

Temp. Lt. George Morrison Philip, North'd Fus.

For conspicuous gallantry. With another officer he carried out a successful raid at short notice on the enemy's trenches. The enemy fired on him from a deep dug-out, but he fired his revolver into the dug-out and secured the surrender of six men. He has done daring reconnaissance work.

(The Military Cross was awarded in London Gazette dated 15th March, 1916.)

2nd Lt. Thomas Tannatt Pryce, Glouc. R.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He commanded the leading platoon in the assault, with great dash and determination, right up to the enemy's trenches, under very heavy fire of all kinds. He set a fine example.

(The Military Cross was awarded in London Gazette dated 23rd December, 1915.)

2nd Lt. (temp. Capt.) Leslie Eric Rundell, Lond. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and ability during an enemy attack. He dealt most resolutely with a situation which for a while was very precarious.

(The Military Cross was awarded in Gazette dated 15th March, 1916.)

Capt. Lionel Bassett Lipscombe Seckham, Lan. Fus.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He led one of the leading companies with great dash and reached the enemy's third line, where he did fine work consolidating the defences and organising bombing attacks. He held on till relieved about midnight.

(The Military Cross was awarded in London Gazette dated 3rd July, 1915.)

Temp. Capt. George Kenneth Thompson, York. R.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He led the first line in the attack with great dash, and, though wounded, stuck to his duty and continued to do fine work until midnight, when he was ordered back with a message. He was then sent to hospital.

(The Military Cross was awarded in London Gazette dated 15th March, 1916.)

Lt. (temp. Maj.) Arthur Ashford Benjamin Thomson, R. War. R. and R.F.C.

For conspicuous gallantry and good work during Zeppelin raids.

(The Military Cross was awarded in Gazette dated 2nd October, 1915.)

The announcement of the award of a second Military Cross, which appeared on page 5408 of the Gazette dated 31st May, 1916, is now cancelled.

Lt. (Actg. Capt.) Alfred Syer Trimmer, Can. Infy.

For coolness, bravery and great devotion to duty. Under heavy fire for two days, he, with the assistance of two of his platoon, carried out the special duties assigned to him in a most heroic manner.

(The Military Cross was awarded in London Gazette dated 15th March, 1916.)

Lt. Robert Albert Watson, R.G.A.

For conspicuous gallantry during a long period of operations, when acting as F.O.O. Daily under heavy fire, he showed great bravery in finding observation posts and gaining information. He was wounded in the performance of these duties.

(The Military Cross was awarded in London Gazette dated 23rd June, 1915.)

Lt. (temp. Maj.) Guy Williams, Lond. R.

For conspicuous gallantry under heavy shell fire. When the line on his flank was broken he organised a flank defence with conspicuous success, and saved a serious situation. He was wounded.

(The Military Cross was awarded in the Gazette dated 3rd June, 1916.)

Temp. Capt. Edgar William Wood, S. Staff. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty in action. He continued to command his company and direct operations after he had been severely wounded.

(The Military Cross was awarded in London Gazette dated 3rd June, 1916.)
