FRIDAY, 25 FEBRUARY, 1916.

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 23rd day of February, 1916.

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS it is provided by Section 2 of the Customs (Exportation Prohibition) Act, 1914, that any Proclamation or Order in Council made under Section 8 of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1879, as amended by the Act now in recital, may, whilst a state of war exists, be varied or added to by an Order made by the Lords of the Council on the recommendation of the Board of Trade:

And whereas it is provided by Section 2 of the Customs (Exportation Restriction) Act, 1914, that any Proclamation made under Section 1 of the Exportation of Arms Act, 1900, may, whether the Proclamation was made before or after the passing of the Act now in recital, be varied or added to, whilst a state of war exists, by an Order made by the Lords of the Council on the recommendation of the Board of Trade:

And whereas by a Proclamation, dated the 28th day of July, 1915, and made under Section 8 of the Customs and Inland Revenue Act, 1879, and Section 1 of the Exportation of Arms Act, 1900, and Section 1 of the Customs (Exportation Prohibition) Act, 1914, the exportation from the United Kingdom of certain articles to certain or all destinations was prohibited:

And whereas by subsequent Orders of Council the said Proclamation was amended and added to in certain particulars:

And whereas there was this day read at the Board a recommendation from the Board of Trade to the following effect:—

That the Proclamation, dated the 28th day of July, 1915, as amended and added to by subsequent Orders of Council, should be further amended by making the following amendments in and additions to the same:—

(1) That the heading "Haematite pig iron" in the list of goods the exportation of which is prohibited to all destinations should be deleted, and there be substituted therefor the heading:—

Pig iron of the following descriptions:—

- (a) pig iron containing less than 0·1 per cent. of phosphorus, including haematite pig iron;
- (b) all other pig iron containing more than 0·1 per cent. of phosphorus, but less than 1·5 per cent. of silicon together with less than 0·09 per cent. of sulphur.

(2) That the exportation of the following goods should be prohibited to all destinations:—

Cerium, oxide and salts of;
Cerium and its alloys (except ferro-cerium);
Sugar, refined and candy;
Sugar, unrefined.

(3) That the heading "Draw plates, jewelled, for drawing steel wire, and diamonds prepared for use therein," in the list of goods the exportation of which is prohibited to all destinations abroad other than British Possessions and Protectorates should be deleted, and there be substituted therefor the heading "Draw plates, jewelled, for drawing wire, and diamonds prepared for use therein."

(4) That the exportation of the following goods should be prohibited to all destinations abroad other than British Possessions and Protectorates:—

Ferro-cerium.

(5) That the exportation of the following goods should be prohibited to all foreign countries in Europe and on the Mediterranean and Black Seas, other than France, Russia (except through Baltic ports), Italy, Spain and Portugal:—

Bleaching powder;
Fruit, fresh, dried, or preserved in any way, and nuts used as fruit;
Oleaginous kernels, nuts, and seeds, such as are not already prohibited to be exported to any destination.

Now, therefore, Their Lordships, having taken the said recommendation into consideration, are pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the same be approved.

Whereof the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs and Excise, the Director of the War Trade Department, and all other persons whom it may concern, are to take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

Almeric FitzRoy.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

The Local Government Act, 1894.

NEWTON FAIR.

Whereas a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Urban District Council of Newton-in-Makerfield to the effect that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the Fair which has been held annually on the 17th day of May and the 11th and 12th days of August at Newton, in the county of Lancaster, should be abolished:

And whereas notice of the said representation and of the time when I would take the same into consideration has been duly published in pursuance of the Fairs Act, 1871:

And whereas on such representation and consideration it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

Now, therefore, I, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by the Fairs Act, 1871, do hereby order that the Fair which has been held annually on the 17th day of May and the 11th and 12th days of August at Newton, in the county of Lancaster, shall be abolished.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 21st day of February, 1916.

Herbert Samuel.

Whitehall, 14th February, 1916.

The KING has been graciously pleased to give and to grant unto Harry Grindell Matthews, of Pall Mall, in the City of Westminster, Gentleman, His Royal Licence and Authority that he may take and henceforth use the surname of Grindell in lieu of that of Matthews, that he may bear the arms of Grindell, and that such surname and arms may in like manner be taken, borne and used by his issue; the said arms being first duly exemplified according to the Laws of Arms and recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms, otherwise the said Royal Licence to be void and of none effect.

And to command that the said Royal Concession and Declaration be recorded in His Majesty's said College of Arms.

DEFENCE OF THE REALM (LIQUOR CONTROL).

GENERAL ORDER (AMENDING) OF THE CENTRAL CONTROL BOARD (LIQUOR TRAFFIC).

We, the Central Control Board (Liquor Traffic), in pursuance of the powers conferred upon us by the Acts and Regulations relating to the Defence of the Realm, hereby make the following General Order:—

Dilution of Spirits.

The Article entitled "Dilution of Spirits" in each of the Orders of the Board made before the Fifth day of February, 1916, and now in force in the respective areas to which the Defence of the Realm (Liquor Control) Regulations, 1915, and any Regulations amending the same, have been applied, shall be revoked, and in place thereof the following Article shall be inserted:—

The sale of whisky, brandy and rum reduced to a number of degrees under proof which falls between 25 and 50, and of gin reduced to a number of degrees under proof which falls between 35 and 50, is hereby permitted, and accordingly, in determining whether an offence has been committed under the Sale of Food and Drugs Acts by selling to the prejudice of the purchaser whisky, brandy, rum or gin not adulterated otherwise than by the admixture of water, it shall be a good defence to prove that such admixture has not reduced the spirit more than 50 degrees under proof.

And each of the said Orders shall be read as if the said Article were inserted as aforesaid therein.

Given under the Seal of the Central Control Board (Liquor Traffic) this twenty-third day of February, 1916.

BANK OF ENGLAND,

24th February, 1916.

THE Court of Directors of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England give notice:—

That a General Court will be held at the Bank on Thursday, the 16th March next, at 12 o'clock precisely, to consider of a Dividend. This will also be one of the half-yearly General Courts.

The Court of Directors also give notice:—

That another General Court will be held at the Bank on Tuesday, the 28th March next, from 11 o'clock in the forenoon until 4 in the afternoon, for the election of a Governor and Deputy Governor for the year ensuing (which will be declared that evening); and the same Court will be continued by Adjournment, and held at the same place and during the same hours, on Wednesday, the 29th March next, for the election of twenty-four Directors, which election will be declared as soon as the scrutiny is over.

Printed lists of the proprietors having votes will be ready to be delivered at the Bank on Tuesday, the 21st March.

A Member is not qualified to vote in any General Court unless he holds £500 Stock, whether in his own right or in trust for another person, and has been possessed thereof for at least six calendar months, unless he has acquired the said Stock by transmission on death or by marriage.

Where Stock stands in the joint names of two or more Members, they may, by writing under their hands, in a form provided on application at the Bank of England, nominate one of their number to vote in respect of such Stock; and if none of them is so nominated the one whose name stands first in the Register of Members shall be qualified to vote.

The nomination referred to must be lodged at the head office of the Bank in London, for examination, not less than ten clear days before the first General Court at which the nominee desires to vote.
