Lieutenant-Commander Roy Bacchus, R.N.

Lieutenant-Commander James Lenox Conyngnam Clark, R.N.

All Officers of the Destroyer Flotilla, and specially recommended for the good services they have performed.

Lieutenant-Commander George Harold de Peyster Chance, R.N.

Has performed consistent good service on the Beaches.

Lieutenant-Commander Henry Noel Marryat Hardy, R.N.

Has performed exceptionally good service in command of a Trawler Flotilla inside the Straits, then in H.M.S. "Folkestone," and lastly in H.M.S. "Raccoon."

Lieutenant-Commander Ernest Loftus Colley Grattan, R.N.

In charge of Wireless Telegraphy at Cape Helles since 1st May. Admiral de Robeck reports that the work carried out by this Officer has been of inestimable service.

Lieutenant (temporary Captain) Gordon Hamilton Seath, R.M.L.I.

Has acted as Naval Observation Officer at Helles since 1st May, 1915. Has shown great enterprise and resource in his duties under very heavy fire.

Lieutenant Ronald Laughton Jones, R.N.R.

Assistant Beachmaster at Helles since 30th May, 1915. Has set a magnificent example throughout.

Acting Lieutenant John Lewis Sinclair, R.N.R.

Has rendered valuable service on patrols and on carrying out reconnaissances close inshore in very exposed positions.

The KING has further been graciously pleased to approve of the award of the Distinguished Service Cross to the undermentioned Officers:—

Lieutenant Eric Ritchie Bent, R.N.

Has performed consistent good work as Naval Observation Officer on shore from the first days of the landing.

Lieutenant John Gould Nicolas, R.N.

In command of H.M.S. "Chelmer." Was twice wounded during the landing operations of 6th and 7th August, but refused to give up his duty of directing gunfire until no longer able to stand.

Lieutenant Leonard George Addington, R.N.

In command of H.M.S. "Usk" on 4th May, 1915, at Gaba Tepe. Volunteered twice to go in to bring off wounded men, the beach and boat being at the time exposed to rifle and machine gun fire at close range.

Flight Commander Charles Henry Butler, R.N.A.S.

Flight Lieutenant Gordon Lindsay Thomson, R.N.A.S.

These two pilots have carried out photographic work, on many occasions flying at low altitudes over the enemy's lines to get good results.

Flight Lieutenant Edwin Harris Dunning, R.N.A.S.

Has performed exceptionally good work as a seaplane flyer, making many long flights both for spotting and photographing.

Engineer Lieutenant Norman Seaton, R.N.

Was in charge of the machinery of the motor-lighters. Displayed most untiring energy and zeal in this extremely important service, often under fire.

Lieutenant Ernest Edward Madge, R.N.R.

Performed good service during the landing on 25th April, under heavy fire, and on subsequent days.

Lieutenant L. H. Strain, R.N.V.R.

Has performed consistent good work as Observer since February, 1915.

Lieutenant William Park, R.N.V.R.

Has proved one of the most valuable spotting Officers and has frequently performed most useful service.

Lieutenant Francis Hastings Thomas, R.M.L.I., H.M.S. "Talbot."

Has on many occasions performed good service in keeping close touch from the shore between the military and his ship whilst the latter was supporting the Army.

Acting Lieutenant David Laidlaw Cowan, R.N.R.

Was in charge of a Whaler on the 6th June at Porta Jano, and rescued crew of H.M.S. "Euryalus's" picket boat under heavy fire.

Acting Sub-Lieutenant John Edmund Sissmore, R.N.

Acting Sub-Lieutenant John Dyson Chapple, R.N.

Midshipman Erskine Knollys Heveningham St. Aubyn, R.N.

Have been continuously employed as Observation Officers in aircraft since April, and performed most valuable services.

Midshipman Haydon Marriott Sutherland Forbes, R.N.

Midshipman Maurice Charles Humphrey Lloyd, R.N.

While under heavy fire on the 25th April, assisted to secure the lighters which formed a pier between the "River Clyde" and the shore.

Midshipman William Henry Monier-Williams, R.N.

On 25th April, though seriously wounded, brought his boat off the beach under fire, becoming unconscious after getting his boat clear.

Midshipman Eric Wheler Bush, R.N.

Midshipman Charles Douglas Horsfall Herbert Dixon, R.N.

Midshipman Frederick Ernest Garner, R.N.

Midshipman Raymond de Dibon Richardson, R.N.

Probationary Midshipman Reginald Allen, R.N.R.

All recommended for services performed under shell fire on the beaches and in steam-boats off the beaches.

Midshipman Henry Dunsmore Johnston, R.N.

Assistant to Commander Swabey, Naval Observation Officer, Cape Helles, since July, 1915. Has shown great ability and resource in his most important duties.

Gunner James Holden, R.N.

Performed good service on "W" Beach, and always set a fine example.

Signal Boatswain William James Scutt, R.N.

In charge of Signal Station at Anzac since the 25th April.

Acting Warrant Telegraphist John A. Britten, R.N.
