BEARING INTEREST FROM THE DATE OF PURCHASE AT £5 PER CENT. PER ANNUM, PAYABLE HALF-YEARLY ON THE 1ST JUNE AND THE 1ST DECEMBER.

REPAYABLE AT PAR ON THE 1ST DECEMBER, 1920.

Price of Issue Fixed by H.M. Treasury at £100 per Cent.

THE GOVERNOR AND COMPANY OF THE BANK OF ENGLAND are authorized by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury to receive until further notice applications for Exchequer Bonds as above.

The Principal and Interest of the Bonds are chargeable on the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom.

The Bonds will be issued in denominations of £100, £200, £500, £1,000 and £5,000, and will bear interest at £5 per cent. per annum, payable half-yearly by coupon, the first coupon on each Bond representing interest to the 1st June, 1916, from the date upon which payment for the Bond is made.

In the event of future loans (other than issues made abroad or issues of Exchequer Bonds, Treasury Bills, or similar short-dated securities) being raised by His Majesty's Government for the purpose of carrying on the War, Bonds of this issue will be accepted, together with all undue Coupons, as the equivalent of cash to the amount of their face value for the purpose of subscription to any such loan. Interest accrued to the date of the surrender of a Bond will be paid in cash.

Bonds of this issue, and the Interest payable from time to time in respect thereof, will be exempt from all British taxation, present or future, if it is shown in the manner directed by the Treasury that they are in the beneficial ownership of a person who is neither domiciled, nor ordinarily resident, in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland. Where a Bond belongs to such a holder, the relative Coupons will be paid without deduction for Income Tax, or other taxes, if accompanied by a declaration of ownership in such form as may be required by the Treasury.

Applications for Bonds, which must in every case be accompanied by payment of the full amount payable in respect of the Bonds applied for, may be lodged by hand at the Bank of England, Threadneedle Street, E.C., on any business day between the hours of 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. (Saturdays between 10 a.m. and 12 noon); or they may be forwarded to the Bank through the post. Where payment is made otherwise than in cash or Banker's draft on the Bank of England, the amount of interest payable in respect of the relative Bonds on the 1st June, 1916, will be calculated as from the date on which the proceeds of the payment are actually received by the Bank.

In all cases in which the Bank are asked to forward Bonds by post, the Bonds will be despatched by Registered Post at the risk of the Applicant, who must himself effect any insurance that may be desired.

A provisional receipt, exchangeable in due course for the Definitive Bonds, will be issued in respect of each application.

Bonds of this issue (ex the Coupon payable 1st June, 1916, for interest in respect of the broken period) may be lodged for registration in the books of the Bank of England on payment of a fee of one shilling per Bond. Holdings of Registered Bonds, which will be transferable in any sums which are multiples of £100, in the same manner as Inscribed Stock, may be reconverted at any time into Bonds to Bearer without payment of any fee.

Dividends on registered holdings will be paid by warrants which will be transmitted by post.

Applications must be made upon the printed forms which may be obtained, together with copies of this Prospectus, at the Bank of England, at the Bank of Ireland; of Messrs. Mullens, Marshall and Co., 13, George Street, Mansion House, E.C.; and at any Bank, Money Order Office, or Stock Exchange in the United Kingdom.

AMERICAN DOLLAR SECURITIES.

PURCHASE BY OR DEPOSIT ON LOAN WITH THE TREASURY.

Preliminary Notice.

With a view to facilitating the maintaining of the exchanges between the United Kingdom and the United States of America, the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are prepared to purchase American (including certain Canadian) dollar* securities owned in this country, or to receive such securities on deposit for use as cover for short loans to be contracted in America.

The securities which are regarded as suitable for these purposes are—

(1) Securities in which Savings Banks in the United States of America are authorised to invest; and

(2) Any other securities which are customarily accepted as security by bankers in the United States.

* Including sterling securities convertible into dollar securities, and securities carrying the right to payment in dollars or sterling at the holder's option, but not purely sterling securities.

Of the two alternatives above suggested, the Treasury prefer that of purchase in all cases in which the holder of the securities is in a position to sell them outright. The alternative of deposit on loan is intended to meet the case of those holders who are not in a position to sell, but are able and willing to assist the Government by lending their securities.

I.—PURCHASE.

The Treasury will be prepared to purchase such securities as are in their opinion suitable for the purpose in view at the current market price, the purchase money to be paid at the seller's option either in cash or in 5 per cent. Exchequer Bonds falling due 1st December, 1920, at par, subject to the proviso that where the purchase money is not 100% or a multiple thereof any balance in excess of an even hundred pounds will be payable in cash.

In the case of securities quoted on the New York Stock Exchange the closing New York Stock Exchange quotation of the day on which the securities are purchased will, normally, be taken as the current market price for this purpose and the price to be paid will be the sterling equivalent of that quotation at the exchange of the day. In the case of unquoted securities, or in the case of quoted securities in respect of which the current quotation may not be regarded as representing a true market value, the price will be fixed by agreement with the person tendering the securities.

The Exchequer Bonds will bear interest from the day following that on which the purchase is made. Where the quotation of the securities purchased does not include accrued interest or dividend, the amount of such accrued interest or dividend to the date of purchase will be added to the price.

In the event of future loans (other than issues made abroad or issues of Exchequer Bonds, Treasury Bills, or similar short dated securities) being raised by His Majesty's Government for the purpose of carrying on the war, Bonds of this issue will be accepted, together with all undue coupons, as the equivalent of cash to the amount of their face value for the purpose of subscription to any such loan. Interest accrued to the date of surrender of a Bond will be paid in cash.

Securities upon which British Stamp Duty has not previously been paid need not be stamped for the purpose of sale to the Treasury.

II.—DEPOSIT ON LOAN.

In the case of holders who for any reason are not prepared to sell their securities, the Treasury are willing to accept securities on deposit, subject to a right of purchase in certain contingencies, on the following terms:—

(1) The securities to be transferred to the Treasury for a period of two years from the date of transfer.

(2) While the securities are on deposit under this arrangement the lender to receive from the Treasury all interest and dividends paid in respect of them, and also, by way of consideration for the loan, a payment at the rate of one-half of one per cent. per annum calculated on the face value of the securities.

(3) If the depositor at any time during the currency of the loan desires to realise all or any of his securities, the Treasury will, upon receipt of a notification from him specifying the securities which he desires to realise, either—

(i) sell (subject to any limit as to price which may be specified in the notification) the securities on his behalf in New York, and pay over to him the proceeds in London in sterling at the exchange of the day on which such proceeds are received in New York, without any deduction for brokerage or commission, or (at the depositor's option)

(ii) release the securities in New York for the purpose of sale by the depositor himself, such release to be made (unless the Treasury otherwise agree) only against payment of the proceeds in dollars to the Treasury Agent in New York, the depositor to be paid in London by the Treasury in sterling at the exchange of the day.

Alternatively the Treasury will, at any time during the currency of the loan, be prepared to consider proposals that they should themselves take over all or any of the securities from the depositor at the New York Stock Exchange closing quotation of the day upon which the proposal is received; the purchase money to be paid in sterling at the exchange of the day without any deduction for brokerage or commission.

The purchase money will in each case be payable in London against the surrender of the Treasury Certificate.

(4) In case the Treasury should find it necessary to sell all or any of the securities deposited, the Treasury may take over all or any of such securities on sending notification in writing to the registered address of the holder of the certificate. The Treasury to pay the value of the securities mentioned in the notification, calculated at the New York Stock Exchange closing quotation of the day the notification is sent, with an addition of 2½ per cent. on the value so calculated. Payment to be made in London in sterling at the exchange of the day, without any deduction for brokerage and commission, against the surrender of the Treasury Certificate.

(5) So far as circumstances may permit, arrangements will be made for enabling a depositor at any time to obtain the release of deposited securities in exchange for the deposit of other suitable American securities of equal value.

(6) Holders of Bearer Bonds (or share certificates transferable by delivery) will be required to lodge the bonds and coupons with the Treasury, and holders of registered stock will be required to execute a transfer of the stock in favour of the Treasury. Bonds upon which British stamp duty has not previously been paid may be deposited unstamped. The bonds or stock will then be entered in the holder's name in a register kept by the Treasury for the purpose, and a certificate of entry in this register will be issued to the holder. The title to bonds or stock entered in the Treasury Register may be transferred upon that register by deed in the ordinary way. In the case of registered stock, the Treasury will bear all charges in respect of the original transfer into their name in the company's books, and of the re-transfer in the company's books into the name of the person in whose name the stock stands in the Treasury Register when it is finally released; transfer deeds for intermediate transfers in the Treasury Register will be subject to stamp duty in ordinary course, and to a registration fee of

2s. 6d. All transfer deeds in respect of Bearer Bonds or share certificates transferable by delivery will be free of stamp duty and registration fee. At the end of the period of the loan the bonds or certificates deposited (or bonds or certificates identical in all respects with those deposited) will be delivered to the depositor in exchange for the surrender of the Treasury Certificate.

(7) The Stock Exchange Committee will be asked to make arrangements for dealings on the Stock Exchange in the Treasury Certificates of Securities deposited under the scheme.

(8) The interest and dividends on all deposited securities, together with the additional payment at the rate of one-half of one per cent. per annum, will be paid by Treasury Warrant to the holder for the time being on the Treasury Register, as soon as they have been collected, in sterling at the exchange of the day. For convenience of payment, a full half-year's additional payment will be added to the first dividend payment and (when the deposit continues for the whole period of two years) no additional payment will be made in respect of the period from the last dividend payment to the end of the period. In the event of earlier release, the amount due from the date of deposit to the date of release will be calculated, and any overpayment or underpayment will be adjusted when the release is effected.

(9) All securities tendered for deposit must be supported by a statement by a banker, broker, or other responsible party that they have remained in physical possession in the United Kingdom or have been in the ownership of the depositor since the 30th September, 1914, and that they have not since the outbreak of war been in enemy ownership.

(10) The Treasury undertake to recommend to Parliament any legislation which may be necessary to give effect to the scheme and to enable trustees and companies to take advantage thereof and to hold Treasury Certificates in place of the securities deposited.

The Treasury reserve the right to refuse either in whole or in part any offer to sell or deposit securities under the scheme.

Whitehall, S.W.

15th December, 1915.

NOTE.—This Notice is published for public information only. The procedure to be followed in regard to individual applications to sell or deposit securities will be announced on Tuesday next, the 21st instant.
