march, and we are told that they will form a Camp near Louvain. Monſieur Dickvelt is gone this Morning for Liege; where he is to reſide on the part of the States General till the Election be over. Divers ſmall Veſſels laden with Corn, and deſigned hither, are ſtopt at the Fort of Lillo by Order of the States General; till the Owners thereof give ſufficient Caution that no part of this Corn ſhall be Conveyed to the French. The Count de Noyelles, Major General of the Foot in the Service of the States General, came hither on Monday laſt from Holland, and has ſince taken a Review of eight Dutch Regiments in Gariſon here. The Marquis de Caſtillo, General of the Spaniſh Artillery, parted from hence yeſterday for Spain.

Hague, March 12. N. S. Prince Lewis of Baden paſſed on Tueſday laſt through Nimeguen on his way to Germany. The Duke of Wirtemberg having taken a Review of the Gariſon of Liege, returned on the 9th inſtant to Maeſtricht; where the Duke of Holſtein Ploen arrived about the ſame time from Mechlen. The Cardinal de Bouillon continues to ſolicite for a Paſs, for his ſafe coming to Liege, though with little likelihood of obtaining it.

Edinburgh, March 1. The Lords of Their Majeſties Privy Council of this Kingdom, being informed that ſeveral of the Rebels who hold out the Iſle and Rock of the Baſs, are at preſent ſore, or driven athore; and that by the late Storms, the Boats belonging to the ſaid Rebels are loſt, which may prove an effectual means of their Reduction, have, by their Order of the 28th paſt, (which was publiſhed the day after) thought fit ſtrictly to charge and command all Owners or Maſters of any Boats, Barks, or other Veſſels lying from Stirling to St. Andrews on the one ſide, and from Sterling to Berwick on the other ſide of the ſaid Rock, that they carefully keep and ſecure the ſaid Boats and Barks, that the ſame may not be ſtolen or taken away to the uſe of the ſaid Rebels; and that they do not preſume to hire or furniſh any Boat or Bark for their Uſe and Service, under the Pains due to Correſponders with, and Supplyers of Rebels and Traytors; And farther, the Lords of the Council do promiſe a Reward of 20*l.* Sterling to any Perſon who ſhall ſeize any of the ſaid Rebels, and deliver the Perſon ſo ſeized to any of Their Majeſties Officers Civil, or Military. The 5 Perſons who were taken ſome time ago, as they came from the Baſs, being brought to their Tryal upon an Indictment of High Treaſon, and found guilty of the ſame, had Sentence accordingly pronounced againſt them yeſterday by the Lords of the Juſticiary, which was afterwards publiſhed by the Heralds with Sound of Trumpet at the Mercat Croſs; And their Execution is appointed to be on the 6th of the next month.

Plymouth, March 4. The Fleet of outward bound Merchant-ſhip ſet Sail the 2d inſtant, under Convoy of ſeveral Men of War, but the Wind coming contrary they were put back the ſame Evening; The Wind is now at North; and it is believed they will Sail again to morrow morning.

London, March 5. Thomas Jones and John Golden, Convicted of High Treaſon, and Darby Collins and Patrick Quidley, Convicted of Pyracy, at the late Seſſions of Oyer and Terminer for the Admiralty of England, were this day Executed between High Water and Low Water near Redriff Stairs, according to the Sentences pronounced againſt them.

The Maſter, Wardens and Aſſiſtants of Trinity-Houſe, London, do give Notice to all Maſters of Ships, or others, That the Office of Beaconage in the River of Thames, (which hath been Leas'd for many years paſt) will be taken into their own Care and Management at Lady-Day next; from which time that Office will be kept at Trinity-Houſe aforeſaid.

John Colcot, alias Green, alias Hanker, middle ſized, ſwarthy Complexion, pitted, grey Eyes, a big Noſe, aged about 25; wears a light grey Coat, buttoned cloſe at the Waiſt like a Cannion, and a reddiſh ſtriped Cotton Half-coat, the Buttons ſuppoſed with Pewter Metal, and a blue Plaſh Breeches [illegible] John Pitcairn alias [illegible] a ſtout Man, ſtoop ſhouldered, ſpeaks broad Northern [illegible] about 24; he wears a ſad coloured Coat, a light ſtriped Silk Waſtecoat, the Button holes done of each ſide with gold Twiſt, and a pair of Buskskin Breeches, broke out of the Gaol of Newgate, London, on the 14th of February laſt. Whoever gives Notice of them (ſo as they may be taken) to Mr. James Fell, Keeper of the ſaid Gaol, ſhall receive 5 Guineas Reward for each.

Adverriſements.

*† A Practical Diſcourſe of Repentance, Rectifying the Miſtakes about it, that lead either to Deſpair or Preſumption, perſuading and directing to the true Practice of it, and demonſtrating the Invalidity of a Death-Bed Repentance, with a Diſcourſe concerning the Nature of the Sin againſt the Holy Ghoſt. By William Payne, D. D. Printed for S. Smith and B. Walford at the Prince's Arms in St. Pauls Church-yard.

☞ Blank Receipts from the Receivers General, or Head Collectors, to the Sub-Collectors of the Tax of 4*s.* in the Pound, (now granted to Their Majeſties) alſo Blank Receipts from the Sub-Collectors to Tenants that ſhall pay for their Landlords, and Blank Certificates for Perſons that have been over-charged, or double charged, are Printed and Sold by Robert Vincent in Cliffords-Inn lane in Fleet-ſtreet, and the Coming-day at the Golden Turks-head over againſt St. Dunſtans Church in Fleet-ſtreet.

*† The Gentlemans Journal: Or, The Monthly Miſcellany, in a Letter to a Gentleman in the Country, conſiſting of Hiſtory, Philoſophy, Poetry, Muſick, Travels, &c. for the Months of January and February laſt. To be continued Monthly. By Pet. Motteux, Gent. Printed for H. Rhodes at the Star the Corner of Bride-lane in Fleet-ſtreet.

☞ An Account of the Iſle of Jerſey, the greateſt of thoſe Iſlands that are now the only Remainder of the Engliſh Dominion in France: With a new and accurate Map of the Iſland. Humbly Dedicated to His Majeſty. By Philip Falle, M. A. Rector of St. Saviour, and late Deputy from the States of the ſaid Iſland to Their Majeſties. Printed for J. Newton at the 3 Pidgeons over-againſt the Inner Temple-Gate, Fleet-ſtreet. Octavo.

*† A curious Collection of Gr. Lat. and Engliſh Books, in Divinity, Hiſtory, Poetry, Miſcellanies, &c. will be ſold by Auction on Wedneſday the 14th inſtant, at 2 after Noon, at Mr. Clarks within the Weſtminſter Gate in York, and the following days till all be Sold. Catalogues are to be had at the place of Sale. By John Bullord.

☞ On Thurſday next the 15th inſtant, at 4 after Noon, will be ſold by Auction a Collection of excellent Books in Folio and Quarto, at Mr. Huſſeys near the Pump in Little Britain, at which place Catalogues may be had, and at Mr. Weldsbetwixt the two Temple-Gates, but the ſmaller Volumes will be ſold by Retail every Afternoon before the Sale.

AT the Indian houſe the upper end of Great Suffolk ſtreet is a Sale of ſeveral ſorts of rich Indian Goods to the value of 2600 l. viz fine Japan Cabinets, rich Silks and Quilts, Indian Pleat, fine China old and new, &c. The Goods are daily to be ſeen at the ſaid Indian houſe, where Propoſals at large may be had, and alſo at Mr. Richard Laſcels at the Unicorn in the Strand, and at Mr. Henry Hanky's at the King and Ball in Fenchurch ſtreet, Goldſmiths.

☞ At Mrs. Ann Wraughtons at the Blue and White Balls in King-ſtreet, in Covent-Garden, is propoſed a Sale of Indian Goods, viz. Japan Cabinets, Looking Glaſſes, Tables, Stands, and Atlas's, which may be ſeen at the aboveſaid Place till the day of Sale, which is deſigned on the 25th inſtant. Propoſals may be had at the place of Sale, at Mr. Hamerſleys, Goldſmith, near the Savoy, and at Mr. Saunders in the New Exchange.

WHereas a Commiſſion of Bankrupt hath been Awarded againſt William King, late of London, Felt-maker; All Perſons that have any Goods or Eſtate of his, or owe him any Monies, are forthwith to deliver and pay them to Timothy King in Spurr-fields near Barnaby-ſtreet in Southwark, Skinner who is appointed by the Commiſſioners, Treaſurer; And all thoſe who do not forthwith pay them will be ſpeedily Sued for the ſame.

DEſerted out of Lieut. Col. Hymſel's Company in the Firſt Regiment of Foot Guards, John Leavers, aged about 30, tall, wearing his own Hair; Gervais Barker, blind of his right Eye, wearing a dark brown Periwig, down look Countenance; and Nic. Hollyar, aged about 25, light Hair, middle ſize. Whoever gives Notice of them, ſo as they may be ſecured, to the Sun in the Wood near Little Turnſtyle, Lincolns Inn Fields, ſhall have 4 Guineas Reward for each.

DEſerted from Col. Seymours Company in Their Majeſties Second Regiment of Foot Guards, one William Tite, alias Jones, alias Pane, aged about 21, middle ſtature, round faced, freckled, having a hairy Mole under his Eye, and another near his Mouth; And Anthony Sober, middle ſize, thin pale Face, light lank Hair, aged about 26. Whoever will bring the Taylor of Chairmen long in the Streets. Whoever gives Notice of them, as they may be ſecured, to the Main Guard in Whitehall, ſhall have two Guineas Reward for each.

[illegible] Aſh, four Years old, Dapple, Mane and Tail black, a Gelding, about 13 hands, all four Feet white, a Star in the Forehead, a Snip on the Noſe, a little Mark like a Saddle, a Switch Tail, trots and gallops [illegible] Whoever ſtops the ſaid Horſe, and gives Notice thereof to Mr. Robert Bell, Carrier, at the Bull and Mouth without Aldersgate, ſhall have Forty Shillings Reward.

Printed by Edward Jones in the Savoy. 1693.