

28915 Q.M.S. (Engr. Storekeeper) T. W. Redmore, R.E.

For excellent work carried out under difficult conditions in Engineer Stores.

3826 Sq. S./M. (Actg. S./M.) W. J. Reeves, 2nd Dns. (attd. P.S., 2nd County of Londr. Yeo., T.F.).

For consistent good work and devotion to duty. He is always cheery and full of zeal.

2561 Pte. J. Regan, 29th Divl. Cyclist Coy., A. Cyclist Corps.

For consistent gallantry and devotion to duty. He carried ammunition to the firing line across the open. He volunteered for grenadier work when grenadiers were few, owing to casualties. He did twenty-four hours' rescue work on end with stretcher bearers. He has also done very good work in the trenches.

8196 Coy. S./M. W. A. Rice, 2nd Bn., S. Lan. R.

For consistent good work often under trying conditions. He was wounded when consolidating a position.

8868 Sjt. A. C. Richards, 2nd Bn., R.W. Fus.

For conspicuous gallantry on patrols and bombing raids. He has been badly wounded.

67117 Sjt. J. J. Richardson, R.E.

For consistent good work frequently under shell fire.

3457 Sjt. A. C. Riddett, 2nd Bn., Rif. Bde.

For conspicuous gallantry in an assault on the enemy's trenches. He was the first man in the trench, and led a bombing party into the enemy second line trench. Later he organised a blocking party after the withdrawal from the second line trench. He also picked up a live bomb and threw it over the parapet. He set a fine example all through.

42234 Actg. By. S./M. A. Ridgers, "B" By., 150th Bde., R.F.A.

For conspicuous gallantry. When the waggon lines were heavily shelled he showed great coolness, and his fine example enabled the horses to be removed into safety.

S2/S.R./04140 1st Class Staff S./M. J. Rigby, A.S.C.

For consistent good work and devotion to duty.

39994 Gunr. H. E. Roach, 107th By., R.F.A.

For conspicuous gallantry as a linesman. He repaired wires under heavy fire.

1787 Drmr. J. E. Roberts, 23rd Bn., Lond. R., T.F.

For conspicuous gallantry as a stretcher-bearer. Under very heavy fire he brought in a wounded officer and four other wounded men. He was himself wounded on his return to the firing line.

83314 Gunr. F. Robinson, "B" By., 59th Bde., R.F.A.

For conspicuous gallantry when his section maintained steady and accurate fire under a very heavy bombardment by the enemy, until one gun was knocked out and the other ordered to withdraw.

7176 Sjt. J. Robinson, 3rd Bn. (frmly. 1st Bn.), Cam'n Highrs.

For conspicuous gallantry and good work during operations. When left without an officer or senior N.C.O., he collected men, pushed forward, and made good the position gained. His fine personal example inspired confidence.

C/267 Pte. J. Rock, 16th Bn., K. R. Rif. C.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. Although seriously wounded when in charge of a machine-gun, he refused to be removed by the stretcher-bearers till he could hand his gun over. When the machine-gun officer of another battalion arrived he was ordered to be removed.

39879 Gunr. E. W. Rose, 33rd Siege By., R.G.A.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty when maintaining lines. On one occasion a telephone pole was cut from his hand by a shell, but he coolly got another and erected it under heavy fire. On another occasion he was blown into a trench by a shell, but got out, completed his work, and later brought in a wounded man.

S/15927 Staff S./M. J. W. Rose, A.S.C.

For consistent good work and devotion to duty as a Chief Clerk.

1806 Sjt. S. W. Roshier, 17th Lrs. (attd. No. 3 L.A.C. By.).

For conspicuous gallantry. He advanced with his unarmoured car and machine-gun in line with the armoured cars, and was actually first in the enemy's gun position.

86500 Sjt. A. Ross, 176th Tunnel'g Coy., R.E.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty during mining operations on several occasions, notably when he worked for 18 hours in a gallery two-thirds full of water without either food or rest in order to lay a charge at a critical period. This is only one example out of many of his fine courage and determination.

23442 Bomr. W. Ross, "D" By., 107th Bde., R.F.A.

For conspicuous and consistent gallantry. He has repeatedly mended wires under heavy fire.

B.213 Sjt. A. Rumbelow, 7th Bn., Rif. Bde.

For conspicuous gallantry. He exposed himself to machine-gun and shell fire when going across the open to rescue a wounded man. Later he went under fire to fetch a stretcher.

50323 Sjt. J. W. Russell, 24th Divl. Sig. Coy., R.E.

For conspicuous and consistent good work on his system of telephone lines. He has shown tireless energy and resource, besides great gallantry, under fire.
