The new Levies go on it the Hereditary Countries with good Success; and all things are preparing, to the end the Imperial Troops (which will be confidenably augmented the next Compagne, as well in Piedmont, as in Hunsary, and on the Rhine) may go betimes into the Field. Our Advices from Tokey con inue to speak of the great preparations that are making by the Enemy; and tell us, that they design to at this Summer with two Armies eginft the Emperialitie, one on the Distable, and the other towards Troops on the Stootiers, with a delign to make an Incursion into the Principality. Some of the Enemier Parties have they will expect a Principality. Some of the Enemier Parties have they will empated the Save, in order to full into Schermia; but the Imperial Troops are every where in 6 good a poting to receive the Enemy, that we are under no apprehensions of any artempt they can make.
