PURSUANT to an Order of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, dated the 27th November, 1916, made in the Matter of the estate of EMMA UPSTONE, Spinster, deceased, Upstone v. Upstone (1916. U. No. 404), whereby the following inquiry is directed, viz.:—An inquiry whether Ann Upstone, a Sister of the intestate, is living or dead, and, if dead, when she died, and, if she died in the lifetime of the intestate, whether she left any and what children who survived the intestate, and, if she survived the intestate and is since dead, who is her legal personal representative. Notice is hereby given, that all persons claiming to be entitled under the said inquiry are, either personally or by their Solicitors, on or before the 5th day of March, 1917, to enter their claims in a book kept for that purpose at the Chambers of the Judge (Room 705), at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, and also, on or before the 13th day of March, 1917, to come in and prove their claims at the said Chambers, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said order. Tuesday, the 13th day of March, 1917, at 11.30 o'clock in the forenoon, at the said Chambers (Room No. 704), is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the claims.—Dated this 26th day of January, 1917.

J. C. FOX, Master.

NOTE.—The above named Ann Upstone (a Daughter of Edward William and Ellen Upstone) was commonly known as "Annie" Upstone, and was last heard of about the year 1902, when she was living in service at Worcester.

In the High Court of Justice.—Chancery Division.
Mr. Justice Astbury.

No. 008 of 1917.

In the Matter of MACBETH, TAYLOR & CO. Limited, and in the Matter of the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition was, on the 18th day of January, 1917, presented to the High Court of Justice by the above named Company to confirm an alteration of the provisions of the Memorandum with respect to the said Company's objects proposed to be effected by a Special Resolution of the said Company, duly passed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the said Company, held on the 1st of December, 1916, and subsequently duly confirmed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the said Company, held on the 18th December, 1916, and which Resolution is as follows:—

"That the provisions of the Memorandum of Association be altered by cancelling the existing Memorandum of Association, and by substituting the following Memorandum of Association therefor, namely:—

"(a) To carry on the business of commercial and general agents and primarily to act as commercial agents in the United Kingdom for Macbeth Bros. & Co. Limited, of Bombay, in the Empire of India.

"(b) To carry on the businesses of exporters and importers of and dealers in merchandise of all kinds; forwarding agents, freight agents, loading agents, and general merchants.

"(c) To charter or take on hire steamers and vessels of all kinds, and to enter into arrangements with the owners of steamers and vessels for the provision of cargo for the steamers and vessels belonging to such owners.

"(d) To purchase or otherwise acquire all or any part of the business or property of any person, firm or company carrying on or (in the case of a company) formed to carry on any business which the Company is authorised to carry on, and as the consideration therefore to pay cash or to issue any fully or partly paid shares, stocks or obligations of this Company, and in connection with any such transaction to undertake any liabilities relating to the business acquired.

"(e) To purchase, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire, and to hold the perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock or obligations or the shares (fully or partly paid) or stock of any company in the United Kingdom or elsewhere.

"(f) To receive money on deposit, and to lend money, with or without security, to such persons, and generally on such terms as may be thought fit, and in particular to persons having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by any such persons.

"(g) To raise or borrow money, or to secure the payment of money and the interest thereon in such manner and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, whether perpetual or redeemable and charged or not charged, upon the whole or any part of the undertaking, property and rights of the Company, both present and future, including its uncalled capital.

"(h) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them."

And notice is further given, that the said petition is directed to be heard before Mr. Justice Astbury at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, on Tuesday, the 13th day of February, 1917, and any person interested in the said Company, whether as a creditor or otherwise, desirous of opposing the making of an Order for the confirmation of the said alteration under the above Act, may appear at the time of hearing, by himself or his Counsel, for the purpose, and he is required to give two clear days' previous notice, in writing, of his intention so to appear, with the grounds
