

to any hospital or infirmary with the consent of the authorities thereof.

(e) When the Medical Officer of Health of the District certifies that the cleansing and disinfecting of any house or part thereof, or of any articles therein likely to retain infection or the destruction of such articles, would tend to prevent or check any dangerous infectious disease, such keeper shall give the sanitary authority such facilities as may be necessary to enable such authority to carry out such works of cleansing, disinfection, or destruction as such Medical Officer of Health may deem to be necessary.

(f) Unless and until by such cleansing and disinfection the necessary precautions for preventing the spread of disease shall have been duly taken, such keeper shall not cause or suffer any other lodger to be received into the room or rooms which, in the case hereinbefore specified, may have been exposed to infection.

30. A keeper shall provide, in a suitable and convenient situation for the use of lodgers, properly constructed water-closets, in the proportion of one such water-closet for every twelve lodgers; and shall cause such water-closets and every part of the apparatus of such water-closets to be kept clean, and shall cause the same and every drain or means of drainage with which they or either of them may communicate, to be maintained in good order and efficient condition.

31. A keeper shall cause every part of the structure of a house to be maintained at all times in good order.

32. A keeper shall cause the yard, area, fore-court, or other open space within the curtilage of a house to be maintained at all times in good order and thoroughly clean, and free from any accumulation of filth or other refuse.

33. A keeper and every person employed in a house shall not receive any female lodger into such house.

34. A licensed keeper and every person employed in a licensed house shall not knowingly lodge, or knowingly harbour, any thief or reputed thief, any prostitute or reputed prostitute, or any person of improper character.

35. A keeper shall keep a register and shall enter therein, the name, age, and nationality of every seaman lodger received into a house, the name of the last vessel from which such seaman lodger was discharged, and the port of discharge, with the name and port of registry of any vessel he may join while resident in such house, and his declared destination on leaving.

36. A keeper shall put up or affix and keep up or affixed a copy of these bye-laws in a suitable and conspicuous position in the common sitting-room of a house in such a manner that the contents of such copy may be clearly and distinctly visible and legible, and shall enter upon the space left for the purpose at the foot of that copy, a scale of the charge per day for board, lodging and necessaries, made in such house, and shall not make a higher charge than is provided by the scale on any pretence whatever.

37. Upon the Council being satisfied that any licensed keeper has been guilty of a breach of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, or the Acts amending the same, or that such keeper has kept, or is keeping, or is allowing to be kept, a house in which drunkenness, gambling, or immoral or fraudulent practices prevail, or is or has been a party to such proceedings, or neglects to remove from such house any person of improper or immoral character who may have entered therein, or has failed, or is failing to comply with these bye-laws or any of them, the Council may suspend or revoke all licenses granted to such keeper.

38. No person shall obstruct any officer or person engaged in securing the execution of these bye-laws.

39. Every person offending against any of the foregoing bye-laws, except where otherwise expressly provided, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Ten pounds for every such offence, and in the case of a continuing offence, to a penalty not exceeding Five pounds for every day during which the offence may be continued after conviction for the first offence.

40. These bye-laws shall come into force on the 1st day of March, 1917.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 13th day of March, 1917.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it is enacted by the County Courts Act, 1888, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to alter the number and boundaries of the Districts and Places of the holding of any Court, and to order the discontinuance of the holding of any Court, and to order by what name and in what Towns and Places a Court shall be held:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered that:—

(1) From and after the 1st day of April next, the County Court of Northumberland held at Belford, shall cease to be held at Belford, and the Jurisdiction and District now appertaining to the County Court of Northumberland held at Belford, shall, as from that date, be transferred to the County Court of Northumberland held at Berwick-upon-Tweed.

(2) From and after the 9th day of April next, the County Court of Cornwall held at St. Columb Major, shall cease to be held at St. Columb Major, and be held at Newquay, and the Jurisdiction and District now appertaining to the County Court of Cornwall held at St. Columb Major, shall, as from that date, be transferred to the County Court of Cornwall held at Newquay, to be established by this Order.

Almeric FitzRoy.
