*Chancery of the Order of Saint Michael and Saint George.
Downing Street, 31st May, 1916.*

The KING has been graciously pleased to give directions for the following appointments to the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, in recognition of services in connection with Transport duties at the Dardanelles; the appointments to date from 1st January, 1916:—

To be Additional Members of the Third Class, or Companions, of the said Most Distinguished Order:—

Captain Lionel de Lautour Wells, R.N.
Commander (Acting Captain) Henry Valentine Simpson, R.N.

Admiralty, S.W., 31st May, 1916.

The KING has been graciously pleased to give orders for the appointment of the under-mentioned Officers to be Companions of the Distinguished Service Order in recognition of their services whilst employed on Transport duties at the Dardanelles:—

Capt. Robert Cathcart Kemble Lambert, R.N., H.M.S. "Europa."

As Beachmaster on "V" Beach on 25th April, 1915, and subsequent days, by his coolness under fire, zeal, and energy, showed a magnificent example to his subordinates in a most difficult and dangerous position.

Has since proved a most able assistant to the Principal Naval Transport Officer, Mudros.

Cdr. Henry George Muir, R.D., R.N.R., H.M.S. "Sarnia."

"Sarnia" has carried out the arduous duties of a ferry steamer, plying between Mudros and the peninsula, carrying troops and military stores, entailing constant moving and going alongside other ships.

Commander Muir has handled his ship well, and it is owing to his zeal and attention to duty that the work has been satisfactorily performed under trying conditions.

Lieut.-Cdr. Frank Eyers, R.N.R., M.F.A., "Carrigan Head."

Has performed meritorious service in the Eastern Mediterranean during the past nineteen months, including the saving of his unarmed ship when attacked by an enemy submarine.

The KING has further been graciously pleased to approve of the award of the Distinguished Service Cross to the undermentioned Officers in recognition of their services whilst
