

duty. He displayed great courage and determination throughout. Later, although partially buried for three hours, he remained at duty.

889 Pte. V. Morgan, King Edward's Horse.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He has displayed great courage and skill in handling trench mortars under heavy fire.

502 Pte. J. Morris, Midd'x R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He has displayed a splendid example of courage and determination throughout. On one occasion he erected a shelter over the entrance of a mine, under heavy fire, thereby saving many lives.

89130 Sjt. S. Morris, R.E.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He has rendered most valuable services, and has at all times under fire set a splendid example.

12706 B./Q.M.S. J. Morrison, R.F.A.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He showed great courage and determination in supplying his battery with ammunition and rations, during an intense bombardment.

14512 Sjt. F. A. Morrow, Worc. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He showed great courage and initiative in rallying and leading the men of his own and another unit at a critical time.

25166 Sjt. (A./S./M.) A. G. Moss, R.F.A.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He performed consistent good work and showed great courage at the wagon lines, during an intense enemy bombardment.

13814 Sjt. J. Murphy, R.F.A.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. Although wounded, he continued in command of his gun for two days. At a later date, he worked his gun for a period of two days with only one gunner.

16298 Sjt. P. Murphy, R.W. Fus.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He attended wounded for 48 hours under heavy fire. Later, he remained for 24 hours working in the open after his battalion had been relieved.

15/215 C./S./M. J. H. Nash, R. War. R.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He gallantly led forward a handful of men under intense fire. Later, he rendered most valuable services in reorganising the line and in evacuating the wounded.

18655 C./S./M. J. Neary, E. Lan. R.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He led a section of a raiding party with great courage and initiative, and was himself largely responsible for the success of the raid.

M/36047 A./Cpl. H. Noak, M.T., A.S.C.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He extricated a crippled lorry at great personal risk, under heavy shell fire.

57738 Cpl. G. Noakes, R.A.M.C.

For conspicuous ability and devotion to duty. He has shown untiring zeal at all times.

5106 C./S./M. (A./R./S./M.) S. C. Nowlan, York and Lanc. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He has performed consistent good work throughout, and has at all times under fire set a splendid example.

15207 Sjt. (A./C./S./M.) P. J. O'Neill, R. Ir. Fus.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He has performed consistent good work throughout, and has at all times set a splendid example.

24/251 Sjt. S. O'Neill, North'd Fus.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He assisted another N.C.O. in keeping a sap clear, thereby enabling the supply of bombs to the bomb post, to be sent by this sap. Later, he assisted in extricating several buried men.

7861 Pte. P. O'Reilly, R. Ir. Rif., attd. L.T.M. By.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He displayed great courage and initiative in carrying his machine gun forward, and by his accurate fire accounted for many of the enemy.

104267 Sjt. J. Ostle, R.E.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He has performed consistent good work throughout, and has at all times under fire set a splendid example. He was severely wounded.

11755 Gnr. R. H. Oxtoby, R.F.A.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He showed great courage and determination, as a cyclist orderly, in keeping touch between the battery position and the wagon lines.

12557 Pte. F. Padmore, S. Staff. R.

For conspicuous gallantry in action. He carried out a daring reconnaissance under heavy fire. He has rendered very valuable services in several bombing attacks.

31819 Cpl. T. P. Palmer R.G.A.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. Although twice wounded, he carried on his duty and performed many arduous and dangerous tasks.

4/7590 Pte. R. Parkes, W. York. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. On one occasion he rushed to the lip of an enemy mine crater, opened fire on