BY THE KING.
A PROCLAMATION

MAKING CERTAIN ADDITIONS TO AND AMENDMENTS IN THE LIST OF ARTICLES TO BE TREATED AS CONTRABAND OF WAR.

GEORGE R.I.

WHEREAS, on the 14th day of October, 1915, We did issue Our Royal Proclamation specifying the articles which it was Our intention to treat as contraband during the continuance of hostilities, or until We did give further public notice; and

Whereas, on the 27th day of January, 1916, the 12th day of April, 1916, the 27th day of June, 1916, and the 3rd day of October, 1916, We did, by Our Royal Proclamations of those dates, make certain additions to and modifications in the said list of articles to be treated as contraband; and

Whereas it is expedient to make certain further additions to the said list:

Now, therefore, We do hereby declare, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, that during the continuance of the war or until We do give further public notice, the following articles will be treated as absolute contraband, in addition to those set out in Our Royal Proclamations aforementioned:—

Diamonds suitable for industrial purposes.

Silk in all forms and the manufactures thereof; silk cocoons.

Artificial silk and the manufactures thereof.

Quillaia bark.

Zirconium, cerium, thorium, and all alloys and compounds thereof.

Zirconia and monazite sand.

And We do hereby further declare that, as from this date, the following amendments shall be made in Schedule 1 of Our Royal Proclamation of the 14th day of October, 1915, aforementioned:—

For item 4, "emery, corundum, natural and artificial (alundum), and carborundum in all forms," there shall be substituted "emery, corundum, carborundum, and all other abrasive materials whether natural or artificial, and the manufactures thereof."

And We do hereby further declare that, as from this date, the following amendments shall be made in Our Royal Proclamation of the 12th day of April, 1916, aforementioned:—

For "gold, silver, paper money, and all negotiable instruments and realisable securities," there shall be substituted "gold, silver, paper money, securities, negotiable instruments, cheques, drafts, orders, warrants, coupons, letters of credit delegation or advice, credit and debit notes, or other documents, which in themselves, or if completed, or if acted upon by the recipient, authorise, confirm, or give effect to the transfer of money, credit, or securities."

And We do hereby further declare that the following articles shall, as from this date, be treated as conditional contraband in addition to those set out in Our Royal Proclamations aforementioned:—

Sponges, raw and prepared.

Glue, gelatine, and substances used in the manufacture thereof.

Empty barrels and casks of all kinds and their component parts.

Given at our Court, at Buckingham Palace, this twenty-third day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixteen, and in the Seventh year of Our Reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 23rd day of November, 1916.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council dated the twenty-eighth day of November, nineteen hundred and fourteen, His Majesty was pleased to make regulations (called the "Defence of the Realm (Consolidation) Regulations, 1914"), under the Defence of the Realm Consolidation Act, 1914, for securing the public safety and the defence of the realm:

And whereas the said Act has been amended by the Defence of the Realm (Amendment) Act, 1915, the Defence of the Realm (Amendment) (No. 2) Act, 1915, and the Munitions of War Act, 1915:

And whereas the said regulations have been amended by various subsequent Orders in Council:

And whereas it is expedient further to amend the said regulations in manner hereinafter appearing:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the following amendments be made in the said regulations:—

1. The Regulation (numbered 2F) which by Order in Council of November 6th, 1916, was directed to be inserted after Regulation 2E shall be omitted at that place, and in lieu thereof, shall be inserted after Regulation 2J, and shall be numbered 2K.

2. After Regulation 9D the following regulations shall be inserted:—

"9E.—(1) A Secretary of State or the Army Council may declare this regulation to be in force in any area, and in any such area no person other than a member of His Majesty's naval or military forces, or a constable, shall, subject to any exceptions for which provision may be made in the order, practise, take part in, or be concerned in any exercise, movement, evolution, or drill of a military nature, or be concerned in, or assist the promotion or organisation of any such exercise, movement, evolution, or drill, by persons other than members of His Majesty's naval or military forces, or constables.

(2) If any person acts in contravention of this regulation he shall be guilty of an offence against these regulations.

(3) The powers of a Secretary of State under this regulation may be exercised as respects Ireland by the Chief Secretary.

(4) The provisions of this regulation are in addition to and not in derogation of any other provision of law relating to the same subject-matter."

"9F.—(1) The Board of Trade, or, in Ireland, the Chief Secretary, may by order prohibit on any railways (including tramways) any traffic named in the order, being excursion traffic or traffic for special purposes, and the provision of any special facilities for any such traffic.

If any person, in respect of any traffic so prohibited, acts in contravention of any such order, he shall be guilty of a summary offence against these regulations.

(2) Any such order may be made so as to apply generally, or to any special railway, or any special traffic.

(3) This regulation shall not apply to any railways over which His Majesty has control by virtue of a warrant under section sixteen of the Regulation of the Forces Act, 1871."

3. At the end of paragraph (c) of Regulation 27 after the word "forces" there shall be inserted the words "or the discipline of any police force."

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 23rd day of November, 1916.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS under the Defence of the Realm (Amendment) (No. 3) Act, 1915, His Majesty has power by Order in Council to define any area wherein it appears to His Majesty on the grounds specified in the said Act to be expedient for the purpose of the successful prosecution of the present war that the sale and supply of intoxicating liquor should be controlled by the State, and to apply to such area so defined the Regulations issued by His Majesty in pursuance of the said Act under the Defence of the Realm Consolidation Act, 1914:

And whereas His Majesty in Council in pursuance of the said first-mentioned Act has issued the Defence of the Realm (Liquor Control) Regulations, 1915, under the said last-mentioned Act:

And whereas it appears to His Majesty that it is expedient for the purpose of the successful prosecution of the present war that the sale and supply of intoxicating liquor in the respective areas defined and specified in the Schedule hereto should be controlled by the State on the grounds that war material is being made, loaded, unloaded, and dealt with in transit therein, and that men belonging to His Majesty's Naval Forces are assembled therein:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

The Defence of the Realm (Liquor Control) Regulations, 1915, and any Regulations amending the same shall be, and are, hereby applied to the respective areas defined and specified in the Schedule hereto.

SCHEDULE.

1. The West Gloucestershire Area, being the area comprising the Petty Sessional Divisions of Lydney, Coleford and Newnham, in the County of Gloucester.

2. The Orkney and Shetland Area, being the area comprising the Counties of Orkney and Zetland (including all Burghs within the geographical limits thereof) and all arms of the sea and waters between the said Counties, and between the Islands forming part of the said Counties, and between the said Counties and the Mainland.

3. The Hereford Area, being the area comprising the City of Hereford.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 23rd day of November, 1916.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 9th day of November, in the year 1916, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of, and presentation to, the Church and Cure (hereinafter called ‘The said Benefice’) of Sutton-in-Ashfield, in the County of Nottingham, and in the Diocese of Southwell:

“Whereas the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of, and presentation to, the said Benefice of Sutton-in-Ashfield was, by Indenture dated the 30th day of December, in the year 1865, vested in 5 Trustees therein named, upon trust, from time to time, and at all times, as often as the Office of Incumbent of the said Benefice of Sutton-in-Ashfield should become vacant, and within 6 months after the happening of each such vacancy, to nominate and present such qualified Clerk in Holy Orders to be the Minister or Incumbent thereof as should be elected or chosen by any 3 Trustees for the time being, whether they should be the whole number of such Trustees for the time being or the majority of such whole number:

“And whereas by virtue of the said Indenture, and of divers subsequent Indentures of Appointment of new Trustees, and in the events which have happened, the said Advowson is now vested in the Most Noble Victor Christian William, Duke of Devonshire, James Charles Cavendish, of Darley House, Darley Abbey, in the County of Derby, Esquire, and the Right Honourable Lord Richard Frederick Cavendish, of Holker Hall, in the County of Lancaster, as surviving Trustees, upon the trusts declared by the said Indenture of the 30th day of December, 1865, and they, the said Victor Christian William, Duke of Devonshire, James Charles Cavendish, and Richard Frederick Cavendish, would be entitled to nominate and present to the said Benefice in case the same were now vacant:

“And whereas the said Victor Christian William, Duke of Devonshire, James Charles Cavendish, and Richard Frederick Cavendish, are desirous that the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of, and presentation to, the said Benefice of Sutton-in-Ashfield, now vested in them as aforesaid, should be transferred to, and be vested in, the Right Reverend Edwyn, now Bishop of Southwell, and his Successors in the same Bishopric:

“And whereas the said Edwyn, Bishop of Southwell, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness, and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the Diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore-mentioned Act recited, or by some or one of them, is made necessary he, the said Edwyn, Bishop of Southwell, has executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned:

“And whereas the transfer of the Patronage of the said Benefice of Sutton-in-Ashfield, which is hereinbefore mentioned, and herein-after recommended and proposed, will, in our opinion, tend to make better provision for the Cure of Souls in the Parish or District in or in respect of which the right of Patronage or Advowson, so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid, arises or exists, that is to say in the Parish of Sutton-in-Ashfield:

“Now, therefore, with the Consents of the said Victor Christian William, Duke of Devonshire, James Charles Cavendish, and Richard Frederick Cavendish, being the persons whose Consents as Patrons are required by the provisions of the hereinbefore-mentioned Acts, and of the Act of the 1st and 2nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 106, (in testimony whereof they have signed and sealed this Scheme), and with the Consent of the said Edwyn, Bishop of Southwell; (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme, and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Sutton-in-Ashfield, now vested in them the said Victor Christian William, Duke of Devonshire, James Charles Cavendish, and Richard Frederick Cavendish, as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Edwyn, Bishop of Southwell, and his Successors in the same Bishopric, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said Edwyn, Bishop of Southwell, and his Successors in the same Bishopric for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Southwell.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 23rd day of November, 1916.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 8th and 9th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 70, of the Act of the 14th and 15th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 97, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 55, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Representation, bearing date the 12th day of October, in the year 1916, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 8th and 9th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 70, of the Act of the 14th and 15th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 97, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 55, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Representation as to the assignment of a Consolidated Chapelry to the Consecrated Church of Saint Cuthbert, Preston, situate within the New Parish (sometime District Chapelry) of Fulwood, in the County of Lancaster, and in the Diocese of Manchester:

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said New Parish of Fulwood, of the New Parish (sometime District Chapelry) of Emmanuel, Preston, and of the New Parish (sometime Particular District) of Saint Thomas, Preston, both in the said County and Diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several Churches of such New Parishes:

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said New Parish of Fulwood, the said New Parish of Emmanuel, Preston, and of the said New Parish of Saint Thomas, Preston, should be formed into a Consolidated Chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said Church of Saint Cuthbert, Preston, situate as aforesaid:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edmund Arbutnott, Bishop of Manchester, as such Bishop, with the consent of the Reverend Joseph Udell Norman Bardsley, Clerk in Holy Orders, Vicar or Incumbent of the Vicarage of the Parish of Lancaster, in the said County and Diocese, and, as such Vicar or Incumbent, the Patron of the Vicarage of the said New Parish of Fulwood, with the consent of the Reverend Hercules Scott Butler, Clerk in Holy Orders, Vicar or Incumbent of the Vicarage of the Parish of Preston, in the said County and Diocese, and an Honorary Canon of the Cathedral Church of Manchester, and, as such Vicar or Incumbent, the Patron of the Vicarage of the said New Parish of Emmanuel, Preston, and with the consents of the Reverend Edward Grose Hodge, of The Vicarage, Paddington, W., Clerk in Holy Orders, and a Prebendary of the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul in London, of Philip Vernon Smith, of Edge House, Stroud, in the County of Gloucester, Esquire, of the Reverend Edward Alexander Stuart, of The Precincts, Canterbury, in the County of Kent, Clerk in Holy Orders, and a Canon of the Cathedral and Metropolitan Church of Christ in Canterbury, of Sir William Mackworth Young, K.C.S.I., of Oak Lea, Silverhill, Saint Leonards-on-Sea, in the County of Sussex, and of the Right Reverend Frank Theodore, Bishop of Peterborough, (commonly called 'the Hyndman Trustees'), as the Patrons of the Vicarage of the said New Parish of Saint Thomas, Preston, (in testimony whereof they, the said consenting parties, have respectively signed and sealed this Representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said New Parish of Fulwood, of the said New Parish of Emmanuel, Preston, and of the said New Parish of Saint Thomas, Preston, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the Map or Plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one Consolidated Chapelry for the said Church of Saint Cuthbert, Preston, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Cuthbert, Preston.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal Consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty in Your Royal Wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Cuthbert, Preston, comprising:—

"All those contiguous portions of the New Parish (sometime District Chapelry) of Fulwood, of the New Parish (sometime District Chapelry) of Emmanuel, Preston, and of the New Parish (sometime Particular District) of Saint Thomas, Preston, all in the County of Lancaster, and in the Diocese of Manchester, which, taken together, are bounded upon the west partly by the New Parish of Saint Mark, Preston, and partly by the New Parish of Saint Andrew, Ashton-upon-Ribble, upon the north-west by the New Parish of Saint John the Baptist, Broughton, all in the said County and Diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is:

to say, upon the east, and upon the south, by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Saint John the Baptist, Broughton, from the said New Parish of Fulwood, is crossed by the middle of Garstang Road, and extending thence first southward, and then south-eastward, along the middle of Garstang Road (thereby crossing the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Fulwood from the said New Parish of Saint Thomas, Preston) for a distance of 74 chains or thereabouts to its junction with Addison Road, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of Addison Road for a distance of 7 chains or thereabouts to its junction with Brackenbury Road, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of Brackenbury Road for a distance of 12 chains or thereabouts to its junction with Eldon Street, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of Eldon Street (thereby crossing the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Saint Thomas, Preston, from the said New Parish of Emmanuel, Preston) for a distance of 32 chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries Eldon Street across the Main Line of the London and North-Western Railway, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of such Line of Railway for a distance of 14 chains or thereabouts to the point where such Line of Railway crosses the middle of the proposed course of Addison Road West, and extending thence south-westward in a straight line along the middle of the proposed course of Addison Road West (thereby crossing Inkerman Street and Balcarrés Road) for a distance of 26½ chains or thereabouts to a point in the middle of the Lancaster Canal (North End) upon the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Emmanuel, Preston, from the said New Parish of Saint Mark, Preston."

And whereas the said Representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Manchester.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 16th day of November, 1916.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
Lord Chamberlain.
Sir Francis Hopwood.
Sir Frederick Ponsonby.

WHEREAS by the First Section of the Marriage of British Subjects (Facilities) Act, 1915, it is (amongst other things) enacted as follows:—

"Where His Majesty is satisfied that the law in force in any part of His Majesty's Dominions outside the United Kingdom makes due provision for the publication of banns or for the giving of notice in respect of marriages between British Subjects intended to be solemnized or contracted in the United Kingdom, and for the recognition of certificates for marriage issued by Superintendent Registrars in England, and of certificates for marriage issued by Registrars, and certificates of proclamation of banns, in Scotland, and of certificates for marriage issued by Registrars in Ireland, as sufficient notice in respect of Marriages between British Subjects intended to be solemnized or contracted in that part of His Majesty's Dominions, His Majesty may, by Order in Council, declare that this Section shall apply to that part of His Dominions, and in such case:—

"(a) Where a marriage is intended to be solemnized or contracted in the United Kingdom between a British Subject resident in England, Scotland, or Ireland, and a British Subject resident in that part of His Majesty's Dominions, a certificate of notice of marriage issued in accordance with such law shall in England have the same effect as a certificate for marriage issued by a Superintendent Registrar, and in Scotland and Ireland have the same effect as a certificate for marriage issued by a Registrar in Scotland and Ireland respectively; and

"(b) Where a marriage is intended to be solemnized or contracted in that part of His Majesty's Dominions between a British Subject resident in that part and a British Subject resident in England, Scotland, or Ireland, a certificate for marriage may be issued in England by a Superintendent Registrar, or in Scotland or Ireland by a Registrar, in the like manner as if the marriage was to be solemnized or contracted under circumstances requiring the issue of such a certificate, and as if both such British Subjects were resident in England, Scotland, or Ireland, as the case may be."

And whereas His Majesty is satisfied that due provision is made in respect of all the matters referred to in the hereinbefore-recited Section of the said Act by the law in force in the parts of His Majesty's Dominions outside the United Kingdom hereinafter mentioned:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers by the above-recited Act in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

The First Section of the Marriage of British Subjects (Facilities) Act, 1915, shall apply to the parts of His Majesty's Dominions outside the United Kingdom hereunder mentioned:—

The Island of Saint Lucia,
The Colony of Seychelles,
The Colony of Sierra Leone.

And the Right Honourable Andrew Bonar Law, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Council Chamber. Whitehall, the 24th day of November, 1916.

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty has been pleased, in exercise of the power in that behalf conferred on Him by Section one, sub-section one, of the Trading with the Enemy (Extension of Powers) Act, 1915, by divers Proclamations, and in particular by a Proclamation dated the 23rd day of May, 1916, entitled "The Trading with the Enemy (Statutory List) Proclamation, 1916, No. 3," to prohibit all persons or bodies of persons, incorporated or unincorporated, resident, carrying on business, or being in the United Kingdom from trading with any of the persons or bodies of persons mentioned in the List contained in the last mentioned Proclamation:

And whereas by Section one, sub-section two, of the said Act, it is provided that any List of persons and bodies of persons, incorporated or unincorporated, with whom such trading is prohibited by a Proclamation under the said Act may be varied or added to by an Order made by the Lords of the Council on the recommendation of a Secretary of State, such List as so varied or added to being in the last mentioned Proclamation referred to as the "Statutory List":

And whereas the List contained in the last mentioned Proclamation has been varied and added to by subsequent Orders of Council:

And whereas there was this day read at the Board a recommendation from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs to the following effect:—

That the "Statutory List" of persons and bodies of persons, incorporated or unincorporated, with whom trading is prohibited, should be further amended by the variation and addition of the names set forth in the Schedule hereto.

Now, therefore, Their Lordships, having taken the said recommendation into consideration, are pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the same be approved.

Whereof the Right Honourable Viscount Grey, K.G., one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Controller of the Foreign Trade Department, and all other persons whom it may concern, are to take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

Almeric FitzRoy.

*NOTE (1).—Under the Trading with the Enemy Proclamations of 25th June, and 10th November, 1915, all proclamations relating to trading with the enemy apply to all persons or bodies of persons of enemy nationality, resident or carrying on business in Liberia, Persia, Morocco or Portuguese East Africa, and consequently it is an offence to trade with any person or body of persons of enemy nationality, resident or carrying on business in Liberia, Persia, Morocco or Portuguese East Africa, even though such person or body of persons is not included by name in the above list, and the omission of the name of any such person or body of persons from such list is not an authority or licence to trade with such person or body of persons.

NOTE (2).—Where a firm named in the list has more than one branch in the same country, all branches in that country are held to be included in the list, even in cases where no address, or of several addresses one only is specifically mentioned.

NOTE (3).—The list for each country is sent by telegraph to His Majesty's representative in that country, who will notify British Consular officers, to whom persons abroad should apply for information as to names on the list; but firms in the United Kingdom with branches abroad are advised to furnish such branches with copies of the Statutory List. The lists for all countries in Central and South America are also telegraphed to His Majesty's Ambassador at Washington.

The Foreign Trade Department is prepared on application to inquire of His Majesty's Re-representatives abroad for the names of substitutes for any firm on the Statutory List. When the applicant wishes this done by telegraph he must undertake to pay the cost of the telegraphic correspondence. A considerable amount of information is, however, already available at the Foreign Trade Department, and it is hoped that it may be possible in many cases to suggest the names of satisfactory substitutes in response to inquiries, without the necessity of referring the matter abroad. It would greatly facilitate the work of this department if applicants in making inquiries would specify the particular trade, or trades, for which substitutes are required.

Crown Office,
24th November, 1916.

The KING has been pleased by Letters Patent under the Great Seal to nominate the Right Rev. Father in God Hubert Lord Bishop of North and Central Europe, D.D., to the Chapelry of St. Peter's, Vere Street, St. Marylebone, in the county and diocese of London, void by the resignation of the last Incumbent and in His Majesty's Gift in full right.

ORDER MADE BY THE TREASURY
UNDER S.2 OF THE PUBLIC OFFICES
FEES ACT, 1879.

Fees payable in the District Registry of the Court of Probate at Kilkenny.

Whereas by section 115 of the Act 20 and 21 Vict. cap. 79 for amending the law relating to Probate and Letters of Administration in Ireland it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Treasury at any time to order that the district registrars under that Act or any of them shall be paid by salaries instead of fees and to fix the salaries to be payable to them respectively; and thereupon all fees payable to the district registrars so ordered to be paid by salaries shall be accounted for and paid into the Exchequer at such times and under such regulations as the Treasury shall direct and shall be carried to and form part of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom and the salaries of such district registrars and of their clerks shall be paid out of such monies as shall be provided by Parliament for such purpose;

And whereas the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury have ordered that as from the third day of July, 1916, the District Registrar of the Probate Court at Kilkenny shall be paid by salary and that all fees received in the Registry shall be paid into the Exchequer;

And whereas by Section 2 of the Act 42 and 43 Vict. cap. 58 providing for the collection of fees payable in public offices it is enacted that the fees payable in any public office shall be collected either in money or by means of stamps or partly in one way and partly in the other way, according as may be from time to time directed by order of the Treasury;

Now therefore we, being two of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, do hereby order and direct that from and after the first day of January, 1917, all fees authorized to be taken by the District Registrar for the time being of the Probate Court at Kilkenny shall be collected and received in stamps.

Walter R. Bea.
Geoffrey Howard.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session by or on behalf of the Urban District Council of Bedwas and Machen (in this Notice called "the Council") for leave to bring in a Bill for the following purposes or some of them (that is to say):—

1. To empower the Council to provide and run omnibuses worked by mechanical or animal power (a) on any roads within the urban district of Bedwas and Machen (hereinafter referred to as "the district"), (b) with the consent of the Urban District Council of Caerphilly (hereinafter referred to as "the Caerphilly Council") on any roads within the urban district of Caerphilly (hereinafter referred to as "the Caerphilly district"), and (c) with the consent of the local and road authorities affected on any roads outside the district and the Caerphilly district in prolongation of any omnibus route in those districts or either of them.

2. To empower the Council to demand and take fares, tolls and charges in respect of the conveyance by the omnibuses of passengers, parcels, animals and goods, to purchase and take on lease lands, houses and buildings, to construct, maintain and use depots, sheds, garages and other conveniences necessary for the purpose of their omnibus undertaking, to make and enforce bye-laws and regulations in regard to the travelling in or upon the omnibuses of the Council and any omnibuses running within the district, to lop trees along the omnibus routes, to provide shelters and waiting-rooms, and for that purpose to use any part of any public or private street, public park, recreation ground or open space, to demise to any person, company, corporation or authority their omnibus undertaking or any part thereof and the right of user of the same, and of demanding and taking the fares, tolls and charges authorized by the intended Act, and to make provision for disposal of property found in the omnibuses.

3. To empower the Council and the Caerphilly Council to enter into agreements for and with respect to all or any of the provisions of the intended Act, and to empower the Council, the Caerphilly Council and any authorities, companies or persons providing or running omnibuses in the district or the Caerphilly district or any other district in the counties of Monmouth and Glamorgan to enter into and carry into effect agreements for or with reference to the working, running, leasing, using, management and maintenance of any omnibus service of the contracting parties or any part thereof and of any lands and property used in connection therewith, the provision, maintenance, hiring and supply of omnibuses, the employment, appointment and removal of officers and servants and the interchange accommodation, conveyance, transmission and delivery of traffic coming from or destined for, and the payment, collection, division, and apportionment of tolls and receipts arising from any such omnibus service, and if thought fit to sanction and confirm and make binding on the parties thereto all or any such agreements which may have been or may before the passing of the intended Act be entered into, to empower the Council, the Caerphilly Council and any authorities entering into any such agreements as aforesaid to appoint joint committees of members of the contracting parties for the purpose of carrying into effect all or any of the terms of such agreements, and to empower the Council to delegate to any such Joint Committees all or any of the powers to be conferred upon the Council by the intended Act, and to apply any of their corporate funds or revenues to any of the purposes of such agreements and to any costs or expenses of or incurred by any such Joint Committee.

4. To make further provision with regard to the supply of water by the Council in the parish of Machen Upper, and particularly with regard to the following matters:—

Notice to Council of connecting or disconnecting motors, power to lay pipes in streets not dedicated to public use, providing that register of meter shall be prima facie evidence, detection of waste, enabling Council to supply materials, relieving Council from liability to supply several houses by one pipe, as to notice of discontinuance of supply, enabling the Council to charge for supply of water by hose pipe for washing motor cars, carriages, &c., enabling Council to supply fittings, &c., and exempting them from distress and execution, as to communication pipes, and enabling the Council to repair communication pipes, and providing for the application of the revenue of the water undertaking of the Council.

5. To authorize the Council to borrow money for any of the purposes of the intended Act and for the general purposes of their undertaking and to charge the same on the district fund and general district rate and the omnibus undertaking, rates, revenues and other property of the Council or any one or more of such securities, and to execute and grant and issue mortgages and other securities. To authorize the Council to apply any of their funds, rates and revenues and any moneys which they are authorized to raise or which may be payable to them under the intended Act to any of the purposes of the intended Act, and to provide that moneys borrowed under the powers of the said Act shall not be reckoned in the limit of borrowing prescribed by the Public Health Act, 1875.

6. The intended Act will vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges inconsistent with or which would or might in any way interfere with its objects and will or may incorporate with itself, with or without exceptions and modifications, the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts and Acts amending those Acts.

7. To alter or amend or to re-enact, with or without amendment, all or some of the provisions of the Bedwas and Machen Urban District Council Act, 1914, and any other Act relating directly or indirectly to the Council.

Printed copies of the Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 16th day of December next.

Dated this 17th day of November, 1916.

EBBW VALE URBAN DISTRICT COUNCIL.

(Increase of Water Charges; Variation of Agreement of 16th January, 1906, with Nantyglo and Blaina Urban District Council; Further Provisions in regard to Supply of Water; Revival of Powers for Compulsory Purchase of Lands required for Works authorized by Ebbw Vale Water Act, 1913; Further Powers in regard to Supply of Electricity; Provision and Working of Omnibuses; Further Powers with regard to Streets, Buildings, Sewers and Drains; Water Courses; Provisions as to Infectious Diseases and Sanitary Matters; Additional Borrowing Powers; Financial Provisions; Bye-laws; Closing of Sunday Schools; Discontinuance of Offensive Trades; Cleansing of Verminous Houses and Persons; Street Cries and Noisy Hawking; Recreation Grounds, Common Lodging Houses, Fire Alarms; Miscellaneous and Incidental Provisions; Incorporation, Repeal, and Amendment of Acts).

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Urban District Council of the urban district of Ebbw Vale in the County of Monmouth (in this Notice referred to as "the Council" and "the district" respectively) intend to apply to Parliament in the next ensuing Session for leave to bring in a Bill for the following or some of the following objects and purposes (that is to say):—

Water.

1. To authorize the Council to increase the existing rates, rents and charges for the supply of water for domestic, trade and all other purposes and for the hire or use of meters, fittings, apparatus and things and to levy or impose new rates, rents and charges and to confer, vary or extinguish exemption from the payment of rates, rents and charges.

2. To alter, amend and vary the provisions of the Agreement dated the 16th day of January, 1906, made between the Council of the one part and the Nantyglo and Blaina Urban District Council (hereinafter called the Nantyglo Council) of the other part, and in particular to free and relieve the Council from all and every obligation to supply water in bulk to the Nantyglo Council on the terms and conditions and at the prices referred to in the said Agreement, and to provide that on and after the 1st January, 1918, or such other date as may be defined in the Bill, the terms and conditions on which such supply shall be given and the sums to be paid by the Nantyglo Council to the Council for all water supplied to them under the Agreement shall, failing agreement, be determined by arbitration under the Arbitration Act 1889, and if thought fit to provide that the terms and conditions and prices to be so agreed or fixed by arbitration may on the application either of the Council or the Nantyglo Council be revised by arbitration as aforesaid at such intervals as may be prescribed or defined in the Bill.

3. To make further provision with regard to the supply of water by the Council and particularly with regard to the following matters:—

Enabling the Council to charge for supply of water by hose pipe for washing motor cars, carriages, &c. exempting water fittings let on hire from liability to be taken in distress or in execution or in bankruptcy proceedings, and to provide that fittings let for hire shall remain the property of the Council; enabling the Council to enter on the premises of consumers for various purposes, including the removal of pipes, meters, fittings and other apparatus; providing that register of meter shall be prima-facie evidence; as to communication pipes; to make provision as to the maintenance of pipes used for the supply of several houses in common; and enabling the Council to repair communication pipes, and to break up roads and streets for the purpose of fixing meters and other apparatus for the detection of waste.

4. To revive and extend the powers for the compulsory purchase of the lands and easements required for the works authorized by and described in section 4 of the Ebbw Vale Water Act 1913.

Electricity.

5. To provide for the exemption of electrical fittings let on hire by the Council from distress and from execution under process of law and from bankruptcy proceedings; to authorize the Council to make bye-laws in regard to wires, apparatus and fittings and to construct and maintain in or under public or private streets and roads, sub-stations, transforming stations or other works in connection with their electricity undertaking, and to provide means of access and approach thereto; to enable the Council to provide and maintain show-rooms, promote and hold exhibitions and exhibit electrical appliances, machinery, apparatus or fittings and to promote the use of electricity by advertisement or otherwise; to empower the Council to refuse to supply electrical energy to persons in debt to them; to empower them to cut off the supply of electricity used contrary to the terms of an agreement; to provide for the payment of a minimum charge for a supply of electricity taken on extraordinary occasions or as a stand-by; to confer further powers upon the Council with regard to the entry of premises for the purpose of ascertaining the amount of electricity consumed, or for the removal of fittings and other property belonging to them, and to prescribe penalties for hindering or obstructing them in so doing; to make provision for determining the date upon which in the case of meters which register erroneously such erroneous registration shall be deemed to have commenced; to empower the Council to lay down electric lines and works in streets not dedicated to public use, to make provision for receipts and expenses and for the application of the revenue of the electricity undertaking, and in particular to enable the Council to apply the surplus revenue to any of the purposes of their undertaking including a fund for working capital.

Omnibuses.

6. To empower the Council to provide and run omnibuses, worked by mechanical or animal power, on any roads within the district and, with the consent of the local and road authorities affected, on any roads outside the district in prolongation of any omnibus route in the district, and to demand and take fares, tolls and charges in respect of the conveyance by the omnibuses of passengers, parcels, animals and goods, to purchase and take on lease lands, houses and buildings, and to construct, maintain and use depots, sheds, garages and other conveniences necessary for the purpose of their omnibus undertaking, to make and enforce bye-laws and regulations in regard to the travelling in or upon the omnibuses, to lop trees along the omnibus routes, to provide shelters and waiting-rooms, and for that purpose to use any part of any public or private street, public park, recreation ground or open space, to demise to any person, company, corporation or authority their omnibus undertaking or any part thereof, and the right of user of the same, and of demanding and taking the fares, tolls, and charges authorised by the intended Act, and to make provision for the disposal of property found in the omnibuses.

7. To empower the Council and any authorities, companies or persons providing or running omnibuses or other vehicles in any other district adjoining or adjacent to the district to enter into and carry into effect agreements for or with reference to the working, management and maintenance of any omnibus or other service of vehicles of the contracting parties or any part thereof, and of any lands and property used in connection therewith, the provision, maintenance, hiring and supply of omnibuses or other vehicles, the employment, appointment and removal of officers and servants, and the transmission and delivery of traffic coming from or destined for, and the payment, collection, division and apportionment of tolls and receipts arising from any such service.

Streets, Buildings, Sewers and Drains.

8. To confer further powers on the Council in regard to streets, buildings, sewers and drains generally, and in particular to deal with and provide for the following matters (that is to say)—

To enable the Council to require new streets to be constructed of additional width in certain cases and the setting back of new buildings in new streets; further provisions in regard to widening of new streets by owners of property on either side; requiring the construction of intersecting streets; enabling Council to agree with owner of any land in any street to exchange part of the street for his land; the exclusion of the provisions of the Public Health (Buildings in Streets) Act 1888; the submission and approval of plans showing the general scheme for the development and laying out of estates before streets are made or widened; the prohibition of bridges over streets unless licensed by the Council; to regulate the fencing of forecourts, steps, and other projections in streets; to enable the Council to lay drains in private streets; to require courts, yards and passages to be flagged; to require means of escape from buildings (including shops in or in connection with which sleeping accommodation is provided) in case of fire; amendment of section 19 of the Public Health Acts (Amendment) Act 1890 so as to apply to houses belonging to the same owner; enabling the Council to make communications between private drains and the sewers of the Council; to require soil pipes to be ventilated; to require the elevation of buildings erected on front lands to be subject to the approval of the Council; to prevent the erection of buildings to a greater height than adjoining buildings; to provide that watercourses choked up shall be a nuisance under the Public Health Acts; to prevent the covering in of watercourses except in accordance with approved plans; to impose penalties for throwing rubbish into streams; to provide for the removal of dilapidated and neglected buildings; erection of retaining walls; to enable the Council to make bye-laws in regard to the materials of which new buildings shall be constructed, and the uniting of buildings; openings in party walls; fire-resisting doors, woodwork in external walls, and as to the testing of drains of new buildings; and as to staircases and other matters in connection with new buildings; to require sanitary and other conveniences for workmen employed on buildings; and imposing penalties on occupiers refusing execution of Act; to make provision in regard to the area of habitable rooms and requiring food storage accommodation to be provided in new houses; provision of larders; to empower the Council to prohibit the discharge of petrol and other deleterious liquids into sewers and drains; enabling the Council to reconstruct any drains or sewers made in contravention of the Public Health Acts; imposing penalties on persons repairing drains without notice; enabling Council to repair private drains in certain cases; to extend section 49 of the Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1907, to buildings and tenements, to make further provision in regard to the construction of street orderly bins.

Infectious Disease and Sanitary Provisions.

9. To make further and better provision for the prevention of disease in the district with respect, amongst others, to the following:—Parents or guardians to notify school teachers of any infectious disease in their families; penalties for exposure or allowing exposure of persons suffering from infectious disease; the closing of Sunday Schools; and restriction of the attendance of children at Sunday Schools, Cinemas, and other places of Public Entertainment; "Infectious disease" to include whooping cough, chicken-pox and other diseases; information to be furnished to medical officer in cases of infectious disease; for preventing contact with body of persons dying of infectious disease, and requiring certificate before removal by railway, &c., of body of such person; the removal to hospital of persons suffering from pulmonary tuberculosis in certain cases, and the procedure to authorize and regulate such removal; the cleansing and disinfection by the owners or by the Council of buildings, sheds, boats, tents and other structures and of things therein in cases of tuberculosis; regulations for premises in which food is sold, or exposed, or deposited for sale or preparation for sale; further regulations for manufacture or sale of ice-cream and similar commodities, and for the destruction thereof in case of infectious disease, and for requiring dealers to have their names and addresses painted on their carts; to provide for the cleansing of milk vessels; prohibition of slaughtering, except in licensed or registered slaughter-houses; extension of powers of veterinary inspector; to define the establishment of a new offensive trade and to empower the Council to deal with and remove offensive trades, and to amend the Public Health Acts accordingly; provisions with regard to shaking or cleansing rags and provision of receptacles and appliances for collecting dust or filth from such rags; rag and bone dealers not to sell or supply food; to enable the Council to enter and cleanse houses which are infested with vermin and the contents of such houses, and to examine, cleanse and free from vermin persons and their clothing with or without their consent; to make provision for preventing the overcrowding of dwelling-houses; and to enable the Council to require the owners or occupiers of any dwelling-house, warehouse, or shop to provide suitable dust-bins.

Financial.

10. To authorize the Council to borrow money for the provision of omnibuses and for an omnibus depôt, for the purposes of the water and electricity undertakings of the Council, and for all or any other of the purposes of the intended Act, and for such purposes to charge the district fund and general district rate and the undertakings, estates, rates, revenues and other properties of the Council or any of such securities, and to execute and grant and issue mortgages and other securities, and to authorize the Council to apply any of their funds or other moneys authorized to be raised to any of the purposes of the intended Act, and to exempt the powers of borrowing moneys under the intended Act from the restrictions contained in section 234 of the Public Health Act, 1875.

11. To empower the Council to borrow money temporarily for defraying their current expenses by temporary loan or overdraft from any bank or on temporary loan on deposit, receipt or otherwise, and to enable the Council to consolidate their existing loans, and to enable the Council to amend rates in accordance with a new valuation list; to enable the Council to grant gratuities to their officers and servants.

Miscellaneous.

12. To enable the Council to lay out and maintain bowling greens, lawn tennis courts and croquet lawns in any recreation ground belonging to them, and to make reasonable charges for the use of same and the apparatus provided in connection therewith, and to enable the Council to let any portion of any recreation ground set apart by them to any club, company or person, and upon such portions of any recreation ground so set apart to erect and maintain pavilions, dressing-rooms and other buildings and conveniences.

13. To empower the Council to medically examine the inmates of common lodging-houses where infectious disease prevails or is suspected, and to close common lodging-houses where infectious disease exists.

14. To empower the Council to provide fire alarms in the streets, and to prohibit street cries and noisy hawking.

15. To prohibit the conveyance of meat, bread and other articles of food through the streets without a covering to protect the same from dust, and to prevent the exposure for sale of meat and other articles of food in the open air.

16. To prohibit the ejection of steam or waste gas from fixed engines, boilers or condensers of a certain temperature or in such a manner as to cause annoyance.

17. To enact all necessary provisions for giving effect to the purposes of the intended Act or of the general or local Acts in force in the district, including power for Council to enter premises and penalties for obstructing such entry or the execution of the provisions of the Bill; the imposition of penalties for breach of provisions of the intended Act or any bye-laws thereunder, or for failure to comply with the terms or conditions of any consent given by the Council under any Act or otherwise; consent of Council to be in writing; confirmation of bye-laws; evidence of appointments and resolutions, and authentication and service of notices, orders and other documents; exemption of Council from liability when executing works for owners of property and others, and imposition of such liability upon such owners and others; the recovery, apportionment and application of penalties and expenses; the recovery of demands in the county court; the laying of information and the payment of penalties recovered on the prosecution of the Council or other officer on their behalf to the treasurer of the Council.

18. To vary or extinguish all or any rights and privileges inconsistent with or which would or might in any way interfere with the objects of the intended Act, and to confer other rights and privileges.

19. To alter, amend, extend, enlarge or repeal or re-enact, with or without amendment, all or some of the provisions of the several Acts and Orders hereinbefore and hereinafter mentioned or referred to, including the Acts of 29 Vict., c. 73, 38 and 39 Vict., c. 176, 40 and 41 Vict., c. 227, 41 and 42 Vict., c. 164, and 43 and 44 Vict., c. 58, the Ebbw Vale Improvement Act, 1903, the Ebbw Vale Water Acts, 1904 and 1913, the Ebbw Vale Electric Lighting Order, 1901, and all other Acts and Orders relating to the Council or to the district or any part thereof.

20. To apply and incorporate, with or without alterations and amendments, all or some of the provisions of the several Acts of Parliament following, or some of them (that is to say):—

The Lands Clauses Acts; the Waterworks Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1863; the Electric Lighting Acts, 1882 to 1909; the Public Health Acts; the Arbitration Act, 1889, and all Acts amending the said Acts respectively, or any of them.

Printed copies of the Bill for the intended Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 16th day of December next.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the county borough of Bolton, in the county of Lancaster (hereinafter referred to as "the Corporation"), intend to apply to Parliament in the ensuing session for leave to bring in a Bill for the following or some of the following purposes (that is to say):—

Works.

To enable the Corporation for the purpose of obtaining an additional water supply to make and maintain the works in the county of Lancaster hereinafter described, together with all necessary and proper works and conveniences connected therewith or ancillary thereto or required for collecting and impounding the waters which by the intended Act the Corporation will be empowered to take (that is to say):—

Work No. 1 (Roeburn Reservoir).—A reservoir situate wholly in the parish of Roeburndale, in the rural district of Lunesdale, to be formed by the construction of a dam or embankment across the River Roeburn at a point 71 chains or thereabouts measured along that river in a south-easterly direction from the centre of the bridge known as the Mallowdale Bridge, and to extend in a south-easterly direction from the said dam or embankment up the said River Roeburn for a distance of 74 chains or thereabouts measured along that River.

The said dam or embankment will commence at a point 9 chains or thereabouts north-east and terminate at a point 6½ chains or thereabouts south-west of the point (hereinbefore described) where the same crosses the said River Roeburn.

Work No. 2.—A catchwater or conduit wholly in the said parish of Roeburndale, commencing in the stream known as Colros Gill at a point 61 chains or thereabouts measured in a straight line in a southerly direction from the centre of the said Mallowdale Bridge and 44 chains or thereabouts measured along the said Gill from its confluence with the Mallow Gill and terminating in the said intended Roeburn Reservoir near the south-western end of the said intended dam or embankment.

Work No. 3 (Mallowdale Reservoir).—A reservoir situate wholly in the said parish of Roeburndale to be formed by the construction of a dam or embankment across the said River Roeburn at a point 13 chains or thereabouts measured along that river in a north-westerly direction from the centre of the said Mallowdale Bridge, and to extend up the said river in a south-easterly direction from the said dam or embankment for a distance of 56 chains or thereabouts measured along the said River Roeburn.

The last-mentioned dam or embankment will commence at a point 6 chains or thereabouts north-east and terminate at a point 7 chains or thereabouts south-west of the point (hereinbefore described) where the same crosses the said River Roeburn.

Work No. 4.—An aqueduct, tunnel, conduit or line of pipes wholly in the said parish of Roeburndale, commencing in the said Mallowdale Reservoir at a point 8 chains or thereabouts measured in a northerly direction along the said River Roeburn from the centre of the said Mallowdale Bridge and terminating in the said River Roeburn at a point therein 20 chains or thereabouts measured along that river in a north-westerly direction from the centre of the said Mallowdale Bridge.

Work No. 5 (Hindburn Reservoir).—A reservoir situate wholly in the parish of Wray-with-Botton, in the said rural district of Lunesdale, to be formed by the construction of a dam or embankment across the River Hindburn at a point $66\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts measured along that river in a southerly direction from the confluence therewith of the Whiteray Beck, and to extend southwards from the said dam or embankment up the said River Hindburn and the continuation of that river known as the Dale Beck for a distance of 64 chains or thereabouts measured along that river and the said Dale Beck in continuation thereof.

The last-mentioned dam or embankment will commence at a point 20 chains or thereabouts east and terminate at a point 8 chains or thereabouts west of the point (hereinbefore described) where the same crosses the said River Hindburn.

Work No. 6.—A catchwater or conduit commencing in the parish of Tatham, in the said rural district of Lunesdale, at a point on the Whiteray Beck $32\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts measured along that beck in a south-easterly direction from the bridge carrying the road near the farm known as Whiteray over that beck and terminating in the said parish of Wray-with-Botton in the said intended Hindburn Reservoir (Work No. 5) near the eastern end of the last-mentioned dam or embankment.

Work No. 6A.—A catchwater or conduit commencing in the said parish of Tatham in the Middle Gill at a point 10 chains or thereabouts measured along that gill in a south-easterly direction from the Middle Gill Bridge and terminating in the said parish of Wray-with-Botton by a junction with the intended catchwater or conduit Work No. 6 at a point in the enclosure numbered 655 in the said parish of Wray-with-Botton on the $\frac{1}{2500}$ scale Ordnance Map, Edition of 1913 (Lancashire, Sheet XXXII. 11), $3\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts west of the centre of the said Middle Gill Bridge.

Work No. 7 (Swans Reservoir).—A reservoir partly in the said parish of Wray-with-Botton and partly in the said parish of Tatham, to be formed by the construction of a dam or embankment across the said River Hindburn at a point $35\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts measured along that river in a northerly or north-westerly direction from the confluence with that river of the Whiteray Beck and to extend in a southerly or south-easterly direction up the said River Hindburn for a distance of $75\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts measured along that river from the said dam or embankment and up the Whiteray Beck in an easterly direction for a distance of $37\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts measured along the said beck from its confluence with the said River Hindburn.

The last-mentioned dam or embankment will commence in the said parish of Tatham at a point $7\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts east and terminate in the said parish of Wray-with-Botton at a point 6 chains or thereabouts west of the point (hereinbefore described) where the same crosses the said River Hindburn.

Work No. 8.—An aqueduct, tunnel, conduit, or line of pipes, commencing in the said parish of Wray-with-Botton in the said Swans Reservoir at a point 23 chains or thereabouts measured in a north-westerly direction from the confluence with the River Hindburn of the Whiteray Beck and 10 chains or thereabouts measured in a north-easterly direction from the north-eastern corner of the farmhouse known as Lower Thrushgill, and terminating in the said parish of Tatham in the River Hindburn at a point $6\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts measured along that river in a northerly direction from the said point where the said last-mentioned dam or embankment is intended to cross that river.

Work No. 9 (Aqueduct No. 1).—An aqueduct, conduit or line or lines of pipes commencing in the said parish of Roeburndale, in the said Roeburn Reservoir (Work No. 1), at a point 74 chains or thereabouts measured in a straight line in a south-easterly direction from the centre of the said Mallowdale Bridge, and 42 chains or thereabouts measured in a straight line in a southerly direction from the centre of the Middle Gate on the road leading from Hornby to Slaidburn, and terminating in the parish and borough of Bolton in the existing reservoir of the Corporation known as the High Rid Reservoir.

The said Work No. 9 (Aqueduct No. 1) will be made or pass in, through, from or into the following parishes, namely:—

Roeburndale, Caton and Quernmore, in the rural district of Lunesdale; Over Wyresdale, in the rural district of Lancaster; Nether Wyresdale, Barnacre-with-Bonds, Bleasdale and Claughton, in the rural district of Garstang; Goosnargh, Ribchester, Hothersall and Samesbury, in the rural district of Preston; Chipping and Thornley-with-Wheatley, in the rural district of Clitheroe; Dilworth, in the urban district of Longridge; Osbaldeston, Balderstone and Mellor, in the rural district of Blackburn; Hoghton, Brindle, Wheelton, Heapey, Anglezarke, Heath Charnock, Anderton and Rivington, in the rural district of Chorley; Withnell, in the urban district of Withnell; Horwich, in the urban district of Horwich; and Bolton, in the county borough of Bolton.

Work No. 10 (Aqueduct No. 2).—An aqueduct, conduit or line or lines of pipes commencing in the said parish of Wray-with-Botton, in the said Hindburn Reservoir (Work No. 5) at a point 12 chains or thereabouts measured in a straight line in a southerly direction from the confluence with the said River Hindburn of the stream known as Kiln Clough, and 15 chains or thereabouts measured in a straight line in a south-easterly direction from the north-eastern corner of the farmhouse known as Higher Green Bank, and terminating in the said parish of Caton, in the said rural district of Lunesdale, by a junction with the intended Work No. 9 (Aqueduct No. 1) hereinbefore described, at a point in the enclosure numbered 647 in the said parish of Caton, on the $\frac{1}{2500}$ scale Ordnance Map, edition of 1913 (Lancashire, Sheet XXXI 10), $7\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts measured in a south-easterly direction from the north-western corner of that enclosure and $4\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts measured in a north-westerly direction from the south-eastern corner of the said enclosure.

The said Work No. 10 (Aqueduct No. 2) will be made or pass in, through, from or into the following parishes, namely:—

The parishes of Wray-with-Botton, Tatham, Roeburndale, Hornby-with-Farleton, Claughton and Caton, in the said rural district of Lunesdale.

Work No. 11 (Railway No. 1).—A railway commencing in the said parish of Hornby-with-Farleton, near the Hornby Station of the Midland Railway Company, at a point in the enclosure numbered 277 in that parish on the $\frac{1}{2500}$ scale Ordnance Map, edition of 1913 (Lancashire, Sheet XXV 12), $3\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts east of the centre of the road leading from Hornby to Slaidburn, and $\frac{1}{2}$ chain or thereabouts south of the southern fence of the Midland Railway, and terminating in the said parish of Roeburndale, in the enclosure known as Higher Salter Close, between the River Roeburn and the Hornby-road, at a point 32 chains or thereabouts west of Hornby-road, and 60 chains or thereabouts south-east of the centre of the said Mallowdale Bridge over that river.

The said intended Railway No. 1 will be situate in or will pass in, through, from or into the said parishes of Hornby-with-Farleton, Wray-with-Botton and Roeburndale.

Work No. 12 (Railway No. 2).—A railway wholly in the said parish of Roeburndale, commencing by a junction with the said intended railway No. 1 in the enclosure numbered 277 in that parish on the $\frac{1}{2500}$ scale Ordnance Map, edition of 1913 (Lancashire, Sheet XXXI 12), at a point $\frac{1}{2}$ chain or thereabouts north-eastward of the centre of Hornby-road and $2\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts northward of the northern corner of the farm building in the said enclosure, and terminating at a point $14\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts north of the said Mallowdale Bridge and 17 chains or thereabouts measured in a south-westerly direction from the western corner of the farm house known as High Salter.

Work No. 13 (Railway No. 3).—A railway commencing in the said parish of Roeburndale by a junction with the said intended railway No. 1, near the farms known as Scale, at a point on the boundary fence separating the enclosures numbered 95 and 97 in that parish on the $\frac{1}{2500}$ scale Ordnance Map, edition of 1913 (Lancashire, Sheet XXXII 1), 3 chains or thereabouts measured in a north-westerly direction from the south-eastern end of the said boundary fence and terminating in the said parish of Wray-with-Botton, near the farm known as Higher Green Bank at a point on the boundary fence between the enclosures numbered 621 and 630 in that parish on the $\frac{1}{2500}$ scale Ordnance Map, edition of 1913 (Lancashire Sheet XXXII 10), 3 chains or thereabouts measured in a south-easterly direction along the said boundary fence from the north-westerly end of that fence.

Work No. 14 (Railway No. 4).—A railway wholly in the said parish of Wray-with-Botton commencing by a junction with the said intended railway No. 3 at a point in the enclosure numbered 571 in that parish on the $\frac{1}{2500}$ scale Ordnance Map, edition of 1913 (Lancashire, Sheet XXXII 6), $22\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts measured in a southerly direction from the southern boundary of Fall Wood Coppice and 21 chains or thereabouts south-west of the centre of Botton-road opposite the southern end of Birks Barn, and terminating in the enclosure numbered 548 in the said parish on the said Ordnance Map at a point 17 chains or thereabouts east of the centre of Botton-road and 11 chains or thereabouts northward of the north-easterly corner of the farm house known as Lower Thrushgill.

Work No. 15.—A road wholly in the said parish of Hornby-with-Farleton, commencing by a junction with the said road leading from Hornby to Slaidburn at or near the intersection of that road by the road from Lancaster to Wray and terminating in the said enclosure numbered 277 in that parish on the $\frac{1}{2500}$ scale Ordnance Map, edition of 1913 (Lancashire, Sheet XXV. 12) at a point $5\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts eastward of the centre of the said Hornby-road and $\frac{1}{2}$ chain or thereabouts south of the southern fence of the said Midland Railway.

Work No. 16.—A diversion of the Botton-road wholly in the said parish of Wray-with-Botton, commencing at a point on the said Botton-road $3\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts measured along that road in an easterly direction from the centre of the existing bridge known as Botton Bridge carrying that road over the River Hindburn, and terminating at a point on the said Botton-road $3\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts measured along that road in a westerly direction from the centre of the said existing bridge, and the substitution for the portion of the existing Botton-road between the said points of a bridge with approaches thereto for the purpose of carrying that portion of Botton-road as diverted over the said intended Swans Reservoir the said Bridge with approaches commencing at the point of commencement and terminating at the point of termination of the said diversion of the Botton-road hereinbefore described.

And to stop up and extinguish all rights of way over so much of the said existing Botton-road as lies between the points of commencement and termination of the said Work No. 16.

It is intended to provide that the railways proposed to be authorized by the Bill shall be constructed on such gauge not exceeding four feet eight and one-half inches as the Corporation may think fit.

To empower the Corporation to take, divert, impound, collect, store, use and appropriate the waters of the brooks or streams called or known as the River Roeburn, Salter Clough Beck, Bank Head Gutter, Colros Gill, Bushy Clough, Lary Syke, Ranteryhole Syke, River Hindburn, Williamson's Gill, Whiteray Beck, Green Syke, Little Moor Beck, Middles Moor Beck, Middle Gill, Kiln Clough, Dickers Gill, Little Hare Clough, Great Hare Clough, Redscar Gill, Dale Beck, Antley Gill, Worm Clough, Long Clough, Weasel Clough, Ridge Clough, Horseholes Gill, Goodam Syke, Lordset Syke, Hawkshead Gill, Mean Gill, and the tributaries thereof and all other brooks, streams, springs and surface or other drainage waters which may or can be intercepted or taken by means of the said reservoirs and other works or any of them.

The waters to be diverted into the said intended reservoirs, aqueducts and works and to be used under the powers of the intended Act now flow or proceed directly or indirectly into the River Wenning and thence into the River Lune.

To make provisions with reference to the compensation water to be supplied in respect of the waters of the several streams and brooks which the Corporation may under the intended Act be authorized to take, and to provide that such compensation water shall be taken in satisfaction of all claims for compensation either in water or money in respect of the taking of such waters.

General Provisions Relative to Works.

To authorize the Corporation to deviate in the construction of any of the intended works, both vertically and laterally, to the extent shown on the deposited plans and sections hereinafter mentioned or as may be defined by the Bill or prescribed by Parliament.

To empower the Corporation to make and maintain all such subsidiary works including cuts, channels, catchwaters, tunnels, aqueducts, adits, culverts, shafts, wells, bores, water towers, overflows, waste-water channels, drifts, mains, pipes, conduits, boxes, drains, sluices, relief valves, bye-washes, washouts, tanks, gauges, filter beds, banks, piers, bridges, walls, viaducts, embankments, cuttings, sidings, junctions, signals, roads, ways, approaches, engines, sheds, buildings, telegraph and telephone posts, wires and other apparatus, appliances and conveniences as may be necessary or convenient in connection with or for the purposes of the intended works or for the purpose of collecting and impounding any waters which the Corporation will by the Bill be authorized to impound, take or divert.

To empower the Corporation to make in any street or road all such alterations of levels and width of roadway and footway as may be expedient for or in connection with the construction of the proposed works, and to stop up, alter, divert, and interfere with, either permanently or temporarily, and to cross over, under, or upon all such streets, roads or ways, footpaths, bridges, railways, tramways, rivers, navigations, canals, streams, brooks, watercourses, aqueducts, sewers, drains, gas, water, and other pipes, and telegraphic, telephonic, and electric apparatus as it may be necessary or convenient to stop up, alter, divert, interfere with, or cross for any of the purposes of the Bill, and to extinguish all rights of way over and to appropriate the site and soil of any street, road, way or footpath stopped up.

To enable the Corporation for the purposes of the intended works or other the purposes of the intended Act to open and break up or otherwise interfere with the surface of roads, streets, ways and public places, and to appropriate and use without payment therefor the site, subsoil and under-surface of roads, streets, ways and public places.

To enable the Corporation in connection with or for the purposes of the intended works to make junctions with roads, streets and ways, diversions and alterations of roads, streets and ways both as regards line and level, and to alter and divert any tramway lines which may be situate in such roads, streets and ways, both as regards line and level, and to divert, alter, and remove watercourses, aqueducts, conduits, channels, sewers, entrances, loading ways, vaults, arches, steps, areas, drains, tubes, posts, poles, wires and gas, water, electric, and other mains and pipes, and any works or apparatus in, on, under, or over such roads, streets and ways.

To vest in the Corporation with or without modification all or some of the powers usually granted to railway companies for the construction and maintenance of railways, and especially the powers granted by the 16th section of the Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845.

To provide that diverted or substituted roads, footpaths or bridges shall be maintained or repaired by the same bodies or persons as are now liable to maintain and repair the roads, footpaths or bridges for which they are respectively substituted, and that new roads, footpaths and bridges shall be maintained and repaired by the same bodies or persons as are liable to maintain and repair other streets, roads and bridges in the parishes, townships or places in which such new roads, footpaths or bridges will be situate; and that as respects the said intended railways the Corporation shall not be liable under the forty-sixth section of the Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, to maintain the surface of any road carried over such intended railways by a bridge or the immediate approaches thereto.

To provide that the road diversion and intended bridge and approaches thereto (Work No. 16) hereinbefore described shall be maintained and repaired by and at the expense of the authority liable for the maintenance and repair of the portion of the existing Botton-road to be diverted, and to authorize such authority and the Corporation to enter into and carry into effect agreements with reference to the construction of the said Work No. 16, and to all or any of the matters hereinbefore referred to.

To authorize the Corporation on the one hand and the Midland Railway Company on the other hand to enter into and carry into effect agreements with reference to the provision of siding and other accommodation in connection with the railways proposed to be authorized by the Bill, and the interchange, delivery, forwarding and transmission of traffic to or from the said proposed railways from or to the railways of the Midland Railway Company.

To authorize and provide for the underpinning or otherwise securing or strengthening of any works or buildings which may not be required to be taken for the purposes of the Bill, but which may be rendered insecure or be affected by any of the works or operations proposed to be authorized by the Bill.

To authorize the Corporation for the purposes of or in connection with the construction and maintenance of the waterworks proposed to be authorized by the Bill, and the enlargement, extension, cleansing or examination thereof to discharge water therefrom into any available stream or watercourse.

To provide that the works proposed to be authorized by the Bill shall for all purposes (inclusive of water rents, rates and charges) be deemed part of the water undertaking of the Corporation.

Lands.

To empower the Corporation for the purposes of the intended works hereinbefore described and for other the purposes of the intended Act and other purposes of the Corporation to acquire lands and buildings compulsorily or by agreement, and to appropriate to and use for the purposes of the Bill any lands belonging to them, or which under the Bill or any other powers they may be authorized to acquire.

To empower the Corporation, in addition to any other lands which they may by the Bill or otherwise be authorized to acquire and hold, to enter upon, take, hold, and use by compulsion or agreement the lands in the county of Lancaster hereinafter described, or all or any part or parts of such lands (that is to say):—

(A) An area of land in the said parishes of Roeburndale, Wray-with-Botton, and Tatham, in the said rural district of Lunesdale, including among other lands the watershed, or parts of the watershed, of the Rivers Roeburn and Hindburn, and the moors or parts of the moors known as Mallowdale Fell, Goodber Fell, Thrushgill Fell, Summersgill Fell, Greenbank Fell, Salter Fell, Botton Head Fell, Whiteray Fell and Lythe Fell.

To make special provisions as to determining the purchase money and compensation payable in respect of lands and property required for the purposes of the intended Act, and to provide for limiting the amount of such purchase money and compensation and claims in respect of such lands and property in cases of buildings or alterations erected or made or interests created with the object of increasing the amount of compensation or purchase money.

To make provision as to the payment in certain events by persons claiming compensation from the Corporation of costs incurred in cases of disputed compensation.

To extend the existing powers of the Corporation as to the sale, lease, exchange and disposal of surplus lands for the time being belonging to them.

To exempt the Corporation from the provisions of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, with respect to the sale of superfluous lands, and to authorize the Corporation to sell, exchange, demise, and grant building or other leases, and otherwise dispose of any lands or other property now belonging to them, or to be acquired or vested in them under the intended Act, and to empower the Corporation to erect, maintain, sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of buildings on any such lands, and to grant building or other leases of, and to alienate their corporate estates for periods in excess of those prescribed by the general law for the alienation of such estates.

To enable the Corporation in selling or conveying any lands or any part or parts of any lands now or from time to time vested in them, to attach such conditions and to make the vesting of any such lands so sold subject to such reservations (including the reservation of water rights, rights of way whether over the lands sold or in respect of those lands over other lands or property of the Corporation, or other easements), conditions, obligations and restrictions as may in the opinion of the Corporation be necessary or desirable.

To make provision for the protection of the waterworks of the Corporation, whether authorized or proposed to be authorized by the Bill, and for the protection of the watersheds or drainage areas, the waters derived from which the Corporation are already authorized to take under their existing powers or will be authorized to take under the powers sought by the Bill, and to authorize the Corporation to acquire and hold lands for the purposes aforesaid, or to sell, let or otherwise dispose of such lands or any part thereof subject to such terms and conditions as they may think fit, and to enter into and carry into effect agreements with the owners, lessees and occupiers of property with respect to the drainage thereof and the collection, conveyance and preservation from pollution of waters to be diverted, collected or appropriated by the Corporation.

To authorize the Corporation to purchase or take on lease dwelling-houses for persons employed by them for the purposes of the water undertaking of the Corporation, and to erect, maintain and let dwelling-houses for such persons upon lands for the time being belonging to or leased to the Corporation.

To alter and amend the provisions or some of the provisions of The Lune Fisheries Provisional Order Confirmation Act, 1909, and the Order scheduled thereto, and to provide that all or some of the lands and streams acquired and the works constructed by the Corporation under the powers of the Bill shall cease to form part of the Fishery District referred to in the said Order and to be within the jurisdiction of the Lune Board of Conservators; or to provide for the application to the said lands, streams and works of certain of the provisions of the said Order with or without modification.

To exclude, if thought fit, the said lands, streams and works from all or some of the provisions of the Salmon and Freshwater Fisheries Acts, 1861 to 1907, or to provide for the application of the provisions or some of the provisions of those Acts to the said lands, streams and works with or without modification.

Cesser of Powers to Construct certain Works.

To provide that the Corporation shall not construct the works described in section 5 of The Bolton Corporation Act, 1905, under the letters A to G and K to O inclusive, and that the Corporation shall not exercise the powers conferred or be subject to the obligations imposed by Parts II, IV, and V of that Act so far as such powers and obligations relate to the works authorized by the said Act of 1905 hereinbefore specified or any of them.

Repeal and Amendment of Existing Enactments.

To remove the restrictions or some of the restrictions contained in Section 10 of The Bolton Corporation Act, 1905, on the use by the Corporation of the Delph Reservoir Work H authorized by that Act and the appropriation and use of the water therein by the Corporation, and to empower the Corporation to use the said reservoir and appropriate and use the said waters for the purposes of their water undertaking, subject to such conditions as to compensation water to be permitted to flow down the Delph Brook as may be provided for in the Bill, and to amend, alter or repeal the said section 10 of the said Act or all or some of the provisions of that section.

To repeal the following provisions of the Bolton Improvement Act, 1854, viz.:—Section 71 (Supply from Belmont Reservoir to Folds and Belmont Estates); section 72 (Limiting quantity of water to be drawn off from Belmont Reservoir without consent of owners of Folds and Belmont Estates); and section 77 (Right of fishing, &c., in Belmont Reservoir reserved to owner of Folds and Belmont estates).

To provide for the cesser and extinguishment of any right or privilege of fishing and fowling in and around the Turton and Entwisle Reservoir of the Corporation granted or conveyed to Robert Heywood and his heirs with his and their servants and assistants by an indenture under the common seal of the Commissioners for the Turton and Entwisle Reservoir dated the 18th April, 1838, and any such right or privilege saved or reserved to the said Robert Heywood and his heirs with his and their servants and assistants by section 25 (Transfer of Turton and Entwisle Reservoir to Corporation) of The Bolton Improvement Act, 1864, and to provide that any compensation which may be payable by the Corporation for or in respect of the cesser and extinguishment of any such right or privilege shall, unless agreed upon, be settled in manner provided by the Lands Clauses Acts with reference to the taking of lands otherwise than by agreement as if such right or privilege were lands within the meaning of those Acts.

To repeal or amend the provisions or some of the provisions of the existing Acts and Orders of the Corporation with reference to the rates or charges which the Corporation may demand and take in respect of water supplied by them, and the assessment, collection and recovery thereof, and to make other provisions in lieu thereof; or to substitute for the rates and charges which the Corporation are authorized to demand and take new and increased water rates or charges based on such percentage as the Bill may define of the rateable value of the premises supplied, and to repeal section 60 (Rates for water supply for domestic purposes) of the said Act of 1854; to extend and apply, with or without modification, to any such rates and charges as may be authorized by the Bill the provisions or some of the provisions of the existing Acts and Orders of the Corporation with respect to the collection and recovery of rates and charges in respect of water supply or otherwise with reference thereto.

To amend the provisions or some of the provisions of Section 92 (Application of Water Revenue) of the said Act of 1905, and to remove the limitation imposed by subsection (1) of that Section on the annual sum which the Corporation may set aside for the purpose of providing a reserve fund for their Water Undertaking, to increase the aggregate amount to which that fund may be accumulated, and to make further provisions with reference to the formation, investment and accumulation of the said reserve fund and the application thereof.

General Provisions relative to Water Supply.

To confer further powers on the Corporation with reference to their Water Undertaking and the distribution and supply of water, and among other things to provide that the Corporation may require a separate pipe to be laid from the main to each house supplied with water by them; to relieve the Corporation from any obligation to supply more than one house by means of the same communication pipe; to make further provisions for the protection of pipes, meters, apparatus, instruments and fittings and for preventing the fraudulent or improper use thereof or interference therewith and the fraudulent or improper abstraction, use or consumption of water, and to authorize the Corporation to enter upon premises and to execute works and repairs and to recover the expenses thereof; to empower the Corporation to break up and interfere with streets not dedicated to public use and to lay down mains, pipes and apparatus for the purpose of supplying water to any premises therein; to make provisions with reference to the maintenance and repair of common pipes used for the supply of several houses or parts of houses, and to enable the Corporation to execute repairs thereto and to recover the expense thereof from the owners or occupiers of the houses so supplied in such proportions and in such manner as may be prescribed or provided for in the Bill.

To make further provision for preventing and detecting waste of water and for that purpose to affix and maintain any necessary meters, stopcocks and apparatus on pipes and mains, and to place in streets, roads and ways covers or boxes, and for any of the purposes aforesaid to break up, open and interfere with any streets, roads or ways whether public or private, and to alter and interfere with any sewers, pipes, mains, wires, cables or other apparatus therein or thereunder and any tramroads or tramways thereon.

To provide that the register of a meter shall be prima facie evidence of the quantity of water consumed and for the determination of differences with respect to such quantity.

To restrict the use of fireplugs or hydrants affixed or provided by the Corporation and to prohibit the use thereof for purposes other than those authorized by the Waterworks Clauses Act, 1847, and to authorize the Corporation to erect or fix stand-hydrants or pillar-hydrants in their water mains or pipes in such position in any street, road or public place within their limits for the supply of water as they may determine, and for that purpose to break up and interfere with any such street, road or public place, and to make regulations with respect to the use of such stand-hydrants or pillar-hydrants and to enable the Corporation to take and recover payments for the use of the water therefrom.

To enable the Corporation to make such by-laws and regulations as may be necessary for any of the purposes aforesaid, and to provide for the imposition of penalties for offences against any of the provisions hereinbefore referred to and for breach of any such by-laws or regulations.

To make further provisions with reference to the notice to be given to the Corporation by any consumer of water discontinuing to take a supply.

Financial.

To authorize the Corporation to apply to the purposes of the Bill any moneys which they have borrowed or are authorized to borrow under the powers conferred upon them by the Bolton Corporation Act, 1905, and which are not required for the purposes of that Act, and to extend and apply to such moneys all or some of the provisions of the Bill relative or incidental to the borrowing and repayment of moneys by the Corporation.

To authorize the Corporation from time to time for all or any of the purposes of or referred to in the Bill and for paying any expenses arising thereunder to apply and expend their existing rates, funds, and revenues, or any of such rates, funds, and revenues, to alter and enlarge the present borrowing powers of the Corporation, to authorize the Corporation to borrow or raise moneys by temporary loans or overdrafts, to enable the Corporation to apply their corporate funds and any moneys which they are already authorized to borrow, and to borrow further moneys by mortgage, stock or annuities, and to charge such moneys and all or any moneys already borrowed or authorized to be borrowed upon all or any one or more of the following securities (that is to say):—

The Borough Fund, Borough Rate, District Funds and District Rates, lands, tenements, hereditaments, the waterworks, gas, markets, tramways and electric light undertakings, and any other undertakings or property for the time being vested in the Corporation; and the rates, rents, tolls, and revenues of the Corporation, whether as a Municipal Corporation or Urban Sanitary Authority or otherwise, and to make provisions with reference to the repayment of moneys borrowed under or for the purposes of the Bill or applied for those purposes.

To make further provisions with reference to the formation and accumulation of a sinking fund or sinking funds for the repayment of moneys borrowed by the Corporation, and if thought fit to increase the rate of interest on which accumulations of any such fund shall be calculated, and to amend section 88 of The Bolton, Turton and Westhoughton Extension Act, 1898, and all or any of the provisions of The Bolton Corporation Act, 1905, or any other Act or Order of the Corporation so far as may be necessary for any of the purposes aforesaid.

To enlarge the powers of the Corporation with respect to investment of moneys standing to the credit of sinking funds and to enable the Corporation, subject to such restrictions and conditions as the Bill may define or as Parliament may prescribe, to use moneys standing to the credit of sinking funds in lieu of borrowing.

To enable the Corporation to use one form of mortgage for all purposes, to prescribe the form of mortgage, and to specify conditions under which such form of mortgage may be used, and the conditions, effect and charge of mortgages granted in such form.

To authorize the Corporation to raise by the issue of bills any moneys which they are for the time being authorized to raise, and to provide that such bills shall be issued on such terms and subject to such regulations as may be prescribed or provided for in the intended Act.

General Provisions.

To authorize the Corporation and any local authorities, bodies, companies, and persons for all or any of the purposes of or incidental to the objects of the Bill to enter into and fulfil agreements and contracts, and to confirm, with or without alteration, any such agreements and contracts which may have been or which during the progress of the Bill may be entered into, and to enable any such local authorities, bodies, companies, and persons for any such purposes to expend their funds, rates, and revenues, and to borrow moneys on the security thereof.

To enact all necessary provisions for giving full effect to the purposes of the intended Act or of the general or local Acts in force in the borough, including provisions as to the making and confirmation of by-laws, the imposition of penalties for breach of the provisions of the intended Act, or of any by-laws or regulations thereunder or for failure to comply with the terms or conditions of any consent given by the Corporation under any Act or otherwise, the payment of penalties to the Corporation, and the recovery, apportionment, and application of penalties and expenses, and the recovery of moneys due to the Corporation, the giving or withholding of consents, the entry on premises, the prosecution of offenders, evidence of appointments and resolutions, and the authentication and service of notices, orders and other documents.

The Bill will or may enable the Corporation to carry the provisions of the Bill into effect with all or any of the powers of the Acts hereinafter referred to, and of the Public Health, Local Government, Sanitary, and Municipal Corporations Acts, with such modifications as may be contained in the Bill.

The Bill will, so far as it may be deemed necessary or expedient, vary and extend, alter or repeal, the provisions of among other local and personal Acts and Provisional Orders the following (that is to say):—The Act 6 and 7 Vict., cap. lxxiv.; the Bolton Improvement Acts, passed in the years 1854, 1861, 1864, 1865, 1877 and 1882 respectively; the Bolton Corporation Act, 1872; the Bolton Tramways and Improvement Act, 1897; the Bolton, Turton and Westhoughton Extension Act, 1898; the Bolton Corporation Acts, 1901 and 1905; the Bolton and Suburban Tramways Order, 1878; the Bolton and Suburban Tramways Order, 1888; the Bolton Corporation Tramways Act, 1891; the Bolton Corporation Tramways Act, 1893; the Bolton Corporation Tramways Order, 1909; the Bolton Orders of the Local Government Board confirmed by Acts passed in the years 1864, 1871, 1879, 1885, 1888, 1890, 1892, 1893, 1894, 1899, 1903, 1904 and 1910 respectively; the Bolton Electric Lighting Orders, 1891 and 1898; and all Acts, Orders and resolutions directly or indirectly relating to or affecting the Corporation or the borough, the Lune Fisheries Provisional Order Confirmation Act, 1909, and the Order scheduled thereto, and any other Act or Order relating to the Lune Board of Conservators or the Fishery District referred to in the Order scheduled to the said Act of 1909; and the Act 7 and 8 Vict., cap. xviii, and any other Act or Acts relating to the Midland Railway Company, and will or may incorporate with itself in extenso or by reference and with or without alteration the provisions or some of the provisions of the various Acts in this Notice referred to, and of the Local Loans Acts, 1875 and 1885; the Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847; the Lands Clauses Acts; the Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845; the Waterworks Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1863; and the Railways Clauses Act, 1863; and the Bill will vary and extinguish all rights and privileges which would interfere with any of its objects and will or may confer other rights and privileges.

Duplicate plans and sections showing the lines, situations, and levels of the intended works, and the lands in, through, or over which they will be made, or which may be compulsorily taken or used for the construction thereof, and duplicate plans of the lands which may be taken or used compulsorily for other purposes under the powers of the Bill, a book of reference to such plans containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and of the occupiers of such lands, also an Ordnance Map with the lines of the intended railways delineated thereon so as to show their general course and direction, and a copy of this Notice as published in the London Gazette will be deposited for public inspection, on or before the 30th day of November instant, with the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Lancaster, at his office at Preston, and on or before the same day a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to the areas hereinafter mentioned in or through which the intended works will be made or in which any lands or property intended to be taken or used are situate, together with a copy of so much of the book of reference as relates to such respective areas and a copy of this Notice as published in the "London Gazette," will be deposited as follows (that is to say):—

So far as relates to the borough of Bolton with the Town Clerk of that borough at his office at the Town Hall, Bolton;

So far as relates to the borough of Darwen with the Town Clerk of that borough at his office at the Municipal Buildings, Darwen.

So far as relates to any urban district not being a borough, or to any rural district, with the Clerk of the District Council of such district at his office;

So far as relates to any parish comprised in a rural district, other than the parishes next hereinafter mentioned, with the Clerk of the Parish Council (if any), or, if there be no clerk, with the Chairman of that Council;

So far as relates to the parishes of Roeburndale, Claughton (in the rural district of Lunesdale), Hothersall, Osbaldeston, and Anglezarke respectively with the Chairman of the parish meeting of such parish.

And such deposit will, if made with the Clerk of the Parish Council, be made at his office, or if he has no office at his residence, and if made with the Chairman of the Parish Council or of the Parish Meeting, be made at his residence.

Printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 16th day of December next.

Dated this 17th day of November, 1916.

BLACKPOOL IMPROVEMENT.

(Extension of the Borough and Township of Blackpool to include Bispham-with-Norbreck and parts of Carleton and Marton; Extension of Gas, Electricity, Sea Water and other Powers; Supply of Electricity and Gas in the excluded parts of Carleton and Marton; Special Rating Provisions; Modification of Acts relating to Fylde Water Board; Disposal of Sewage from excluded Parts of Carleton and Marton; Number of Overseers; Extension of Promenades and New Streets; Street Improvements and Bath at South Shore; Improvement Rate at South Shore; Sea Defence Works and Bath at Bispham; Acquisition of Lands; Tramways and Tramroads in the Borough; Modification of Lands Clauses Acts and Special Provisions as to Purchase of Lands; the Determination of Compensation and Arbitration; Borrowing of Money; Amendment, Incorporation and Repeal of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session by the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the borough of Blackpool (hereinafter called "the Corporation") for an Act (hereinafter called "the Bill") for all or some of the following purposes or objects (that is to say):—

1. To alter and extend the boundary of the borough of Blackpool (hereinafter called "the borough") so as to include within that boundary the urban district of Bispham-with-Norbreck and so much of the Fylde rural district as is comprised within the following areas, namely:—

(a) So much of the township of Carleton as is situate between the existing westerly boundary of that township and a line commencing at that boundary at a point 2 furlongs 8·8 chains due east of Myrtle Bank at the south-westerly corner of the field numbered 294 on the $\frac{1}{2500}$ Ordnance Map for the said township, proceeding in a south-easterly and southerly direction along the course of the watercourse which passes from the said point through Higher Moor Farm, and under the Lancashire and Yorkshire and London and North-Western Joint Railway to the south-easterly corner of the field numbered 488 on the said Ordnance Map, and proceeding thence in a straight line to and terminating at the point where the boundary between the borough and the said township crosses Poulton Road;

(b) So much of the township of Marton as is situate on the westerly side of a line commencing on the northerly boundary of that township at the north-westerly corner of the field numbered 999 on the $\frac{1}{2500}$ Ordnance Map for the said township (on the westerly side of Marton Mere), proceeding thence in a southerly direction along the course of the old boundary between the former township of Great Marton and the former township of Little Marton as shown on the $\frac{1}{10000}$ Ordnance Map dated 10th June, 1850, to the southerly boundary of the said township of Marton, and terminating at the point where Midge-land Lane and Division Lane intersect.

2. To alter and extend the boundary of the township of Blackpool so as to include therein the township of Bispham-with-Norbreck, and so much of the townships of Carleton and Marton respectively as is included in the borough.

3. To extend the jurisdiction, powers, authorities, rights, privileges and duties, or some of them, of the coroner, justices of the peace, clerk to the justices, police constables, and other peace officers of the existing borough to and throughout the extended borough, and to provide for the trial of offences committed within the added areas.

4. To make proper provision in relation to municipal, county and poor law elections, and all matters incidental thereto, and the preparation of the parish burgess lists and the ward roll and burgess roll, the lists of county electors and county register, and for these purposes, or any of them, to apply, with or without modification, the provisions of the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882; the Ballot Act, 1872; the County Electors Act, 1888; and any other Act or Acts relating to the matters aforesaid, subject to the modifications indicated in the Bill.

5. To provide for the inclusion of the added areas in existing wards or in new wards for the election of councillors and guardians, and to increase the number of wards and the number of aldermen and councillors of the extended borough and of guardians for the township of Blackpool, and to make provision for the election and retirement of aldermen, councillors and guardians.

6. To extend and make applicable to the extended borough all charters, enactments (including all local Acts in force in the borough), bye-laws, rules, regulations, tables of fees and payments and scales of charges now in force within the existing borough, with such additions, variations and exceptions as may be provided for by the Bill, and to repeal or render inapplicable all or some of the enactments, bye-laws, rules and regulations now in force within the added areas.

7. To extend the Corporation's several undertakings so as to include the added areas within their limits, and (amongst other things) to extend the Corporation's limits for the supply of gas, electricity and sea water respectively to include the added areas, or so much thereof as is not now included within those limits, to extend their limits for the supply of gas and their powers in regard thereto to so much of the township of Carleton as is not comprised within the limits for the supply of gas of the Poulton Urban District Council, to extend their limits for the supply of electrical energy, and all powers and provisions relating to their electricity undertaking to the whole of the township of Marton and to so much of the township of Carleton as last aforesaid, to vest the electricity undertaking, lands, works, powers and obligations of the Bispham-with-Norbreck Urban District Council in the Corporation as part of the latter's undertaking, to repeal the Bispham-with-Norbreck Electric Lighting Order, 1908, and to make such provision as may be enacted in the Bill in regard to equality of charges in regard to all or any of the matters aforesaid, or to other facilities provided by the Corporation, including libraries and rights of burial.

8. To make such provision for differential rating in respect of the added areas as may be provided in the Bill, and in particular to provide for increased rating within the area of the urban district of Bispham-with-Norbreck, and to enact special provisions in regard to the rating in the added areas.

9. To continue in office the town clerk and all other officers and servants of the Corporation in respect of the extended borough, and to constitute the auditors of the existing borough auditors of the extended borough.

10. To make applicable the provisions of Section 120 of the Local Government Act, 1888, to officers of the authorities in the added areas who may suffer any loss by abolition of office or diminution or loss of fees under or by virtue of the Bill.

11. To continue in force contracts or deeds entered into before the passing of the Bill, or before a date to be therein mentioned by the authorities of the added areas or any part thereof; to continue all actions or proceedings or causes thereof; and to restrict the powers of the said authorities to incur any further obligations or liabilities.

12. To provide for the transfer to, and vesting in, the Corporation of all property, assets and liabilities of the district councils in the added areas, and for the transfer to the Corporation of the powers of the local authorities under Section 33 of the Local Government Act, 1894.

13. To provide for the transfer of members of the police force of the administrative county of Lancaster to the police force of the extended borough, and for the transfer to the Corporation of the police stations and other premises in the added areas, to authorize agreements between the Standing Joint Committee for the said county and the Watch Committee of the borough, or for the settlement by the Secretary of State of any question arising upon such transfer.

14. To constitute the Corporation the burial board for the extended borough, and to dissolve any existing burial boards in the added areas.

15. To separate the added areas from the administrative county of Lancaster, and to provide that the added areas shall cease to be or to be included in electoral divisions of that county, also to provide for the adjustment of the financial relations between the Corporation and the County Council of Lancashire and any other body or authority, and so far as may be necessary or expedient to vary the existing arrangements as regards the electoral divisions of such county and the number of county aldermen and councillors, also to make all necessary consequential provisions for giving effect to the objects of the Bill.

16. To abolish the Bispham-with-Norbreck Urban District Council, to exclude the added areas from the jurisdiction of the Fylde Rural District Council, the Carleton and Marton Parish Councils, the Fylde Joint Hospital Committee and any other local authorities, to amend the provisions of the Orders relating to the said Committee and the provisions of the Orders relating to the Fylde, Preston and Garstang Joint Hospital Committee, and to enact such provisions as may be deemed necessary for the adjustment of the areas under the authorities aforesaid, and the alteration and adjustment of all property, income, rights, duties, obligations and liabilities.

17. To increase the number of overseers for the extended township of Blackpool, and to provide for the appointment thereof for the several parts of that township.

18. To extend the benefit of all the property powers, rights and privileges of the Corporation to the extended borough, and also to extend their liabilities and obligations to the extended borough.

19. To make provision for the transfer to the Corporation of all provided public elementary schools, and the land, buildings, furniture, fittings and effects in connection therewith situate in the added areas, and to provide for the transfer and adjustment of assets and liabilities in respect of public education matters, and to continue in force or rescind any bye-laws under the Education Acts within the added areas, and to extend, alter or amend the education scheme within the borough, and to annul or alter education schemes in force within the added areas.

20. To enact all necessary provisions in regard to the extension of the borough, including provisions relating to the liquidation of current liabilities by the local authorities in the added areas and the levying of special rates therein for defraying such liabilities by such authorities and by the Corporation; the preparation, certification, and deposit of maps; the application or exclusion of adoptive Acts and of the Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1907; the valuation lists; the alteration of the county rate basis; the collection of arrears of rates and the adjustment of balances.

21. To make provision for the discharge of sewage from so much of the parts of the townships of Marton and Carleton not included in the borough as is near to the extended borough and is defined in the Bill for the extension and connection of sewers and drains by the Corporation and the Fylde Rural District Council respectively, to provide for the payments to be made and the terms and conditions to be imposed in respect of the matters aforesaid, to empower the Corporation and the said District Council to enter into and fulfil agreements in regard to the discharge of sewage from their respective areas, and to confirm any agreements entered into before the passing of the Bill into law.

22. To provide that the added areas shall form part of the borough for the purposes of the enactments relating to the Fylde Water Board.

23. To empower the Corporation to make and maintain the following works in the township and borough of Blackpool and in the said urban district of Bispham-with-Norbreck, in the county of Lancaster, with all necessary and proper works, improvements, junctions, connections, approaches, embankments, retaining walls, sewers, drains and conveniences connected therewith or incidental thereto, namely:—

Work No. 1.—A promenade on or adjoining the foreshore and comprising a carriage-drive, footways, promenade, sea wall and embankment 1 mile 1 furlong 2·42 chains in length or thereabout, commencing at the southerly termination of the existing promenade and terminating at the southerly boundary of the borough.

Work No. 2.—A road on or adjoining the foreshore (with a tramway or tramroad thereon, hereinafter described as Tramway No. 1) 1 mile 1 furlong 2·42 chains in length or thereabout, to be situate between the carriage drive and the promenade comprised in Work No. 1, commencing at the southerly termination of the existing Tramway No. 1, constructed under the Blackpool Improvement Act, 1899 (hereinafter called "the Act of 1899"), and terminating at the southerly boundary of the borough.

Work No. 3.—A sea water swimming bath, situate on the foreshore on the westerly side of the existing promenade and adjacent thereto, commencing at a point 0·46 chain or thereabout north of the southerly termination of the said promenade and terminating at a point 8·40 chains north of the southerly termination of the said promenade and extending seawards throughout its whole length 4.90 chains or thereabout.

Work No. 4.—A street or road 1 mile 1 furlong 1.85 chains or thereabout in length, commencing at the southerly end of Church-street (South Shore) and terminating at the southerly boundary of the borough opposite to Clifton Drive.

Work No. 5.—A widening and improvement of Watson-road on both sides thereof for a distance of 1 furlong 5.45 chains, commencing at the westerly end of the bridge carrying the said road over the Lancashire and Yorkshire and London and North Western Joint Railway and terminating at its junction with Work No. 1.

Work No. 6.—A street or road in continuation of Burlington-road 1 furlong 2.50 chains or thereabout in length, commencing at the westerly side of the level crossing over the said Lancashire and Yorkshire and London and North-Western Joint Railway and terminating by a junction with Work No. 1 at a point 3 furlongs 2.8 chains or thereabout from the commencement of the work measured in a southerly direction.

Work No. 7.—A widening and improvement of Harrow Side-lane for a distance of 1 furlong 3.03 chains or thereabout commencing at the westerly side of the bridge carrying the Lancashire and Yorkshire and London and North-Western Joint Railway over the said lane and terminating at the junction of that lane with Work No. 1.

Work No. 8.—A promenade or parade on the foreshore with sea wall or embankment on the westerly side thereof commencing at the existing northern boundary of the borough, extending in a northerly direction for distance of 1 mile 1 furlong or thereabout and terminating at a point opposite the centre line of Arundel-avenue.

Work No. 9.—A public walk or promenade between the Blackpool and Fleetwood tramroad and the foreshore commencing at the existing northern boundary of the borough and terminating at a point opposite to the southerly boundary wall of the Norbreck Hydro.

Work No. 10.—A sea water swimming bath situate on the foreshore on the westerly side of and adjacent to Work No. 8 commencing at a point 10.1 chains or thereabout north of the existing northern boundary of the borough and terminating at a point 17.3 chains or thereabout north of the said boundary and extending seawards throughout its whole length for a distance of 4 chains or thereabout.

All the foregoing works will be situate in the township and borough of Blackpool except Nos. 8, 9 and 10, which will be situate in the existing township and urban district of Bispham-with-Norbreck.

24. To extend and apply to the promenades authorized by the Bill and also to the lands which are situate in the existing township of Bispham-with-Norbreck between the Blackpool and Fleetwood tramroad and low water mark and extending from the existing northern boundary of the borough to the southerly boundary wall of the Norbreck Hydro when such lands have been acquired by the Corporation all or any of the provisions of the Acts relating to the existing promenades in the borough, including the provisions for the regulation thereof and the bye-laws and regulations made thereunder.

25. To make provision for imposing improvement rates and charges upon certain lands in the township and borough of Blackpool and upon the owners, lessees and occupiers of and other persons interested in such lands, for specifying or ascertaining the amount to be paid in respect thereof respectively and for fixing the period during which the same shall be paid, and to enact all necessary provisions in regard to the recovery, application, apportionment and redemption of such rates or charges, and to apply thereto all or some of the provisions relating to private improvement expenses and private improvement rates contained in the Public Health Acts and of the provisions relating to improvement rates and charges contained in the Blackpool Improvement Act, 1893. Such lands will include the lands which are bounded by the northern boundary of the land and premises of the Blackpool Pleasure Beach Limited on the north, by the Lancashire and Yorkshire and London and North-Western Joint Railway on the east, by the southerly boundary of the borough on the south, and by the promenade (Work No. 1) authorized by the Bill on the west.

26. To empower the Corporation to make, lay down, form, work, use and maintain the tramways hereinafter described in the township and borough of Blackpool, in the county of Lancaster, with all necessary and proper rails, plates, junctions, turnouts, crossings, passing places, posts, poles, brackets, wires, works and conveniences connected therewith (namely):—

Tramway No. 1 (a tramroad or tramway) to be laid upon Work No. 2, commencing by a junction with Tramway No. 1 constructed under the powers of the Act of 1899, and terminating at the southerly boundary of the borough.

Tramway No. 2.—A circular loop, commencing and terminating by junctions with Tramway No. 1 at its commencement.

Tramway No. 3 on the east side of Tramway No. 1, commencing by a junction with Tramway No. 2 at a point 3.65 chains south of the commencement of Tramway No. 1, and proceeding in a southerly direction to its termination by a junction with Tramway No. 1 at a point 4.05 chains from the commencement of that tramway.

Tramway No. 4 on the west side of Tramway No. 1, commencing by a junction with that tramway at a point 4.05 chains from its commencement and proceeding in a northerly direction to its termination by a junction with Tramway No. 2 at a point 3.65 chains from the termination of that tramway.

Tramway No. 5.—A double line (in lieu of the existing single line) in New-road, commencing by a junction with Tramway No. 7 constructed under the Blackpool Corporation Tramways Order, 1899 (hereinafter called "the Order of 1899"), at a point 1.12 chains south-west of the intersection of the centre lines of Gorton-street and New-road, and terminating at a point .86 chain south-west of the intersection of the centre lines of Hardman-street and New-road by a junction with the said Tramway No. 7.

Tramway No. 6.—A double line (in lieu of the existing single line) in New-road, commencing by a junction with the said Tramway No. 7 constructed under the Order of 1899, at a point '05 chain west of the east gable wall of the Queen's Hotel and terminating at a point '05 chain west of the easterly gable wall of the Layton Public Reading Room by a junction with the said Tramway No. 7.

Tramway No. 7.—Commencing in West-cliffe-drive by a junction with the said Tramway No. 7 constructed under the Order of 1899 at a point opposite to the centre of Grange-road proceeding in a north-easterly direction and terminating in Bispham-road at its junction with Poulton-road.

It is proposed to lay the above-mentioned Tramways Nos. 5, 6 and 7 respectively, so that throughout the whole length of the said tramways respectively a less space than 9 feet 6 inches will intervene between the outside of the footpath on each side of the road and the nearest rail of the tramway.

27. The tramways are intended to be constructed on a gauge of 4 feet 8½ inches, and the motive power proposed to be employed will be mechanical power (including electric, steam, and every other power not being animal power), or animal power or partly one such power and partly another.

28. To provide that the proposed tramways and works shall form part of the tramway undertaking of the Corporation, and to extend and apply to such tramways and works the provisions of the Blackpool Improvement Acts, 1898, 1899, 1901 and 1905, the Order of 1899, and the enactments incorporated therewith respectively (with such exceptions and modifications as may be indicated in the Bill), and of any other Acts or orders relating to the Corporation's tramways.

29. To empower the Corporation to deviate laterally and vertically from the lines and levels of the intended works shown on the deposited plans and sections hereinafter mentioned, to the extent to be shown on the said plans or to be defined in the Bill.

30. To authorize the Corporation to break up, alter, widen, divert, stop up (either temporarily or permanently) and interfere with streets, roads, highways, footpaths, watercourses, sewers, drains, pavements, mains, pipes, wires, telegraphs, telephones and apparatus, and to raise, sink and alter the position of steps, areas, cellars, windows, pipes, spouts and drains, and to remove any obstructions within the townships, borough and county aforesaid for the purposes of constructing and maintaining the proposed works or any of them, or otherwise for the purposes of the Bill.

31. To empower the Corporation for the purposes of the proposed works, for the purpose of providing frontage to the streets intended to be widened and for other purposes of the Bill, to purchase or acquire by compulsion or agreement, or to take on lease lands, houses or buildings in the townships, borough and county aforesaid, and to acquire by compulsion or agreement rights or easements in, over or connected with any lands, houses or buildings. The lands so proposed to be acquired will include the lands which are bounded by the northern boundary of land and premises of the Blackpool Pleasure Beach Limited on the north, by the Lancashire and Yorkshire and London and North Western Joint Railway on the east, by the southerly boundary of the borough on the south, and by low-water mark on the west; and also the lands in the township of Bispham-with-Norbreck situate between the Blackpool and Fleetwood Tramroad on the east and low-water mark on the west, and extending from the existing northern boundary of the borough to the southerly boundary wall of the Norbreck Hydro.

32. To exempt the Corporation from the operation of section 92 of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845 (so as to enable them to acquire parts only of certain properties), from the provisions of that Act relating to superfluous lands, and from the provisions requiring sureties upon taking possession of land; and to make other amendments in the Lands Clauses Acts in their application to the Bill, and to confer powers upon the Corporation with reference to the retention, sale and disposal of lands acquired by them.

33. To make special provision with regard to the amount of compensation to be paid in respect of the lands to be acquired under the Bill, and to provide that in determining the amount of such compensation regard shall be had to the circumstances to be mentioned or referred to in the Bill, and that any buildings erected, alterations made or interests created after the date hereof, or such other date as may be mentioned in the Bill, shall not be taken into consideration; to render persons claiming compensation liable for their costs in certain events, and to make provision for enabling them to amend their claims; to provide for the determination of all claims by yearly tenants and by lessees for short terms by justices, and for the determination of all other claims and questions of disputed compensation by a single arbitrator.

34. To authorize the Corporation to remove for the purposes of the works authorized by the Bill any shingle or ballast from the foreshore, shores and banks of the sea in or adjoining the borough and the present urban district of Bispham-with-Norbreck notwithstanding the provisions of the Harbours Act, 1814, and the Harbours Transfer Act, 1862, and any order made thereunder.

35. To empower the Corporation to borrow or raise money for the purchase of land and the construction of the proposed works, and for all other the purposes of the Bill, and to charge such moneys upon the borough fund and borough rate, the district fund and the general district rate and upon the estates, undertakings, rates, rents, revenue and other property of the Corporation, or on any of those securities, and to execute and grant mortgages or to create and issue stock in respect thereof, and to apply all or some of the financial provisions of the existing Acts of the Corporation to and in respect of money borrowed under the Bill.

36. To vary or extinguish all rights, powers and privileges inconsistent with or which would or might in any way interfere with the objects of the Bill, and to confer other rights, powers and privileges.

37. To enact all necessary provisions for giving full effect to the purposes of the Bill or of the general or local Acts in force in the borough, including the signature by the town clerk or other authorized officer on behalf of the Corporation of all contracts, agreements and other documents, the making and confirmation of bye-laws, the imposition of penalties for breach of provisions of the Bill or of any by-laws thereunder, or for obstructing the Corporation or their officers, the determination of compensation, the laying of information, the recovery, apportionment and application of penalties, damages, expenses, costs and charges, the recovery of demands in the county court and the entry of premises.

38. To incorporate, with or without amendment, or to render inapplicable all or some of the provisions of the following public Acts:— The Municipal Corporations Act, 1882; the Public Health Acts; the Lands Clauses Acts; the Tramways Act, 1870; the Electric Lighting Acts, 1882 to 1909; the Gasworks Clauses Acts, 1845 and 1871; and all Acts amending those Acts respectively, and to repeal, alter, amend or incorporate all or some of the provisions of the local Acts and Provisional Orders confirmed by Act of Parliament now in force within the borough, including the following (that is to say):—

The Blackpool Improvement Acts passed in the years 1853, 1865, 1879, 1893, 1896, 1898, 1899, 1901, 1905 and 1910, and any Provisional Orders altering and amending the same; the Blackpool Sea Water Act, 1873; the Blackpool Electric Lighting Order, 1890; the Blackpool Orders, 1887, 1888, 1890 and 1891; the Blackpool Orders No. 1 and No. 2, 1894; the Blackpool Orders No. 1 and No. 2, 1902; the County Borough of Blackpool Order, 1904; and the Blackpool Order, 1913; the Blackpool Corporation Tramways Orders made by the Board of Trade in the years 1884, 1893, 1896, 1897 and 1899, and the several Acts confirming those Orders so far as they relate thereto; and all other Acts and Orders relating to the Corporation or their several undertakings or to the Borough.

A map in duplicate showing as well the present boundaries of the borough and the boundaries of the proposed extension will, on or before the 30th day of November next, be deposited with the Town Clerk of the Borough at the Town Hall, Blackpool, and with the Clerk to the Bispham-with-Norbreck Urban District Council at Bispham-with-Norbreck.

Plans and sections of the intended works, and plans of the lands intended to be taken or on or in respect of which improvement rates and charges are intended to be imposed, together with a book of reference to the plans, will, on or before the 30th day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county Palatine of Lancaster at his office at Preston; with the Clerk to the Bispham-with-Norbreck Urban District Council at his office at Bispham-with-Norbreck, and with the undersigned Town Clerk at his office at the Town Hall, Blackpool; and a copy of this Notice, as published in the London Gazette, will also be deposited at the time and with the persons aforesaid.

Printed copies of the Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 16th day of December next.

Dated this 16th day of November, 1916.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session by the Hemel Hempsted District Gas Company (hereinafter called "the Company") for an Act for all or some of the following and other purposes (that is to say):—

To authorize the Company to construct, erect, maintain, alter, enlarge, extend, improve, renew or discontinue gasworks and works, machinery, plant, apparatus and appliances for, and to work up and do all such acts and things as they may think proper for the conversion, manufacture, utilization and distribution of materials used in and about or resulting from the manufacture of gas and of residual and manufactured products, matters and things, and to manufacture and store gas and to manufacture, produce, store, convert, utilize, buy, sell, deal in and dispose of coke, coal, chemicals, patent fuel, tar, lime, pitch, asphaltum, ammoniacal liquor, oil and all other residual and manufactured products, matters and things employed in or resulting from the manufacture of gas upon the lands following in the parish of Hemel Hempstead and borough of Hemel Hempsted, in the county of Hertford (that is to say):—

(a) A piece of land belonging or reputed to belong to the Company containing by admeasurement 1 acre 1 rood and 4 poles or thereabouts, bounded on the west by the Company's existing gasworks, on the south-east by the Midland Railway, on the north-east by cottages and premises belonging or reputed to belong to the Boxmoor Trustees and on the north in part by the road leading from Watford to Berkhamstead and in other part by premises belonging or reputed to belong to Richard Dowse and Thomas Henry Coughtrey.

(b) A piece of land belonging or reputed to belong to the Company and in the occupation of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Hemel Hempsted containing by admeasurement 2 acres 2 roods and 31 poles or thereabouts, bounded on the east by the said gasworks, on the south by the Midland Railway, on the west by land belonging or reputed to belong to Arthur Frederick Phillips, and in the occupation of the said Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses, and on the north by the said road leading from Watford to Berkhamstead.

(c) A piece of land belonging or reputed to belong to the said Arthur Frederick Phillips and in the occupation of the said Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses, containing by admeasurement 3 roods or thereabouts bounded on the south by the Midland Railway, on the west by lands belonging or reputed to belong to and in the occupation of Ada Emily Catling and Caroline Ethel Catling, on the north by the said road leading from Watford to Berkhamstead, and on the east by land belonging or reputed to belong to the Company.

To empower the Company in the said parish and borough to make and maintain the footbridge hereinafter described, together with all proper conveniences connected therewith or auxiliary thereto (that is to say):—

A footbridge on the site of the footpath leading from the road from Watford to Berkhamstead over the London and North-Western Railway to Featherbed-lane and extending between points 100 yards and 130 yards or thereabouts measured along the said footpath in a southerly direction from the junction of the said footpath with the said road from Watford to Berkhamstead.

To empower the Company to construct and maintain such temporary and other works and all such arches, walls, piers, abutments, footways, surface drains and other works and conveniences as may be necessary or expedient in connection with the construction of the intended footbridge, and to stop up, divert, alter, break up, raise, sink or otherwise interfere with, either temporarily or permanently, for the purposes of the intended works all such roads, highways, footpaths, watercourses, drains, sewers, gas and water mains and pipes, electric, telegraphic and telephonic wires, pipes and apparatus which it may be necessary or convenient to stop up, divert, alter, break up, raise, sink or interfere with for those purposes or any other purposes of the intended Act, and to close and stop up for public and other traffic so much of the said footpath as lies between the points of commencement and termination of the said footbridge, and to empower the Company to appropriate for the purposes of their undertaking the site of the portion of footpath so stopped up, and to extinguish all public and private rights of way over or across the same.

To authorize the Company to deviate laterally and vertically from the lines and levels of the intended footbridge, as shewn on the plan and section to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned, to such extent as may be authorized by the intended Act.

To empower the Company for the purposes of the said intended footbridge or all or any other purposes of the intended Act or of their undertaking to purchase or acquire by compulsion or agreement and to hold, sell and let lands, houses or buildings and easements, rights and interests therein, thereover or thereunder in the before mentioned parish, and to acquire by agreement and to hold other lands for the general purposes of their undertaking.

To authorize the Company to purchase, erect, fit up and maintain or take on lease and to furnish, equip and let dwelling houses for persons in their employ and offices, showrooms and other buildings for the purposes of their undertaking.

To extend the limits within which the Company are authorized to supply gas, and to authorize them to supply gas in so much of the parish of Redbourn, in the rural district of Saint Albans, in the county of Hertford, as lies beyond a distance of three miles from Hemel Hempsted Parish Church, being the portion of the said parish which is not situate within their existing limits of supply, and to enable the Company within such extended limits of supply to have and exercise all or some of the rights, powers and privileges which they now have or may exercise within their said existing limits of supply, and to extend and make applicable to such extended limits of supply the provisions or some of the provisions of the Act of 1878 or any other Act or Acts relating to or affecting the Company and of the intended Act, and to authorize the Company to make, demand, collect, levy and recover rates, rents and charges for or in respect of the supply of gas within such extended limits of supply, and if thought fit to provide for different rates, rents and charges in different portions of the limits of supply as so extended, and to confirm any agreement for or to authorize the purchase by the Company of the gas undertaking in the said parish belonging or reputed to belong to Henry King Hiller and Clifford Holmes Hunt and known as the undertaking of the Redbourn Gas Company, and to authorize the maintenance and use of that undertaking as part of the undertaking of the Company.

To repeal, alter or amend the existing provisions of the Hemel Hempsted District Gas Act, 1878 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act of 1878"), and any Act incorporated therewith relating to the testing of the illuminating power of gas and the liability of or obligations on the Company in respect thereof, and to relieve the Company from any liability, obligation, penalty or forfeiture in connection with the illuminating power of gas.

To render inapplicable to the Company the provisions relating to the matters lastly hereinbefore mentioned of the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1871, and any other general enactment.

To make new provisions with regard to the testing of gas supplied by the Company and to provide for the testing of the gas so supplied in reference to the calorific value thereof in lieu of and in substitution for the testing in reference to the illuminating power thereof, to prescribe the standard calorific value, and to prescribe or make provisions with reference to the apparatus to be used for testing calorific value, and the methods of making tests, and to impose obligations and liabilities upon the Company in connection with the maintenance of a standard calorific value, and to subject the Company to or to free the Company from penalties in certain circumstances.

To confer further capital powers upon the Company, and to empower the Company for the purposes aforesaid or any of them and for other the general purposes of their undertaking to raise further capital and to create and issue new shares and stock and debenture stock (whether redeemable or otherwise) and to borrow further money, and if thought fit to attach to such new shares and stock or any class or classes thereof such rate or rates of dividend or interest and such priorities, rights, privileges or advantages as may be found desirable or as the intended Act may prescribe, and to apply to the Company in relation to or for the purposes of any such capital or capital powers with or without modification some or all of the provisions of the Statutory Companies (Re-deemable Stock) Act, 1915.

To authorize the Company to apply to all or any of the purposes of the intended Act any capital or funds belonging to the Company or any funds which they are authorized to raise or may be authorized to raise by the intended Act and so far as relates to capital of the Company issued after the passing of the intended Act to remove the limit on dividends on preference capital prescribed by the Act of 1878, and to declare that no preference capital of the Company issued under the Act of 1878 shall be entitled to a standard rate or sliding scale of dividend.

To vary or extend the capital powers of the Company under the Act of 1878, and to increase or provide for an increase in the amount which the Company may raise by the creation and issue of debenture stock or may borrow under that Act or of the proportionate amounts which the Company may so raise or borrow in relation to the capital authorized by or from time to time issued, accepted or paid up under the Act of 1878, and to prescribe the minimum amounts of stock of the Company to be issued, held or transferred.

To empower the Company to form and to make special provisions with respect to special purposes reserve and other funds, and to provide for the application of the funds so formed and for the investment of the moneys forming the same and of the interest or income to arise therefrom.

To authorize the Company or its directors to grant pensions or retiring or superannuation or other allowances to officers and servants of the Company, and to establish a fund or funds for the purpose of securing pensions, retiring or other allowances, payments, gratuities and other benefits to and to the widows, families or dependants of the servants of or persons employed by the Company, to make provision with respect to the terms and conditions upon and subject to which such servants and persons may become and continue members of any such fund or receive benefits therefrom, to declare that such allowances, payments or other benefits shall not be assignable or chargeable with debts or liabilities, to enable the Company to apply their funds for the purposes of and in aid of any such fund, and to make agreements and arrangements with insurance companies and others for securing any such pensions and other allowances, payments, gratuities and benefits as aforesaid, to provide for the investment of any moneys forming part of any such fund, and to apply to any such fund, with or without modification or variation, all or any of the provisions of the Friendly Societies Act, 1896.

To authorize subscriptions or donations out of the moneys of the Company to any fund raised in any national emergency or to infirmaries, hospitals, convalescent homes, exhibitions or other institutions or to benevolent or sick funds of the employees of the Company, or all or any of such objects, to authorize the payment out of such moneys of gratuities, pensions, allowances, or payments to employees of the Company disabled, injured, or wholly or partially incapacitated while serving with the forces engaged in war, or to the widow, family or dependants of any such employee killed in action or dying of wounds, injuries or disease received or contracted in war; and to confer all convenient or incidental powers on the Company and their directors with reference thereto.

To make further provision and to confer further powers on the Company with reference to charges in respect of gas supplied to any person or premises having a separate supply of gas or electricity or the terms on which the Company shall supply in such cases, with respect to the entry on premises and the removal of pipes and the Company's fittings and apparatus therefrom, the cutting off of supply and mode thereof, the payment by owners or occupiers of premises of the expense of re-connecting a discontinued supply and freeing the Company from obligation to give supplies which they consider would interfere with their general supply, or in such other cases as may be prescribed or provided for by or under the intended Act.

To confer further powers upon the Company with reference to rents, rates and charges and with reference to prepayment meters and the charges to be made by the Company for gas supplied by means thereof and for the hire of such meters and fittings to be used therewith, the period of error in defective meters, the use, repair, testing and inspection of anti-fluctuators in connection with gas engines or gas apparatus and the construction and placing of pipes, &c., between mains and meters.

To enable the Company, subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to the laying of pipes to lay down pipes and works in any street, road or highway, and to use the same for any purposes ancillary to their undertaking.

To empower the Company to manufacture, purchase, sell, let for hire, fix, repair, and remove engines, stoves, ranges and other gas fittings and appliances, and to exclude the same from becoming landlord's fixtures or from liability to distress or to the landlord's remedy for rent or from being taken in execution, to require consumers to give notice to the Company before quitting premises supplied with gas by the Company, or if desiring the Company to discontinue a supply to any premises, to empower the Company to refuse to supply persons in debt to the Company, to exempt the Company in certain cases from penalties, and to empower the Company to lay pipes and apparatus in and to supply premises abutting on any street or road not dedicated to public use.

To enable the Company to supply gas in bulk to any local or other authority, company or person whether within or beyond the limits of the Company for the supply of gas, and to contract with any local authority, company or person for the supply of gas upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon between the contracting parties or prescribed or provided for by or under the intended Act, and to authorize the Company to vary the prices charged by them for gas according to the purposes for which such gas is used, and to purchase gas in bulk or gas in a partially purified or crude state from any company, body or person.

To require notice to be given of a proposal to nominate a new or oppose the re-election of a retiring director, to make provision for the appointment, powers, duties and remuneration of a managing director, to provide for the appointment of proxies by attorneys of holders of capital in the Company to vote on behalf of such holders, to make provision as to voting by joint holders of any such capital, to fix or provide for the date or dates of meetings of the Company, to empower the directors of the Company to declare and pay an interim dividend, and to close the register of transfers prior to the declaration of such interim dividend, and to enable them to fix or alter the remuneration of the secretary and auditors of the Company, and to prescribe the number and qualification of such auditors.

To empower the Company to prepare, put in force, modify and vary a scheme or schemes of co-partnership for all or any of their employees for securing their participation in the profits of the Company's undertaking, and to provide for the constitution and appointment of trustees for carrying out any such scheme, and to provide for the issue of stock of the Company to such employees on such terms, in such manner and at such price as the intended Act may prescribe.

To provide for the transfer of stocks and bonuses or other sums of money of such employees on their deaths or otherwise, and to confirm or empower the Company to make or provide for regulations with respect to the nomination by such employees of persons as owners of or entitled to transfers of such stock, or to receive any such bonuses or moneys on such deaths, and to make provisions and confer all necessary powers as to such nominations, transfer and receipt, and as to the persons, terms, conditions and circumstances to whom and under which such stock, bonuses or moneys may be handed over, and as to the powers of the directors in relation to any such matters.

To empower the Company to apply for Provisional or other Orders under the Electric Lighting Acts, 1882 to 1909.

To make provision as to the recovery of penalties and as to the recovery of demands in the county court, and to provide that one summons or warrant may be issued in respect of several sums due by one person to the Company.

To confer upon the Company all powers, rights, authorities and privileges which are or may become necessary for carrying the powers or objects of the intended Act into effect, to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which would in any manner impede or interfere with the objects and purposes aforesaid, and to confer other rights and privileges.

To incorporate with the intended Act and to apply to the Company and their undertaking, with such variations and modifications as may be deemed expedient, some or all of the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts, the Gas Works Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1871, or any statute already passed or to be passed in any future Session of Parliament relating to gas undertakings, the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, and the Companies Clauses Act, 1863, and any Act or Acts amending the same.

To alter, amend, extend or repeal, and if thought fit to re-enact, with or without modification or alteration, all or some of the provisions of the Act of 1878, and any other Act or any Order relating to the Company.

And notice is hereby further given, that on or before the 30th day of November instant a plan and section of the intended footbridge and of the lands intended to be taken compulsorily, together with a book of reference to such plan, and a copy of this Notice as published in the London Gazette will be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Hertford at his office at Hertford, and with the Town Clerk of the Borough of Hemel Hempsted at his office at Hemel Hempsted.

And Notice is hereby also given, that on or before the 16th day of December next printed copies of the intended Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 15th day of November, 1916.

3. To authorize the Company to acquire, by compulsion or agreement, and to enter upon, take and use for the purposes of the sewage purification works (Work No. 15) and purposes connected therewith the lands in the rural district of Axbridge, in the county of Somerset, hereinafter described (that is to say):—

Certain lands in the parish of Cheddar, 3 acres or thereabouts in extent, situate in the south-western portion of the enclosure numbered 1259 on the $\frac{1}{2500}$ Ordnance Map of the said parish (2nd edition, 1903), Somerset Sheet XXVII.-5.

4. To make provision with reference to the purification and disposal of the sewage intercepted by the intended sewerage works, and do all such other acts and things as may be necessary for the efficient purification and disposal thereof.

5. To empower the Company by means of the intended sewerage works, and subject to such terms and conditions as may be imposed by the Bill, to discharge sewage effluent and other matter into the River Yeo, and in regard thereto to exempt the Company from some or all of the provisions contained in the Public Health Act, 1875, the Rivers Pollution Prevention Act, 1876, the Sea Fisheries Regulation Acts, 1888 to 1894, the Act 42 Geo. III, cap 58 (local and personal), and the Somersetshire Drainage Act, 1877 (local and personal), and any bye-laws made or to be made thereunder.

6. To authorize the Company to make such alterations in the positions of and to divert existing pipes, mains, sewers and drains vested in or belonging to other bodies or persons, and to substitute other pipes, mains, sewers, drains or other works therefor as may be found necessary or expedient.

7. To prohibit the opening into the River Yeo and its feeders above the weir (Work No. 2) hereinbefore described of any sewer, drain, pipe or channel and the discharge of sewage or other offensive matter or the casting of rubbish of any sort into the said portion of the River Yeo or its feeders, and to abolish, extinguish, restrict or vary all or any rights of sewerage or drainage into the said portion of that river and its feeders, and to attach penalties to the breach or non-observance of any of the sewerage provisions of the Bill.

8. To authorize the Company to connect with the intended sewers the sewers and drains from premises and works within the area drained by the intended sewerage works, and to require the owners, lessees and occupiers of such premises to permit such connections.

9. To empower the Company on the one hand and the Axbridge Rural District Council on the other hand to enter into agreements for and with respect to the transfer by the Company to that Council of all or any of the intended sewerage works and the properties, rights, powers, duties, authorities and liabilities of the Company with regard thereto, and to authorize such Council to take a transfer and the vesting in and the exercise by them of such works, properties, rights, powers, duties, authorities and liabilities, and to confirm any agreement which may be made before the passing of the Bill into an Act with regard to such matters.

10. To enable the Company on the one hand and the Axbridge Rural District Council and the Somersetshire Drainage Commissioners on the other hand to enter into and carry into effect contracts and agreements with reference to any of the matters aforesaid or the regulation of the water levels in the public and other drains and as to assessments and other matters and to confirm and give effect to any such contract or agreement which may have been entered into prior to the passing of the Bill into an Act.

11. To authorize the Company to deviate from the lines and levels of the intended works shown on the deposited plans and sections hereinafter mentioned to the extent to be shown on the said plans and sections or defined by the Bill or prescribed by Parliament.

12. To extend the limits within which the Company are authorized to supply water so as to include therein:—

The parish of Nailsea in the county of Somerset

(hereinafter referred to as "the extended limits"), and to extend to and apply within the extended limits the provisions of the Acts relating to the Company with reference to the supply of water subject to such exceptions and modifications as may be prescribed by the Bill and to confer upon the Company and enable them to exercise within the extended limits either unconditionally or subject to such conditions or limitations as the Bill may define or Parliament may prescribe all or any of the powers privileges and authorities for or in relation to the supply of water which they have or may exercise within their existing limits for the supply of water including power to demand, levy, take and recover rates and charges for and in respect of the supply of water by the Company within the extended limits.

13. To authorize the Company within the parishes mentioned in this Notice and elsewhere within the Company's limits for the supply of water as proposed to be extended by the Bill to lay down, maintain, alter, repair, take up and renew mains, pipes, wires, culverts, tubes and other works, and apparatus for the distribution and supply of water or any purposes connected therewith or for the prevention and detection of waste, and to open, break up, cross, divert, alter, remove, stop up and interfere with, whether temporarily or permanently, all such roads, highways, foot-paths, streets (including streets not dedicated to public use), dykes, pipes, sewers, canals, navigations, rivers, springs, streams, bridges, railways, tramways, tunnels, drains, wires and telegraph, telephone and other electric apparatus as it may be necessary or convenient to open, break up, cross, divert, alter, stop up, remove or interfere with for the purposes of the Company for or in connection with the supply of water or of the Bill, and to apply for any such purposes the provisions of the Waterworks Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to the breaking up streets for the purpose of laying pipes.

14. To empower the Company for the purposes of the intended works and of the Bill and of their undertaking to acquire compulsorily or by agreement, or to take on lease and to hold lands (including in that expression where used in this Notice houses and buildings) and other property and any rights and easements therein, thereunder or thereover including the right of discharging water into any sewers, streams or watercourses with which any of the conduits or other works of the Company may communicate or be connected to acquire compulsorily or by agreement for the purposes of or connected with their undertaking the lands hereinafter described in the county of Somerset or some of them or some part or parts thereof, and to sanction and confirm the acquisition of any such lands prior to the passing of the Bill into an Act, and to confer powers upon the Company with reference to the retention, holding, user, sale, leasing, exchange and disposal of lands with or without reservation of any water rights or other easements in respect thereof. The following are the lands hereinbefore referred to situate in the said parish of Cheddar and respectively numbered on the $\frac{1}{2500}$ Ordnance Map (2nd Edition, 1903) Sheets XXVII-I and XXVII-2 of that parish, as follows (that is to say):—

(a) The enclosures 635, 639, 636, 631, 630, 628, 469, 468, 466, 467, 471, and 472, and the cottage and garden forming part of 634.

(b) The part of the enclosure 415 abutting on and on the western and northern side of Cliff-road and extending westward and northward of that road to the base of the adjoining Cliff and between points 1.60 chains and 11.25 chains or thereabouts respectively measured in a northerly and easterly direction from Gough's Museum and extending eastward along the said road.

(c) The part of the enclosure 414 abutting on and on the eastern side of Cliff-road between points measured along that road 0.50 chain and 5.50 chains or thereabouts respectively in a northerly and easterly direction from Gough's Museum and extending eastward and southward of the said road to the base of the adjoining Cliff.

(d) The part of the enclosure 414 abutting on and on the southern side of Cliff-road between points measured along the said road 0.75 chain and 10.50 chains or thereabouts respectively in a westerly direction from

Gough's Museum, and extending southward of the said road to the base of the adjoining cliff.

(e) The enclosures 632, 633, 874, 627, 626, 873, 875 and 868.

(f) The part of the enclosure 867 to the east of an imaginary line drawn from north to south across the enclosure 1.50 chains or thereabouts measured in a north-easterly direction from the weir in the said enclosure.

(g) The Mill known as Scourse's Mill, including the enclosures and parts of enclosures 1142, 1144, 894, 897 and 1143 held therewith.

(h) The enclosures 1091, 1086a, 1087, 1090 and 1089.

The following are the lands hereinbefore referred to situate in the said parish of Rowberrow:—

(i) Part of the enclosure numbered 27 on the $\frac{1}{2500}$ Ordnance Map of that parish (2nd edition, 1903), Sheet XVIII-5, 8 chains or thereabouts in length and 1 chain or thereabouts in width situate on the western side of that enclosure and abutting on the northern fence of the main Bridgewater-road.

(j) The disused quarry forming part of the enclosure numbered 32 on the Ordnance Map and Sheet last mentioned.

15. To authorize the Company to acquire

(a) parts only of any house, building or manufactory without being subject to the liability imposed by section 92 of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, to purchase the whole thereof, and (b) easements only in and over lands, and to make other amendments in the Lands Clauses Acts in their application to the Bill, and notwithstanding the provisions of the Waterworks Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to mines, to empower the Company to acquire by compulsion or agreement any mines or minerals under any lands which may be taken by the Company under the powers and for the purposes of the Bill.

16. To authorize the Company to take, intercept, collect, impound, use, divert and appropriate for the purposes of the Undertaking of the Company and the purposes of the Bill by Work No. 1 the water now flowing into the Cox's Mill Pond in the parish of Cheddar, and the water derived from the springs feeding such pond, which water from the aforesaid springs at Cheddar now flows into the River Yeo and thence by the River Axe into the Bristol Channel.

17. To make provision with reference to the quantity of water to be discharged into the River Yeo below the point of intake (Work No. 1).

18. It is proposed to take compulsorily for the following purposes certain lands reputed to be common or commonable lands, of which the following are the particulars:—

Purpose for which required.	Name by which the land is known.	Parish in which situate.	Quantity within limits of deviation.	Estimated quantity to be taken.
Line or Lines of Pipes (No. 2) (Work No. 5)	Compton Bishop Hill	Compton Bishop	a. r. p. 6 3 9	a. r. p. 1 2 2

Power may be sought by the Bill to take a compulsory easement over the said commonable lands for the laying and maintaining the said line or lines of pipes (No. 2) (Work No. 5) therein, instead of taking the said lands.

19. To make further provisions in regard to the supply of water by the Company, and particularly with respect to the provision of separate communication pipes for each house.

20. To empower the Company in, under and upon any lands and properties acquired by them under the authority of the Bill, and any other lands for the time being held by them or in respect of which they may acquire an easement in connection with their undertaking, to exercise all or any of the powers of section 12 of the Waterworks Clauses Act, 1847.

21. To confer upon persons liable to maintain pipes and apparatus in connection with the Company's undertaking the like powers of opening the ground as are conferred upon them by the Waterworks Clauses Act, 1847, for laying communication pipes.

22. To make provisions with reference to the maintenance of pipes supplying several houses or parts of houses in common or flats.

23. To confer powers upon the Company in relation to the supply of water for washing horses, carriages and motor and other vehicles, and to authorize them to charge for the supply of water for such purposes or any of them.

24. To empower the Company within their limits for the time being for the supply of water, and persons supplied by them to place, maintain, take up, alter, repair and renew stopcocks and surface boxes and chambers for the same in any street or road in which any main or pipe of the Company has been or is proposed to be laid, and the footpaths or footways of such street or road, and for those purposes to break up and open such street, road, footpath or footway.

25. To authorize the Directors of the Company to determine from time to time the remuneration payable to the Secretary, and for that purpose to make any necessary amendment of section 91 of the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, or any other enactment as applied to the Company or their undertaking, and to enable the Company or the Directors of the Company to make superannuation and other allowances to officers and servants of the Company, and to pay pensions to any such officers or servants who may be disabled by sickness, infirmity or age.

26. To empower the Company to raise additional capital for the purposes of their undertaking, either by increase of any class or classes of ordinary or preference stock or shares or by the creation of new stock or shares, either ordinary, guaranteed or preferential, and by borrowing upon mortgage or by the creation and issue of debenture stock or by loan or by any one or more of those methods, and to attach to any such new stock, shares, mortgages or debenture stock such preference or priority of interest or dividends, rights of voting or other rights or advantages as the Bill may define, and to prescribe, regulate or provide for the dividends or interest to be paid on the same.

27. To provide that any preference stock or debentures to be created under the powers sought by the Bill may be created and issued as redeemable stock or redeemable debentures on such terms and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed in or provided for by the Bill or as may be prescribed in a resolution or resolutions of the Company, and to empower the Company from time to time for the purpose of redeeming such redeemable stock or redeemable debentures to create and issue other stock or debentures either redeemable or otherwise of such nominal amount as may be necessary for providing the moneys required for redemption or for the purpose of substitution for any such redeemable stock or redeemable debentures or any part thereof, and to empower the Company to redeem such stock or debentures by either or both of such methods and at or after a fixed date or before such date.

28. To authorize the Directors of the Company from time to time after providing for the payment of interest on any mortgages, bonds and debentures and dividend on any preference stock or shares of the Company, and providing for other fixed charges and obligations, to set apart out of revenue such sums, either annual or otherwise, as they may consider necessary to provide for the redemption of any redeemable stock or debentures, and to enable the Directors to accumulate and hold the sums so provided and to invest the same and the resulting income, and to apply the fund so accumulated in the purchase from time to time for cancellation or the redemption of such redeemable stock or debentures.

29. To enable the Company notwithstanding anything contained in the Companies Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845 to 1889, or any other Act, to pay out of the capital or any of the funds of the Company from time to time during the construction of the intended works or any part thereof or during such period as the Bill may prescribe or provide for interest or dividends on any shares or stock or debenture stock or debentures of the Company.

30. The Bill will vary and extinguish all existing rights and privileges which would interfere with any of the objects of the Bill, and will confer upon the Company all such other rights and privileges as may be necessary for any purposes of the Bill, and will enable the Company and any public authorities, bodies, companies or persons to enter into and fulfil contracts and agreements for and in relation to any of the purposes of the Bill and will so far as may be deemed necessary amend, enlarge and repeal the powers and provisions of the Bristol Waterworks Acts, 1862 to 1914, and any other Act relating directly or indirectly to the Company.

31. The Bill will or may incorporate with itself in extenso or by reference and with or without alteration the necessary provisions of the Companies Clauses Acts, 1845 to 1889, the Lands Clauses Acts, also such parts of the Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, as relate to roads and the temporary occupation of lands, the Waterworks Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1863, the Public Health Act, 1875, the Public Health Act, 1875 (Support of Sewers) Amendment Act, 1883, the Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1890, the Local Government Acts, the Arbitration Act, 1889, and all other Acts amending the said Acts respectively.

Duplicate plans and sections showing the lines, situation and levels of the proposed works and the lands, houses and other property in or through which they will be made, and also duplicate plans showing the lands, houses and other property intended to be compulsorily taken or used for other purposes under the powers of the Bill, together with a book of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners and lessees or reputed owners, and lessees, and of the occupiers of such lands, houses and other property, and a copy of this Notice as published in the London Gazette will on or before the 30th day of November instant be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Somerset at his office at Weston-super-Mare, and on or before the same date a copy of so much of the said plans, sections and book of reference as relates to each of the areas hereinafter mentioned in or through which the said works or any part thereof are or is intended to be made or are or will be situate, or in which any lands to be taken compulsorily under the powers of the Bill are situate, together with a copy of this Notice as published in the London Gazette will be deposited for public inspection as follows (that is to say):—

As relates to the rural district of Axbridge with the Clerk of the Council of that district at his office at Axbridge.

As relates to the parishes of Cheddar, Axbridge, Compton Bishop, Winscombe, Shipham, Churchill, Burrington, Wrington, and Blagdon with the respective Clerks of the parish councils of those parishes at their respective offices, or, where they have no offices, at their residences, or where there is no Clerk, with the Chairman of the Council at his residence, and as relates to the parishes of Rowberrow and Butcombe, with the respective Chairmen of the Parish Meetings of those parishes at their respective residences.

Printed copies of the Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 16th day of December next.

Dated this 16th day of November, 1916.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session by Sir W. G. Armstrong Whitworth and Company Limited (hereinafter called "the Company") for leave to bring in a Bill for the following or some of the following among other purposes (that is to say):—

To authorize the Company to make and maintain the junction railways and widening of railway in the township of Manchester in the city of Manchester and County Palatine of Lancaster, hereinafter described, with such sidings, lines of rail, junctions, stations, approaches, works and conveniences connected therewith respectively as they may think fit (that is to say):—

A Railway (No. 1), commencing by a junction with the Railway No. 1 of the Clayton Aniline Company Limited (hereinafter referred to as "the Clayton Company,") described in and authorised by the Clayton Aniline Company Limited (Railways) Act, 1916 (hereinafter referred to as "the Clayton Act"), at a point on that railway $7\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts, measured in a westerly direction from the junction between Chatham-street and Clayton-lane, and terminating on the easterly side of Clayton-lane at a point 4 chains or thereabouts measured in a southerly direction from the southerly side of the bridge carrying Clayton-lane over the Manchester and Ashton Canal.

A Railway (No. 2), commencing by a junction with the intended Railway (No. 1) at the point of termination thereof hereinbefore described and terminating in the main line of the railways in the North-street Works of the Company at a point therein 10 chains or thereabouts, measured in a northerly direction from the northerly end of George-street.

A widening of the existing branch railway of the Lord Mayor Aldermen and Citizens of the city of Manchester (hereinafter referred to as "the Corporation") described in and authorized by the Manchester Corporation (General Powers) Act, 1902, on the easterly side of that branch railway between a point on the southerly side of Stuart-street 1 chain or thereabouts measured in an easterly direction from the easterly side of the electricity generating station of the Corporation in Stuart-street and a point in the said branch railway 3 chains or thereabouts measured in a north-easterly direction from the north-easterly side of the bridge carrying that branch railway over Bank-street.

To authorize the Company to construct and use and to provide for the maintenance (whether by the Company or by the Corporation or by the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway Company) of exchange and other sidings at or near the junction of the said branch railway of the Corporation with the railway of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway Company.

To vest in the Company the usual powers granted to railway companies for the construction and maintenance of railways and especially the powers granted by the 16th section of the Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, and to authorize them in connection with and for the purposes of the said intended railways, widening of railway and works and the exercise of the powers hereinbefore mentioned, to make such alterations in the levels of roads, streets or ways as may be necessary or convenient, and to enable the Company to carry the intended railways, or either of them on the level along or across, and to alter the width, level and line of any road, street or way, and to appropriate the site and soil of any streets stopped up, and to alter and interfere temporarily or permanently with railways, tramways, watercourses, sewers, drains, gas, water or other pipes and electric, telegraphic, telephonic and other wires, tubes and cables, vaults, arches, cellars or other works or apparatus in, under or over any streets or roads proposed to be interfered with under the powers of the Bill.

To enable the Company to deviate from the lines and levels shown upon the plans and sections deposited as hereinafter stated of the intended railways, widening of railway and works hereinbefore mentioned.

To make provision as to the maintenance and repair of roads or footpaths diverted, crossed or otherwise interfered with by the Company in the execution of any of the proposed works, and to impose the obligation for such maintenance and repair on the bodies or persons having the control of such roads or footpaths respectively.

To empower the Company to stop up and divert any streets, roads, footpaths and ways shown on the deposited plans as intended to be stopped up or diverted or included within the limits of the lands shown on the deposited plans as intended to be taken compulsorily, and to empower the Company to appropriate the site and soil of so much of any of such streets, roads, footpaths or ways as are intended to be stopped up, or as will become unnecessary, and to provide for extinguishing all rights of way thereover.

To authorize the Company to use (either exclusively or in common with other traffic) for the purposes of the construction, maintenance and use of the intended railways and works, and to lay thereon lines of rail and (if thought fit) to stop up and to extinguish all rights of way over so much of Chatham-street, in the said township of Manchester, as is situate between the junction of that street with Clayton-lane and a point 3½ chains or thereabouts measured along Chatham-street in a westerly direction from that junction to the extent of either the whole or a part of the width of that portion of Chatham-street as may be defined in the Bill, and to vest in the Company the site and soil of the portion stopped up.

To empower the Company to acquire compulsorily or by agreement, or to appropriate and use lands (including in that expression where used in this Notice houses, buildings, easements and other property), for the purposes of or in connection with the said works or other the purposes of the intended Act, and to extinguish all rights of way and other rights thereover, and to vest in the Company the site and soil of any lands upon which the said works or any of them or any part thereof may be constructed or any estate or interest in such lands.

To make provision as to the acquisition by the Company, compulsorily or by agreement, of such easements or rights in or over lands as may be necessary or expedient for or in connection with the construction, maintenance or use of the intended railways, widening of railway and works in lieu of purchasing or acquiring such lands or any greater or other estate or interest therein than such easements or rights as aforesaid.

To exempt the Company from the provisions of section 92 of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, and to empower them to purchase part only of any house, building or manufactory which may be required for the purposes of the intended Act without being obliged or compellable to purchase any greater part or the whole thereof, and to empower the Company to purchase or acquire compulsorily or by agreement easements or rights in, over or under any lands or any house, building, manufactory or other property without being required to purchase or acquire such lands, house, building, manufactory or other property or any portion thereof.

To enable persons having limited interests in any lands to grant any easements, rights and privileges in, over or affecting such lands which may be required for the purposes of or in connection with the said intended works, or other the purposes of the intended Act.

To empower the Company and their officers and other persons to enter upon any property which or easements or rights in or over which may be authorized to be acquired under the intended Act for the purpose of surveying and valuing such property.

To make provisions as to the costs of arbitration in certain cases and to require in certain circumstances persons claiming compensation in respect of lands taken or injuriously affected or easements or rights acquired under the intended Act to pay the whole or part of the costs incurred by them.

To define to such extent (if any) as may be deemed necessary or expedient the rights and obligations of the Company under the provisions of the Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, with respect to mines lying under or near the railway, and to enlarge the area (in relation to the intended railways, widening of railway and works) to which such rights and obligations shall apply.

To empower the Company on such terms and conditions and on payment of such tolls, rates and charges or for such other consideration as may be agreed on or may be settled by arbitration or otherwise or be provided by the Bill to run over and use with their engines;

carriages and wagons and clerks, officers and servants whether in charge of or accompanying any engines or trains or for other purposes and for the purposes of their traffic of every description

(a) The said railway (No. 1) of the Clayton Company from the junction therewith of the intended railway (No. 1) of the Company to the junction of the said railway (No. 1) of the Clayton Company with the said branch railway of the Corporation;

(b) The said branch railway of the Corporation including the intended widening thereof;

together with all stations, roads, platforms, points, signals, water, watering-places, engines, engine-sheds, standing room for engines, carriages, and wagons, booking and other offices, warehouses, sidings, loading and unloading places, turntables, junctions, machinery works and conveniences on or connected with the railways so to be run over and used or any of them.

To authorize and require the Corporation to bear or contribute towards the cost of the construction of the intended widening of railway (including the cost of acquisition of any lands, easements or rights required for the purposes thereof) to the extent of such sum or of sums representing such proportion of the said cost as may be specified in the Bill, and to provide for the payment to the Company of and to authorize the Company to demand and recover any sums so to be contributed by the Corporation.

To provide that the intended widening of railway shall when completed be vested in the Corporation as part of the said branch railway of the Corporation, subject to such rights of running over and using the same as are hereinbefore referred to, and upon and subject to such other conditions and reservations (if any) as may be specified in the Bill.

To make such provisions and impose such obligations (if any) as may be deemed necessary or expedient (whether by express enactment or by reference to the Railway and Canal Traffic Act, 1854, and the Railway and Canal Traffic Acts, 1873 to 1913), with respect to the transmission and delivery of the Company's traffic by the Clayton Company, the Corporation and the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway Company, or any of them, and the rates or other consideration to be paid by the Company in respect of such traffic.

To empower the Company on the one hand and the Clayton Company, the Corporation, and the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway Company or any of them on the other hand to enter into and carry into effect agreements with respect to the construction of the said intended railways, widening of railway and works or any part or parts thereof, and the management, maintenance, working and use thereof, and of the said railway of the Clayton Company and the said branch railway of the Corporation, the supply of locomotives, rolling stock, plant and machinery, and the employment of officers and servants for the conduct of the traffic on the said railways or branch railway, or for the purposes of any such agreement, and with respect to the costs, charges and expenses of such construction, management, maintenance, working and use, and with reference to the regulation, management and transmission of traffic passing or intended to pass over the said intended railways and the said railway of the Clayton Company or any part thereof or the said branch railway, and the collection, payment, division, apportionment, appropriation and distribution of tolls, rates and charges arising from any such traffic.

To empower the Company, the Clayton Company and the Corporation or any of them to enter into and carry into effect agreements in relation to or in connection with the running over and use by the Company of the said railway of the Clayton Company and the said branch railway of the Corporation or with reference to any of the matters hereinbefore referred to.

To empower the Company and the Corporation to enter into and carry into effect agreements with reference to the construction and maintenance of the intended widening of railway and to the apportionment of the cost thereof.

To confirm any such agreement as aforesaid which may already have been or which at any time before the passing of the intended Act may be entered into in relation to any of the matters aforesaid.

To provide (if thought fit) that the railways proposed to be authorized by the Bill shall be private railways, and that such railways and any other works authorized by the Bill and any property acquired by the Company under the powers sought by the Bill shall form part of the undertaking of the Company for all purposes or for such purposes as may be specified in the Bill.

To repeal, alter or amend so much (if any) of section 18 (For Protection of Great Central Railway Company) of the Clayton Act, and sections 20, 24 and 25 of that Act, and so much of the agreements between the Corporation and the Clayton Company and between the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway Company, the Corporation and the Clayton Company respectively, scheduled to and confirmed by that Act, as would prevent or interfere with the user by the Company for the purposes of their traffic of (a) the bridge for carrying the said railway (No. 1) of the Clayton Company over the Ashton or Manchester and Ashton Canal; (b) the junction lines between the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway main lines and the sidings of the Corporation adjacent thereto; (c) the said sidings of the Corporation; (d) the said branch railway of the Corporation; (e) the additional sidings constructed or to be constructed pursuant to Clause 32 of the said agreement between the Corporation and the Clayton Company and Clause 1 of the said agreement between the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway Company, the Corporation and the Clayton Company; (f) any such additional sidings as are referred to in Clause 34 of the said agreement between the Corporation and the Clayton Company.

To confer upon the Company all such further or other powers, and to make all such further or other provisions as may be necessary or expedient for more effectually securing the objects of the intended Act.

To empower the Corporation to borrow or raise money for the purposes or any of the purposes aforesaid, or for any other purpose in respect of which the Corporation may be authorized or required by the intended Act to make payments or contributions or to expend moneys, and to charge the money so borrowed or raised on the city rate of the City of Manchester, and to execute and grant mortgages or to create and issue Corporation stock or bills in respect thereof; to authorize the Corporation to apply any of their existing funds or moneys authorized to be borrowed to any of the purposes hereinbefore referred to; and to make such further or other financial provisions as may be deemed necessary or expedient with respect to the relations between the Company and the Corporation respecting the cost of and incidental to the construction of the said intended widening of railway or any matter connected therewith.

The Bill will vary and extinguish all existing rights and privileges which would interfere with any of its objects and confer other rights and privileges, and will or may incorporate with itself all or such of the provisions as may be deemed expedient (either with or without amendment or modification) of the Lands Clauses Acts, the Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, and the Railways Clauses Act, 1863, and will, so far as is deemed necessary or expedient, repeal, alter or amend the provisions of the following local Acts, that is to say, the Clayton Act, the Manchester Corporation (General Powers) Act, 1902, and any other Act relating directly or indirectly to the Corporation; the Act 6 and 7, Will. IV, cap. cxi, and any other Act relating directly or indirectly to the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway Company, and any other Act which would in any way interfere with any of the objects of the intended Act.

Duplicate plans and sections describing the lines, situation and levels of the works hereinbefore described, and showing the lands and other property in or through which they may be made, or which may be taken or used compulsorily or over which compulsory easements may be sought for the purposes or otherwise under the powers of the Bill, together with an Ordnance map with the line of the proposed railways delineated thereon, so as to show their general course and direction, and a book of reference to such plans containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and of the occupiers of such lands and property, and a copy of this Notice as published in the London Gazette will, on or before the 30th day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Lancaster, at his office at Preston, and on or before the same date a copy of the said plans, sections and book of reference, and a copy of this Notice, will be deposited with the Town Clerk of the City of Manchester, at his office at the Town Hall, Manchester.

Printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 16th day of December next.

Dated this 17th day of November, 1916.

SHEFFIELD CORPORATION.

(Power to Corporation to appropriate lands, erect generating station, and generate electricity; Construction of electric lines, lines of water pipes and wharf and incidental works; Dredging in River Don; Compulsory Acquisition of lands, easements and waters; Breaking up streets and railways; Water for condensing, &c., from River Don; Agreements; Extension of City of Sheffield and matters relating thereto; Alteration of Poor Law Areas; Extension of limits of Corporation for supply of water and electricity; Borrowing of Money and other financial provisions; Incorporation and application of and exemption from Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session by the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Sheffield (hereinafter referred to as "the Corporation" and "the City") for an Act for all or some of the following purposes:—

1. To empower the Corporation to appropriate and use for the purpose of their electricity undertaking all or any of the following lands now belonging to them in the Parish and Borough of Rotherham in the West Riding of the County of York, and any estates, easements, rights or interests in or over or in connection with the same (that is to say):—

Certain lands lying between the Sewage Disposal Works of the Corporation at Blackburn Meadows and the railways of the Great Central Railway Company and the River Don bounded on the north-west, north and north-east by the said sewage works, on the west, south-west and south by the railways of the Great Central Railway Company, and on the south-east by the River Don (hereinafter referred to as "the generating station site"), and on the said lands or any part or parts thereof to erect, construct, lay down, extend, enlarge, maintain, work and use as part and for the purposes of their electricity undertaking stations, buildings, electric lines, machinery, apparatus and works of such description, extent, cubical capacity and height and for such purposes as they may think fit or the intended Act may authorize for producing, generating, transforming, storing, using, transmitting, conveying and distributing electrical energy or power or any material, product, matter or thing arising or used in the process of such generation or transformation, with all necessary and convenient buildings, boilers, engines, dynamos, batteries, accumulators, storage works, motors, generators, cables, ducts, machinery, cooling towers, water storage reservoirs, and appliances, and to manufacture and produce, generate, transform, store, use, transmit, convey and distribute electrical energy and such materials, products, matters and things accordingly, and for those purposes or any of them to supply water from the waterworks of the Corporation, and on the said lands or other lands from time to time belonging to the Corporation, or in respect of which they may have acquired any necessary rights or easements to erect, construct, lay down, extend, enlarge, maintain, work and use railways, tramways, sidings, quays, tunnels, conduits, wharves, landing stages, jetties, piers, roads, approaches, buildings, mains, pipes, machinery, appliances, apparatus and works necessary or convenient for any of the purposes aforesaid.

2. To authorize the Corporation to construct and maintain the following works, and to enter upon, take and use the lands required for the purposes thereof and shown on the plans and sections and described in the book of reference to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned or any of them or any easements in, over or affecting such lands (that is to say):—

An electric line or lines (No. 1) commencing in the parish and borough of Rotherham in the generating station site at a point one yard or thereabouts east of the level crossing over the Great Central Railway in continuation of Alsing-road, and terminating in the parish and city of Sheffield on the north side of the said road at a point 201 yards or thereabouts north-east of the Pheasant Inn.

An electric line or lines (No. 2) commencing in the parish and borough of Rotherham in the generating station site at a point one yard or thereabouts east of the said level crossing, and terminating in the parish and city of Sheffield on the south side of the said road at a point 178 yards or thereabouts north-east of the Pheasant Inn.

An electric line or lines (No. 3) commencing in the parish and borough of Rotherham in the generating station site at a point one yard or thereabouts east of the said level crossing, and terminating in the parish of Tinsley, in the City in Sheffield-road at a point 24 yards or thereabouts north-east of the booking office of the Tinsley Railway Station.

An electric line or lines (No. 4) commencing in the parish and borough of Rotherham in the generating station site at a point one yard or thereabouts east of the said level crossing, and terminating in the parish and city of Sheffield in Standon-road, Winco-bank at a point 9 yards or thereabouts north-east of the Engineer's Hotel.

An electric line or lines (No. 5) commencing in the parish and borough of Rotherham at the north-east end of Hill-street, and terminating in the parish and city of Sheffield at a point in Meadow Hall-road adjoining the Blackburn Brook on the south side thereof.

An electric line or lines (No. 6) commencing in the parish and borough of Rotherham in the generating station site at a point adjoining the north-west corner of the bridge carrying the Great Central Railway (Sheffield and Mexborough Branch) over the River Don near Jordan Cottage, and terminating in the parish of Tinsley, in the City in Sheffield-road at its junction with Lock-lane, together with all proper pipes, ducts, cables, mains, wires, supports, boxes, substations, works, apparatus, machinery and conveniences connected therewith respectively.

A line or lines of water pipes commencing in the parish and borough of Rotherham at or near the western corner of the generating station site, and terminating in the parish and city of Sheffield in Alsing-road at a point 178 yards or thereabouts north-east of the Pheasant Inn, together with all proper conduits, culverts, apparatus, appliances, works and conveniences connected therewith.

A wharf to be situate in the parish and borough of Rotherham on the west bank of the River Don, commencing at a point adjoining or near to and on the north side of the said bridge carrying the Great Central Railway over the said river near Jordan Cottage, and terminating at a point 120 yards or thereabouts south of the southern end of Jordan Dam, together with all proper and convenient sidings, roads, approaches, landing-places, steps, slips, embankments, cranes, hoists, lifts, pontoons, moorings, dolphins, piles, stagings, cofferdams, depots, sheds and other works and conveniences connected therewith.

3. To empower the Corporation for the purposes of the intended Act to open and break up the surface of and otherwise interfere with streets, roads, highways, footpaths, level crossings, railways, and works, rivers, canals, locks, bridges and thoroughfares, and to alter or interfere with mains, pipes, sewers, drains, electric lines, wires, tubes, apparatus, works, matters and things therein, thereunder or thereover, and to apply to the exercise of the powers of the intended Act, with or without modification, or to render inapplicable thereto, all or some of the provisions of the Electric Lighting Acts, 1882 to 1909, the Electric Lighting (Clauses) Act, 1899, the Waterworks Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1863, and any Act amending the same, and to exempt the Corporation in respect of the intended works from the restrictions imposed by section 13 of the Electric Lighting Act, 1882, and section 12 of the Schedule to the Electric Lighting (Clauses) Act, 1899, with respect to the breaking up of railways or tramways.

4. To empower the Corporation to dredge, deepen or excavate any part of the bed and banks of the River Don or any canal, cut or other channel connected therewith which may be necessary or convenient in connection with the intended generating station, wharf and works before referred to or otherwise for the purposes of the intended Act.

5. To empower the Corporation to deviate from the line and levels of the intended works as shown on the plans and sections to be deposited as hereinafter mentioned to any extent which may be defined by the intended Act.

6. To incorporate and apply with modifications and variations for the purposes of the intended Act all or some of the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts, and to enable the Corporation to purchase so much only of or such easements in, over or under any property as may be required for the purposes of the intended Act, and to exempt the Corporation from the liabilities and obligations imposed by section 92 of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, and from the provisions of the said Act with respect to superfluous lands.

7. To empower the Corporation to purchase and acquire by agreement or by compulsion in the parishes hereinbefore mentioned and elsewhere for the purposes of the intended Act such lands, easements and rights as they may require in addition to the lands, easements and rights hereinbefore described.

8. To authorize the Corporation to abstract and utilise for condensing and other purposes of the intended Act the waters of the River Don, and of the Sheffield and South Yorkshire Navigation, and of any canal, cut or other channel connected therewith, and to exempt the Corporation from all or any of the provisions of any Act applying to the said River, Navigation or waters aforesaid.

9. To enable the Corporation on the one hand and the Sheffield and South Yorkshire Navigation Company, the Great Central Railway Company, the Midland Railway Company and any other body or person interested in the said river or in any canal, or navigation connected therewith, or in the waters thereof or in any bridge thereover or in any railway or any of them, on the other hand, from time to time to enter into and carry into effect agreements, arrangements and contracts for and with respect to any of the purposes of the intended Act, and to the construction, laying, maintenance, repair, alteration and use of bridges, wharves, jetties, piers, embankments, electric lines, mains, pipes, appliances, apparatus and works in, over, on or under any such river, canal, navigation, railway or works, and to confirm and give effect to any such contract or agreement which may be entered into prior to the passing of the intended Act.

10. To alter and extend the boundary of the existing City so as to include within the City so much of the parish of Rotherham, in the county borough of Rotherham, as lies to the west of the Jordan Dam, in the River Don, and extends from the Sheffield and Rotherham Railway of the Midland Railway Company to the centre of the River Don, and also so much of the said parish and borough as lies to the east of the said Jordan Dam and extends from the Sheffield and South Yorkshire Navigation (New Cut) to the centre of the River Don and to the Sheffield and Mexborough Branch of the Great Central Railway Company, and comprises the authorized site of the extension of the Sewage Disposal Works of the Corporation, now known as Holmes Farm, which portions of the said parish and borough are in this Notice called "the added area," and are shown on the map deposited as hereinafter mentioned, and to constitute the added area part of the township of Tinsley and Attercliffe Ward of the City, and to make such consequential arrangements with regard to the parish and borough of Rotherham as may be necessary or proper.

11. To provide that the added area shall be included in the Sheffield Poor Law Union and excluded from the Rotherham Poor Law Union and to make all necessary consequential provisions with respect to the election of guardians on the Boards of Guardians of those Unions respectively, and other matters.

12. To extend the areas for the supply of water and electricity by the Corporation so as to include the added area, to empower the Corporation to supply water and electricity therein, and to levy and recover rates and charges therefor, and to break up streets and lay therein mains, pipes and other works and apparatus for the purpose of such supplies, and to exclude the added area from the areas for the supply of water and electricity by the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the county borough of Rotherham (hereinafter referred to as "the Rotherham Corporation").

13. To extend the jurisdiction, power, authorities, rights, privileges and duties, or some of them, of the Corporation, the recorder, clerk of the peace, coroner, stipendiary magistrate, justices of the peace, clerk to the justices, town clerk, police constables and other officers appointed for the existing City, to and throughout the extended City.

14. To extend and make applicable to the extended City all charters, enactments (including adoptive Acts), bye-laws, rules and regulations now in force within the existing City, with such additions, variations and exceptions as may be provided for by the intended Act, and to repeal or render inapplicable all or some of the enactments, bye-laws, rules and regulations now in force within the added area, and in particular to repeal and render inapplicable so far as regards the added area the provisions of the following local Acts now in force therein (that is to say):—The Acts 41 Geo. III, c. 66, 26 and 27 Vic., c. 117, 33 and 34 Vic., c. 134, 35 Vic., cap. 70, and 40 Vic., c. 24; the Rotherham Borough Extension and Sewerage Act, 1879; the Rotherham Corporation Act, 1882; the Rotherham Corporation Act, 1896; the Rotherham Corporation Electric Lighting Order, 1898; the Rotherham Corporation Act, 1900; the Rotherham Corporation Act, 1904; the Rotherham Corporation Act, 1911; the Rotherham Corporation Act, 1915; and any other Act or Order relating to the Rotherham Corporation or the Borough of Rotherham.

15. To alter, amend, extend or repeal so much of the Yorkshire Electric Power Acts, 1901, 1910, and 1914, as relate to the added area, and to provide that the said Acts shall apply within the added area as if it had at the date of the passing of those Acts formed part of the City of Sheffield instead of the Borough of Rotherham.

16. To continue in office the town clerk and all other officers and servants of the Corporation in respect of the extended City, and to constitute the auditors of the existing City auditors of the extended City.

17. To make all necessary and proper provision in relation to municipal and other elections, and the preparation of citizen or burgess and other lists, including lists of Parliamentary voters, and of the citizen or burgess roll, and for those purposes or any of them to apply with or without modification the provisions of the Municipal Corporations Acts, the Ballot Act, 1872, the County Electors Act, 1888, and any other Act or Acts relating to the matters aforesaid.

18. To provide that all property vested in the Corporation shall be held by the Corporation for the benefit of the extended City, and that all liabilities of the Corporation shall be attached to them in respect of the extended City.

19. To provide for the transfer to and vesting in the Corporation of all property, assets, liabilities, powers and duties of the Rotherham Corporation, so far as the property, assets, liabilities, powers and duties of the said Corporation relate exclusively to the added area, and to provide that the said Corporation shall cease to exercise any powers or have any duties within any part of the added area.

20. To provide for the adjustment of the relations between the Corporation and the Rotherham Corporation, and any other body or authority, and to make all such other provision as may be necessary or expedient by reason of the extension of the City, including the settlement and irremovability of paupers, rate books, accounts, valuation lists, registration of accounts and all other matters incidental thereto or consequent thereon.

21. A map in duplicate, showing as well the present boundaries of the City, and the boundaries of the proposed extension, will, on or before the 30th day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection with the Town Clerk of the City at his office in Sheffield.

22. To authorize the Corporation to borrow and re-borrow money for all or any of the purposes of the intended Act and of the electricity undertaking, and for such other purposes as may be deemed expedient, and to charge the moneys to be so borrowed, and the interest thereon, on the electricity revenue of the Corporation, the borough fund and borough rate, and the district fund and general district rate, or other local rates, and the estates, undertakings, tolls, rates, rents, revenues, and other property of the Corporation, or any of such securities, and to create, issue, execute, and grant mortgages, debentures, debenture or other stock, consolidated stock, or bills or promissory notes and annuities in respect thereof, to authorize the Corporation to apply any of their funds to all or any of the purposes of the intended Act, and to make, levy and recover rates, and increase existing or authorized rates for any of such purposes, to provide for the application of moneys arising from the sale of lands, and to make further and better provision with regard to the finance of the City.

23. To vary or extinguish all or any rights and privileges inconsistent with or which would or might in any way interfere with the objects of the intended Act, and to confer other rights and privileges.

24. The intended Act will or may incorporate or make applicable all or some of the provisions of the Sheffield Corporation Water Act, 1896; the Sheffield Corporation (Streets and Tramways) Act, 1897; the Sheffield Corporation Act, 1907; the Sheffield Corporation Act, 1912, and the Sheffield Corporation Act, 1914, with such alterations and amendments as may be deemed expedient, and will repeal such of those provisions as are inconsistent with the provisions of the intended Act, and will enable the Corporation to exercise some of the powers granted by the said Acts or any of them as well as the powers hereinbefore mentioned.

25. To alter, amend, extend, enlarge or repeal or re-enact, with or without amendment, all or some of the provisions of the several Acts hereinbefore mentioned or referred to, and all other Acts and Orders relating to the Corporation or to the City or any part thereof, or to the Rotherham Corporation or to the borough of Rotherham or any part thereof, and of the Sheffield and South Yorkshire Navigation Act, 1889, and all other Acts and Orders relating to the Sheffield and South Yorkshire Navigation Company or their undertaking.

26. To incorporate, with or without alterations and amendments, all or some of the provisions of the several Acts of Parliament following or some of them (that is to say):—

The Lands Clauses Acts; the Waterworks Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1863; the Harbours, Docks and Piers Clauses Act, 1847; the Electric Lighting Acts, 1882 to 1909; the Electric Lighting (Clauses) Act, 1899; the Municipal Corporations Acts; the Local Loans Act, 1875; the Public Health Acts; the Local Government Acts; and all Acts

amending the said Acts respectively or any of them.

And notice is hereby also given, that on or before the 30th day of November instant plans and sections relating to the objects of the intended Act, with a book of reference to such plans and a copy of this Notice as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the West Riding of the county of York at his office at Wakefield, and with the Town Clerk of the City at his office at the Town Hall, Sheffield, and with the Town Clerk of the borough of Rotherham at his office at the Town Hall, Rotherham.

Printed copies of the Bill for the intended Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 16th day of December next.

Dated this 18th day of November, 1916.

(Construction of Railways, Roads and other Works in the Parishes of Davyhulme and Stretford in the County of Lancaster; Breaking and Stopping up of Roads, &c.; Purchase of Lands Compulsorily and by Agreement; Provisions as to Repair of Roads by the Barton-upon-Irwell Rural District Council, the Stretford Urban District Council and the Lancashire County Council and Reservation of Rights of User of Same for Industrial Purposes; Power to those Councils to Contribute to Cost of Construction of Roads; Tolls, Rates and Charges; Working and Other Agreements with Cheshire Lines Committee Trafford Park Company, and Stretford Urban District Council; Power to Trustees of de Trafford Estates and other Limited Owners to Contribute, &c.; Power to Pay Interest out of Capital; Incorporation, Amendment and Repeal of Acts, &c.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session for leave to bring in a Bill for the following or some of the following purposes (that is to say):—

1. To authorize and empower the Right Honourable Mary Annette de Trafford, Widow, Frederick Bartholomew Stapleton Bretherton, a Major in His Majesty's Army, and Charles Edmund de Trafford, Esquire, or other the Trustees for the time being under and for the purposes of the will of Sir Humphrey de Trafford, Baronet, deceased, or of the de Trafford Estate Acts, 1904 and 1914, or of the resettlement dated the 8th May, 1914, set forth in the Schedule to the last mentioned Act, or a Company to be incorporated under the provisions of the intended Act (which several persons or company as the case may be are hereinafter referred to as "the Promoters"), to make and maintain wholly in the County of Lancaster the railways, roads and works hereinafter described or such of them or such part or parts thereof respectively as the Bill shall define, together with all necessary and convenient stations, bridges, sidings, junctions, approaches, works and conveniences connected therewith (that is to say):—

A Railway (No. 1) situate partly in the parish of Davyhulme in the rural district of Barton-upon-Irwell and partly in the parish and urban district of Stretford commencing in the said parish of Davyhulme in the field or enclosure numbered 260 on the 25-inch Ordnance Map (edition 1908) of that parish at a point on the northern boundary of the said field or enclosure distant 12 yards or thereabouts from the north-western corner of such field or enclosure and terminating in the said parish and urban district of Stretford in the field or enclosure numbered 211 on the 25-inch Ordnance Map (edition 1908) of that parish at a point distant $7\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts from the northern corner of the said field and 8 chains or thereabouts from the north-western corner of the said field.

A Railway (No. 2) wholly in the parish and urban district of Stretford commencing by a junction with the said Railway (No. 1) at the termination thereof hereinbefore described and terminating at or near the buffer stops of the Trafford Park Sidings of the Cheshire Lines Committee near "Waters Meeting" at a point distant 5 chains or thereabouts measured in a north-easterly direction from the centre of the bridge carrying the Cheshire Lines Railway over the Bridgewater Canal and Longford-road.

A Railway (No. 3) wholly in the parish and urban district of Stretford commencing by a junction with the said Railway (No. 1) at the termination thereof hereinbefore described and terminating by a junction with the Cheshire Lines Railway at a point distant $9\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts measured along the said railway in a south-westerly direction from the centre of the bridge carrying that railway over Moss-road.

A new road (No. 1) situate partly in the said parish of Davyhulme and partly in the parish and urban district of Stretford commencing by a junction with Redcliffe-road at or near the point of junction of that road with the road leading to Moss Farm and terminating in the field or enclosure numbered 211 on the 25-inch Ordnance Map (edition 1908) of the parish of Stretford by a junction with the road (No. 3) hereinafter described at a point in the said field or enclosure distant $8\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts measured in a south-westerly direction from the northern corner of the said field and 6 chains or thereabouts measured in a south-easterly direction from the north-western corner of the said field.

A new road (No. 2) situate wholly in the parish and urban district of Stretford commencing at the point of junction of Park-road with the southern towing path of the Bridgewater Canal at Moss Bridge and terminating by a junction with the road (No. 1) hereinbefore described at a point half a chain or thereabouts westward of the point where the occupation road passing through the field or enclosure numbered 224 on the 25-inch Ordnance Map (edition 1908) of the said parish crosses the main outfall sewer of the Manchester Corporation.

A new road (No. 3) situate wholly in the parish and urban district of Stretford commencing by a junction with the southern towing path of the Bridgewater Canal at a point distant $27\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts measured along the towing path in a north-westerly direction from "Taylor's Bridge" and terminating in Park-road at the bridge carrying the Cheshire Lines Railway over that road.

The stopping up of so much of Park-road as lies between the point of commencement of the proposed new road (No. 2) and the point of termination of the proposed new road (No. 3).

2. To authorize the Promoters to deviate from the lines and levels of the intended railways, roads and works to such extent as may be shown on the plans and sections hereinafter mentioned or as may be provided by the intended Act.

3. To empower the Promoters to cross, break up, divert, alter, stop up and otherwise interfere with, whether temporarily or permanently, any roads, footpaths, pipes, sewers, culverts, rivers, streams, canals, watercourses, bridges, railways, sidings, tramways, pipes, wires, and electric, telegraphic and telephonic and other apparatus within the said parishes for the purposes of the intended works or any of them or of the Bill.

4. To empower the Promoters to make junctions and connections between the proposed new roads and adjoining roads and to alter the levels of any roads to be interfered with under the powers of the Bill and to make all necessary and proper approaches, roadways, paths, steps, sewers, drains, retaining walls, works and conveniences in connection therewith.

5. To authorize the Promoters to purchase and take by compulsion or agreement lands, houses, tenements and hereditaments and easements or rights therein, thereover, or thereunder for the purposes of the intended railways and roads and other works and of the Bill, and to empower the Promoters to purchase a part only of any property without being subject to the liability imposed by section 92 of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845.

6. To extinguish all public and other rights of way over or affecting so much of Park-road to be stopped up as aforesaid or over or affecting any other roads to be stopped up or diverted under the powers of the Bill and any lands which the Promoters may acquire under the powers of the Bill, and to appropriate and use the site and soil thereof for the purposes of the intended Act, or to vest the same in the Promoters or the owners of adjoining lands freed and discharged from all or any such rights.

7. To authorize the Promoters to hold any of the lands which they are by the intended Act authorized to acquire and which are not required for the purposes of the intended works, and to sell and let or otherwise deal with and dispose of the same or any part or parts thereof on such terms and conditions as the Promoters may think proper, and so far as may be necessary to exempt the Promoters from all or some of the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts with respect to superfluous lands.

8. If thought fit to provide for the dedication of the intended new roads or any of them to the public and to vest or make provision for the vesting of the same in and to make provision for the maintenance and repair thereof and of roads or footpaths diverted or interfered with under the powers of the Bill by the Barton-upon-Irwell Rural District Council, the Stretford Urban District Council, or the Lancashire County Council, or in or by any such other authority or person, and on such terms and conditions as the Bill may prescribe, and to confer upon and reserve to the Promoters and others, notwithstanding anything in the Public Health Acts or in any bye-law made thereunder, such rights, easements, wayleaves and privileges in respect of the intended new roads or any of them or their use as the Bill may prescribe, and especially, but not exclusively, the right of constructing, laying down, maintaining and using rails, cables, wires, pipes, tubes, conduits, bridges, electrical or other conductors and apparatus or other means of industrial communication or service in, over, under, along or across any such road, and for such purposes or any of them to remove any such road from the operation of sections 150, 151 and 152 of the Public Health Act, 1875, and the Private Street Works Act, 1892, and of any bye-laws made under the Public Health Acts or otherwise.

9. To authorize and empower the Barton-upon-Irwell Rural District Council, the Stretford Urban District Council and the Lancashire County Council or any of them to contribute towards the cost of the construction of the intended new roads or any of them and to apply their funds and revenues, and to levy and recover rates and to borrow money for the purposes of such contribution and of the maintenance of the said intended new roads or any of them.

10. To empower the Promoters to levy tolls, rates, duties, fares and charges upon or in respect of the intended railways and works and conveniences, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of such several tolls, rates, duties, fares and charges.

11. To empower the Promoters on the one hand and the Cheshire Lines Committee and any railway Company using the railways of the Cheshire Lines Committee, the Trafford Park Company and the Stretford Urban District Council or any of them, on the other hand, to enter into and carry into effect and rescind agreements and arrangements with respect to the construction, working, use, management and maintenance by the contracting parties or any of them of the proposed railways and works, the making and using of junctions between the same and the railways or sidings of the contracting parties or any of them, and the management, regulation, interchange, collection, transmission and delivery of traffic upon or coming from or destined for the railways and works of the contracting parties or any of them, the supply and maintenance of engines, stock and plant, the fixing, collection, payment, appropriation, apportionment and distribution of tolls, rates, charges or other income arising from the respective railways, works and traffic of the contracting parties or any part thereof, and the employment of officers and servants.

12. To authorize and empower any Company to be incorporated by the Bill on the one hand and the trustees for the time being, under the will of Sir Humphrey de Trafford, baronet, deceased, and the trustees under and for the purposes of the de Trafford Estate Acts, 1904 and 1914, and the trustees of the resettlement scheduled to the last-mentioned Act, or any of them, or any other persons being under disability or having limited estates or interests in any lands which may be required for the purposes of or which will adjoin the proposed railways, roads or works, or which would or might derive facilities or advantages therefrom or from the exercise of any of the powers which may be conferred by the intended Act, to enter into and carry into effect agreements for and with respect to the construction and maintenance of such railways, roads and works or any works and conveniences for the accommodation or benefit of such trustees and persons and their estates or otherwise, and to enable such trustees and persons to contribute towards the expenses of such railways, roads and works, and to subscribe to the capital of or advance money to the Company, and for such purposes to apply any capital or other moneys in their hands, or to raise money by sale, mortgage or otherwise, and to convey any such lands to the Company with or without payment or consideration or in exchange for shares, stocks or securities of the Company, or in consideration of rent charges or for such consideration and on such terms and conditions as may be agreed between them and the Company, or as may be authorized by the intended Act.

13. To enable any Company to be incorporated by the intended Act, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, to pay out of the capital or any funds of the Company from time to time interest or dividends on any shares or stocks of the Company.

14. To incorporate with the Bill and make applicable to the promoters and their undertaking, and to all or any of the works proposed to be authorized by the Bill, all or any of the provisions of the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, the Companies Clauses Act, 1863, the Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, the Railways Clauses Act, 1863, and the Lands Clauses Acts and any other Act or Acts amending those Acts, with such exceptions and modifications as the Bill may define.

15. To confirm any contract or agreement which may have been or may be entered into for or in relation to any of the matters aforesaid.

16. To vary or extinguish all or any rights or privileges inconsistent with the objects of the intended Act and to confer other rights and privileges.

17. So far as may be requisite or desirable for any of the purposes of the Bill to amend, repeal, or enlarge the provisions, or some of the provisions, of the de Trafford Estate Acts, 1904 and 1914, or either of them, and all other Acts directly or indirectly affecting the de Trafford Estates; the Cheshire Lines Act, 1867, and all other Acts relating to the Cheshire Lines Committee or their undertaking; the Stretford Light Railways Order, 1906, and any other Order or Act relating to the Stretford Urban District Council; the Trafford Park Act, 1904; the Public Health Acts and any other public, local and personal Acts which would in any way be inconsistent with or interfere with the provisions of the intended Act.

Duplicate plans and sections showing the lines, situations and levels of the railways, roads and works proposed to be authorized by the Bill and the lands and other property in or through which they may be made or which may be taken or used compulsorily under the powers of the Bill, together with a book of reference to such plans containing the names of the owners and lessees and of the occupiers of such lands and other property, and also an ordnance map with the lines of the said railways delineated thereon so as to show their general course and direction, and a copy of this Notice as published in the London Gazette will, on or before the 30th day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the County Palatine of Lancaster at his office at Preston, and on or before the same day a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and book of reference, together with a copy of this Notice, will be deposited, so far as relates to the Rural District of Barton-upon-Irwell, with the Clerk to the Barton-upon-Irwell Rural District Council at his office at Patricroft, so far as relates to the Urban District of Stretford with the Clerk to the Urban District Council of Stretford at his office at Stretford, and so far as relates to the parish of Davyhulme with the Clerk of the Parish Council of Davyhulme at his office at Patricroft.

Printed copies of the Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 16th day of December next.

Dated this 17th day of November, 1916.

LEVINSTEIN LIMITED (RAILWAYS).

(Construction of Railways at Manchester; Incidental and Subsidiary Works and Powers; Alteration and Stopping up of Streets and Ways; Provisions as to Maintenance and Repair of Streets, &c.; Acquisition of Lands and Easements Compulsorily or by Agreement; Acquisition of Parts Only of Properties; Special Provisions as to Entry on Premises, Costs of Arbitration and Claims in Respect of Recently Created Interests or Recent Alterations of Premises; Provisions as to Rights and Obligations with respect to Mines and Minerals; Provisions as to Transmission and Delivery of Company's Traffic by Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway Company; Agreements and Arrangements with that Railway Company; Provisions declaring Intended Railways to be Private Railways; Incorporation and Amendment of Acts; Miscellaneous and Incidental Provisions.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session by Levinstein Limited (hereinafter referred to as "the Company") for leave to bring in a Bill for the following purposes or some of them (that is to say):—

To authorize the Company to make and maintain the branch railways in the township of Manchester, in the city of Manchester and

County Palatine of Lancaster, hereinafter described, with such sidings, junctions, stations, approaches, works and conveniences connected therewith respectively as they may think fit (that is to say):—

A Railway (No. 1).—A loop line, commencing by a junction with the Manchester, Whitefield and Radcliffe Branch Railway of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway Company, at a point thereon half a chain or thereabouts, measured in a southeasterly direction from the southerly side of the bridge carrying Crescent-road over the said branch railway, and terminating at a point on that branch railway one chain or thereabouts, measured along the line of the branch railway in a north-westerly direction, from the northerly side of Woodlands-road.

A Railway (No. 2), commencing by a junction with the intended Railway (No. 1) at a point half a chain or thereabouts, measured in a north-westerly direction from the westerly side of the public footpath between Crescent-road and Woodlands-road, and 4 yards or thereabouts, measured in a north-easterly direction from the north-eastern boundary fence of the said branch railway of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway Company, and terminating in the works of the Company known as the Crumpsall Vale Chemical Works, at a point on the centre line of the new private road therein 2½ chains or thereabouts, measured in a southerly direction from the southerly end of the filter beds in the said chemical works at or near the right bank of the River Irk.

To vest in the Company the usual powers granted to railway companies for the construction and maintenance of railways and especially the powers granted by the 16th section of the Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, and to authorize them in connection with and for the purposes of the said intended railways and works and the exercise of the powers hereinbefore mentioned, to make such alterations in the levels of roads, streets or ways as may be necessary or convenient, and to enable the Company to alter the width, level and line of any road, street or way, and to appropriate the site and soil of any streets stopped up, and to alter and interfere temporarily or permanently with railways, tramways, streams and watercourses, and with any sewers, drains, gas and water or other pipes and electric, telegraphic, telephonic and other wires, tubes and cables, vaults, arches, cellars or other works or apparatus in, under or over any streets or roads proposed to be interfered with under the powers of the Bill or any lands acquired or to be acquired by the Company under the powers or for the purposes of the Bill.

To enable the Company to deviate from the lines and levels shown upon the plans and sections deposited as hereinafter stated of the intended railways and works hereinbefore mentioned.

To empower the Company to stop up and divert any streets, roads, footpaths and ways shown on the deposited plans as intended to be stopped up or diverted, or included within the limits of the lands shown on the deposited plans as intended to be taken compulsorily, and to empower the Company to appropriate the site and soil of so much of any of such streets, roads, footpaths or ways as are intended to be stopped up, or as will become unnecessary, and to provide for extinguishing all rights of way thereover.

To make provision as to the maintenance and repair of roads or footpaths diverted, crossed or otherwise interfered with by the Company in the execution of any of the proposed works, and to impose the obligation for such maintenance and repair on the bodies or persons having the control of such roads or footpaths respectively.

To empower the Company to acquire compulsorily or by agreement, or to appropriate and use lands (including in that expression where used in this Notice houses, buildings, easements and other property), for the purposes of or in connection with the said works or other purposes of the intended Act, and to extinguish all rights of way and other rights thereover, and to vest in the Company the site and soil of any lands upon which the said works or any of them or any part thereof may be constructed or any estate or interest in such lands.

To make provision as to the acquisition by the Company, compulsorily or by agreement, of such easements or rights in or over lands as may be necessary or expedient for or in connection with the construction, maintenance or use of the intended railways and works in lieu of purchasing or acquiring such lands or any greater or other estate or interest therein than such easements or rights as aforesaid.

To exempt the Company from the provisions of section 92 of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, and to empower them to purchase part only of any house, building or manufactory which may be required for the purposes of the intended Act without being obliged or compellable to purchase any greater part or the whole thereof, and to empower the Company to purchase or acquire compulsorily or by agreement easements or rights in, over or under any lands or any house, building, manufactory or other property without being required to purchase or acquire such lands, house, building, manufactory or other property or any portion thereof.

To enable persons having limited interests in any lands to grant any easements, rights and privileges in, over or affecting such lands which may be required for the purposes of or in connection with the said intended works or other the purposes of the intended Act.

To empower the Company and their officers and other persons to enter upon any property which or easements or rights in or over which may be authorized to be acquired under the intended Act for the purpose of surveying and valuing such property.

To make provisions as to the costs of arbitration in certain cases and to require in certain circumstances persons claiming compensation in respect of lands taken or injuriously affected or easements or rights acquired under the intended Act to pay the whole or part of the costs incurred by them.

To provide for limiting the amount of compensation and claims in respect thereof in cases of recent improvements, alterations or buildings and recently created interests in lands or property.

To define to such extent (if any) as may be deemed necessary or expedient the rights and obligations of the Company under the provisions of the Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, with respect to mines lying under or near the railway, and to enlarge the area (in relation to the intended railways and works) to which such rights and obligations shall apply.

To make such provisions and impose such obligations (if any) as may be deemed necessary or expedient (whether by express enactment or by reference to the Railway and Canal Traffic Act, 1854, and the Railway and Canal Traffic Acts, 1873 to 1913), with respect to the transmission and delivery of the Company's traffic by the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway Company.

To empower the Company on the one hand and the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway Company on the other hand to enter into and carry into effect agreements with respect to the construction of the said intended railways and works or any part or parts thereof, and the management, maintenance, working and use thereof, the supply of locomotives, rolling stock, plant and machinery, and the employment of officers and servants for the conduct of the traffic on the said railways, or for the purposes of any such agreement, and with respect to the costs, charges and expenses of such construction, management, maintenance, working and use, and with reference to the regulation, management and transmission of traffic passing or intended to pass over the said intended railways or any part thereof, and the collection, payment, division, apportionment, appropriation and distribution of tolls, rates and charges arising from any such traffic.

To confirm any such agreement as aforesaid which may already have been or which at any time before the passing of the intended Act may be entered into in relation to any of the matters aforesaid.

To provide (if thought fit) that the railways proposed to be authorized by the Bill shall be private railways, and that such railways and any other works authorized by the Bill and any property acquired by the Company under the powers sought by the Bill shall form part of the undertaking of the Company for all purposes, or for such purposes as may be specified in the Bill.

To confer upon the Company all such further or other powers, and to make all such further or other provisions as may be necessary or expedient for more effectually securing the objects of the intended Act.

The Bill will vary and extinguish all existing rights and privileges which would interfere with any of its objects and confer other rights and privileges, and will or may incorporate with itself all or such of the provisions as may be deemed expedient (either with or without amendment or modification) of the Lands Clauses Acts, the Railways Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, and the Railways Clauses Act, 1863, and will, so far as is deemed necessary or expedient, repeal, alter or amend the provisions of the following local Acts, that is to say, the Act 6 and 7, Will. IV, cap. cxi, and any other Act relating directly or indirectly to the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway Company, and any other Act which would in any way interfere with any of the objects of the intended Act.

Duplicate plans and sections describing the lines, situation and levels of the works hereinbefore described, and showing the lands and other property in or through which they may be made, or which may be taken or used compulsorily or over which compulsory easements may be sought for the purposes or otherwise under the powers of the Bill, together with an Ordnance map with the line of the proposed railways delineated thereon, so as to show their general course and direction, and a book of reference to such plans containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and of the occupiers of such lands and property, and a copy of this Notice as published in the London Gazette will on or before the 30th day of November instant be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Lancaster, at his office at Preston, and on or before the same date a copy of the said plans, sections and book of reference, and a copy of this Notice will be deposited with the Town Clerk of the City of Manchester at his office at the Town Hall, Manchester.

Printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 16th day of December next.

SHEFFIELD UNITED GASLIGHT COMPANY.

(Conversion of Capital; Additional Capital; Redeemable Capital; Borrowing Powers; Application of Funds, Revenues, &c.; Provisions as to Creation, Issue, Transfer and Holding of Stock, &c.; Interest on Debenture Stock; Dividends; Sinking Fund and other Funds and Financial Provisions; Change of Name; New Gasworks; Residual Products; Extension of Limits of Supply; Power Gas; Coke Oven and Crude Gas and Powers Outside Limits of Supply in regard thereto; Purchase and Supply in Bulk Within and Beyond Limits; Rents and Charges; Minimum Charges; Terms and Conditions of Supply; Pipes for Ancillary Purposes; Breaking Up, &c., of Streets, &c.; Private Streets; Agreements; Provisions as to Directors, Officers, &c.; Voting Rights; Proxies; Closing of Registers; Antiflucluctators; Entry on Consumers' Premises; Cutting off Supplies; Removal of Fittings, &c.; Defective Meters; Notices; Penalties; Incorporation, Extension, Amendment, Repeal, &c., of Acts, &c.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session by or on behalf of the Sheffield United Gaslight Company (hereinafter referred to as "the Company") for leave to bring in a Bill for effecting the purposes or some of the purposes following (that is to say):—

1. To convert or provide for the conversion of all or any of the stock in the existing capital of the Company into such classes of stock of such nominal amount or amounts, and entitling the holders thereof to such fixed or varying dividend or dividends as the Bill may define, and to make all necessary provision for giving effect to such conversion and for enabling the same to be carried out, and to increase, alter, define and regulate the capital of the Company and the rights of the holders thereof.

2. To enable the Company to apply their corporate funds and revenues for all or any of the purposes of the Bill, and to empower the Company to raise additional capital, either by the increase of any class or classes of converted or existing stock, or by the creation of new shares or stock, either ordinary or preferential, or debenture stock (redeemable or otherwise), or by borrowing on mortgage, or by any one or more of those methods, and to attach to any such shares, stock, mortgages or debenture stock such preference or priority of principal, interest or dividends or other advantages or rights as the Bill may define, and to define, alter, and increase the borrowing powers of the Company.

3. To make provision as to the terms and conditions upon which any shares, stock, debenture stock or other securities of the Company may be created, issued, transferred and held, and to repeal or amend any existing enactments in regard thereto.

4. To repeal or alter any existing limitation on the amount of any dividends or interest payable by the Company on their existing or authorized or new shares, stock, debenture stock, or other securities, and to make new and further provision with reference to the dividends payable by the Company on all or any of their existing, converted or new shares or stock, and the increase or decrease of such dividends on the whole or any class or classes of such shares or stock according to the prices charged by the Company for gas or some of such prices.

5. To empower the Company to form and create a Sinking Fund and a Special Purposes Fund and to make new provision with reference to the formation of a reserve fund and to provide for the application of such funds and any existing funds and any profits of the Company and to authorize the application of any such funds and profits for any such purposes whether capital revenue or otherwise as the Bill may define.

6. To change the name of the Company.

7. To authorize the Company upon the lands hereinafter described or any part or parts thereof respectively to construct, erect, make, maintain, alter, improve, extend and renew works for the manufacture, storage, conversion, working up and distribution of gas and of residual products and other materials used in or arising from the manufacture of gas, and to do all such acts as may be proper for making, storing, converting, working up and supplying gas and such residual products and materials as aforesaid.

The lands above referred to are situate in the parish or township of Sheffield in the City of Sheffield, are bounded on the north-east and south-east by land of the Midland Railway Company, on the north-west by an imaginary straight line forming an extension in a south-westerly direction of the south-eastern side of Burslem-street, and on the south-west by Colliery-road, contain by admeasurement two acres and one rood or thereabouts, and are now in the occupation of the Company.

8. To alter, extend or limit and define the powers of the Company with regard to the purchase of residual products used in or arising from the manufacture of gas and of materials required for working up and converting any such residual products.

9. To extend the limits within which the Company may supply gas and to include therein in addition to the existing limits of the Company for the supply of gas (hereinafter referred to as "the existing limits") so much of the parish of Tankersley, in the rural district of Wortley in the West Riding of the county of York, as lies to the southward of an imaginary straight line drawn due east and west through the northernmost point of Westwood Station in that parish, or some part of such portion of parish (hereinafter referred to as "the new limits"), and to extend to and apply within the new limits, with or without exceptions or modifications, all or some of the provisions of the Acts and Orders relating to the Company, and to confer upon the Company and enable them to exercise within the new limits all or any of the powers, privileges and authorities for or in relation to the supply of gas which they have or may exercise within the existing limits, and to sanction and confirm and authorize the Company to continue and maintain any mains, pipes and works already laid by them within the new limits.

10. To make provision with reference to the conditions to be observed in connection with the supply by the Company of gas for utilisation for power and the charges to be made for gas so supplied.

11. To empower the Company to purchase coke oven gas and gas in a crude or unpurified form from any Company, body or persons producing the same within the existing limits, the new limits or the limits hereinafter described and herein referred to as "the outside limits," and whether in bulk or otherwise, and to supply any gas so purchased to any authority, company or person within the existing limits or the new limits for heating, manufacturing, power, lighting or other purposes, and to empower the Company for the purpose of obtaining, procuring, conveying and supplying any such gas to lay down, repair, take up, alter, relay and renew mains, pipes and culverts within the existing limits, the new limits and the outside limits and to apply to any such purposes as aforesaid the provisions or some of the provisions of the Gas Works Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to the breaking up of streets for the purpose of laying pipes and for the protection of pipes when laid.

The outside limits are so much of the borough and districts hereinafter mentioned as are situate within three miles of any part of the city of Sheffield, the urban district of Handsworth, and the parish of Ecclesfield, in the rural district of Wortley, that is to say:—

In the West Riding of the county of York—

The county borough of Rotherham.

The rural districts of Wortley and Rotherham.

In the county of Derby—

The rural district of Chesterfield.

12. To enable the Company to supply or purchase gas in bulk whether within or beyond the existing limits and the new limits upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon or as may be prescribed by or under the provisions of the intended Act.

13. To empower the Company to make and recover rents and charges (differential or otherwise) for the supply of gas and the supply or hire of meters or fittings in the new limits, to increase, reduce or otherwise alter any rents or charges now levied or leviable by the Company in the existing limits, and to confer, vary and extinguish exemptions from the payment of any rents or charges.

14. To make further provision as to the terms and conditions upon which the Company may be required to supply gas; to amend the existing obligations of the Company in regard to such supply in certain circumstances, and to prescribe the minimum and other payments to be made by persons requiring a supply on premises having a separate or alternative supply of gas or electricity.

15. To enable the Company to lay down, repair, take up, and alter mains, pipes and culverts within the existing limits and the new limits for the purpose of procuring, conducting or disposing of oil or other materials or residual products or for any purpose connected with their business, and to apply to such purposes the provisions or some of the provisions of the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1847, with respect to the laying of pipes and for the protection of pipes when laid, and to empower the Company to lay down and maintain pipes and apparatus in streets not dedicated to the public.

16. To empower the Company for any purposes of or connected with the supply or purchase and distribution of gas (including power, coke oven, crude and unpurified gas), the procuring, conducting and disposing of oil and other materials and residual products, and for any purposes ancillary to their undertaking, and any of the objects of the Bill, to open, break up, cross, divert, alter, stop up or interfere with, whether temporarily or permanently, all such public and private roads, highways, streets, courts, footpaths, bridges, tunnels, canals, navigations, rivers, streams, railways, tramways, sewers, drains, pipes, wires, and apparatus within the existing limits, the new limits and the outside limits as it may be necessary or convenient to break up, cross, divert, alter, stop up or interfere with.

17. To authorize the Company and any authority, company or persons to enter into and carry into effect contracts and agreements for and with respect to all or any of the objects or purposes of the Bill, and if thought fit to confirm any such agreement entered into before the passing of the intended Act.

18. To reduce or provide for the reduction or other alteration in the number of the directors of the Company, and to make further provision for and with respect to the remuneration, qualification, candidature for office, election, rotation, retirement, quorum and powers of the directors, managing director, auditors, secretary and other officers of the Company and the gas examiner appointed by the Sheffield Corporation, and to abolish or increase any existing limit on the amount of their remuneration.

19. To make further provision with reference to the Company's affairs, including the rights of voting by the holders of stock of the Company, the appointment of proxies to vote at meetings of the Company, the voting of joint holders, and the closing of the Company's registers.

20. To make provision with reference to the use, repair, testing and inspection of anti-fluctuators for gas engines, the rights of the Company of entry and removal of fittings, the cutting off of supplies to consumers, the allowance or surcharge to be made in cases of defective meters, the notices required to be given by consumers, the service and authentication of notices to and by the Company, the refusal to supply persons in debt to the Company and the recovery of penalties and demands.

21. To vary or extinguish all or any rights and privileges inconsistent with or which would interfere with any of the objects of the Bill, and to confer other rights and privileges, and to amend or repeal all or some of the provisions of the Sheffield Gas Acts and Orders, 1855 to 1910, and any other Act or Order relating to the Company or their undertaking.

22. To incorporate with the Bill and apply wholly or in part to the purposes thereof and to the existing limits the new limits and the outside limits with or without amendment the provisions of the Gasworks Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1871, the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, and the Companies Clauses Act, 1863, and the Bill will or may exempt the Company from some or all of the provisions of those Acts.

Printed copies of the Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 16th day of December next.

Dated this 16th day of November, 1916.

ASHTON-UNDER-LYNE CORPORATION.

(Purchase of Tramways authorized by Oldham, Ashton-under-Lyne, Hyde and District Electric Tramways Order, 1896; Transfer of Powers of Purchase by Waterloo and Bardsley Parish Councils to Corporation; Postponement of Purchase of Tramways and Application of Special Acts (Extension of Time) Act, 1915; New Tramways in Ashton-under-Lyne; Running Powers over and agreements in respect of neighbouring Tramways; Motor Omnibuses; Further Provisions as to Tramways; Further Provisions as to Supply of Electricity; Amendment and Repeal of Acts relating to Rates and other Rating Provisions; The Borrowing of Money and other Financial Provisions; Incorporation, Repeal and Amendment of Acts and other matters.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session by the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Ashton-under-Lyne for an Act for (amongst others) all or some of the objects and purposes hereinafter mentioned:—

1. In this Notice "the borough" means the borough of Ashton-under-Lyne, "the Corporation" means the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the borough, and "the Bill" means the Bill for the intended Act.

2. To make provision with regard to the purchase under the Tramways Act, 1870, of the undertaking authorized by the Oldham, Ashton-under-Lyne, Hyde and District Electric Tramways Order, 1896, which is hereinafter called "the Order of 1896," and which was confirmed by the Tramways Orders Confirmation (No. 2) Act, 1896, by or on behalf of the several local authorities in whose districts that undertaking is situate (including the Corporation, the Corporation of Hyde, the Urban District Councils of Audenshaw and Denton and the Parish Councils of Bardsley and Waterloo) and (amongst other things) to provide for the postponement of the purchase of that undertaking and of the several portions thereof for a year or for such other period as may be named in the Bill, and to extend and apply thereto, with or without modifications, the provisions of the Special Acts (Extension of Time) Act, 1915.

3. To authorize the Corporation on the one hand and the Waterloo Parish Council and the Bardsley Parish Council or either of them on the other hand to enter into and carry into effect agreements for the transfer to the Corporation of those Councils' rights to purchase portions of the said undertaking upon such terms and subject to such conditions as may be agreed, including terms relating to the steps to be taken by the Corporation on behalf of the Parish Councils in determining the amount of compensation, the right of the local authorities to purchase the undertaking from the Corporation at a future time, the reconstruction of the tramways and other matters, to enact all necessary provisions for giving effect to any such agreement, and to confirm any agreement entered into between the parties before the passing of the Bill into law.

4. To empower the Corporation to make, form, lay down, work, use and maintain the tramways hereinafter described, with all proper rails, plates, junctions, turn-outs, crossings, passing-places, posts, poles, brackets, wires, waiting-rooms, carriage-houses, sheds, depôts, buildings, engines, works and conveniences connected therewith. The tramways will all be situate in the township and borough of Ashton-under-Lyne, in the County Palatine of Lancaster, and are the following:—

Tramway No. 1 to be situate in Stockport-road, commencing at the boundary between the urban district of Audenshaw and the borough, and terminating by a junction with the existing tramway authorized by the Order of 1896 at a point 3 yards or thereabout easterly of the westerly gable of the Corporation Arms Inn;

Tramway No. 2 to be situate in Chester-square, commencing by a junction with the existing tramway authorized by the Order of 1896 opposite or thereabout to the centre of the entrance gateway to Delamere House, and terminating by a junction with the existing tramway of the Corporation at a point 3 yards or thereabouts on the easterly side of the Astley Arms Inn;

Tramway No. 3 to be situate in Warrington-street and Katherine-street, commencing by a junction with the existing tramway of the Corporation in Warrington-street at a point four yards or thereabout south of the north side of Spring-street and terminating by a junction with the existing tramway authorized by the Order of 1896 in Katherine-street at a point 22 yards or thereabout east of Warrington-street;

Tramway No. 4 to be situate in Warrington-street and Katherine-street, commencing by a junction with the intended Tramway No. 3 in Warrington-street at a point eight yards or thereabout south of Katherine-street and terminating by a junction with the existing tramway authorized by the Order of 1896 in Katherine-street at a point eight yards or thereabout west of Warrington-street;

Tramway No. 5 to be situate in Market-street, commencing by a junction with the existing tramway of the Corporation at a point two yards or thereabout north of the south side of the covered Market House and terminating by a junction with the existing tramway authorized by the Order of 1896 in Wellington-road in a line with the east side of the covered Market House on the west side of the Market-street.

5. The tramways are intended to be constructed on a gauge of 4 feet 8½ inches, or such other gauge as may be approved by the Board of Trade. The motive power proposed to be employed will be animal power, or electrical, steam, or other power not being animal power.

6. To provide that the tramways and works authorized by the Bill and that any tramways and works authorized by the Order of 1896 when acquired by the Corporation shall form part of the Corporation's tramway undertaking and to extend and apply thereto the provisions of the Bill relating to tramways and all or some of the provisions contained in the Ashton-under-Lyne Corporation Tramways Orders, 1900 and 1901, and the Ashton-under-Lyne and Dukinfield Corporations (Alma Bridge, &c.) Act, 1902, and the enactments incorporated therewith respectively.

7. To authorize the Corporation to provide and run motor omnibuses within the borough and without the borough, subject to such limitations and restrictions as may be indicated in the Bill, and to demand and take fares, rates and charges for the use of and for the carriage and conveyance of passengers and goods on and by their omnibuses, and to acquire lands and erect buildings therefor, to make bye-laws for the regulation thereof, and to apply thereto the Conveyance of Mails Act, 1893; to provide that such motor omnibuses shall form part of the tramway undertaking of the Corporation, and to extend and apply thereto all or some of the provisions relating to tramways contained in the Acts and Orders relating to that undertaking.

8. To empower the Corporation to make, maintain and remove passing places, cross-overs and other works in connection with any of their tramways for the time being; to lay down double or interlacing lines in lieu of single lines or single or interlacing lines in lieu of double lines, or double or single lines in lieu of interlacing lines, to alter the position of the tramways in any road and to make, maintain and remove sidings, junctions and other works for connecting any of their tramways or for connecting them with any other tramways or railways or with any works or premises.

9. To authorize the Corporation and other local authorities, companies or persons to enter into and fulfil agreements in regard to the formation of junctions, the leasing, working, running over, management and maintenance of the tramways and light railways of the contracting parties, the supply of motive power, the interchange of traffic, through tickets and matters and things incidental thereto.

10. To make further provision in regard to the tramways and omnibuses of the Corporation, including the appointment of stages and the fares, rates and charges to be taken in respect of each stage; the appointment of stopping and starting places; the running of through cars and omnibuses; the use of trailer and coupled carriages; the exemption of special carriages or omnibuses, or special service thereof, from restrictions as to fares; the imposition of penalties upon persons obstructing, damaging or interfering in any manner with the working of tramways; the removal of obstructions; the erection of shelters and waiting rooms, and the use for that purpose of portions of the public streets; the purchase, taking on lease, or erection of dwelling-houses for persons employed by the Corporation, and of offices and other buildings (including depôts) in connection with their tramway and omnibus undertakings; the widening of highways by reducing the width of footways and otherwise; the temporary stoppage of streets during execution of works; the lopping of trees along the routes of tramways and omnibuses; the deposit of property found in tramcars or omnibuses, and the sale thereof by the Corporation if unclaimed, and the application of the proceeds of the sale and the attachment of signs or directions indicating stopping places to lamp posts, poles, standards and other erections.

11. To make further provision in regard to the electricity undertaking of the Corporation with reference to the following, amongst other matters:—The period of error in case of meters proving defective; the maximum power to be supplied and special provisions to be made where electricity is used only occasionally or as standby; further powers as to entry upon premises; power to remove electric fittings in certain cases; power to lay electric lines in streets not dedicated to the public use; the provision and maintenance of showrooms; the application of revenue; the payment of expenses and the application of receipts.

12. To make further provision in regard to the improvement and highway rates and all other rates levied in the borough, to extend and apply thereto the provisions of the Public Health Acts and other general Acts, to remove or enlarge the limits placed upon any rates and to make further provision for the levying and collection thereof by the Corporation and the Overseers of the Poor, and to enact all necessary provisions in regard to the matters aforesaid, including provisions relating to the compounding of rates.

13. To empower the Corporation to borrow or raise money for the construction of the tramways authorized by the Bill and for the purposes of their tramway undertaking, and for all or any of the purposes of the Bill, and to charge such moneys upon the borough fund and borough rate, the several rates levied by the Corporation and upon their estates, undertakings, rents, revenues and other property, or on any of those securities, and to extend the time for the repayment of loans under the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882, and other Acts.

14. To enable the Corporation for the purpose of raising any money which they are for the time being authorized to raise to use one form of mortgage charging all or any of the securities hereinbefore referred to, and to enact all necessary provisions in regard thereto, including the application of the Public Health Acts with such modifications as may be indicated in the Bill.

15. To make further provision in regard to financial matters, including the following:—The investment of sinking funds in statutory securities, including the securities of local authorities, the use of sinking and other funds instead of borrowing, the reborrowing of money, and the formation and confirmation of a scheme fixing equated periods for all or any loans.

16. To empower the Corporation to expend their corporate funds upon subscriptions to associations, hospitals and other public or charitable institutions and Territorial or Volunteer forces and rifle clubs, in defraying the expenses of or connected with public entertainments on the occasion of public ceremony or rejoicing, in the reception and entertainment of distinguished persons, and in providing for the expenses of deputations from the Corporation and their officials in attending conferences and other meetings.

17. To empower the Corporation for any of the purposes of the Bill to break up, cross, alter, divert, stop up, raise, lower, remove and interfere with, either temporarily or permanently, any streets, roads, passages, highways, bridges, canals, railways, tramways, gas and water mains, sewers, drains, streams, watercourses, telegraphic, telephonic and electric wires, conductors and pipes, and to remove obstructions.

18. To make provision for the authentication by the signature of the Town Clerk or otherwise of all licences and other documents issued by the Corporation, including licences for hackney carriages, omnibuses and tram-cars and the drivers and conductors thereof, and the licences for brokers and dealers in second-hand goods or articles or marine stores.

19. To enact all necessary provisions for giving effect to the purposes of the Bill or of the general or local Acts for the time being in force in the borough, including the imposition of penalties for breach of provisions of the Bill or any bye-laws thereunder, or for failure to comply with the terms or conditions of any consent given by the Corporation under any Act or otherwise; consent of Corporation to be in writing; evidence of appointments and resolutions, and authentication and service of notices, orders and other documents; exemption of Corporation from liability when executing works for owners of property and others, and imposition of such liability upon such owners and others; the recovery, appropriation and application of penalties and expenses; the recovery of demands in the county court; the laying of information; the payment of penalties recovered on the prosecution of the Corporation or other officer on their behalf to the borough treasurer; inquiries by Local Government Board; provisions as to arbitration; exemption from personal liability of persons acting in execution of the Bill; and determination of compensation.

20. To vary and extinguish all existing rights and privileges which would or might in any way prevent, interfere with or delay the accomplishment of any of the objects of the Bill, and to confer other rights and privileges, and to empower the Corporation to levy tolls, rates and duties, to alter existing tolls, rates and duties, and to confer, vary or extinguish exemptions from the payment of tolls, rates and duties.

21. To incorporate, with or without amendment, or to render inapplicable, all or some of the provisions of the following public Acts:—The Public Health Acts; the Municipal Corporations Act, 1882; the Lands Clauses Acts; the Tramways Act, 1870; the Electric Lighting Acts, 1882 to 1909; the Local Loans Act, 1875; the Arbitration Act, 1889; and all Acts amending those Acts respectively.

22. To repeal, amend, extend, apply, or incorporate with the Bill all or some of the following local Acts and Orders, namely:—The Ashton-under-Lyne Improvement Act, 1849; the Ashton-under-Lyne Improvement Act, 1877; the Ashton-under-Lyne Improvement Act, 1886; the Ashton-under-Lyne Corporation Act, 1893; the Ashton-under-Lyne and Dukinfield Corporations (Alma Bridge, &c.) Act, 1902; the Ashton-under-Lyne (Corporation) Electric Lighting Order, 1892, which was confirmed by the Electric Lighting Orders Confirmation (No. 2) Act, 1892; the Oldham, Ashton-under-Lyne, Hyde and District Electric Tramways Order, 1896; the Ashton-under-Lyne and Dukinfield Order, 1898; the Ashton-under-Lyne Order, 1899; the Ashton-under-Lyne Order, 1900; the Ashton-under-Lyne Tramways Order, 1900; the Ashton-under-Lyne Corporation Tramways Order, 1901; the Ashton-under-Lyne Order, 1903; and the Ashton-under-Lyne Order, 1910; and all other Acts and Orders confirmed by Parliament relating to the Corporation.

Plans and sections of the tramways, together with a book of reference to the plans, and a copy of this Notice as published in the London Gazette will, on or before the 30th day of November instant, be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the County Palatine of Lancaster, at his office at Preston, and with the Town Clerk of Ashton-under-Lyne, at his office in Ashton-under-Lyne.

Printed copies of the Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, on or before the 16th day of December next.

Dated this 16th day of November, 1916.

CAERPHILLY URBAN DISTRICT COUNCIL.

(Provision and Working of Omnibuses; Fares, Tolls, and Charges; Acquisition of Lands; Provisions of Garages, &c.; Bye-laws and Regulations; Lopping of Trees; Shelters, &c.; Leasing of Omnibus Undertaking; Lost Property; Working Agreements with Bedwas and Machen Urban District Council, and others; Joint Committees; Borrowing of Money and other Financial Provisions; Incorporation of Acts and other Purposes.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session by or on behalf of the Urban District Council of Caerphilly (in this Notice called "the Council") for leave to bring in a Bill for the following purposes or some of them (that is to say):—

1. To empower the Council to provide and run omnibuses worked by mechanical or animal power (a) on any roads within the urban district of Caerphilly (hereinafter referred to as "the District"); (b) with the consent of the Urban District Council of Bedwas and Machen (hereinafter referred to as "the Bedwas Council") on any roads within the Urban District of Bedwas and Machen (hereinafter referred to as "the Bedwas District"); and (c) with the consent of the local and road authorities affected on any roads outside the district and the Bedwas district in prolongation of any omnibus route in those districts or either of them.

2. To empower the Council to demand and take fares, tolls and charges in respect of the conveyance by the omnibuses of passengers, parcels, animals and goods, to purchase and take on lease lands, houses and buildings, to construct, maintain and use depots, sheds, garages and other conveniences necessary for the purpose of their omnibus undertaking, to make and enforce bye-laws and regulations in regard to the travelling in or upon the omnibuses of the Council and any omnibuses running within the district, to lop trees along the motor omnibus routes, to provide shelters and waiting rooms, and for that purpose to use any part of any public or private street, public park, recreation ground or open space, to demise to any person, company, corporation or authority their omnibus undertaking or any part thereof, and the right of user of the same, and of demanding and taking the fares, tolls and charges authorized by the intended Act, and to make provision for the disposal of property found in the omnibuses.

3. To empower the Council and the Bedwas Council to enter into agreements for and with respect to all or any of the provisions of the intended Act and to empower the Council, the Bedwas Council and any authorities, companies or persons providing or running omnibuses in the district or the Bedwas district or any other district in the counties of Glamorgan and Monmouth to enter into and carry into effect agreements for or with reference to the working, running, leasing, using, management and maintenance of any omnibus service of the contracting parties, or any part thereof, and of any lands and property used in connection therewith, the provision, maintenance, hiring and supply of omnibuses, the employment, appointment and removal of officers and servants, and the interchange, accommodation, conveyance, transmission and delivery of traffic coming from or destined for, and the payment, collection, division and apportionment of tolls and receipts arising from any such omnibus service, and if thought fit to sanction and confirm and make binding on the parties thereto all or any such agreements which may have been or may before the passing of the intended Act be entered into, to empower the Council, the Bedwas Council and any authorities entering into any such agreements as aforesaid to appoint joint committees of members of the contracting parties for the purpose of carrying into effect all or any of the terms of such agreements, and to empower the Council to delegate to any such joint committees all or any of the powers to be conferred upon the Council by the intended Act, and to apply any of their corporate funds or revenues to any of the purposes of such agreements, and to any costs or expenses of or incurred by any such joint committees.

4. To authorize the Council to borrow money for any of the purposes of the intended Act and for the general purposes of their undertaking, and to charge the same on the district fund and general district rate, and the omnibus undertaking, rates, revenues and other property of the Council or any one or more of such securities, and to execute and grant and issue mortgages and other securities. To authorize the Council to apply any of their funds, rates and revenues and any moneys which they are authorized to raise or which may be payable to them under the intended Act to any of the purposes of the intended Act, and to provide that moneys borrowed under the powers of the said Act shall not be reckoned in the limit of borrowing prescribed by the Public Health Act, 1875.

5. To make provision with regard to borrowing, re-borrowing and repayment of money by the Council, the formation, maintenance and application of sinking funds and other financial matters. To authorize the Council to invest their sinking funds in statutory securities, including the securities of local authorities, to use any sinking funds instead of borrowing, to issue one form of mortgage for all purposes, and to make a scheme for fixing equated periods for the repayment of their loans.

6. To authorize the Council for the purpose of defraying current expenses as a sanitary or road authority or of any undertaking vested in them to borrow by way of temporary loan or overdraft on the security of the district fund and general district rates, or the revenue of such undertaking, and to utilize any sinking funds belonging to them.

7. The intended Act will vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges inconsistent with or which would or might in any way interfere with its objects, and will or may incorporate with itself, with or without exceptions and modifications, the provisions of the Lands Clauses Acts and Acts amending those Acts.

Printed copies of the Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 16th day of December next.

• Dated this 14th day of November, 1916.

BARROW-IN-FURNESS CORPORATION
WATER.

(Enlargement of Powers of the Corporation for taking Water from the River Duddon; Further Provisions as to Appropriation and Discharge of Water; Repeal, or Modification of Barrow-in-Furness Corporation Act, 1901, with Reference to Taking and Discharge of Water; Borrowing of Money; Repeal, Alteration, and Amendment of Acts; and other Matters.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session by the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Barrow-in-Furness (hereinafter referred to as "the Corporation") for an Act for all or some of the following objects and purposes (that is to say):—

1. To confer further powers upon the Corporation in regard to the abstraction of water from the River Duddon and its tributaries, in the counties of Cumberland and Lancaster (all of which are herein included in the expression "the River Duddon"), to increase the quantity of water which the Corporation may take from the River Duddon by means of their existing works, including their works in the township of Dunnerdale-with-Seathwaite, in the said county of Lancaster, and of any works which they may construct hereafter, and to prescribe, if deemed expedient, the conditions subject to which such abstraction may take place, the quantity of water to flow down the River Duddon, and the quantity of water to be discharged from the Seathwaite Tarn Reservoir.

2. To repeal the provisions of the Barrow-in-Furness Corporation Act, 1901, or any other Act containing restrictions and limitations upon the abstraction of water from the River Duddon or otherwise relating thereto, and to enact other provisions in regard to any of the matters aforesaid.

3. To make further provision with respect to the amount, method of discharge and measurement of the water to be taken from and to pass down the River Duddon, and to prescribe the position of the gauge or gauges for measuring such water, and the respective powers and duties in regard thereto of the Corporation and of the persons interested in the flow of water in the said River.

4. To authorize the Corporation to borrow money for paying the costs of the intended Act and for the purposes of the intended Act or of the Corporation's water undertaking and to charge the same on the borough fund and borough rate, and the undertakings, estates, rates, revenue and other property of the Corporation, to enlarge the powers of the Corporation for re-borrowing money, and to enact all necessary provisions in regard to the matters aforesaid.

5. To vary and extinguish all existing rights and privileges which would or might in any way prevent, interfere with or delay the accomplishment of any of the objects of the intended Act, and to confer other rights and privileges.

6. To repeal, amend or incorporate with the intended Act, with or without amendment, all or some of the provisions of the several local Acts following or some of them, namely:—

The Barrow-in-Furness Corporation Act, 1868; the Barrow-in-Furness Corporation Extension and Amendment Act, 1872; the Barrow-in-Furness Corporation Act, 1873; the Barrow-in-Furness Corporation Act, 1875; the Barrow-in-Furness Corporation Act, 1881; the Barrow-in-Furness Corporation Water Act, 1892; the Barrow-in-Furness Corporation Act, 1901; the Barrow-in-Furness Corporation Act, 1904; and all other Acts and Orders relating to the Corporation or to their water undertaking.

Printed copies of the Bill for the intended Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 16th day of December next.

Dated this 16th day of November, 1916.

The lands above referred to are situate in the parish of Tonbridge, in the urban district of Tonbridge, in the county of Kent, and now belong to and are in the occupation of the Company or their tenant, and comprise:—

All that piece or parcel of land in the said parish situate and being near Cannon Bridge and formerly forming part of the Postern Estate, and containing six acres and a half or thereabouts, bounded on the north-west by the River Medway, on the north by the road leading from Tonbridge to the Postern, on the east by land belonging or reputed to belong to Edward Chapman Holding, on the south by land belonging or reputed to belong to the Urban District Council of Tonbridge, and on the west by other land of the Company.

And to sanction and confirm the purchase by the Company, and to authorize the Company to hold the lands above described or so much thereof as may have been purchased by the Company.

To confer further powers on the Company with reference to the manufacture and storage of gas and the working up and conversion of residual products arising directly or indirectly from the manufacture of gas on the lands described in the Act of 1872 and Orders of 1890 and 1899 and this Order, and to amend as far as may be necessary for the purposes aforesaid the provisions of the Act of 1872 and the Orders of 1890 and 1899.

To authorize the Company for the purposes aforesaid or for any of the purposes of their undertaking to purchase by agreement and take on lease other lands for the purposes of their undertaking.

To make further provisions with regard to the supply of gas by prepayment meters and charges therefor and for any fittings used therewith, the laying of pipes in streets not dedicated to public use, to enable the Company to require any person who has a private installation of gas for power or other purposes to pay a minimum charge for gas supplied by the Company, and to impose other terms and conditions in connection with such supply, to prescribe a minimum charge for gas laid on to premises having a separate supply of gas or electricity.

To repeal, alter or amend the existing provisions of the Act of 1872 and the Orders of 1890 and 1899 or any of them, or any other Act relating to the Company, and any Act incorporated therewith respectively, relating to the testing of the illuminating power of gas and the liability of or obligations on the Company in respect thereof, and to relieve the Company from any liability, obligation, penalty or forfeiture in connection with the illuminating power of gas.

To render inapplicable to the Company the provisions relating to the matters lastly hereinbefore mentioned of the Gas Works Clauses Act, 1871, and any other general enactment.

To make new provisions with regard to the testing of gas supplied by the Company, and to provide for the testing of the gas so supplied in reference to the calorific value thereof in lieu of and in substitution for the testing in reference to the illuminating power thereof, to prescribe the standard calorific value, and to prescribe or make provisions with reference to the apparatus to be used for testing calorific value and the methods of making tests, and to impose obligations and liabilities upon the Company in connection with the maintenance of a standard calorific value, and to subject the Company to penalties in certain circumstances.

To authorize the Company to discontinue any existing testing place and to remove therefrom any apparatus for testing the illuminating power of gas, and to relieve the Company from all or any obligations as to the provision, maintenance or user of such testing places and apparatus, and to make such other provisions (if any) as may be deemed expedient with respect to the provision, maintenance and user of testing places and apparatus for testing the calorific value of the gas supplied by the Company.

To repeal section 48 of the Act of 1872, and to make further or other provision as to pressure of gas.

To relieve the Company from all restrictions upon and obligations as to the amount of sulphur or sulphur compounds in the gas supplied by them, and from liability to penalties or forfeitures by reason of the presence in such gas of sulphur or sulphur compounds.

To require the use by any consumer of gas supplied by the Company of a proper anti-fluctuator in respect of any gas engines used by him.

To empower the Company for the purposes of their undertaking to raise additional capital by the creation and issue of new shares or stock and by borrowing upon mortgage and by the creation and issue of debentures or debenture stock or by any of such means, and to attach to such new shares, stock, mortgages, debentures, or debenture stock or some part thereof any preference or priority of principal, dividends, or interest, and such other rights and privileges as may be defined in the Order, and to empower the Company to apply to any of the purposes of the intended Order any moneys which they have raised or are authorized to raise under the Act of 1872 and the Orders of 1890 and 1899.

To authorize the Company to borrow money on mortgage in respect of their existing or authorized capital in addition to any moneys so borrowed or raised by the creation and issue of debenture stock, and to increase the amount which the Company may raise under their existing powers in respect of such capital by borrowing or by the creation and issue of debenture stock, and to repeal or amend as far as may be necessary for the purposes aforesaid all or some of the provisions of section 27 of the Act of 1872, section 8, of the Order of 1890, and section 8 of the Order of 1899.

To provide that any preference stock or debenture stock which has been created under the Act of 1872 or the Orders of 1890 and 1899, or either of such Orders, but not issued or which is authorized by such Act or Orders to be created and issued, and any preference stock or debenture stock to be created under the powers sought by the Order may be created and issued as redeemable stock or redeemable debenture stock on such terms and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed in or provided for by the Order or as may be prescribed in a resolution or resolutions of the Company, and to empower the Company from time to time for the purpose of redeeming such redeemable stock or redeemable debenture stock to create and issue other stock or debenture stock either redeemable or otherwise of such nominal amount as may be necessary for providing the moneys required for redemption or for the purpose of substitution for any such redeemable stock or redeemable debenture stock or any part thereof, and to empower the Company to redeem such stock or debenture stock by either or both of such methods, and at or after a fixed date or before such date, and if thought fit to apply to the Company or to incorporate in the Order, with or without modification, the powers or some of the powers of the Statutory Companies (Redeemable Stock) Act, 1915.

To increase the rate of interest which the Company are authorized to pay in respect of moneys to be borrowed by them or to remove any limitation now imposed upon them in respect of such rate of interest, and to repeal or amend the provisions of section 29 of the Act of 1872, section 22 of the Order of 1890, and section 22 of the Order of 1899.

To enable the Company to form a special purposes fund and to make provision with reference to the application of such fund and any existing funds of the Company and any surplus or excess profits of the Company, and to authorize the application of any such funds and profits for any such purposes of the Company whether capital, revenue, or otherwise as the Order may prescribe.

To provide for the repeal of section 24 of the Order of 1890, and to make further or other provisions with reference to the qualification of a director, and to provide for the giving of notice of candidature for the office of director.

To enable the Company to supply gas in bulk to local authorities, companies, and persons within or beyond the Company's limits for the time being for the supply of gas, and to authorize the Company and any such local authorities, companies, or persons to enter into and carry into effect contracts and agreements for that purpose.

To authorize the Company and the Southborough Urban District Council to enter into and carry into effect agreements or arrangements with respect to the supply of gas to be afforded by the Company within the area of supply of the Southborough Urban District Council or any part or parts thereof.

To provide for the exercise by the Company of any of the powers conferred upon the Southborough Urban District Council by the Southborough Gas Order, 1891 (scheduled to and confirmed by the Gas and Water Orders Confirmation Act, 1891), within such part or parts of the area of supply of the Urban District Council of Southborough as may be agreed upon between the Company and the Southborough Urban District Council, and for the lease to the Company of any works of distribution, pipes or apparatus of the said Council; to enable the Company and the said Council to enter into and carry into effect agreements with reference to all or any of the matters aforesaid.

To provide that fittings belonging to the Company or let by the Company on hire or installed under a hire-purchase agreement in respect of which any instalment of purchase money remains unpaid shall remain the property of the Company and be exempt from distress for rent, bankruptcy, execution, or otherwise.

To enable the Company to manufacture and supply power gas and to demand, take, and recover rents and charges for the supply thereof.

To make in respect of power gas special provisions in lieu of or in extension of all or any of the provisions of the Gas Works Clauses Acts, 1847 and 1871, and to relieve the Company in the case of such gas from the obligations contained in those Acts with respect to the supply of gas or otherwise.

To repeal, vary, or amend the provisions or some of the provisions of the Act of 1872 and the Orders of 1890 and 1899 and to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges which would interfere with any of the objects of the intended Order, and to confer other rights and privileges.

To incorporate with the intended Order, with or without modification, all or some of the provisions of the Gas Works Clauses Act, 1847, and the Gas Works Clauses Act, 1871, and the Lands Clauses Acts, and the Companies Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845 to 1889, and any Acts amending those Acts respectively.

Notice is hereby further given, that on or before the 30th day of November instant, a Board of Trade.—Session 1917.

RICKMANSWORTH AND UXBRIDGE VALLEY WATER.

(Extension of Limits of Supply; Confirmation of Main; Power to Construct Subsidiary Works and to lay Pipes in Private Streets; Further Powers with Reference to Supply of Water; Additional Capital and Application of Funds; Amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Rickmansworth and Uxbridge Valley Water Company (hereinafter called "the Company") intend to apply to the Board of Trade, on or before the 23rd day of December next, under the Gas and Waterworks Facilities Act, 1870, for a Provisional Order to be confirmed by Parliament in the ensuing Session for the following purposes or some of them (that is to say):—

1. To extend the limits of supply of the Company so as to include therein the parishes and portions of parish following (that is to say):—

In the county of Buckingham:—

The parishes of Chartridge and Lee, in the rural district of Amersham.

The parish of Hughenden, in the rural district of Wycombe.

In the county of Hertford:—

So much of the parish of Watford Rural in the rural district of Watford as extends in a westerly and northerly direction from a line drawn along the centre of Hemel Hempstead road from opposite the northernmost point of the premises known as Little Cassiobury to Ridge Lane, thence along the centre of that Lane and Gammons Lane to a point 458 yards south-west of the junction of such last-mentioned Lane and Russell Lane, thence in a north-westerly direction to Russell Lane, and so much of the said parish as extends in a northerly and easterly direction from a line drawn along the centre of Bushey Mill Lane from the bridge over the River Colne to the western boundary of the Saint Albans Branch of the London and North-Western Railway, thence along the said western boundary to Cow Lane, thence along the centre of that Lane and the footpath leading therefrom to Saint Albans Road, thence along the centre of that Road to the private road and footpath leading from that Road through Leggatts Farm to Russell Lane, thence along the centre of such private road and footpath to Russell Lane and to apply to such extended limits all or some of the provisions of the Rickmansworth and Uxbridge Valley Water Acts and Order, 1884 to 1906, and to enable the Company to exercise within their limits of supply, as so proposed to be extended, all or some of their powers under the said Acts and Order, and under the intended Order, including the breaking up and interference with roads, streets, bridges, canals, railways, tramways, sewers, drains, pipes, rivers, streams and watercourses, the laying down, construction and maintenance of all such mains, pipes, culverts, tanks, reservoirs, wells, apparatus, machinery, appliances and conveniences as may be necessary or convenient for the purposes of the undertaking of the Company, and the levying and recovery of rates, rents and charges in respect of the supply of water afforded by them.

2. To sanction and confirm the construction of and to empower the Company for the purposes of their undertaking to maintain, use, renew, alter, enlarge, extend and repair the existing main and other works laid down by them in the said parish of Lee, and situate in the road leading from Lee Common to Chartridge, between a point immediately to the north of Little Bassibones Farm buildings and the boundary between the parishes of Lee and Chartridge, and to sanction and confirm the acquisition of and to authorize the Company to hold and use any easements which may have been or may be acquired by them for the purposes of the said main and works, and to sanction and confirm the expenditure of capital by the Company for any of the purposes aforesaid.

3. To enable the Company, on any lands for the time being belonging or leased to them or in respect of which they have acquired or may acquire easements, to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by section 12 of the Waterworks Clauses Act, 1847, to extend to streets and roads not dedicated to public use all or any of the provisions of, and to authorize the Company to exercise in regard to such streets and roads all or any of the powers of the Waterworks Clauses Acts relating to public streets and roads, and to confer powers upon the Company in relation to the prevention and detection of waste of water, and to authorize the breaking up of streets and the fixing of apparatus for that purpose.

4. To make provision as to the payment of water rates by persons dwelling in several houses or parts of houses supplied by one common pipe, and the maintenance of such common pipe, and to impose penalties on persons taking or permitting to be taken water supplied by a common pipe, contrary to the provisions of the Acts and Orders relating to the Company.

5. To confer upon persons liable to maintain pipes and apparatus the like powers of opening the ground as are conferred upon them by the Waterworks Clauses Act, 1847, for laying communication pipes, to empower the Company in certain cases to repair communication pipes, and to recover from the owner the cost of so doing, to authorize them to refuse to supply persons in debt for other premises, and to authorize and, if thought fit, to require the payment of water rates by the owners of certain houses.

6. To provide that fittings and other apparatus supplied by the Company shall be exempted from liability to distress and being taken in execution.

7. To empower the Company to raise further capital for the purposes of their undertaking by the creation and issue of new shares or stock, with or without a preference or priority in payment of interest or dividend, and redeemable or otherwise, and by borrowing on mortgage, and by the creation and issue of debenture stock, or by all or any of those means, and to empower the Company to apply to the purposes of the intended Order and to the general purposes of their undertaking any moneys which they are now authorized to raise under any Act or Order, or which may belong to them or be under their control, and also the moneys proposed to be raised as aforesaid.

8. To authorize the directors of the Company to declare interim dividends without calling a meeting of shareholders.

9. To vary or extinguish all rights and privileges inconsistent with the objects aforesaid or any other objects of the intended Order, and to confer other rights and privileges.

10. To amend, extend, alter or repeal, so far as may be necessary for the purposes of the intended Order, the Rickmansworth Waterworks Act, 1884, the Rickmansworth and Uxbridge Valley Water Act, 1885, the Rickmansworth and Uxbridge Valley Water Act, 1900, the Rickmansworth and Uxbridge Valley Water Order, 1906, and any other Act or Order relating to the Company.

On or before the 30th day of November instant a copy of this Notice, as published in the London Gazette, will be deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Buckingham, at his office at Aylesbury; with the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Hertford, at his office at Hertford; and with the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, at his office at the Guildhall, Westminster, S.W.; and at the office of the Board of Trade, Whitehall Gardens, London.

Printed copies of the draft Provisional Order will be deposited at the office of the Board of Trade on or before the 23rd day of December next, and printed copies of the draft Provisional Order when deposited and of the Provisional Order when made may be obtained at the price of one shilling each from the undersigned Solicitors and Parliamentary Agents, at their respective offices.

Every company, corporation or person desirous of making any representation to the Board of Trade, or of bringing before them any objection respecting the intended application may do so by letter addressed to the Assistant Secretary of the Harbour Department of the Board of Trade on or before the 15th day of January next ensuing, and copies of their objections must at the same time be sent to the undersigned Solicitors or Parliamentary Agents for the Company, and in forwarding to the Board such objections the objectors or their Agents should state that a copy of the same has been sent to the Solicitors or their Agents.
