R.N. (Commodore, 2nd Class).
Captain Arthur Kipling Waistell, R.N.

*Chancery of the Order of Saint Michael and Saint George,
Downing Street, 25th October, 1916.*

The KING has been graciously pleased to give directions for the following appointment to the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, in recognition of the services of the undermentioned Officer during operations in Mesopotamia:—

To be an Additional Member of the Third Class, or Companions, of the said Most Distinguished Order.

Captain Cathcart Romer Wason, R.N.

Admiralty, S.W., 25th October, 1916.

The KING has been graciously pleased to give orders for the appointment of the undermentioned Officers to be Companions of the Distinguished Service Order:—

Commander Ernest William Leir, R.N.
Commander Charles Stuart Benning, R.N.

In recognition of their services in submarines in enemy waters.

Lieutenant-Commander Robert Ross Turner, R.N.

In recognition of his gallantry and determination in carrying out submarine attacks on enemy ships.

Lieutenant-Commander Robert Henry Taunton Raikes, R.N.

Lieutenant George Elliott Harden, R.N.

Lieutenant Harden was temporarily in command of the river gunboat "Comet" during the attack on Ctesiphon and the subsequent withdrawal to Kut-el-Amara, and behaved with great coolness during the whole period. On the 1st December, 1915, when H.M.S. "Firefly" had grounded and been abandoned, he took a boat over from the armed launch "Sumana" under very heavy fire, and brought off the "Firefly's" crew.

Lieutenant Humphrey Maurice Robson, R.N.

Flight Lieutenant Colin Roy Mackenzie,
R.N.A.S.

In recognition of his skill and gallantry in destroying a German kite balloon on the 7th September, 1916, under very severe anti-aircraft fire.

The KING has also been graciously pleased to approve of the award of the Distinguished Service Cross to the undermentioned Officers:—

Lieutenant Stephen Clive Lyttelton, R.N.

Lieutenant Rodolph Henry Fane De Salis,
R.N.

Lieutenant Anthony Bevis Lockhart, R.N.

In recognition of his services in submarines in enemy waters.

Lieutenant George Samuel Brown, R.N.

Lieutenant James Lawrence Boyd, R.N.

Lieutenant Douglas Carteret Sealy, R.N.

Lieutenant Adrian Henry James Stokes,
R.N.

In recognition of their services in submarines in enemy waters.

Flight Commander Tom Harry England,
R.N.A.S.

In recognition of his services on the 26th August, 1916, when, accompanied by a Military Officer as Observer, he flew a seaplane 43 miles inland from the Syrian Coast, crossed a range of hills 2,000 feet high, with clouds at 1,500 feet, and after dropping bombs on the station of Homs returned safely to his ship. The machine was exposed to rifle fire at extremely low altitudes for long periods, and Flight Commander England showed remarkable pluck, determination and skill in carrying out the flight under adverse conditions.

Flight Lieutenant Charles Teverill Freeman,
R.N.A.S.

In recognition of the gallantry and skill displayed by him on the night of the 2nd August, 1916, when he made a determined attack on a Zeppelin at sea, only abandoning the attack when he had exhausted all his ammunition. As darkness was approaching at the time, and his chances of being picked up were problematical, his courage and devotion in returning to the attack a second and third time were exemplary.

Flight Sub-Lieutenant Stanley James Goble,
R.N.A.S.

In recognition of his services on the 24th September, 1916, when he attacked two hostile machines in the vicinity of Ghisteltes at close range, and brought one of them down on fire in a spiral nose-dive.

Flight Sub-Lieutenant Ronald Grahame,
R.N.A.S.

For exceptional gallantry in attacking and beating off four enemy seaplanes whilst on escort duty off the Belgian coast on the 22nd September, 1916.

Flight Sub-Lieutenant Daniel Murray
Boyne Galbraith, R.N.A.S.

In recognition of his services in attacking a large enemy two-seater seaplane on the 28th September, 1916. Flight Sub-Lieutenant Galbraith's machine was severely damaged by gun-fire from the enemy machine, which finally blew up in the air.

Sub-Lieutenant (now Act. Lieut.) John
Gwyndd Wood, R.N.R.

Sub-Lieutenant Wood was sent down the river Tigris from Umm-al-Tubal Camp in a motor-boat about 2.0 a.m., on the 1st December, 1915, with an important message. He displayed great bravery under heavy fire, and was wounded.

Lieutenant Benjamin Rowley George Kent,
R.N.R.

Acting Lieutenant Hugh Donald Wynne,
R.N.R.

Sub-Lieutenant Frederick Henry Good,
R.N.R.

Chief Gunner Robert John Thomas, R.N.

In recognition of their services in the Patrol Cruisers during the period January to June, 1916.

Acting Lieutenant Denis A. Casey, R.N.R.

Acting Lieutenant Arthur George Madan,
R.N.R.

In recognition of their services in submarines in enemy waters.

Gunner (T) Reuben James McVittie, R.N.
Skipper Charles Angus, R.N.R., 390
W.S.A.

In recognition of his conduct in an engagement with enemy submarines on the 11th July, 1916, and of the skilful and seamanlike manner in which he manœuvred his vessel when she was disabled by gunfire, thereby saving practically the whole of his ship's company.
