Whitehall, March 8, 1916.

His Majesty the KING has been pleased to award the Edward Medal of the Second Class to Mr. John Roderick McDonald and Mr. Leo Patrick Powell under the following circumstances:—

On the 26th of June, 1915, while the Bow River, Calgary, Alberta, was in flood, a hundred-foot steel span was washed loose from a bridge in course of construction. A man named Garden was upon this span, and was precipitated into the water, which was icy cold. He managed to get hold of a baulk of timber, to which he clung. McDonald and Powell put off to the rescue in a small boat, which was used in connection with the building of the bridge. No other boats were available, as the river is too dangerous for boating, even when not in flood. They had to cross a dangerous rapid, and also to avoid collision with logs which were coming down the river in large numbers, and timber from the broken bridge. Had they been capsized they would almost certainly have been drowned, as they wore heavy hip rubber boots. They reached Garden, though he had been washed nearly a quarter of a mile down the river. He was at that time nearly unconscious owing to the coldness of the water. It was too dangerous to take him aboard the boat, and they, therefore, tied a rope round him and secured it to the boat. All three were carried about a mile and a quarter down the river, when McDonald and Powell managed to steer the boat to an island.

There can be no doubt that McDonald and Powell incurred very great danger in performing this brave rescue.

THE MUNITIONS TRIBUNALS (APPEAL) RULES, 1916, DATED MARCH 2ND, 1916, MADE BY THE LORD CHANCELLOR UNDER THE MUNITIONS OF WAR (AMENDMENT) ACT, 1916.

Title of Rules.

1. These rules may be cited as the Munitions Tribunals (Appeal) Rules, 1916, and shall come into operation on the sixth day of March, 1916.

Interpretation of Rules.

2. (i) The expression "the Acts" shall mean the Munitions of War Acts, 1915 and 1916.

The expression "Appeals Officer" shall mean such person as may be appointed by the Lord Chancellor to act as the Officer of the Court under these rules.

The expression "the Judge" shall mean such Judge of the High Court as may be appointed by the Lord Chancellor for the purpose of hearing appeals from Munitions Tribunals.

(ii) The Interpretation Act, 1889, shall apply for the interpretation of these rules as it applies for the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

3. (i) Any person convicted of an offence, or against whom an order has been made, or to whom (including the trade union representative of any workman) a leaving certificate has been refused, by a Munitions Tribunal, and in all cases the Minister of Munitions, may appeal to the Judge against the decision:—

(a) on any ground of appeal which involves a question of law alone; and

(b) with the leave of the Judge or with the written permission of the Chairman of the Munitions Tribunal (in these rules referred to as the Chairman) on any ground which involves a question of mixed law and fact.

(ii) The other party to the proceeding before the Munitions Tribunal may, with the leave of the Judge or with the written permission of the Chairman, appeal to the Judge against the decision on any ground which involves a question of law alone, or which involves a question of mixed law and fact.

Notices of Appeal.

4. (i) Every person who desires to appeal, or to obtain the leave of the Judge to appeal, against any decision of a Munitions Tribunal shall give notice in writing of his intention to the Clerk to the Munitions Tribunal, and shall send by registered post his notice of appeal, or notice of application for leave to appeal, to the Judge, within seven days of the date of the decision: provided that the Judge may, in his discretion, grant an extension of time within which such notice shall be given.

(ii) (a) Every notice of appeal or notice of application for leave to appeal shall be in writing and shall state—

(1) the names and addresses of both parties to the proceedings before the Munitions Tribunal; and

(2) the place where the Tribunal sat; and

(3) the name of the Chairman; and

(4) the decision of the Tribunal; and

(5) the date of the decision; and

(6) the question or questions of law, or of mixed law and fact, which are the grounds of the appeal;

and shall be accompanied by a copy of either the complaint or the notice to appear before the Munitions Tribunal.

(b) In every case where the Chairman has given his written permission to appeal, the written permission shall be attached by the appellant to his notice of appeal.

(c) Every application for an extension of time under this rule shall be in writing, and shall state the grounds of the application, and shall be accompanied by the proposed notice of appeal or notice of application for leave to appeal.

(iii) Every notice of appeal, or notice of application for leave to appeal, or for an extension of time, shall be signed by the appellant himself: provided that it shall be sufficient compliance with this rule if—

(a) an appellant who is unable to write affixes his mark to any notice in the presence of a witness who attests the mark; or

(b) in the case of a body corporate, the notice is signed by the secretary, clerk, manager, or solicitor thereof; or

(c) in the case of the Minister of Munitions, the notice purports to be signed by any person duly authorised by the Minister in that behalf.

5. (i) All notices or other documents required or authorised to be given, for the purposes of these rules, to the Judge, shall be addressed to "The Appeals Officer of Munitions Tribunals, Room 751, West Wing, Royal Courts of Justice, London."

(ii) All notices or other documents required or authorised by these rules to be given or sent shall be deemed to be duly given or sent if forwarded by registered post, addressed to the person to whom they are required or authorised to be given or sent, at his last known place of abode, or at any place where he carries on business.

6. Where the Judge has, on a notice of application for leave to appeal, given leave to appeal, it shall not be necessary for the appellant to give any notice of appeal, but the notice of application for leave to appeal shall be treated as a notice of appeal.

Abandonment of Appeal.

7. An appellant, at any time after he has served notice of appeal or notice of application for leave to appeal, and before the day fixed for the hearing or determination, may, subject to such order as to costs as may be made by the Judge, abandon his appeal by giving notice of abandonment thereof to the Appeals Officer, and the Appeals Officer shall thereupon give notice to the Clerk to the Munitions Tribunal.

Summary Dismissal of Appeal.

8. (i) If it appears to the Judge that any notice of appeal, purporting to be on a ground which involves a question of law alone, does not show any substantial ground of appeal, he may dismiss it summarily and without requiring or permitting either party to appear or furnish further evidence or argument.

(ii) When the Judge has dismissed an appeal summarily, or has refused an application for leave to appeal, the Appeals Officer shall give notice to the Clerk to the Munitions Tribunal concerned and to the appellant of the decision of the Judge.

Notice to Respondent.

9. The Appeals Officer, where an appeal is to proceed, shall send a copy of the notice of appeal to the respondent and to the Minister of Munitions.

Chairman's Report.

10 (i) The Appeals Officer, when he has received a notice of appeal or a notice of application for leave to appeal, shall, where the Judge so directs, send to the Chairman a copy of the notice, and thereupon the Chairman shall furnish to the Appeals Officer a copy of the complaint or of the notice to appear before the Munitions Tribunal, together with a report in triplicate setting out the names and addresses of the parties, the evidence in the case, the facts as found by the Tribunal, and the grounds of the decision, or such of the above-mentioned matters as the Judge may require, and shall deal in his report with the appellant's case generally, or with any point arising thereon; and either party may obtain a copy of the Chairman's report on application to the Appeals Officer.

(ii) The Judge may, if he thinks it necessary or expedient, require the chairman who has furnished a report to the Appeals Officer to furnish a further report in such manner as the Judge may direct, and the Chairman shall thereupon comply with the direction.

Determination of Appeal.

11. The Judge shall hear and determine every appeal in open court, except where the appeal is dismissed summarily or where with the written consent of both parties he thinks it expedient to determine an appeal upon the materials before him without requiring either party to appear or to furnish further evidence or argument: provided that the decision on every appeal shall, except where the appeal is dismissed summarily, be given in open court.

Notice of Hearing or Determination of Appeal.

12. The Appeals Officer shall, in every case where an appeal is to be heard or determined, at least seven days before the hearing or determination, send to the parties and to the Minister of Munitions a notice of the time and place appointed for the hearing or determination.

Suspension of Penalties Pending Appeal.

13. Where notice of appeal or notice of application for leave to appeal has been duly given, all proceedings for the recovery of any fine or costs imposed upon either party by the Munitions Tribunal shall be suspended until the abandonment, summary dismissal, or final determination of the appeal.

Powers of Minister of Munitions.

14. (i) The Minister of Munitions may with the leave of and subject to such conditions as may be imposed by the Judge appear and be heard on the hearing of any appeal; or may

(ii) At any stage of an appeal substitute himself for either party to the proceedings by giving notice in writing to the Appeals Officer and to both parties, and thereupon these rules shall apply as if the Minister of Munitions were appellant or respondent, as the case may be.

It shall be the duty of a party for whom the Minister of Munitions has substituted himself under this rule to furnish to the Minister any information, documents, matters and things in his possession or under his control relating to the proceedings which the Minister may require for the purpose of the proceedings.

Appearance of Parties.

15. Each party may, on the hearing of any appeal, appear in person and present his case orally or in writing, or may appear by counsel, or may, in lieu of appearing, send to the Appeals Officer at least two days before the hearing a statement in writing setting forth the arguments in support of his contention, and such arguments shall be considered by the Judge.

Powers of Judge.

16. The Judge may, on the hearing of any appeal, if he thinks it necessary or expedient—

(i) sit with two or some other even number of assessors selected by the Judge respectively from an employers' panel and from a workmen's panel constituted in such manner as the Minister of Munitions may direct, and may consult with such assessors;

(ii) order the production of any document or other thing relating to the proceedings; and

(iii) order any witnesses who would have been compellable witnesses before the Munitions Tribunal to attend and be examined on oath before him, whether they were or were not examined before the Munitions Tribunal; and

(iv) exercise for the purpose of the proceedings any other powers which are exercisable by any Judge of the High Court.

Result of Appeal.

17 (i) The Judge may, on the hearing of any appeal, allow or dismiss the appeal, or may order a re-hearing before the Munitions Tribunal, or may make such other order, or may give such directions as he may think just.

(ii) Where the Judge allows an appeal—

(a) an appellant who has paid the whole or any part of any fine or costs imposed upon him by the Munitions Tribunal, shall be entitled, subject to any order of the Judge, to the return of the sum paid by him;

(b) the Judge may impose any fine or make any order which it was competent for the Munitions Tribunal to have imposed or made, and may, if he thinks fit, direct that his decision shall not invalidate any leaving certificate issued or ordered to be issued by a Munitions Tribunal or any order of a Munitions Tribunal so far as it directs the issue of any leaving certificate.

Any fine imposed by the Judge under this rule shall be paid to the Clerk to the Munitions Tribunal concerned in like manner as if it had been imposed by the Munitions Tribunal, and payment may be enforced as if it were a fine imposed by a Munitions Tribunal, and any order made by the Judge shall be enforced as if it were made by a Munitions Tribunal.

(iii) Where the Judge orders a re-hearing before a Munitions Tribunal—

(a) the Munitions Tribunal and the parties to the proceeding shall have the same rights as if the case had not been previously heard; and

(b) an appellant who has paid the whole or any part of any fine or costs imposed upon him by the Munitions Tribunal shall have the same rights with regard to the recovery thereof as if the Judge had allowed the appeal.

Court Fees.

18. (i) An appellant shall send to the Appeals Officer a fee of two shillings and sixpence upon giving notice of appeal or notice of application for leave to appeal, and a fee of five shillings before the hearing of an appeal.

(ii) The Judge may, if he thinks fit, remit or reduce any fee.

Costs.

19. Costs shall be in the absolute discretion of the Judge, who may order costs to be paid by any party or parties to the proceedings in such manner as he shall direct, and may either assess the amount thereof himself or may refer the same for assessment to any other person appointed by him for the purpose. An order for costs may be enforced in the same way as a fine under these rules.

Notifying Result of Appeal.

20. The Appeals Officer shall upon the final determination of an appeal notify to the Munitions Tribunal concerned and to the Minister of Munitions, and to the parties if they were not present at the hearing thereof, the decision of the Judge.

Effect of Decision.

21. The decision of the Judge on any appeal shall be binding on all Munitions Tribunals in England and Wales, and there shall be no appeal from such decision.

Remedies for Non-compliance.

22. Non-compliance on the part of either party with these rules, or with any rule of practice for the time being in force under the Acts, shall not prevent the further prosecution or defence of the appeal if the Judge considers that justice can be done, and subject to such terms as the Judge may impose.
