TUESDAY, 13 FEBRUARY, 1917.

War Office,
13th February, 1917.

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the award of a Bar to the Distinguished Service Order to :—
Maj. (temp. Lt.-Col.) Frank Page, D.S.O., Herts. R.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He handled his battalion in the attack with great courage and determination. Later, he showed marked ability and judgment in consolidating his final objective, thereby repelling any enemy attempts to counter-attack.

(The award of the D.S.O. was published in London Gazette dated 23rd June 1915.)

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the appointments of the undermentioned Officers to be Companions of the Distinguished Service Order in recognition of their gallantry and devotion to duty in the Field:—

Maj. (temp. Lt.-Col.) Francis John Winsor Cartwright, R.M.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. When the attack was held up by heavy machine gun and rifle fire he went forward to the front line, where he reorganised and supervised mixed parties of men of different units and pushed forward to the objective.

2nd Lt. George Eric Edwards, Sea-Highrs.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. Accompanied by a few men, he advanced through our barrage and held the entrance of a cave, thereby capturing 400 prisoners, but being unsupported he was forced to surrender by the enemy. Later, he was instrumental in the capture of many prisoners, and himself marched twelve, including the Battalion Commander, back to Battalion Headquarters. He set a splendid example of courage and determination throughout.

Lt.-Col. Alexander Richard Hamilton Hutchison, C.M.G., R.M.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. When the attack was temporarily held up by heavy machine gun fire, he rallied and reorganised the front line of the attack, and ably supervised the consolidation of the final objective reached by his battalion.

Lt. (Actg. Capt.) John Henry Jameson, L'pool R., Spec. Res.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He
