

Charles John, Bishop of Chichester, (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, Churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said Church of Saint Andrew, Eastbourne, situate as aforesaid, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the Minister of the same Church for the time being: Provided always that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal Consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal Wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Andrew, Eastbourne, being:—

"All that part of the New Parish (sometime District Chapelry) of Christ Church, Eastbourne, in the County of Sussex, and in the Diocese of Chichester, which is bounded upon all sides as follows, that is to say:—upon the south-east by the sea, upon the north-east and upon the north by the Parish of Westham, upon the north-west by the Parish of Willingdon, upon part of the south-west by the New Parish of Saint Michael and All Angels, Ocklynge, Eastbourne, all in the said County and Diocese, and upon the remaining part of the south-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said New Parish of Saint Michael and All Angels, Ocklynge, Eastbourne, from the said New Parish of Christ Church, Eastbourne, at the southern end of Horsey Sewer where the boundary of the Municipal Borough of Eastbourne turns north-eastward along the middle of such Sewer, and extending thence south-eastward in a straight line for a distance of 35 chains or thereabouts to a point in the middle of the present north-western end of Woodgate Road, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of Woodgate Road for a distance of 3½ chains or thereabouts to its junction with the Road called Seaside almost opposite to the wall or fence forming the boundary between the houses and premises known as Numbers 311 and 313, Seaside, and extending thence south-eastward to and along the said wall or fence for a distance of 1¼ chains or thereabouts to its eastern end on the western side of the Roadway running along the backs of the Houses and premises situate on the eastern side of Seaside, and extending thence south-eastward, first to the junction of such Roadway with the Roadway running along the backs of the Houses and premises situate on the northern side of Beach Road, and then along the middle of the last-mentioned Roadway (thereby crossing Fairlight Road, Latimer Road, and Bexhill Road) for a distance of 10 chains or thereabouts to its junction with Sidley Road, and continuing thence south-eastward in precisely the same direction and in a straight line (thereby crossing Royal Parade East) for a distance of 18 chains or thereabouts to the sea."

And whereas the said Representation has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Chichester.
