At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of July, 1916.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.

Lord Steward.

Mr. Secretary Samuel.

Sir Frederick Ponsonby.

WHEREAS by Article 22 of the Southern Rhodesia Order in Council, 1898, it is provided that the duration of the Legislative Council, unless sooner dissolved, shall be three years:

And whereas the first session of the Sixth Legislative Council of Southern Rhodesia commenced on the 15th day of April, 1914:

And whereas it is expedient (owing to the existence of a State of War) to extend the duration of the said Council from and after the 14th day of April, 1917, as hereinafter provided:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers by the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, or otherwise in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as The Southern Rhodesia (Legislative Council Extension) Order in Council, 1916.

2. Notwithstanding anything in the Southern Rhodesia Order in Council, 1898, or in any Order in Council amending the same, or in any laws for the time being in force in Southern Rhodesia with respect to the election of Members of the Legislative Council or otherwise concerning the Legislative Council, the duration of the Sixth Legislative Council of Southern Rhodesia, unless sooner dissolved, is hereby extended from and after the 14th day of April, 1917, until a date (hereinafter called the appointed date) which shall not be later than six months from the termination of the present War.

3. It shall be lawful for the High Commissioner, after consulting the Administrator, by Proclamation at any time after the actual cessation of Hostilities to fix the appointed date for the purposes of this Order.

4. This Order shall be published in the Gazette, and shall thereupon commence and come into operation; and the High Commissioner shall give directions for the publication of this Order at such places, and in such manner, and for such time or times as he thinks proper for giving due publicity thereto.

5. His Majesty may from time to time revoke, alter, add to, or amend this Order.

Almeric FitzRoy.

*Chancery of the Order of Saint Michael and Saint George,
Downing Street, 14th September, 1916.*

The KING has been graciously pleased to give directions for the following promotion in and appointment to the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George:—

To be an Ordinary Member of the Second Class, or Knights Commanders, of the said Most Distinguished Order:—

Colonel Arthur Percy Sherwood, C.M.G., M.V.O., Chief Commissioner of Police of the Dominion of Canada.

To be an Ordinary Member of the Third Class, or Companions, of the said Most Distinguished Order:—

Lieutenant-Colonel Edward Alexander Stanton, Military Secretary to His Royal Highness the Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief of the Dominion of Canada.

Crown Office, 25th September, 1916.

The KING has been pleased, by Warrant under His Majesty's Sign Manual, bearing date the 23rd inst., to appoint the Rev. Eldon Ormonde Juakin Butler, M.A., L.Th., Vicar of Sedghill, Shaftesbury, to the Vicarage of Egglestone, in the County and Diocese of Durham, void by the resignation of the Rev. Beaumont Johnson, B.A., the last Incumbent.

*Foreign Office,
Foreign Trade Department,
September 25, 1916.*

The Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs desires to bring to the notice of all concerned that with a view to preventing breaches of the Trading with the Enemy Acts and Proclamations, particularly the Trading with the Enemy (Extension of Powers) Act, 1915, all goods exported from the countries marked "A" below on and after October 1st next to the United Kingdom, Australia, Newfoundland, New Zealand, Union of South Africa, all Colonies not possessing responsible Governments and Protectorates, as well as India, must be accompanied by Certificates of Interest. These certificates will be issued by His Majesty's Consular Officers, who will require documentary evidence that no enemy or person with whom trade is for the time being prohibited (e.g., persons on the Statutory List) has any interest in the goods.

"A."—Abyssinia, Argentina, Azores, Bolivia, Brazil, Canary Islands, Cape Verde Islands, Chile, Colombia, Costa Rica, Cuba, Danish West Indies, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, Greece, Guatemala, Honduras, Liberia, Madeira, Mexico, Morocco, Muscat, Netherland East and West Indies, Nicaragua, Panama, Paraguay, Persia, Peru, Philippine Islands, Portuguese East and West Africa, San Salvador, Spain, Spanish West Africa, Uruguay and Venezuela.

In the case of exports from the countries marked "B" below where Certificates of Origin have hitherto been required, Certificates of Origin and Interest will be required for goods exported on and after October 1st on the same conditions, except that the additional evidence required for a Certificate of Interest will have to be produced to the Consular Officer to whom application is made for the issue of the combined certificate.

"B."—Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Holland and Switzerland.

(In the case of these five countries goods for which Certificates of Origin are not at present required will not have to be accompanied by the new form of Certificate of Origin and Interest.)

All goods exported on and after October 10th from the five countries marked "B" above to Canada must be accompanied by a Certificate of Origin and Interest.

In other cases Certificates are not compulsory, but many traders, and particularly British shipowners and masters, will no doubt require, for their own protection against possible breaches of the Trading with the Enemy Acts, to be furnished with Certificates for goods consigned to any destination whatsoever. His Majesty's Consular Officers have accordingly been instructed to furnish certificates in such circumstances on application.

The period of validity shown on Certificates of Interest and Certificates of Origin and Interest will in no case exceed two months. It is required that shipment shall have been effected from the country of origin within the period of validity stated on the certificate, and it is not necessary that the goods shall have arrived at their ultimate destination within that period. The onus of proving that the goods were shipped within the period required will, if necessary, rest in cases of doubt with the importer of the goods.

Foreign Trade Department,
Lancaster House, St. James's, S.W.,
September 25th, 1916.

Whitehall, September 23, 1916.

The KING has been pleased, in pursuance of the provisions of the Second Schedule to the Military Service Act, 1916 (5 & 6 Geo. V, cap. 104), to appoint the Right Honourable Earl Amherst to be a member of the Appeal Tribunal for the County of Kent, including the County Borough of Canterbury.
