MEMO.

Treasury Bills outstanding on 28th October, 1916:—

*1,082,808,000

The Exchequer Receipts and Issues in the week ended 28th October, and the preceding week, were exceptionally heavy by reason of the fact that large adjustments were made in respect of past transactions in America and elsewhere (including the American Loan of $250,000,000 in September), which had not previously been passed through the Exchequer Account. The amount of these special adjustments (which represents receipts and expenditure properly belonging to previous weeks) was about £80,000,000 in the week ended 28th October, and £20,000,000 in the preceding week.

* Includes £254,000, the proceeds of which were not carried to the Exchequer within the period of the Account.
