

Army Contracts sell or deliver curried leather produced by him from rough Leather of the description aforesaid at a price exceeding the net cost of the rough Leather, labour and currying materials by more than 12½ per cent., such cost to be calculated after deducting all discounts and allowances received by him, and the Currier's sale price as herein determined to include all discounts and allowances made by him; and on any such sale or delivery by any Currier, the Currier shall allow by way of discount for cash payment within 30 days 2½ per cent. of the price calculated as aforesaid to the person or persons to whom such sale or delivery is to be made.

(iv) No person other than the Tanner or Currier thereof shall, without a permit issued by or on behalf of the Director of Army Contracts, sell or deliver Leather of the description aforesaid at a price exceeding the Tanner's or Currier's sale price therefor as determined by clauses (ii) and (iii) hereof respectively, provided that on any sale by any such person in respect of which no commission may have been allowed by any Tanner or Currier, the Leather may be sold by any such person at a price exceeding the Tanner's or Currier's sale price by 2½ per cent. thereof and no more.

3. Regulations 1 and 2 of the aforesaid Order of the Army Council of the 16th day of January, 1917, are hereby cancelled.

By Order of the Army Council.
