TUESDAY, 16 JANUARY, 1917.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of January, 1917.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 6th day of January, 1917, in the words following, viz.:—

"1. Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"2. And whereas by Your Majesty's Order in Council bearing date the 29th October, 1914, sanction was given for the payment of Separation Allowances during the period of the present War to the Wives, and in respect of the Children, of Seamen, Marines, and Reservists, borne on the books of Your Majesty's Ships, and to other Persons who are in fact dependent upon them:

"3. And whereas we consider it desirable that certain increases should be made in the rates therein sanctioned, and that these allowances should also be extended to the wives, children, and dependants, of Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy, and Royal Naval Reserves, and of Royal Marine Gunners:

"4. We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction payment of such Allowances at rates not exceeding those set forth in the following Schedule, to take effect from the 15th April, 1915, so far as Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy and Royal Naval Reserves, and Royal Marine Gunners, are concerned, and from the 1st March, 1915, so far as others are concerned:

"5. We beg leave further to recommend that any Separation Allowance, in force at the date of death of the person in respect of whose service it is paid, may be continued for a period of 26 weeks from that date (or from the date on which notification of the death is sent to the Relatives where such notification is made 28 or more days after the actual date of death) in addition to an amount equivalent to any Allotment of his pay in force at that date, and that in special circumstances this arrangement may be applied in the case of Widows, with retrospective effect to the beginning of the present

War, when this would be to their advantage, the payment being determined in such cases in accordance with the rates set forth in Your Majesty's Order in Council of the 29th October, 1914, for periods up to the 28th February, 1915, and with the rates set forth in this Order for periods subsequent to that day, and an Allotment being assumed, where none was in force at the date of death, at such rate as may be reasonable in each case within the maximum which could have been allotted: also that in the case of Dependants other than Widows and Children the payment may be continued at the same or a lower rate beyond the period of 26 weeks when this is necessary to enable the case to be considered under Regulations framed in accordance with the Naval and Military War Pensions Act, 1915; also that in the case of Dependants, other than Widows and Children, who are not in receipt of Separation Allowance at the date of death, any Allotment in force may be continued for a period of 4 weeks from the date of notification of the casualty to the Relative, and that in the case of Persons reported as 'Missing,' other than those holding the Rank of Warrant Officer, R.N., or equivalent Rank, Separation Allowance and Allotment may be continued within a maximum period of 30 weeks or Allotment only for a period of 4 weeks in cases of Dependants not in receipt of Separation Allowance, from the date on which the Relatives are notified of the casualty.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal.

Whereas by an Order dated 29th December, 1916, the Army Council, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by Defence of the Realm (Consolidation) Regulations, 1914, prohibited all persons from selling raw wool grown on sheep in Great Britain, Ireland and the Isle of Man prior to the 1st January, 1916, provided that nothing in the said Order should regulate or restrict the sale of raw wool if such sale were completed within 30 days next following after 29th December:

And whereas the Army Council deem it advisable that persons other than growers should be permitted to deal freely in wool as in the said Order defined, provided that such sale is completed on or before 1st March, 1917:
