BY THE KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.I.

WHEREAS by Our Proclamation, dated the fifth day of August, nineteen hundred and fourteen, We ordered Our Lieutenant-Governor of the Isle of Man to call out the Volunteer Corps of the Isle of Man forthwith for actual military service

AND WHEREAS by section nineteen of the Volunteer Act, 1863, as applied to the Isle of Man, after the Volunteer Corps for the Isle of Man has been called out for actual military service, the Corps shall be released from actual military service only by an order in writing signed by the Governor of the Island or the person for the time being fulfilling the duties of Governor, and addressed and delivered to the Commanding Officer of the Corps, which order the said Governor or other person shall issue upon or as soon as may be after the Proclamation of Us declaring the occasion to have passed and no sooner or otherwise.

AND WHEREAS other arrangements have now been made for the carrying out of the duties performed by the said Volunteer Corps:

NOW, THEREFORE, We do hereby, by and with the advice of Our Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, declare the occasion for the calling out for actual military service of the said Volunteer Corps to have passed, and We do hereby direct Our Lieutenant-Governor of the Isle of Man by order in writing addressed and delivered to the Commanding Officer of the said Corps to release the said Corps from actual military service.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this sixth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixteen, and in the Seventh year of Our Reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 6th day of November, 1916.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council dated the twenty-eighth day of November nineteen hundred and fourteen, His Majesty was pleased to make Regulations (called the "Defence of the Realm (Consolidation) Regulations, 1914") under the Defence of the Realm Consolidation Act, 1914, for securing the public safety and the defence of the realm:

And whereas the said Act has been amended by the Defence of the Realm (Amendment) Act, 1915, the Defence of the Realm (Amendment) (No. 2) Act, 1915, and the Munitions of War Act, 1915:

And whereas the said Regulations have been amended by various subsequent Orders in Council

And whereas it is expedient further to amend the said Regulations in manner hereinafter appearing:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the following amendments be made in the said Regulations:—

1. After Regulation 2e the following regulation shall be inserted:—

“2f. Where in anticipation of the issue of an order or requisition by the Admiralty, or Army Council, or Minister of Munitions under these regulations, the whole or any part of the output of any factory or workshop or any goods have been delivered to or put at the disposal of the Admiralty, or Army Council, or Minister of Munitions, then, if such order or regulation is subsequently made, the output or part thereof or goods shall be deemed to have been delivered or put at the disposal of the Admiralty, or Army Council, or Minister of Munitions in compliance with such order or requisition.”

2. After Regulation 14e there shall be inserted the following regulation:—

“14f. If any British subject, without a special permit issued by or under the authority of a Secretary of State, voluntarily enters any enemy country save in the course of military operations, or fails to comply with any condition subject to which such a special permit has been granted, he shall be guilty of an offence against these regulations.

“In this regulation the expression ‘enemy country’ shall include any foreign territory in the military occupation of the enemy, but shall not include any territory in the military occupation of His Majesty or His Allies.”

3. After Regulation 15c, the following regulation shall be inserted:—

“15d. The occupier of every agricultural holding in Great Britain, if so directed by any general or special order of the Army Council, shall supply such information relating to the holding as may be required by the order, giving such particulars in such form, and at such times, and to such authority or person as may be directed by the order, including particulars as to the cultivation of the holding, the live stock thereon, the persons employed or living thereon, and the persons, who having been employed thereon since the commencement of the war, have joined any of His Majesty’s forces, and if any person fails to comply with any order made by the Army Council under this regulation or knowingly gives any false information, he shall be guilty of a summary offence against these regulations.

“For the purposes of this regulation ‘agricultural holding’ means any piece of land which is wholly agricultural or wholly pastoral, or part agricultural, and as to the residue pastoral, or in whole or in part cultivated for the purposes of the trade or business of market gardening and ‘occupier’ includes any person for the time being having the management of the holding.”

4. After Regulation 24a the following regulation shall be inserted:—

“24b. On and after the first day of December nineteen hundred and sixteen, no person shall, without a permit issued by or under the authority of the Admiralty or Army Council, transmit, consign, convey, or export from the United Kingdom to any person in any neutral country in Europe or America, or to any person in any enemy country, any printed or written matter except such as is hereinafter expressly excepted, and the competent naval or military authority, or any person authorised by him, may examine any such matter so transmitted, consigned, conveyed, or exported, or intended to be so transmitted, consigned, conveyed, or exported, and may forward the matter, or any part thereof, to an officer appointed to censor postal correspondence.

“If any person wilfully acts in contravention of this regulation, or if any person fails to comply with any condition, subject to which a permit under this regulation has been granted, he shall be guilty of an offence against these regulations; and if such person is a company, every director and officer of the company shall also be guilty of an offence against these regulations unless he proves that the contravention took place without his knowledge or consent.

“This regulation shall not apply to ship’s papers nor to patent specifications sent with the authority of the Board of Trade, nor shall it apply to letters and other postal correspondence, trade circulars and catalogues, bills of lading, invoices and similar trade documents, cheques, bills of exchange and other negotiable or valuable securities, dispatched in accordance with any Post Office regulations for the time being in force.

“For the purposes of this regulation the expression ‘enemy country’ shall include any territory in the military occupation of the enemy, but shall not include any territory in the military occupation of His Majesty or His Allies, and the expression ‘printed and written matter’ shall include photographs and other pictorial representations.

“This regulation shall be in addition to and not in derogation of the provisions of any enactment, order, proclamation or regulation, respecting the export of merchandise or trading with the enemy, and shall not prejudice or affect the powers of censoring postal correspondence.”

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 6th day of November, 1916.

PRESENT,

The KING’s Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Aliens Restriction (Consolidation) Order, 1916 (hereinafter referred to as the principal Order), His Majesty, in the exercise of the powers conferred by the Aliens Restriction Act, 1914, has been pleased to impose restrictions on aliens, and to make various regulations for carrying these restrictions into effect.

And whereas the principal Order has been extended and amended by subsequent Orders in Council, and it is expedient further to extend and amend the provisions of the principal Order in manner hereinafter appearing.

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. In Article 12 of the principal Order after the word “thereafter” there shall be inserted the words “or so long as the order remains in force," and the following subsection shall be inserted at the end of that Article:—

"(3) An order made under this Article may, if the Secretary of State thinks fit, specify the time during which the alien is to remain out of the United Kingdom, and may be revoked at any time by a Secretary of State."

2. After Article 17 of the principal Order the following Article shall be inserted:—

"18. The areas specified in the Second Schedule to this Order shall be prohibited areas for the purposes of this Order

"Provided that—

(a) a Secretary of State may by order, after consulting the Admiralty and the Army Council, add any area to the list of prohibited areas in the said Schedule or remove any area or part of an area from that list, and this Order shall thereupon have effect accordingly, and

(b) where any area contained in the list of prohibited areas in the said Schedule comprises more than one registration district, each of those districts shall be a separate prohibited area, and

(c) where more than one of the areas contained in the said list are comprised in one registration district, the whole of the areas so comprised shall be treated as one prohibited area"

3.—(1) The Article hitherto numbered 18A in the principal Order is hereby revoked, and shall be omitted therefrom.

(2) The Article hitherto numbered 18 shall be numbered 18A, and subsection (2) shall be omitted therefrom

4. At the end of Article 18c of the principal Order the following subsection shall be inserted:—

"(3) If any alien to whom an identity book has been issued, or who is required to be in possession of an identity book under this Order, fails to produce his identity book when so required by any officer, or by any soldier or sailor engaged on sentry patrol or other similar duty, or by any aliens officer or police constable, he may, without prejudice to any other penalty, be detained pending the making of inquiries as to his identity, and while so detained shall be deemed to be in legal custody."

5 The following Article shall be substituted for Article 27A of the principal Order:—

"27A. Proceedings for any offence under this Order, or under any Order revoked by this Order, which consists of making or of causing to be made any false statement, false representation, false return, or false information, or of furnishing or of causing to be furnished any false particulars, may be instituted at any time within two months after the statement, representation, return, information, or particulars, as the case may be, was or were discovered to be false."

6 After Article 27A of the principal Order the following Article shall be inserted:—

"27B For the purpose of the trial of a person for any offence under this Order, the offence shall be deemed to have been committed either at the place in which the same actually was committed or at any place in which the offender may be

"In Ireland, for the purposes of such trial, a summons may be issued by a justice to a witness who is not within his jurisdiction, and any such summons may in Ireland be issued, served, and enforced in the same manner as a summons to a witness within the jurisdiction of the issuing justice"

7. At the end of Article 35 of the principal Order the following paragraph shall be inserted:—

"The provisions of this Article shall apply to orders of the Secretary of State made under this Order varying Article one of, or the first, second or third Schedule to this Order, as they apply to Orders in Council."

8. The amendments set out in the second column of the Schedule to this Order (which relate to matters of minor detail), shall be made in the provisions of the principal Order specified in the first column of that Schedule

9. The fact that any Article or provision in the principal Order is revoked or directed to be omitted by this Order shall not affect the previous operation of any such Article or provision, or any penalty or punishment incurred in respect of any contravention or failure to comply with any such Article or provision, or any proceedings or remedy in respect of any such penalty or punishment

Almeric FitzRoy

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 23rd day of October, 1916, in the words following, viz. —

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas Your Majesty, by Your Order in Council of the 26th day of October, 1914, was graciously pleased to sanction the entry of Commissioned and Warrant Officers into the Royal Naval Air Service, for the period of Hostilities only:

"And whereas we consider that such Officers who qualify for the Royal Aero Club's Certificate at their own expense before entering the Royal Naval Air Service, and subsequent to the Outbreak of War, should be refunded their tuition fees up to a limit of £75:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction, as from the Outbreak of Hostilities, the tuition fees being refunded to such Officers accordingly under the following conditions:—

(1) That payment should not be made until confirmation in rank, or, in the case of Officers confirmed on entry, until they have served for at least two months, this stipulation to be waived, at our discretion, in any case in which discharge prior to confirmation, or to the expiration of the two months, is due to death or injuries received on duty.

(2) That Officers who, within three years of entry, resign at their own request, or who are discharged from the Naval Air Service for causes within their own control, may be required to repay the whole or a portion of the sum received by them on account of tuition fees.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 6th day of November, 1916.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1855, it is, amongst other things, provided that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit

And whereas Her Majesty Queen Victoria was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the 14th day of July, 1899, to direct (amongst other things) the discontinuance of burials, with certain exceptions, in the Parish Church of Hollinwood, in the Borough of Oldham and County of Lancaster, and also in the Churchyard:

And whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the said Order in Council, so far as it relates to burials in the said Parish Churchyard of Hollinwood aforesaid, should be varied

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the said Order in Council of the 14th day of July, 1899, so far as it relates to burials in the Parish Churchyard of Hollinwood, in the Borough of Oldham and County of Lancaster, be and the same is hereby varied so that, notwithstanding anything therein, it shall be lawful to bury the body of Isaac Prockter, at his decease, in a vault to be constructed in the said Churchyard, provided that the coffin shall be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented

Privy Council Office, 6th November, 1916

Notice is hereby given, that a Petition of John Ross, Chairman of "The Carnegie Hero Fund Trustees," and others, praying for the grant of a CHARTER OF INCORPORATION to the said Trustees, has been presented to His Majesty in Council; and, His Majesty having referred the said Petition to a Committee of the Lords of the Council, notice is further given that all petitions for or against such grant should be sent to the Privy Council Office on or before the 7th day of December next.

Privy Council Office, 6th November, 1916

Notice is hereby given, that a Petition of John Ross, Chairman of "The Carnegie Dunfermline Trustees," and others, praying for the grant of a CHARTER OF INCORPORATION to the said Trustees, has been presented to His Majesty in Council; and, His Majesty having referred the said Petition to a Committee of the Lords of the Council, notice is further given that all petitions for or against such grant should be sent to the Privy Council Office on or before the 7th day of December next

At the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 7th day of November, 1916.

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty has been pleased, in exercise of the power in that behalf conferred on Him by Section one, sub-section one, of the Trading with the Enemy (Extension of Powers) Act, 1915, by divers Proclamations, and in particular by a Proclamation dated the 23rd day of May, 1916, entitled "The Trading with the Enemy (Statutory List) Proclamation, 1916, No. 3," to prohibit all persons or bodies of persons, incorporated or unincorporated, resident, carrying on business, or being in the United Kingdom from trading with any of the persons or bodies of persons mentioned in the List contained in the last mentioned Proclamation.

And whereas by Section one, sub-section two, of the said Act, it is provided that any List of persons and bodies of persons, incorporated or unincorporated, with whom such trading is prohibited by a Proclamation under the said Act may be varied or added to by an Order made by the Lords of the Council on the recommendation of a Secretary of State, such List as so varied or added to being in the last mentioned Proclamation referred to as the "Statutory List"

And whereas the List contained in the last mentioned Proclamation has been varied and added to by subsequent Orders of Council:

And whereas there was this day read at the Board a recommendation from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs to the following effect:—

That the "Statutory List" of persons and bodies of persons, incorporated or unincorporated, with whom trading is prohibited, should be further varied in respect of the name set forth in the Schedule hereto

Now, therefore, Their Lordships, having taken the said recommendation into consideration, are pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the same be approved.

Whereof the Right Honourable Viscount Grey, K.G., one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Controller of the Foreign Trade Department, and all other persons whom it may concern, are to take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

To the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Halifax.
And to all others whom it may concern

WHEREAS by an Order made under the provisions of section 1 of the Special Acts (Extension of Time) Act, 1915 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act of 1915"), dated the 8th day of December, 1915, We, the Local Government Board, extended for a period of one year from the thirty-first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and sixteen, the time limited by sub-section (2) of section 101 of the Halifax Corporation Act, 1911 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act of 1911"), for the exercise of the power given by sub-section (1) of the last-mentioned section to the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Halifax (hereinafter referred to as "the Corporation") of borrowing money by way of temporary loan or overdraft for the purpose of providing temporarily during any financial year for certain current expenses.

And whereas the Corporation have duly made application to Us for a further Order for the extension of the time limited by the said sub-section (2) of section 101 of the Act of 1911 for the exercise by them of the power aforesaid

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the powers given to Us by the Act of 1915, and of any other powers in that behalf, We, by this Our Order, extend for a period of one year from the thirty-first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, the time limited by sub-section (2) of section 101 of the Act of 1911 for the continuance in force of the provisions of that section.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Local Government Board, this twenty-seventh day of October, in the year one thousand nine hundred and sixteen.

Walter H. Long,
President.

F. J. Willis,
Assistant Secretary.
