*India Office,
1st January, 1917.*

The KING has been graciously pleased to confer the Decoration of the Imperial Order of the Crown of India on:—

Marie Adelaide, Baroness Willingdon, wife of Sir Freeman, Baron Willingdon, G.C.I.E., Governor of the Presidency of Bombay.

Whitehall, 22 December, 1916.

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to award the Edward Medal of the Second Class to Christopher Devenport and William Walker under the following circumstances:—

On the 27th April, 1916, a large fall of roof occurred at Harton Colliery. Eight men, under the supervision of Walker, were engaged in clearing away the fallen stone, when a further and heavier fall occurred, whereby one of the men, named Hall, was caught and apparently buried beneath the stone. Devenport was at once sent for and, on arrival, crawled through a small opening, which was left between the fallen stone and the side, until he reached Hall. He found him pinned by the legs, but otherwise safe. He put in two props to keep the roof, which was still very uneasy, from falling on him, and returned. Walker and Devenport then both crept in to Hall, and, while Devenport lifted the stones from his legs, Walker dragged him out. Hall is a very heavy man, weighing seventeen stone.

The rescue occupied one hour and five minutes, during the whole of which time the roof was working and threatening to fall into the small opening by which the rescue was effected. Half an hour after the rescue it did so fall in. There can be no doubt that Walker and Devenport saved Hall's life, and risked their own lives in so doing.

Also, the Edward Medal of the First Class to William Alexander Morrison and the Edward Medal of the Second Class to George Sang and Archibald Young under the following circumstances:—

On the 20th June, 1916, a small explosion occurred at 10 a.m. in a building at the Roslin Explosives Factory. Morrison and Sang, who were aware that four girls were in the building, which had caught fire, and that the building was full of explosives, at once ran towards it. As they approached two of the girls came out and fell unconscious on the grass. The building was now blazing furiously; but Morrison and Sang, who knew the position of the explosives within, used the fire buckets so as to allay the flames in the dangerous quarter, and to enable Morrison to dash in. He groped through the smoke, which was dense white, found one girl and passed her out to Young, who had arrived meanwhile; he then returned for the second girl, and eventually brought her out, while Young placed the first girl on a bogey, which he thrust along the line out of danger, and then returned for the second. Sang meanwhile kept the fire down as far as possible with water buckets.

During the whole of this time small explosions were continually taking place within the building, and immediately after the second rescue a heavy explosion occurred, which flattened down part of it. Twelve minutes after the original explosion the whole building blew up.

Whitehall, 22 December, 1916.

The KING has been pleased to make the following appointment:—

To be a Companion of the Imperial Service Order.

INDIAN CIVIL SERVICE.

Edward Evans Harvey, Esq., Chief Accountant in the Office of the Director of Ordnance Factories in India.

ADDITIONAL HONOURS AND COMMENDATIONS FOR SERVICE IN THE BATTLE OF JUTLAND.

CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office,
St. James's Palace, S.W.
1st January, 1917.*

The KING has been graciously pleased to give Orders for the following appointment to the Most Honourable Order of the Bath in recognition of the services of the undermentioned Officer as Captain D. of a Destroyer Flo-tilla during the Battle of Jutland. The ap-pointment to date from the 31st May, 1916:—

To be an Additional Member of the Military Division of the Third Class, or Companions, of the said Most Honourable Order:—

Captain Anselan John Buchanan Stirling,
R.N.

*Admiralty, S.W.,
1st January, 1917.*

The KING has been graciously pleased to give orders for the following appointments to the Distinguished Service Order and for the award of the Distinguished Service Cross to the undermentioned Officers in recognition of their services in the Battle of Jutland:—

To be Companions of the Distinguished Service Order.

Fleet Surg. Ernest Alfred Penfold, M.B.,
R.N.

Was in the fore medical distributing station when a heavy shell burst just outside, killing and wounding many. He was knocked down, bruised and shaken, but personally assisted in the removal of the wounded and tended them with unremitting skill and devotion for forty hours without rest. His example was invaluable in keeping up the morale of the wounded and of the medical party under very trying conditions, the shell having destroyed instruments, dressings, etc.

Cdr. John Coombe Hodgson, R.N.

Led Destroyer attack on enemy Battle Cruisers, but, becoming engaged with enemy Destroyers, was unable to get within range. On conclusion of gun attack, in which several hostile Destroyers were sunk and the enemy beaten off, he attacked enemy Battle Fleet and fired four torpedoes under very hot fire of enemy Battleships' secondary arma-ment. His Destroyer was struck and damaged by a shell.

Lieut.-Cdr. Evelyn Claude Ogilvie Thomson,
R.N.

Senior Officer of a Division of Destroyers, and having defeated the enemy Destroyers, gallantly pressed home attack with torpedoes on enemy Battle Cruisers.

Capt. Harold Blount, R.M.A.

Performed excellent service as officer of "Q" Turret on 31st May, as well as in the action off Heligoland in August, 1914, and at the Dogger Bank in January, 1915.

To receive the Distinguished Service Cross.

Mr. Francis William Potter, Gunner, R.N.
For very important duties during the action, carried out with great coolness and accuracy.

Mr. Thomas Bazley, Gunner (T), R.N.

Was of great assistance during action on night of 31st May-1st June. In charge of torpedo armament of ship, and fired at enemy's Battle Fleet during the night with effect.

The following awards have also been approved for service in the Battle of Jutland:—

To receive the Conspicuous Gallantry Medal.

Col. Sergt. Abraham Spooner, R.M.A., No. R.M.A./4980.

Second in command of the Marine detach-ment of H.M.S. "Warrior." After his guns were no longer required, he showed the greatest gallantry and initiative in rescuing wounded in dense smoke and gas fumes from Marines' mess deck.

Ldg. Sto. Thomas McGovern, O.N.K. 5606 (Dev.).

Showed much courage in extinguishing a large fire, which could only be reached through a shell hole surrounded by intense heat, fumes and smoke. His behaviour was highly commendable.

To receive the Distinguished Service Medal.

C.E.R.A., 1 Cl., Frank Dymond, O.N. 268895.

MISCELLANEOUS SERVICES.

The KING has been graciously pleased to give orders for the following appointments to the Distinguished Service Order and for the award of the Distinguished Service Cross to the undermentioned Officers in recognition of their services:—

To be Companions of the Distinguished Service Order.

Cdr. Frederick Edward Ketelbey Strong, R.N.

For the successful manner in which he conducted H.M.S. "Dwarf's" actions, with the armed yacht "Herzogin Elisabeth," Joss Battery, and the armed vessel "Nachtigal," on the 9th, 11th and 16th September, 1914, respectively, as well as other important duties, which on several occasions brought him into contact with the enemy during the Cameroons Campaign.

Cdr. Francis Henry Grenfell, R.N.

Cdr. Herbert Charles Valentine Beresford Cheetham, R.D., R.N.R.

As Chief Transport Officer with the Cameroons Expeditionary Force, Cdr. Cheetham performed exceptional service under a heavy fire during the attacks on Jabassi on the 8th October, 1914, and in the subsequent embarkation of troops and retirement down stream of the flotilla after dark. He commanded the advanced detachments of the Nyong flotilla on the Edea expedition, driving out a hostile party from Dehane, and thereby enabling the French troops to land without opposition.

Lt.-Cdr. Arthur Alured Mellin, R.N.

Lt.-Cdr. John de Burgh Jessop, R.N.

In recognition of the skill and determination which he showed in making a successful submarine attack on an enemy light cruiser on the 19th October, 1916.

Lieut.-Cdr. Henry George Gardiner Westmore, R.D., R.N.R.

Lieut.-Cdr. John Percival, R.N.R.

Lieut.-Cdr. Percival was Acting Director of Nigeria Marine at the commencement of hostilities in the Cameroons, and was largely responsible for the efficient manner in which the Nigeria Marine vessels were fitted out for duty with the expedition. He also performed valuable service as King's Harbour Master at Duala from the 28th September to the 14th December, 1914, when he was appointed Director of Nigeria Marine at Lagos, in which position he invariably assisted the Senior Naval officer in every way possible throughout the campaign.

The undermentioned Officer has been awarded a Bar to his Distinguished Service Order:—

Cdr. Noel Frank Laurence, D.S.O., R.N.

In recognition of the skill and determination which he showed in making a successful submarine attack on an enemy Battle Squadron on the 5th November, 1916.

(The appointment to the Distinguished Service Order was announced in London Gazette, dated 24th February, 1916.)

To receive the Distinguished Service Cross.

Flight Lieut. Ernest William Norton, R.N.A.S.

In recognition of his skill and gallantry in destroying a German kite balloon on the 20th October, 1916, under severe anti-aircraft fire.

Surgeon Hother McCormack Hanschell, R.N.

In recognition of his services with the Tanganyika Flotilla. The comparative immunity from sickness enjoyed by the members of the expedition was due to the unremitting care bestowed by Surgeon Hanschell on the health of the personnel and on the sanitary state of the camps and vessels.

Lieutenant Arthur Darville Dudley, R.N.V.R.

In recognition of his services with the Tanganyika Flotilla. He showed great coolness and skill in handling his ship in all circumstances.

Sub-Lieut. Guy Trevarton Sholl, R.N.V.R.

In recognition of his services in charge of a squadron of Royal Naval Armoured Cars in Armenia and Persia. By his presence of mind he saved the cars when they were ambushed by the Turks at Marnik on the 1st September, 1916, and by his devotion to duty, courage and hard work he effected the capture of the village of Norschen on the 9th September, and secured the explosion of a Turkish magazine, with great loss to the enemy. His consistent cheerfulness and unselfishness were a material factor in the success of the work accomplished by the cars.

Gunner (T) James Albert Graham, R.N.

In recognition of his services in a submarine, which carried out a successful attack on an enemy Battle Squadron on the 5th November, 1916.

Captain John Couch, Master of the Transport "Trevorian."

In recognition of the great coolness, judgment and resource which he displayed under very trying circumstances during the evacuation of Constantza on the 22nd October, 1916. The "Trevorian" was the last ship to leave the harbour, which was already being shelled, was exposed to shell fire for an hour after putting to sea, and successfully avoided a submarine attack during the voyage. During the whole of this time Captain Couch remained on the bridge.

The following awards have also been approved:—

To receive the Distinguished Service Medal.
