PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council, dated the twenty-eighth day of November nineteen hundred and fourteen, His Majesty was pleased to make Regulations (called the "Defence of the Realm (Consolidation) Regulations, 1914") under the Defence of the Realm Consolidation Act, 1914, for securing the public safety and the defence of the realm:

And whereas the said Act has been amended by the Defence of the Realm (Amendment) Act, 1915, the Defence of the Realm (Amendment) (No. 2) Act, 1915, and the Munitions of War Act, 1915:

And whereas the said Regulations have been amended by various subsequent Orders in Council:

And whereas it is expedient further to amend the said Regulations in manner hereinafter appearing:

Now, THEREFORE, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the following amendments be made in the said Regulations:

1. After Regulation 15 the following Regulation shall be inserted:—

"15A. Every person who uses or keeps motor spirit, whether for the purpose of supplying motive power to motor-cars or for any other purpose, shall supply such information in relation to the motor spirit used or kept by him, and the purposes for which and the manner in which it is used or kept by him, as the Board of Trade may by any general or special order require, giving such particulars in such form and at such times as the Board of Trade may by order direct; and if any person fails to comply with this Regulation, or with any order made by the Board of Trade thereunder, or knowingly gives any false information, he shall be guilty of a summary offence against these Regulations.

"For the purposes of this Regulation, 'motor spirit' has the same meaning as in section eighty-four of the Finance (1909-10) Act, 1910."

2. After Regulation 39 the following Regulation shall be inserted:—

"39B. No person in the employment of a general lighthouse authority, and no person in the employment of a pilotage authority as master or member of the crew of any vessel belonging to the authority, shall, without the consent of the authority, leave his employment before the expiration of six months after he has given to the authority notice in writing to determine his employment, and every such person shall, so long as he continues in the employment of a general lighthouse authority, or in the employment of a pilotage authority as master or member of the crew of a vessel belonging to the authority, obey all lawful orders that may be given to him by or on behalf of the authority.

"A person shall not give or offer to give employment to any person who is, or has within the last previous six weeks been, in the employment of a general lighthouse authority or in the employment of a pilotage authority as master or member of the crew of a vessel belonging to the authority, unless such last-mentioned person holds a certificate from the authority that he left his employment under that authority with the consent of that authority, or after having given such notice as aforesaid.

"If any person so employed feels aggrieved by the refusal of the authority to consent to his leaving their employment before the expiration of six months from the time when he gave notice, or to grant him such a certificate as aforesaid, he may appeal, if employed by a general lighthouse authority, to the Board of Trade, and if employed by a pilotage authority to the Admiralty, whose decision shall be final.

"If any person contravenes any of the provisions of this Regulation he shall be guilty of a summary offence against these Regulations."

3. After Regulation 45 the following Regulation shall be inserted:—

"45A. If any person alters or tampers with any certificate of exemption from military service granted otherwise than under the Military Service Acts, 1916, or personates or falsely represents himself to be a person to whom such a certificate has been granted, or improperly allows any other person to have possession of any such certificate issued for his use alone, or makes any false statement or false representation for the purpose of obtaining such a certificate for himself or any other person, or for the purpose of obtaining the renewal, variation, or withdrawal of any such certificate, he shall be guilty of a summary offence against these Regulations."

4. In Regulation 56A, for the words "unless the jury find that the offence was committed with the intention of assisting the enemy," there shall be substituted the words "unless the offender has pleaded guilty to committing the offence with the intention of assisting the enemy, or the jury find that the offence was committed with such intention."

NOTE (3).—The List for each country is sent by telegraph to His Majesty's Representative in that country, who will notify British Consular Officers, to whom persons abroad may apply for information as to the names on the List.

The Foreign Trade Department is prepared on application to inquire of His Majesty's Representatives abroad for the names of substitutes for any firms on the Statutory List. When the applicant wishes this done by telegraph he must undertake to pay the cost of the telegraphic correspondence.

of the said Lane until it meets the boundary between the said Parishes of Datchworth and Welwyn, along which boundary the said imaginary line then proceeds in a westerly direction until it reaches the eastern boundary of the said Parish of Knebworth, and such District is coloured green, and indicated by the letter 'B,' on the said Plan.

"It is further proposed to separate a District from the Ecclesiastical Parish of Welwyn, in the County and Diocese aforesaid, and unite such District for ecclesiastical purposes to the adjoining Ecclesiastical Parish of Knebworth aforesaid.

"Such District shall consist of all that part of the said Parish of Welwyn which is bounded on the north-west by the said Parish of Knebworth, on the north and east by the District of the Parish of Datchworth herein-before described, and indicated by the letter 'B' on the said Plan, and on all other sides by an imaginary line starting at a point on the north-western boundary of the said Parish of Welwyn, immediately opposite the south-western corner of the field numbered 84 on the Ordnance Survey Map for the said Parish (2nd Edition, 1898), and proceeding thence along the south-western boundary of the said field, and along the south-western and south-eastern boundaries of the field numbered 103 on the said Map, and also along the southern boundary of the field numbered 100 on the said Map, until it reaches the western boundary of the Great Northern Railway, along which boundary it proceeds in a northerly direction to a point immediately opposite the south-western corner of a field numbered 99 on the said Ordnance Survey Map, from which point it turns eastward across the said Railway to the south-western corner of the field numbered 99 aforesaid, and proceeds along the southern boundary of that field until it meets the boundary between the District now being described and the said District marked 'B' on the said Plan; all which said District forms the most northern part of the said Parish of Welwyn, and is coloured yellow, and indicated by the letter 'C,' on the said Plan.

"The Inhabitants of the said respective Districts shall not after this Scheme takes effect be entitled to any accommodation in the respective Churches of the Parishes from which such Districts have been separated (except nevertheless any person or persons possessing a legal right by faculty or otherwise to any pew or sitting within the said Churches respectively, and who may not be willing to relinquish the same) and shall be exonerated from all liability to repair the Churches of the Parishes from which such Districts shall respectively have been separated, but shall be entitled to accommodation in the Parish Church of Knebworth, and shall be liable, subject to the provisions of 'The Compulsory Church Rate Abolition Act, 1868,' to the repairs of the said Church.

"The Incumbent of the Parish Church of Knebworth shall henceforth have the exclusive cure of souls within the said Districts.

"The fees for Marriages, and Churchings, and all other Ecclesiastical Dues, arising from the said Districts, and due to the Incumbent thereof, shall henceforth belong to the Incumbent of the Benefice of Knebworth aforesaid.

"No alteration shall be made in the Patronage or Endowments of any of the aforesaid Benefices, nor shall any Manorial Rights of the Rector of Welwyn, his Successors or Assigns, belonging to him or them as Lord or Lords of the Manor of Welwyn, in respect of any lands comprised in the said District coloured yellow, and indicated by the letter 'C' on the said Plan, be in any way affected or prejudiced by this Scheme."

The Secretary for Scotland has been pleased, by Warrant under his hand and seal, bearing date the 29th instant, to appoint Mr. Robert Guy to be Sheriff Clerk of the County of Lanark, in the room of Mr. William Weir Grieve, deceased.

*Scottish Office, Whitehall,
May 31, 1916.*

The following Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, convened in General Assembly, having been transmitted by His Grace the Lord High Commissioner to the Right Honourable Thomas M'Kinnon Wood, His Majesty's Secretary for Scotland, has been by him laid before the King, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty—
May it Please Your Majesty,

We, Your Majesty's devoted and loyal subjects, met in General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, have received with feelings of profound gratitude the gracious letter sent to us by Your Majesty through His Grace the Lord High Commissioner.

We rejoice that our endeavours for the religious moral and social welfare of Your Majesty's subjects in Scotland have gained the approval of Your Majesty, and the knowledge that Your Majesty is deeply interested in our meeting and proceedings will stimulate us to labour with renewed diligence and faithfulness.

We receive with lively gratification the repeated assurance of Your Majesty's constant solicitude for the welfare of the Church of Scotland, and of Your Majesty's resolution to uphold and support it in the full enjoyment of its rights and privileges.

We gratefully accept Your Majesty's generous gift of Two Thousand Pounds, which it will be our care to administer in furtherance of the purposes for which it has been bestowed.

His Grace the Duke of Montrose, whom Your Majesty has commissioned to act as Your Majesty's Representative in our General Assembly, has been most heartily welcomed by us. It is our earnest hope that he will be able to report to Your Majesty that our deliberations have been directed towards the advancement of true religion and the comfort and support of our people amid the trials and sorrows which they, in common with the whole Empire, have at present to endure.

The expression of Your Majesty's pride and gratification in view of the spirit in which Your Majesty has been pleased to declare that the people of Scotland have borne the sacrifices entailed upon them in this time of war is very precious to us, and we are deeply moved by the assurance of Your Majesty's unfeigned satisfaction with the zeal of the Ministry of the Churches in Scotland in the performance of their duties at home and abroad, and of Your Majesty's high appreciation of their courage and endurance in facing the perils of war and in ministering to the sick and sorrowful.

Most respectfully do we assure Your Majesty of our unswerving loyalty to Your Majesty's person and throne, of our sincere admiration of the noble example Your Majesty has shown to the Nation of self-denial, fortitude and devotion amid arduous and trying duties, of our firm persuasion that our cause is righteous, and of our steadfast confidence that the reliant and self-sacrificing efforts of Your Majesty's Forces and those of our Allies will, by the help of God, be crowned with victory and a lasting peace.

That the blessing of Almighty God may evermore rest on Your Majesty and Your Royal House, and that the Divine Grace and loving kindness may abound towards Your Majesty is our most sincere and earnest prayer.

May it please Your Majesty,

We are,

Your Majesty's faithful and loyal subjects The Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, convened in General Assembly.

Signed in our name, in our presence and at our appointment by
