

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday March 15. to Monday March 19. 1693.

Genova, Febr. 27.

Divers Conferences have of late been held here to consider about the Contributions that are demanded of this Republick by the Comissary General of the Emperors Forces in Italy, but there is yet nothing determined in this matter. In the mean time 'tis said, that a German Regiment is marching towards the Frontiers of this State.

Turin, Febr. 27. We hear that 3 Regiments of Brandenburgers are to come hither against the next Campaign; and that his Royal Highness has bin taken into his Service a Regiment of Saxe Eschenbach. His Royal Highness is expected back from Milan in few days. Divers Defectors are lately come over to us from the French.

Milan, March 3. The Duke of Savoy parted from hence the first Instant on his return to Turin, having, during the short stay he made in this City, been present at several Councils that were held about the Affairs of the War. The Marquis de Leganes has appointed a general Muster of our Troops, to be on the 10th of this Month. The Duke of Mantua has agreed to pay 50000 Dublaens by way of Contribution to the German Troops, besides what's demanded of the Duchy of Mantferat; But the Sums are not yet adjusted with the Great Duke of Tuscany, the Duke of Parma, and the Republick of Genova. The Duke of Modena refuses to pay any. We have an account by the last Letters from Naples, that the new Levies went on with good success in that Kingdom, and that a considerable number of them would be speedily sent hither to recruit the Troops in this Service.

Venice, March 5. The Coronation of our new Doge Silvestro Valier was performed with all the usual Pomp and Solemnity; and the Publick Rejoycings are still continued on this occasion; but at the same time the Care of the War is not omitted. A great Convoy failed some days ago for the Levant; and another will follow in a short time. The new Levies are continued; and several Gallies and Men of War are fitting out in the Arsenal here.

Warsaw, Feb. 28. The Letters from Zeliew of the 10th Instant gave an account of the King of Poland's Recovery, and of his Intention to return hither so soon as the Weather was a little better, but by the Letters of a few days since, we understand that his Fever was returned, and had again confined him to his Bed. A Party of our Troops detached on the 4th Instant a small Body of Tartars, killed divers of them, and took several others, with the Officer that commanded them, Prisoners.

Lisbon, Feb. 22. There are now in this River 3 French Men of War and a Fireship, under the Command of Monsieur Rinzur, with a Venetian and two Genovese Ships which they have brought in; They design for France with the first fair Wind.

Madrid, March 4. We have an account from Cadix, that Sir Francis Wheeler sailed from thence the 19th of the last Month with the Fleet of Men of War and Merchant Ships bound for the Streights; but that they were put back again by contrary Winds. Don Pedro Corbette has resigned the Command of the Spanish Armada, which, 'tis believed, will be given to Admiral Papachino. The new raised Troops march for Catalonia.

Vienna, March 10. The Cardinal de Collonitz has resigned his place of Treasurer, or Chief Intendant of the Emperors Revenues; but his Successor is not yet declared. The Duke de Croy, who is to Command the Imperial Army again this year in Hungary, is expected here this Evening or to morrow. The Sieur d'Assenberg is continued in the Command of the Fleet on the Danube, which is to consist of the same number of Barks and Gallies it did the last year. The Letters from the Frontiers tell us, That the Workmen, who of late have been employed on the Fortifications of Essticke, were all sent to Peter Waradin, to hasten the perfecting the Works of that place, upon which the Enemy seem to design some attempt at the opening of the Campaign. We hear from Transylvania, That the Tartars have made an Incurision into the Province of the Syculus; who being exempted on account of their former good Services, from quartering of Soldiers, had themselves undertaken to guard the Passes on that side; but not taking the care that was necessary to secure them, the Tartars upon Information thereof sent out a Party of 300 men, who found the said Passes very slightly guarded, and easily forced them; These were followed by a Body of 3000 Tartars, who plundered several Villages, and then retired with their Booty. General Schoning continues still under Arrest, and even under a stronger Guard than was set upon him at his being first brought hither.

Francfort, March 17. Prince Lewis of Baden arrived here on the 12th Instant, and having had a long Conference with the Count de Thunigen, Governor of Mentz, the Count de Stirum, and other General Officers, who came hither to meet him, he parted from hence again the 13th for Hailbron and Guntzburg. 'Tis said that from the last of these places his Highness intends to go to Vienna, and to return thither about the middle of the next month. By his Highness's Order they are making some new Works at Hydsiberg for the better defence of that place.

Cologne, March 19. The Elector of Cologne went hence the 17th for Maeffricht. They write from Alface.