THE MILITARY CROSS. REVISED ROYAL WARRANT.

GEORGE THE FIFTH by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas King, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India: To all to whom these Presents shall come, Greeting:

WHEREAS We did by Royal Warrant under Our Sign Manual dated 28th December, 1914, institute and create a new Decoration entitled "The Military Cross" to be awarded to Officers of certain ranks in Our Army in recognition of distinguished and meritorious services in time of war:

And whereas We are desirous that certain alterations should be made in the regulations governing the said Decoration, We do hereby ordain that the provisions of Our said Royal Warrant shall be cancelled, and that the following regulations shall be substituted in lieu thereof:—

Firstly: It is ordained that the Cross shall be designated "The Military Cross."

Secondly: It is ordained that The Military Cross shall consist of a Cross of Silver having on each arm the Imperial Crown and bearing in the centre the Royal and Imperial Cipher.

Thirdly: It is ordained that no person shall be eligible for this Decoration nor be nominated thereto unless he be a captain, a Commissioned Officer of a lower grade, or a Warrant Officer Class I. or Class II. in Our Army, or Our Indian or Colonial Military Forces, and that the Military Cross shall be awarded only to Officers of the above ranks on a recommendation to Us by Our Principal Secretary of State for War.

Fourthly: It is ordained that Foreign Officers of an equivalent rank to those above mentioned, who have been associated in Military Operations with Our Army, or Our Indian or Colonial Military Forces, shall be eligible for the award of The Military Cross.

Fifthly: It is ordained that anyone who, after having performed services for which the Military Cross is awarded, subsequently performs an approved act of gallantry which, if he had not received the Cross, would have entitled him to it, shall be awarded a bar to be attached to the riband by which the Cross is suspended, and for every additional such act an additional bar may be added.

Sixthly: It is ordained that the names of those upon whom We may be pleased to confer this Decoration shall be published in the London Gazette, and that a Register thereof shall be kept in the Office of Our Principal Secretary of State for War.

Seventhly: It is ordained that the Military Cross shall be worn immediately after all Orders and before all Decorations and Medals (the Victoria Cross alone excepted), and shall be worn on the left breast pendent from a riband of one inch and three-eighths in width, which shall be in colour white with a purple stripe.

Eighthly: It is ordained that the Military Cross shall not confer any individual precedence, but shall entitle the recipient to the addition after his name of the letters M.C.

Ninthly: It is ordained that any person whom by an especial Warrant under Our Royal Sign Manual We declare to have forfeited the Military Cross shall return the said Decoration to the Office of Our Principal Secretary of State for War, and that his name shall be erased from the Register of those upon whom the said Decoration shall have been conferred.

Lastly: We reserve to Ourselves, Our heirs and successors full power of annulling, altering, abrogating, augmenting, interpreting, or dispensing with these Regulations, or any part thereof, by a notification under Our Royal Sign Manual.

Given at Our Court of St. James's, this 23rd day of August, 1916, in the seventh year of Our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command,
D. LLOYD GEORGE.

MEMORANDUM.

This Warrant is in substitution for the original Warrant of 28th December, 1914, and the Supplementary Warrant of 31st May, 1916. The insertion of the letters M.C. after the recipient's name, under Clause 8, will be carried out in the October Army List.

War Office,
26th August, 1916.

ROYAL WARRANT INSTITUTING A BAR FOR THE DISTINGUISHED SERVICE ORDER.

GEORGE R.I.

WHEREAS We are desirous of providing for the recognition of further distinguished services in the case of Officers who have been awarded the "Distinguished Service Order."

It is Our will and pleasure and we do hereby ordain that anyone who, after having performed services for which the Distinguished Service Order is awarded, subsequently performs an approved act of gallantry which, if he had not received the Order, would have entitled him to it, shall be awarded a Bar to be attached to the riband by which the Order is suspended, and for every additional such act an additional Bar may be added.

Given at Our Court at St. James's this 23rd day of August, 1916, in the seventh year of Our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command,
D. LLOYD GEORGE.

War Office,
25th August, 1916.

ARMY (COURTS OF INQUIRY) ACT, 1916.

The following Rules as to Courts of Inquiry have been made under Section 70 (5) of the Army Act as amended by the above Act:—

1.—(1) Where the Secretary of State certifies that the evidence of persons who are not subject to military law before any Court of Inquiry will be necessary, the following provisions shall have effect:—

(a) Any such witness may be summoned to attend by order under the hand of the Secretary of State or of the President of the Court of Inquiry in the following form:—

Whereas a Court of Inquiry has been ordered to assemble at on the day of 19 , for the purpose of inquiring into , I do hereby summon and require you to attend as a witness the sitting of the said Court at on the day of
at o'clock in the forenoon (and to bring with you the documents hereinafter mentioned, namely,

), and so to attend from day to day until you shall be duly discharged, whereof you shall fail at your peril.

Given under my hand on the day of

Signature
Secretary of State (or President of the Court of Inquiry).

(b) The provisions of Section one hundred and twenty-six of the Army Act shall apply to such witnesses as hereinafter set out and adapted, that is to say—

(1) Where any person who is not subject to military law commits any of the following offences, that is to say—

(a) On being duly summoned as a witness before a Court of Inquiry, and after payment or tender of the reasonable expenses of his attendance, makes default in attending; or

(b) Being in attendance as a witness—

(i) Refuses to take an oath legally required by a Court of Inquiry to be taken; or

(ii) Refuses to produce any document in his power or control legally required by a Court of Inquiry to be produced by him; or

(iii) Refuses to answer any question to which a Court of Inquiry may legally require an answer;

the President of the Court may certify the offence of such person under his hand to any court of law in the part of His Majesty's dominions where the offence is committed which has power to punish witnesses if guilty of like offences in that court, and that court may thereupon inquire into such alleged offence, and after examination of any witnesses that may be produced against or for the person so accused, and after hearing any statement that may be offered in defence, if it seem just, punish such witness in like manner as if he had committed such offence in a proceeding in that court.

(2) Where a person not subject to military law when examined on oath or solemn declaration before a Court of Inquiry wilfully gives false evidence, he shall be liable on indictment or information to be convicted of and punished for the offence of perjury, or the offence by whatever name called in the part of His Majesty's dominions in which the offence is tried which, if committed in England, would be perjury.

2. Where the Secretary of State certifies that the evidence before a Court of Inquiry is likely to affect the character of persons not subject to military law there may be included amongst the members of the court one or more persons nominated by the Secretary of State who are not officers, and any persons so nominated shall be appointed to be members of the court by the authority by whom the court is assembled.
