

duty. Although wounded, he led his men in a most gallant manner, and consolidated the position won with great skill. He was again wounded. He has at all times set a splendid example of courage and determination.

Capt. Stanley Sextus Barrymore Harrison, R.A.M.C., attd. S. Staff. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He worked continuously for ten hours under very heavy fire, and was responsible for saving many lives. He displayed great courage and determination throughout. He has on many previous occasions done fine work.

Temp. Capt. Reginald Davies Hickson, Essex R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. With great coolness and a total disregard for danger he went forward under very heavy fire and personally superintended the withdrawal of his advanced parties at a most critical time.

Lt. Maurice Lake Hilder, R. Fus., Spec. Res.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He led his company in a most gallant manner and succeeded in capturing a strong enemy position. He set a fine example of courage and good leadership.

*Lt. (actg. Capt.) Francis Lord Charlton Hodson, Glouc. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He led his company most gallantly against a strong enemy redoubt, being twice wounded, and refused to be brought in till the wounded round him had been evacuated.

Temp. 2nd Lt. John Henry Hughes, E. Kent R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He organised bombing parties to repel enemy raiding parties whilst under very heavy fire. Later, although severely wounded, he continued to direct and encourage his men.

Lt. John Eustace Jarvis, North'n R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty during a raid on the enemy's trenches. He led his platoon in a most gallant manner, killing 28 of the enemy and capturing 21 prisoners. He has at all times set a splendid example.

Temp. 2nd Lt. (actg. Capt.) Robert Wilkie Jones, L'pool R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty when in command of a raiding party. He led his men with great gallantry and inflicted many casualties on the enemy. He trained the party for the raid and its success was due to his skilful handling and daring leadership.

2nd Lt. Russell Medley Leake, N. Lan. R., Spec. Res.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He made three most gallant attempts to rescue a wounded officer and eventually succeeded in getting him to a place of safety. He set a splendid example of courage and determination.

Temp. 2nd Lt. William Drummond Matheson, Genl. List and R.F.C.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty in leading a formation of eight machines against 16 of the enemy. He drove down one hostile machine and eventually succeeded in landing his machine safely in spite of being attacked by several enemy machines. On other occasions he has brought down four hostile machines.

2nd Lt. Hugh McLean Millar, High. L.I., attd. Glouc. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. Accompanied by two men he carried out a daring reconnaissance under very heavy fire and brought back most valuable information. He set a splendid example throughout the operation.

Temp. 2nd Lt. Reginald Ernest Minnis, Leic. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He led his party in a most gallant manner and was the first to enter the enemy trenches. He carried out the task allotted to him with conspicuous success and captured five prisoners.

Temp. 2nd Lt. Gordon Reid Morton, Cam'n Highrs.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty when in command of a raiding party. He led his men in a most gallant manner and destroyed a hostile machine gun. Later, he carried a wounded man back to our lines.

Capt. Edward Frank Nichol, N. Lan. R., Spec. Res.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty during a raid on the enemy's trenches. Although severely wounded he gave the withdrawal signal at a critical time, thereby undoubtedly saving many casualties.

Temp. Lt. Robert Anthony O'Donovan, Worc. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He performed consistent good work throughout the day and was largely responsible for the success of the operations. He set a splendid example of courage and determination.

Temp. 2nd Lt. Edward George Passingham, North'd Fus.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He led a raiding party with great courage and determination through uncut wire and succeeded in entering the enemy's front line trenches, where he personally shot three of the enemy.

Lt. (actg. Capt.) John Eric Macdonald Pierson, North'n R., Spec. Res.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty during a raid on the enemy's trenches. He, accompanied by another officer, with great personal courage reorganised the raiding party under very heavy fire. Later, he effected a successful withdrawal under the most trying conditions.

Temp. 2nd Lt. James Alexander Prevel, North'n R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He took command of his company