From Thursday, September 24. to Monday, September 28. 1668.

Falmouth, September 21.

THe 19th instant came in here the Black Eagle, a ship belonging to Amsterdam, in about 28 days from Sally, telling us, that a Man of War formerly belonging to Algiers, but lately set out with a Commission from Sally; had seized some few English Merchants ships, and carried them in thither; where were also brought in one Spanish and one French, Merchant Ships. They farther tell us that in a day or two after their departure, there went out to sea from Sally four Men of War, of 8, 10, 14, and 20 Guns, bound as they gave out for the Canaries and other Islands thereabouts.

Naples, Sept. 4. Here is lately arrived a Galley from Genova, with the new President of the Council, the Regent Uloa, and Sebastiano Cortiz from Spain; in her way hither she took a Feluca which belonged to Messina, and with 4 others were roving upon the seas, committing several acts of Pyrac; and for the securing the Coasts against the rest of them, several Felucas are armed and fitted out, and 'tis believed may in few dayes be able to give a good account of them.

On Thursday in the Evening departed hence two ships, whereon were embarked four hundred Italian foot, to be sent to Barcellona.

The Vice-Roy Don Pedro d'Arragon is preparing for his Embassy to Rome, to perform the solemnity of Rendering Obedience to the Pope in the name of the Crown of Spain; and 'tis said the Duke d'Albuquerque is to leave his Vice-regency of Sicily, and to succeed him here

Malaga, Sept. 11. Yesterday arrived here Captain Vander Saen with 5 of the States Ships under his Command, with whom joyned three or four others, which he found here in Port, and are all put to Sea, intending for the Levant.

From Tripoli we had some dayes since advice that the Corsairs of that place had lately brought in thither four ships, viz. the St. Laurence, taken neer Cape Cotonna in Calabria, bound for Malta; one ship of Marseilles laden with Oils, a Tartane with Salt, and a Petache from Alexandria, taken in the Gulph of Venice.

From Tunis we are told, that six great ships were sent from thence with Ammunition for Candia, and that four of their Gallies had taken a large Bark richly laden from Smirna; which they have sent into Tunis.

Umbstadt, Sept. 11. The Lorrain forces consisting of about 6000 men, having passed the River de Nau, were for three dayes closely attended by those of the Prince Elector Palatine; who finding no opportunity of taking advantage on them on their march, encamped themselves the first instant upon a rising ground near Illverheim. The Lorrainers being then at Okenheim, having the Rhine upon their left hand, the River of Setz on the right behind them the Nau, and the Enemy before them; in this posture passed several skirmishes between them, wherein some few men were killed. Since this Monsieur de Lillebonne retyred himself at Rudesheim neer Bingen, where he lay upon his Guard, expecting a supply of Victuals, for which his Army is somewhat straitned. The 5th instant Colonel Chauvet having laid an Ambuscado of horse and foot; went out with a small party of his Cavalry, with an intention to have engaged them into action; but the Lorrainers kept themselves upon their Guards.

The 7th instant a party of 200 of the Lorrain Cavalry; being sent abroad, were suddenly engaged by a party of the Palatines, but after some dispute made their retreat, with the loss of one Captain, one Lieutenant, and about 12 or 15 men killed upon the place; leaving 25 of their horses to their Enemy. Of the Palatine party one Captain was killed, and 3 soldiers hurt. Several succours are daily arriving at the Prince Palatine's Leaguer from Brunswick. The 8th instant came to him a Troop of 60 horse well equipped, under the Command of Reitmaster Winter.

Venice, Sept. 14. From aboard the Ship called the Sister, lying before Candia, we have this following advice, bearing date Aug. 1. That she with several other ships laden with supplies of provisions and other necessaries for the defence of Candia, had, though with much difficulty, and that by night, put into the Port and unladen their freight. That the Turks are from their Batteries continually playing upon the Port, rendering thereby their entry in the Port very dangerous: That by several assaults, and the loss of many men on both sides, the Turks had lodged themselves upon the walls of Candia, from whence the besieged had not at present been able to remove them.

They write farther, That the Admiral of the Venetian Armada had given order to all his Ships and Gallies to repair to him with all convenient speed, so the end he might be able to engage the Turkish Fleet which was riding near Canea, their whole force being accounted above one hundred Gallies, with 30 Men of War belonging to Barbary; that they had already landed 3000 men at Gira Petra, and 6000 at Canea, to recruit the Visiers army, which was extremely diminished by the many assaults he had lately made upon the Town of Candia: That the loss of the besieged was also very great, having besides a considerable number of common soldiers, lost many Officers of note, particularly the Colonel Portario a Sicilian, the Engineer Quadruplano, Serjeant Major General Motta Colonel Gamba, the Marquis Carloti, and as it was (though doubtfully) reported General Spaer.

Rome, Sept. 15. On Monday morning last the Pope held a Congregation of Rites and Ceremonies, in which they resolved upon the Canonization of Beata Magdalena di Pazzi, a Noble Family of Florence the solemnity whereof is to be held in St Peters di Accantara, for which all sorts of preparations are making accordingly.

On Wednesday morning departed hence the Duke de Chaulnes, Ambassadour from his most Christian Majesty, much satisfied with his Reception in this Court, having been dismissed by the Pope with much kindness, and several Presents for himself, and the Royal Family of Franco, and conducted out of Town by the Cardinals Orsino, Mancini, and Maddalchio, with the Venetian Ambassadour and other persons of quality.

The last week arrived here a Courier from Spain, and is this Evening returning again; the Pope having been pleased to give out his Brief, empowering her Catholick Majesty to impose a Tax upon her Ecclesiastical Subjects, to the value of two millions.

On Thursday last the Venetian Ambassadour Cavalier Grimani received an Expre's from Otranto, with letters bearing date from Candia the 18. past, and from Santo Teodoro the 28, advising that the Turks had made their way to the Forts of Sabiovera and Santo Demetrio, and were come to hand-stroaks with the besieged in the Ditches, and that the General of the Venetian Gallies had with 16 Gallies

Gallies put into Candia by night, and landed all his Souldiers and Gally-slaves for the present relief of the Town, till fresh Succours should arrive, their greatest want being of men, which being represented to the Pope, he immediately gave Order to Cardinal Rospigliosi to remit a considerable sum of moneys, to pay off 3000 German Souldiers, which lie ready at Trieste, and to order their speedy embarking for the relief of that place.

Madrid, Sept. 19. This day his Excellency the Count de Miranda, the Portugal Ambassadour, had his Publick Audience from the King and Queen, with the Ordinary Solemnities. The Baron de Bataville, who has been long designed to be sent into Portugal with the same Character, 'tis believed may set forwards towards the end of this moneth, for which he is making his necessary preparations.

The Prince Ludoviso is lately arrived here with the Widow of the late Vice-Roy of Sardigna, with intentions to have solicited His Majesty that he might succeed in that Employment; but was prevented in his design, His Majesty having before his arrival conferred that Charge upon the Duke de St. German, who is gone to take possession thereof.

From Cadix we are advised by Letters of the 9th instant, that his Excellency the Earl of Sandwich was safely arrived at Tangier; of which place he had taken an account, and left it in a good posture, and embarked himself the 5th instant for England.

Dantzick, Sept. 22. Two dayes since arrived here an Express from Warsaw, with Letters to the Senate, bearing date the 16th instant, advising that His Majesty of Poland had that day in the Castle with much Solemnity deposited his Crown and Scepter, in the presence of the Senators and Deputies from the several Counties. The Ceremony began at One of the Clock, and continued till Five, wherein His Majesty made to them a Pathetick Speech, which drew tears from the eyes of all the Auditory, insisting principally upon his misfortune in meeting with such unhappy times, which had not only caused troubles to himself, but given cause of jealousies to others; desiring pardon for what had been done amiss during the time of his Reign, and that they would impute his errors to humane frailty; wishing his Successor might prove more fortunate, both as to his own concerns and those of the Republick. His Speech ending, the Archbishop answered and complemented him in the name of the Senators, and the Marshal or Speaker in the name of the Provincial Deputies; which ended, they would have attended him out; but this he refused, saying, He was now only a private person; and so taking his Coach, left the Castle his usual place of Residence, and went to a private house of his own in the City.

The Deputies have agreed with him to allow him 150 thousand Guilders yearly for his maintenance during his life; which he desired might be legally assured to him from the whole Republick; but was answered, that having not been instructed in that particular, they should endeavour to promote it in their several Conventions, and doubted not but it would be effected according to his desire.

We daily expect to hear of the Publication of the Interregnum, and of the time prefixed for the meeting of a Convocation, in order to a new Election.

Hague, Sept. 30. The Prince of Orange is returned from Zealand to Breda, and has appointed the Heer Van Odyck to take his place in the Assembly of the States General as his Substitute, as lately qualified with the Title of first Noble and President of the States of Zealand, and by them deputed to the States General, who has accordingly taken his place; his military charges will be suddenly disposed of.

The Bishop of Munster and Count de Bentem have lately written to the States, to acquaint them with their willingness to suffer the Lunenburgh Forces dismissed from their service, to pass quietly through their Dominions, according to the States desire: 3000 of the said Forces are in the Island of Eus, ready to embark upon 6 ships, which will in few dayes be in readines to sail with them for the service and assistance of the Venetians.

Paris, Oct. 3. The Count d'Estrees has accepted of the Employment proposed to him, to command four of His Majesties Men of War in a Voyage to America, to take care for the strengthening of our Colonies, and settling all affairs in those parts.

For the advantage of our East-India Trade, Monsieur C Colbert has submitted all the Receivers-General of the respective Provinces which are to be found in Paris, to communicate to them His Majesties desire that they would advance each of them the sum of 20000 Livres, to be employed for the benefit of the East-India Company; a Decree is also published from the Council, by which all those persons who have interested themselves in the Trade, and made their first payments of such sums as were agreed upon, are ordered forthwith to make their second payment, or else to acknowledge the forfeiture of the first.

The Chamber of Justice is to be continued for three years longer, and 'tis said is making some inquiry after the heirs of several of the Surintendants of the Finances.

His Majesty with the Queen is arrived at Chambourg, but intends not above three weeks continuance in those parts; and 'tis believed may return again by the 25th instant.

On Saturday last died here the Heer Boreel, Ambassadour in Ordinary from the States of the United Provinces; whereupon a Messenger was immediately dispatched away with the News after the Heer Van Beuning, their Ambassadour Extraordinary; who departed hence the same Morning on his way homeward.

Advertisements,

THe Officers of the Receipt of His Majesties Exchequer, are come to the payment of part of the 1071 Order in number and course Registered upon the Act for 12,0000 l. which the parties concerned are desired to take notice of, that they may come to receive their Money which is due upon the same. And the said Officers shall proceed to further payment, as Money comes in.

Also they are come to the payment of the 97th Order on the Eleven Months Tax, and have fully charged the same, which is in the Tellers hands, ready to be paid upon demand; and so shall proceed to the payment of the subsequent Orders, as the Money on that Tax shall be brought in.

THe Lords Commissioners of the Treasury taking notice, That there are very considerable Arrears yet remaining behind of the Royal and Additional Aids, and that several Receivers have not yet brought in their Accounts to the Auditors, or do not prosecute the same; whereby it may appear in whose hands the said Moneys do lie, to His Majesties great prejudice. Their Lordships do hereby give notice, that if any of the said Receivers shall not have brought in to the Auditors their said Accounts by the 23th of October next, and prosecute the same with effect; that their Lordships will send for them by a Serjeant at Armes, to account in custody.

ALl persons concerned are to take notice, That the Court of Judicature for determination of differences touching Houses burned or demolished, by reason of the late Fire which happened in London, will sit in Cliffords Inne Hall on Tuesday the sixth day of October next ensuing; And all persons summoned to appear on that day (or at any other day following, until the Court shall otherwise order) are to appear accordingly. And the Court will consider how to dispose of the Causes in arrear.
