

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday February 1. to Monday February 5. 1693.

THE Western Circuit appointed for this Lent Affizes, is as follows:

Mr. Justice Powell.
Mr. Justice Rokeby.

Southampton, Tuesday March 6. at the Castle of Winton.
Wiltz, Friday March 9. at New-Sarum.
Devon, Tuesday March 13. at Dorchester.
Cornwall, Monday March 19. at Launceston.
City of Exeter, Saturday March 24. at the Guildhall of the City of Exeter.
Devon, The same day at the Castle of Exon in the County of Devon.
Somerset, Monday April 2. at the Castle of Taunton.

Naples, January 10. Four Gallies are fitting out here to carry a Reinforcement to the Spanish Garison at Porto-Longo. Our Viceroy has received Orders from Spain to raise in this Kingdom 500 Men to recruit the Neapolitan Regiment in Catalonia; The New Levies are continued at the same time for the State of Milan; and so soon as the Vessels, that were lately sent from hence with Soldiers for that Service, are returned from Genoua and Final, where they landed, several Companies more will be Shipt here, for the farther recruiting our Troops in the Milanese.

Milan, Jan. 20. General Caprara is gone back to Turin, after having had several Conferences with our Governor the Marquis de Leganez about the Affairs of the War. The German Troops are now in their Winter Quarters; four Regiments lie in the Duchy of Mantua, as many in that of Parma, and the rest in Monferrat. Our Governor is sending an Envoy to Genoua to settle the matter about the Contributions which are demanded of that Republick in lieu of Winter Quarters. The Recruits for the Imperial Troops arrive daily in small Parties from Germany.

Venice, Jan. 22. Yesterday came to the Lido 60 new raised Soldiers, and 300 more are on their march thither from Venona; who, together with those that were before at the Lido, are designed for the Levant with the next Convoy. Divers Persons of Quality are come hither to partake of the Divertisements of the Carnival; and the Great Prince and Princess of Tuscany are expected here in few days. We hear from Dalmatia, that the Turks are at present very quiet in those parts, but that they raise all the Men they can for the service of the next Campagne.

Warsaw, Jan. 1. Since the breaking up of the Dyet the Deputies are gone home, and the Senators to wait upon the King (who continues still much indisposed) at Zolkiew, where a Great Council is appointed to be held about the present state of this Kingdom; and some think that another Dyet will be summoned to meet here in March. In the mean time the French Ambassador labours all he can to make a separate Peace between this Crown and the Ottoman Port; though hitherto with little success.

Vienna, Jan. 23. The States of the Lower-Austria have resolved to grant the Emperor a Subsidy suitable to the present urgency of Affairs, but have not yet fixed the Sum. A Train of Artillery is preparing in the Arsenal here, which will be sent by Water to Hungary, with a great quantity of Bombs and Ammunition, so soon as the Danube is open. The last Letters from Peter Waradin tell us, that a Party of that Garison which had been as far as the Save was come back, and brought Intelligence, which they got from the Country People, and some Prisoners they took, that the Turks threatned still to make a great Incurision this Winter into Sclavonia; That they had supplied Temeswaer and Belgrade with all things necessary for their Defence; and talked very much of their great Preparations for the next Campagne. They write from Upper-Hungary, that the Troops designed for an Enterprize upon Gyula had orders to march, and that General Pollant was in the mean time to command a flying Body of Germans, Hungarians and Radziens between that place and Temeswaer, to observe the Enemy, and to hinder