PURSUANT to an Order of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice, dated the 10th day of April, 1916, and made in the Matter of the trusts of the will of EMILY ANN HODGSON, deceased, Emery v. Jeanes (1916, H. 572), whereby the following inquiry was directed, namely:—"An inquiry what Nephews and Nieces of the testatrix Emily Ann Hodgson, and what Nephews and Nieces of her first Husband Herbert Napier, survived the testatrix or were born after her death and during the lifetime of her Husband Thomas Hodgson, and what children of her said Husband Thomas Hodgson survived the testatrix, and when such Nephews and Nieces and children were respectively born, and whether they are all living, or, if any of them are dead, when they respectively died, and who are the respective legal personal representatives of such of them as are dead." Now all persons claiming under the said inquiry are, by themselves or their Solicitors, on or before the 5th of May, 1917, to come in and enter their names and addresses in the book kept for that purpose in Room 317 at the Chambers of Mr. Justice Sargant and Mr. Justice Younger, at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, and prove their claims, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said order. Thursday, the 10th day of May, 1917 at 12.30 of the clock in the afternoon, at the said Chambers, Room No. 315, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the claims.—Dated this 28th day of March, 1917.

CHAS. HULBERT, Master of the Supreme Court.

NOTE.—The said testatrix, Emily Ann Hodgson, whose maiden name was Emily Ann Fox, died on the 2nd September, 1912, at Wyke Regis, Weymouth, in the county of Dorset. The children, if any, of her Brother Thomas Billen Fox may be interested. The said Herbert Napier's Father, James Napier, who died in 1852 at Minsterne Magna, in the said county of Dorset, married twice, but the name of his first Wife is unknown. His grandchildren (if any) by such first Wife may also be interested.
