901; the Wakefield Corporation Act, 1909; the County Borough of Wakefield Order, 1913 (confirmed by the Local Government Board's Provisional Orders Confirmation Act, 1914); and any other Acts or Orders relating to the Corporation or to their waterworks undertaking.

29. To incorporate and apply, with or without modification, or to render inapplicable all or some of the provisions of the following public Acts:—The Municipal Corporations Acts; the Public Health Acts; the Lands Clauses Acts; the Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845; the Waterworks Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1863; the Local Loans Act, 1875; the Arbitration Act, 1889; and all Acts amending those Acts respectively.

Plans and sections of the intended works and plans of the lands intended to be taken for the purposes of the intended Act, together with a book of reference to the plans, and a copy of this Notice as published in the London Gazette will, on or before the 30th day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the West Riding of the County of York, at his office at Wakefield, and with the Clerk to the Urban District Council of Rishworth, at his office at Crown-street Chambers, Halifax.

Printed copies of the Bill for the intended Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 17th day of December next.

Board of Trade—Session 1916.

RYDE CORPORATION (VICTORIA PIER).

(Transfer of Victoria Pier from Pier Company to Ryde Corporation; Acquisition of Lands by Agreement; Limits of Pier Undertaking; Maintenance and Alteration of Pier and Quay; Provision of Baths; Dredging; Rates; Borrowing and Other Financial Powers; Incorporation and Amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to the Board of Trade on or before the 23rd day of December next by the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the borough of Ryde in the county of Southampton (hereinafter called "the Corporation") and the Ryde Pier Company (hereinafter called "the Company") for a Provisional Order pursuant to the General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, and the General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, Amendment Act for all or some of the following amongst other purposes, namely:—

1. To transfer to and vest in the Corporation on such terms and conditions as the intended Order may prescribe all the estate and interest of the Company in certain lands and land covered with water in and adjoining the parish of Ryde and now belonging to the Company, together with the pier or landing stage and works situate thereon and authorized by the Isle of Wight Ferry Act, 1856 (hereinafter called "the Act of 1856") and transferred to the Company by the Ryde Pier Tramways Act, 1865 (hereinafter called "the Act of 1865") (that is to say):—

Certain lands forming the site of the Victoria Pier and extending for a width of 30 feet or thereabouts on each side of the pier and also certain lands of a width varying between 31 and 200 yards or thereabouts, extending seawards for a distance of 560 yards or thereabouts from the seaward end of the said pier, together with all the undertaking property interests, mooring and other rights, powers and privileges of the Company over or in connection with such lands and pier, and to provide that all the rights, powers, privileges and authorities of the Company thereover or in respect thereof shall cease and determine.

2. To enable the Corporation to acquire by agreement and to hold lands and easements for the purposes of the intended Order.

3. To define the limits within which the Corporation shall have authority under the intended Order and within which the powers of the pier master may be exercised so as to include all or any part of the lands, foreshore and bed of the sea in and adjoining the parish and borough of Ryde included within the area bounded by a line drawn from the top of the slipway at the western end of the Eastern Esplanade Gardens along the line which divides the public highway from the land to the north thereof, which with the sea wall on its northern side forms the Town Quay as far as the eastern side of the George-street slipway, and thence in a northerly direction along the eastern boundary of the George-street slipway and proceeding in a straight line seawards for a distance of 660 yards or thereabouts, thence in a line drawn in an easterly direction at right angles to the last-mentioned line for a distance of 117 yards or thereabouts and thence northwards in a straight line for a distance of 140 yards or thereabouts and thence eastwards in a straight line for a distance of 70 yards or thereabouts and thence southwards to the top of the slipway at the western end of the said Esplanade Gardens for a distance of 917 yards or thereabouts.

4. To authorize the Corporation to maintain, alter, improve and enlarge the pier and the Town Quay of the Corporation and the works connected therewith respectively, and to construct and maintain all necessary jetties, piers, quays, slips, wharves, stairs, landing places, approaches, roads, causeways, gates, baulks of timber, walls, breastworks, warehouses, sheds, cranes, buoys, lights, moorings, beacons, light-houses, sewers, drains, watercourses, gas and water pipes, electric light and power mains and wires, rails and tramways, and other works and conveniences in connection with the said pier and quay, or the approaches thereto.

5. To empower the Corporation to deepen or excavate, by dredging or otherwise, all or any part or parts of the foreshore and bed of the sea adjoining or near or so as to afford access to the pier and quay and the approaches thereto, and to purchase, lease or hire, and to use all necessary dredgers and other vessels and apparatus necessary therefor, and to provide and license steam tugs and to make other provision for the proper and efficient conduct, management and development of the undertaking of the Corporation under the intended Order (herein referred to as "the pier undertaking").

6. To authorize the Corporation to erect, construct, alter, maintain, furnish and equip upon the pier and upon any lands adjoining or near thereto or belonging to them open and covered sea water, swimming and other baths, bathing places and cabins, together with all necessary works and sanitary and other conveniences connected therewith, and to make and recover charges for the use thereof and admission thereto.

7. To amend, alter or repeal all or some of the provisions of the Act of 1856 with respect to rates, dues and charges, and to authorize the making, levying and collecting of new or altered rates, dues and charges on vessels or boats entering or departing from the limits to be defined by the intended Order and on animals, fish, minerals and other articles shipped, unshipped or transhipped within such limits, and of charges in respect of sheds, warehouses, buildings, weighing machines, moorings, mooring posts, cranes, buoys, works and conveniences, and to confer, vary or extinguish exemptions from, and to compound and agree with any company or person with respect to the payment of such rates, dues and charges.

8. To empower the Corporation to supply water to vessels resorting to the pier and quay, and to levy and recover charges therefor.

9. To authorize the Corporation to lease the pier undertaking and the rates to be authorized by the intended Order or some part or parts thereof in such manner and on such terms as the Corporation think fit.

10. To authorize the Corporation to borrow and re-borrow money for the purposes of the intended Order on the security of the pier undertaking and of the rates and charges to be authorized by the intended Order and upon the security of the borough fund and borough rate or such other security or securities as shall be defined in the Order, and to make provision for the application of the revenue of the pier undertaking.

11. To repeal, alter or amend all or some of the provisions of the Act of 1856, the Act of 1865, and any other Act or Acts relating to the Company or to the Corporation, and to incorporate with the Order all or some of the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts, the Harbours, Docks and Piers Clauses Act, 1847, and the Harbour and Passing Tolls Act, 1861.

And notice is hereby further given, that on or before the 30th day of November instant a copy of this Notice as published in the London Gazette will be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Southampton at his office at Winchester, with the Clerk of the Peace for the Administrative County of the Isle of Wight at his office at Newport, and at the Custom House at Cowes, and that on or before the same day a copy of the said Notice will also be deposited at the Office of the Board of Trade, Whitehall Gardens, London.

On or before the 23rd day of December next printed copies of the draft Provisional Order will be deposited for public inspection at the Custom House at Cowes, and will also be deposited, and may be obtained at the price of one shilling per copy by all persons applying for the same, at the offices of the undersigned respectively.

Any objections to the Provisional Order which it is intended to urge on the Board of Trade must be received by them on or before the fifteenth day of January next. A copy of such objections must also be sent at the same time to the undersigned Town Clerk, Solicitors, or Parliamentary Agents, and in forwarding the objections to the Board of Trade the objectors or their agents should state that this has been done.

Dated this 16th day of November, 1915.

Board of Trade.—Session 1916.

FLEETWOOD GAS.

(Amendment of Sections 27 and 28 of the Fleetwood Gas Act, 1912, as to rate of interest to be paid on borrowed moneys; Further Powers in relation to Undertaking and Supply of Gas; Amendment of Acts and other Purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to the Board of Trade, on or before the 23rd day of December next, by or on behalf of the Fleetwood Gas Company (hereinafter referred to as "the Company"), in pursuance of the Gas and Water Works Facilities Act, 1870, and the Gas and Water Works Facilities Act, 1870, Amendment Act, 1873, for a Provisional Order for all or some of the following purposes (that is to say):—

1. To repeal, alter and amend so much of sections 27 and 28 of the Fleetwood Gas Act, 1912, as limits or restricts the amount of interest to be paid on borrowed money, and to authorize the Company to pay a higher rate of interest on borrowed money than that prescribed by the said sections.

2. To relieve the Company from the obligation to give a supply of gas for any purpose other than lighting or domestic use in cases where the capacity of the main is insufficient for such purpose, or if such supply would interfere with the sufficiency of gas required to be supplied by means of such main for lighting purposes.

3. To authorize the Company to levy and recover charges for or in respect of the reading of meters.

4. The intended Order will or may vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which would interfere with any of its objects and will confer other rights and privileges and will alter, amend or repeal so far as may be necessary for the purposes of the Order the provisions or some of the provisions of the Fleetwood Gas Act, 1912, or any other Act relating to the Company.

On or before the 30th day of November instant a copy of this Notice as published in the London Gazette will be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the County Palatine of Lancaster at his Office at Preston and at the Office of the Board of Trade, Whitehall-gardens, London.

Printed copies of the draft Order will be deposited at the Office of the Board of Trade on or before the 23rd day of December next and printed copies of the draft Order when deposited and of the Order when made may be obtained at the offices of the Company at Fleetwood and of the undermentioned Parliamentary Agents at the price of one shilling each.

Every company, corporation or person desirous of making any representation to the Board of Trade or of bringing before them any objections respecting the application may do so by letter addressed to the Assistant Secretary of the Railway Department of the Board of Trade on or before the 15th day of January next, and copies of such representation or objections must at the same time be sent to the undersigned Parliamentary Agents, and in forwarding to the Board of Trade such objections the objectors or their Agents must state that a copy of the same has been sent to the Promoter's Agents.

Light Railway Commission, November, 1915.

DEARNE DISTRICT LIGHT RAILWAYS (EXTENSION AND ABANDONMENT).

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the present month of November to the Light Railway Commissioners by the urban district council of Wombwell, the urban district council of Wath-upon-Dearne, the urban district council of Bolton-upon-Dearne, and the urban district council of Thurnscoe jointly, all in the West Riding of the county of York (hereinafter called "the Councils"), and whose respective addresses are at the Town Hall, Wombwell; the Town Hall, Wath-upon-Dearne; the Council Offices, Station-road, Bolton-upon-Dearne; and the Council Offices, Station-road, Bolton-upon-Dearne, for an Order (hereinafter referred to as "the Order"), under the Light Railway Acts, 1896 and 1912, authorizing the following light railways in the parish and urban district of Wath-upon-Dearne and the parish and urban district of Bolton-upon-Dearne, in the West Riding of the county of York (that is to say):—

(In the following descriptions of the intended light railways all distances and lengths given are to be read as if the words "or thereabouts" had been inserted after each such distance and length, and where any distance is given with reference to or stated to be measured from the junction of any two streets or roads such distance is to be taken as measured from the intersection of the centre lines or of the prolongations of the centre lines of such streets or roads.)

Railway (No. 13), 7 furlongs 6.60 chains in length, wholly situate in the parish and urban district of Wath-upon-Dearne commencing in High-street by a junction with Railway (No. 6) authorized by the Dearne District Light Railways Order, 1915 (hereinafter referred to as "the Order of 1915") at its termination at a point 25 yards west of the junction of Station-road and High-street aforesaid, passing thence into and along Station-road and Wath-road, and terminating in the latter road at the boundary of the urban district.

Railway (No. 14), 6 furlongs 4 chains in length, wholly situate in the parish and urban district of Bolton-upon-Dearne, commencing by a junction with Railway (No. 13) at its termination, passing thence along

New-road, Dearne-road and Wath-road, thence in a north-easterly direction across lands to and crossing Thurnscoe-road and across further lands to Station-road, thence in an easterly direction along Station-road into and terminating by a junction with Railway (No. 15) authorized by the Order of 1915 at its commencement at a point in Furlong-road opposite the Collingwood Hotel.

The proposed railways will pass from, through or into the parish and urban district of Wath-upon-Dearne and the parish and urban district of Bolton-upon-Dearne in the West Riding of the county of York.

The said railways are proposed to be constructed on a gauge of 4 feet 8½ inches or such other gauge as the Board of Trade may sanction, and the motive power proposed to be employed is electricity, steam or such other mechanical power as the Board of Trade may approve, or animal power.

It is proposed by the Order to authorize and empower the Councils to acquire and take compulsorily or by agreement lands for and in connection with the construction of the railways, and for and in connection with the widening, alteration and improvement of streets and roads and other works, and to exempt the Councils from the operation of section 92 of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, so as to enable them to acquire parts only of certain properties, to relinquish and abandon Railway (No. 18), Railway (No. 19), and Railway (No. 19A) authorized by the Order of 1915, and for the purposes aforesaid to amend, alter, extend, enlarge or repeal the provisions of the Order of 1915 or the Acts incorporated therewith as may be necessary for the purposes of the Order.

Dated this 19th day of November, 1915.

All persons claiming under the said enquiry are, by themselves or their Solicitors, on or before the 3rd April, 1916, to come in and prove their claims, at the Chambers of the Judge, Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, England, and to enter their names, and the particulars of their claims, in a book kept for that purpose, in Room 287, at the said Royal Courts of Justice, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of any order to be made in the said action. Monday, the 10th of April, 1916, at 12 o'clock noon, at the Chambers of the Judge, Room No. 288, at the said Royal Courts of Justice, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the claims.—Dated this 22nd day of November, 1915.

SAMUEL A. M. SATOW, Master.

NOTE.—The said Elizabeth Lord resided at Loxhore, in the county of Devon, England; she was the daughter of Benjamin and Betsy Lord, formerly Ridd. Maria Morrish, one of the first Cousins enquired after, is believed to have died in Australia.

BISCHOFF, COXE, BOMPAS and BISCHOFF,
4, Great Winchester-street, London, England;
Agents for

123 HARDING, SON and ROTHAM, Barnstaple, England, Plaintiff's Solicitors.

PURSUANT to an Order of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, dated the 26th day of January, 1915, and made in the Matter of the estate of THOMAS DAINS, deceased (Harwood v. Jolly, 1914, D. No. 1080), the following inquiry was directed:—"An inquiry who is the person referred to in the will of the testator, Thomas Dains, as the child of his sister, Martha Farrer, and whether such person is living or dead, and if such person survived the testator's daughter, Mary Dains, and has since died; who are the legal personal representatives of such person, and if such person died in the lifetime of the said Mary Dains; whether he or she left any child, him or her surviving, and, if so, what children there were of such person who survived the testator, Thomas Dains, or were born after the death of the same testator, and whether such children are respectively now living or dead, and who are the legal personal representatives of such, if any of them, as are now dead."

Now all persons claiming to be interested under the said inquiry are, either personally or by their Solicitors, on or before the 7th day of January, 1916, to come in and prove their claims, at the Chambers of Mr. Justice Eve and Mr. Justice Peterson, Room No. 696, at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Order. Friday, the 14th day of January, 1916, at 12 o'clock noon, in the said Chambers, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the claims.

NOTE.—It is alleged that the person referred to as the child of Martha Farrer was Samuel Farrer, who died on the 18th May, 1883, at Otley, near Ipswich, and that he was never married.

Dated this 23rd day of November, 1915.

ARTHUR F. RIDSDALE, Master.

In the Chancery of the County Palatine of Lancaster, Manchester District.

1915, Letter N, No. 212.

In the Matter of the NORTH LINCOLNSHIRE IRON COMPANY Limited, and in the Matter of the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition was, on the 15th day of November, 1915, presented to the Court of Chancery of the County Palatine of Lancaster, Manchester District, by the above named Company to confirm the alteration of the said Company's objects proposed to be effected by a Special Resolution of the Company unanimously passed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the said Company, held on the 24th day of August, 1915, and subsequently unanimously confirmed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the said Company, held on the 21st day of September, 1915, and which Resolution runs as follows:—

That, pursuant to section 9 of the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908, the provisions of the Company's memorandum of association with respect to the objects of the Company be altered by striking out paragraph (c) of that clause and by inserting in that clause immediately after paragraph (d) thereof the following new paragraphs, with such modifications thereof (if any) as the Court hereinafter mentioned may think fit to require or impose, that is to say:—

(e) To carry on the trades or businesses of iron-masters, steel makers, steel converters, brass founders, coke manufacturers, lime burners, proprietors of stone, slate and lime quarries, makers of bricks, tiles, pipes and other earthenware goods, engineers, tin-plate makers, distillers, and dye makers and metallurgists.

(f) To search for, get, work, raise, make merchantable, sell and deal in iron, coal, ironstone, brick-earth, terra-cotta, limestone, slate, bricks, earthenware goods and metals, minerals and substances.

(g) To carry on business as manufacturers and refiners of and dealers in chemicals, benzol and other spirits, oils and patent fuels.

(h) To carry on the trades or businesses of mechanical, hydraulic and electrical engineers, manufacturers of agricultural implements and other machinery, tool makers, boiler makers, millwrights, machinists, smiths, wood workers, builders, painters, farmers, printers, carriers and merchants.

(i) To manufacture and generate, purchase, accumulate, store, sell, measure, distribute and supply electricity and gas for the purposes of lighting, heating and motive or other power, and also to purchase, accumulate, store, sell, measure, distribute and supply water for the purposes of manufacturing or domestic use or for motive power or any other purpose whatever, and to construct, build, manufacture, lay down, establish, fix, maintain, enlarge, alter and use all necessary works, machinery, gasometers, dynamos, reservoirs, tanks, cisterns, culverts, filter beds, plant, cables, lines, wires, mains, pipes, poles, accumulators, meters, lamps and other apparatus and appliances.

(j) To buy, sell, let on hire, repair, alter, manufacture, manipulate, prepare for market and otherwise deal in all kinds of plant, machinery, hardware, rolling stock, ships, boats, apparatus, tools, utensils, products, substances, materials, articles and things.

(k) To carry on directly or indirectly any other trade, business or employment, manufacturing or otherwise, which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on either in connection with or in addition to any business hereby authorized or otherwise calculated directly or indirectly to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property, rights or business for the time being.

(l) To take, purchase or acquire by exchange or otherwise and to hold any shares (whether fully or partly paid), stock, debentures, debenture stock or other securities in or of any other company, and to cause such shares, securities or any of them to be vested in or held by nominees or a nominee for and on behalf of the Company.

(m) To purchase or acquire by exchange or otherwise and to undertake all or any part of the goodwill, business, undertaking, property, assets and liabilities of any person or persons or company and to conduct and develop or wind-up and liquidate such business.

(n) To apply for, purchase or otherwise acquire in the United Kingdom or elsewhere any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention or process which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company or the acquisition of which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to benefit this Company, and to use, exercise, develop or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights or information so acquired and to expend money in experimenting upon and testing and improving or seeking to improve any patents, inventions, secret processes or rights which the Company may acquire or propose to acquire.

(o) To purchase, take in exchange or on lease, rent, hire, occupy or otherwise acquire, whether for investment or resale, any lands, manufactories, mills, foundries, ovens, kilns, furnaces, houses, shops, with or without licences, depots, warehouses, cottages and other buildings and premises, machinery, plant and stock-in-trade, collieries, quarries, mines, minerals, rights, privileges, easements, licences or other rights or interests in or with respect to any lands, buildings and premises, or otherwise, for the purposes of the Company, and as to any purchase of land or buildings either in consideration of a gross sum or of a rent-charge or partly in one way and partly in the other, or for any other consideration.

(p) To develop and turn to account any properties acquired by the Company, and in particular by selling, leasing or otherwise disposing of the same by laying out and preparing the same for building purposes, and by pulling down buildings, and to drain, pave and build upon or otherwise extend or improve all or any part of the land and buildings of the Company.

(q) To construct, improve, maintain, work, manage, carry out or control any roads, ways, tramways, railways, branches or sidings, bridges, reservoirs, water-courses, wharves, manufactories, foundries, ovens, kilns, furnaces, warehouses, electric works, shops, stores and other works and conveniences which may seem calculated directly or indirectly to advance the Company's interests, and to contribute, to subsidise or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, improvement, maintenance, working, management, carrying out or control thereof.

(r) To undertake and execute any contracts for works involving the supply or use of any machinery and to carry out any ancillary or other works comprised in such contracts.

(s) To carry on any business or branch of a business which this Company is authorized to carry on by means or through the agency of any subsidiary company or companies, and to enter into any arrangement with any such subsidiary company for taking the profits and bearing the losses of any branch or business so carried on, or for financing any such subsidiary company or guaranteeing its liabilities, or to make any other arrangement which may seem desirable with reference to any business or branch so carried on, including power at any time, and either temporarily or permanently, to close any such branch or business, and to act as managers of or to appoint directors or managers of any such subsidiary company.

(t) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company, and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of or otherwise assist or subsidise any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same, and to give to any person or company special rights or privileges in connection with or control over the Company, and in particular the right to nominate one or more Directors of this Company.

(u) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company.

(v) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of hospitals, infirmaries and other charities, and any other institutions or associations, funds, trusts and conveniences calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Company or its predecessors in business, or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant annuities and allowances to any such persons, and to make payments towards insurance and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects or for any exhibition or for any public, general or useful object.

(w) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring by purchase, exchange or otherwise all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this Company.

(x) To sell, exchange, lease, surrender, accept surrenders of leases of mortgage, dispose of, turn to account or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company; and in particular to grant and create in perpetuity or for a term of years only, rent charges or ground rents out of any part of the Company's real or leasehold property, and to sell any property in consideration wholly or partly of a rent charge or ground rent, and to sell, mortgage, redeem or otherwise deal with any such rents.

(y) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities or investments and in such manner as may from time to time be determined.

(z) To lend money, either with or without security, and generally to such persons or companies and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers, persons and companies having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the payment of money and the performance of contracts by any persons or companies.

(aa) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of mortgages, debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged or not charged upon all or any of the Company's property (both present and future), including its uncalled capital, and to confer upon any incumbrancer or any trustee for an incumbrancer of uncalled capital such powers of making and enforcing calls as the Company may think fit, and to purchase, redeem, exchange, vary or extend or pay off, and from time to time reissue any such securities.

(bb) To give to any officers, servants or employees of the Company any share or interest in the profits of the Company's business or any branch thereof, and for that purpose to enter into any arrangements the Company may think fit.

(cc) To remunerate any person or company either in cash or shares fully or partly paid up, or partly in one way and partly the other, for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, subscribing for or guaranteeing the placing of or subscription for any of the shares in the capital of the Company or any other company, or any debentures, debenture stock or other securities of the Company or any other company, or in or about the formation or promotion of any other company or the conduct of its business.

(dd) To pay all or any expenses incurred in connection with the formation, promotion or incorporation of any other company, or of or incidental to the winding-up of any company the whole or part of the property whereof is acquired by this Company or in which this Company may be interested.

(ee) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures and other negotiable or transferable instruments.

(ff) To sell or dispose of the undertaking, assets and property of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares partly or fully paid up, debentures, debenture stock, bonds or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company.

(gg) To distribute among the members or any class or classes of the members, or any individual member of the Company, in specie any property of the Company or any proceeds of sale, exchange or disposal of any property of the Company, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made, except with the sanction (if any) for the time being required by law.

(hh) To undertake and execute any trusts the undertaking whereof may seem desirable, and either gratuitously or otherwise.

(ii) To adopt such means of making known the business or products of the Company as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in the press, by circulars, by purchase and exhibition of works of art or interest, by publication of books and periodicals and by granting prizes, rewards and donations.

(jj) To take part in the management, supervision and control of the business or operations of any company or undertaking, and for that purpose to appoint and remunerate any director, trustees and accountants or other experts or agents of such company or undertaking.

(kk) To take or concur in taking all such steps and proceedings as may seem best calculated to uphold and support the credit of the Company, and to obtain and justify public confidence, and to avert or minimise financial disturbances which might affect the Company.

(ll) To promote freedom of contract and to resist, insure against, counteract and discourage interference therewith, and to subscribe to any association or fund for any such purposes.

(mm) To enter into any arrangements with any governments or authorities, supreme, municipal, local or otherwise, that may seem conducive to the Company's objects, or any of them, and to obtain from any such government or authority any rights, privileges and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges and concessions.

(nn) To obtain any provisional order or Act of Parliament for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem directly or indirectly to prejudice the Company's interests.

(oo) To procure the Company to be registered or recognised in any colony or dependency or in any foreign country or place.

(pp) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world as principals, agents, contractors, trustees or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others, and to do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

(qq) And it is hereby declared that the word "Company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the United Kingdom or elsewhere.

And that the directors be and they are hereby authorized to apply to the Chancery of the County Palatine of Lancaster to confirm such alteration of the provisions of the said memorandum of association under the said Act.

And notice is further given, that the said petition is directed to be heard before His Honour D. Stewart Smith, Esquire, the Vice-Chancellor of the County Palatine of Lancaster, at the sittings of the Court to be holden at the Assize Courts, Strangeways, Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, on Tuesday, the 7th day of December, 1915, at 10.45 of the clock in the forenoon; and any person interested in the said Company, whether as creditor or otherwise, desirous of opposing the making of an order for the confirmation of the said alteration under the above Act, should appear at the time of hearing, by himself or his Counsel, for the purpose; and a copy of the said petition will be furnished to any such person requiring the same by the undersigned Solicitors, on payment of the regulated charges for the same.

Dated the 20th day of November, 1915.
