ORDER OF THE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES.

(DATED 30TH APRIL 1917.)

MIDDLESBROUGH AND DISTRICT (SWINE-FEVER) ORDER OF 1917.

The Board of Agriculture and Fisheries, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in them under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1914, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Prohibition of Movement of Swine out of Certain Area.

1. No swine, fat or store, shall be moved out of the Area described in the Schedule hereto, except as expressly authorised by this Order: Provided that nothing in this Article shall be deemed to apply to the movement of swine where they are moved through such Area by railway from a place outside such Area to another place outside such Area without unnecessary delay and without the swine being untrucked within such Area.

Movement out of Area for Slaughter.

2.—(1.) Swine (not being in a Swine-Fever Infected Place) may be moved out of the Area described in the Schedule hereto to a bacon factory or slaughterhouse, or to any lairs, market or saleyard specially authorised by the Local Authority under the Swine-Fever (Regulation of Movement) Order of 1908 (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Order"), or the Swine-Fever (Movement from Ireland) Order of 1904, if accompanied by a licence (Form D) granted by an Inspector of the Local Authority of the District in which the premises from which the swine are to be moved are situate and subject to the following conditions (namely):—

(i.) The swine shall be marked by and at the expense of the owner by the painting with an indelible composition of red colour of a broad line down the back and another broad line across the loins of each of the swine, thus +, each line being not less than nine inches long.

(ii.) The swine shall be moved, by railway so far as is practicable, to the bacon factory, slaughterhouse, lairs, market, or saleyard specified in the Licence, and during such movement shall not be permitted to come in contact with swine not marked under this Article.

(2.) Swine may also be moved out of the Area described in the Schedule hereto to any market, fairground, or saleyard, if accompanied by a licence (Form A) authorising such movement, granted by an Inspector of the Local Authority of the District in which the market, fairground, or saleyard is situate. Before a licence is granted by an Inspector under this provision, the owner of the swine, or his agent authorised in writing for this purpose, shall sign, and deliver or send by post to the Inspector, a declaration (Form B), which shall not be effective until it is countersigned by a police officer of the district where the swine are, who, before countersigning the declaration, shall, so far as is practicable, satisfy himself as to the correctness of the statements contained therein. The declaration shall be retained by the Inspector granting the licence thereon.

(3.) Swine moved to any market, fairground, or saleyard with a licence under the preceding paragraph (2) of this Article, shall be moved from such premises only if accompanied by a licence (Form C) authorising such movement granted by an Inspector of the Local Authority of the District in which the market, fairground, or saleyard is situate and only to a bacon-factory or slaughterhouse specified in the licence, or to the premises from which the swine were moved to the market, fairground or saleyard.

(4.) Swine moved under this Article shall be moved by the nearest available route and without unnecessary delay, and where they are moved to a bacon-factory or slaughterhouse they shall be there detained until they are slaughtered.

(5.) Licences granted under this Article shall be in force for not more than eight days inclusive of the day of issue.

(6.) No licence under the principal Order shall be required for the movement into a Scheduled Area for the purposes of that Order of swine which are being moved under and in accordance with a licence granted under this Order.

Copies of Movement Licences to be sent to Local Authority of Place of Destination.

3. A copy of a licence which authorises movement of swine to premises in a District other than the District for which the person granting the licence acts as Inspector shall forthwith be sent by the Inspector to the Local Authority of the District in which the place of destination specified in the licence is situate.

Forms.

4. The Forms referred to in this Order are the Forms set forth in the First Schedule to the principal Order.

Licences after Completion of Movement.

5.—(1.) Where swine are moved with a licence under this Order to any lairs, market, fairground, or saleyard, the licence shall be
