

FOURTH SUPPLEMENT TO The London Gazette

Of FRIDAY, the 25th of MAY, 1917.

Published by Authority.

The Gazette is registered at the General Post Office for transmission by Inland Post as a newspaper. The postage rate to places within the United Kingdom, for each copy, is one halfpenny for the first 6 ozs., and an additional halfpenny for each subsequent 6 ozs. or part thereof. For places abroad the rate is a halfpenny for every 2 ounces, except in the case of Canada, to which the Canadian Magazine Postage rate applies.

SATURDAY, 26 MAY, 1917.

War Office,
26th May, 1917.

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to award a Bar to the Distinguished Service Order to:—

Lt. (temp. Capt.) Allan Machin Wilkinson, D.S.O., Hamp. R., and R.F.C.

For great skill and gallantry. He came down to a low altitude and destroyed a hostile scout which was attacking one of our machines, the pilot of which had been wounded, thereby saving it. In one day he shot down and destroyed six hostile machines. He has destroyed eight hostile machines during the past ten days and has displayed exceptional skill and gallantry in leading offensive patrols.

(D.S.O. gazetted October 20, 1916.)

*Capt. (temp. Maj.) Henry St. George Stewart Scott, D.S.O., Ind. Army.

For conspicuous gallantry and determination when with 250 men he captured 373 of the enemy. He was twice held up by strong entrenched picquets, who were covering parties attempting to cross the river in pontoons, but he pushed on under heavy fire, inflicting great loss on those crossing and prevented any further attempt at escape.

(D.S.O. gazetted October 29, 1915.)

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the appointments of the undermentioned Officers to be Companions of the Distinguished Service Order in recognition of their gallantry and devotion to duty in the Field:—

Temp. 2nd Lt. Clive Oliver Bertram Beale, Gen. List and R.F.C.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He made two most gallant attempts to carry out a special mission, which involved a night flight of about fifty miles, in very adverse weather. Although unsuccessful, he showed throughout the greatest courage and determination to achieve his mission.

Temp. 2nd Lt. (temp. Capt.) Augustus Wieland Bird, Gen. List and R.F.C.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty on many occasions. When on artillery patrol he succeeded in reporting 13 active batteries, observing fire on and silencing several of them. On another occasion he attacked and scattered with machine gun fire two parties of the enemy which were seen forming up. This operation was carried out for a period of 2½ hours in very adverse weather conditions.

2nd Lt. William Horace Curry, S. Staffs. R., Spec. Res.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He collected men from three different companies and led them forward as far as it was possible to advance. Later, although nearly surrounded by the enemy, he succeeded in consolidating and maintaining his position. On another occasion he took command of two companies and handled them in a most able manner.

Maj. (temp. Lt.-Col.) Harold James Norman Davis, Conn. Rang., attd. High. L.I.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty when in command of his battalion. He took charge of a critical situation in the most able manner, and under very heavy fire personally directed the movements of his battalion. He successfully occupied and consolidated his objective.

*Capt. (temp. Maj.) Hereward de Havilland, R.F.C., Spec. Res.

For conspicuous gallantry and skill. He attacked and drove down a hostile machine. This is the second enemy machine he has destroyed. He has rendered invaluable service throughout the operations, and has at all times set a magnificent example.

*Temp. Capt. Claude Dawson Hempson, Suff. R., attd. R. Lan. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. Although his right flank was exposed, he held and consolidated the captured trenches for 16 hours against determined enemy bombing attacks. It was mainly owing to his untiring energy and organising powers that the position was maintained and the enemy finally driven back.

Temp. Capt. (actg. Maj.) Walter Mowbray Percival Johnston, R.F.A.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty when in command of his battery. He established himself, before dawn, on the remains of a tree, a short distance from our front trenches, and, in full view of the enemy, remained there for several hours directing the fire of his battery by telephone until the whole of the enemy's wire had been effectively destroyed.

*Temp. 2nd Lt. (actg. Capt.) Cornelius Bernard O'Connor, N. Lanc. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. His company was exposed to heavy rifle and enfilade machine-gun fire. By his skilful handling he managed to consolidate the position, despite heavy casualties and several determined efforts on the part of the enemy to drive him out. He eventually captured 90 prisoners.

AUSTRALIAN IMPERIAL FORCE.

Maj. James Alexander Robinson, Aust. Infy.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He supervised the assembly of the battalion previous to the attack. After the attack had been launched he went forward and sent back most valuable reports on the situation. He showed great bravery and coolness throughout, and his presence in the front line had a most cheering and marked effect on all present.

* The names marked with an asterisk appeared in the London Gazette dated 17th Mar., 1917, without deeds.

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to award a Bar to the Military Cross to the undermentioned Officers:—

Temp. Capt. Reginald Peter Nutcombe Buckland Bluett, M.C., R.A.M.C., attd. High. L.I.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He displayed great judgment and endurance in organising the stretcher-bearers in the attack. He worked continuously throughout the day, exposed for many hours to very heavy hostile fire.

(M.C. gazetted March 30, 1916.)

Temp. 2nd Lt. John Brown, M.C., R. Ir. Rif.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He went forward with a machine-gun team and some men of his platoon, and engaged two enemy machine-guns, one of which was captured. He set a fine example of courage and initiative.

(M.C. gazetted September 22, 1916.)

*Lt. Norman Kenneth Cowey, M.C., R.F.A.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty when acting as Forward Observing Officer. He advanced with the attacking troops, and established an observation post under heavy fire in an exposed position, from where he was able to send back early and valuable information. Later, he carried out a valuable reconnaissance.

(M.C. gazetted December 22, 1916.)

Temp. Lt. Percy Charles Crowder, M.C., R.E.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He accompanied the attack to reconnoitre for sites for strong points, sited the line to be consolidated, and returned to construct the strong points, which were completed in spite of heavy fire. Later, he went forward to a hostile battery which had been abandoned and removed the sights from the guns.

(M.C. gazetted September 26, 1916.)

Temp. Capt. Samuel Hugh Duff, M.C., Devon. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He led his company in the most gallant manner, and, in spite of very difficult conditions, succeeded in gaining his objective. He set a splendid example of courage and initiative.

(M.C. gazetted July 27, 1916.)

2nd Lt. (temp. Lt.) Cecil Frederick Holland, M.C., Glouc. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He organised a party and succeeded in capturing an enemy machine-gun, clearing the enemy out of their position, thereby enabling his company to advance. He was severely wounded.

(M.C. gazetted September 22, 1916.)

Capt. Robert Oxspring, M.C., York. L.I., Spec. Res., and R.F.C.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty on several occasions. He has brought down three hostile machines, and in addition has forced several others to land. He has at all times set a splendid example of courage and initiative.

(M.C. gazetted January 14, 1916.)

Lt. Edmund Rait-Kerr, M.C., R.E.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He displayed great courage and initiative in getting his party in a trench at a critical time, thereby undoubtedly saving many casualties. He was severely wounded.

(M.C. gazetted June 3, 1916.)

2nd Lt. (actg. Capt.) Geoffrey Robert Wallace, M.C., Worc. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He led his company in a most gallant manner and succeeded in reaching his final objective. Later, he took over the whole battalion line and reorganised the defence of the captured position.

(M.C. gazetted January 26, 1917.)

Capt. Christopher Probart Whitaker, M.C., Dor. R., Spec. Res.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He gallantly led his company forward under the most intense hostile fire, and succeeded in capturing an important enemy strong point.

(M.C. gazetted June 3, 1916.)

His Majesty the KING has been graciously pleased to confer the Military Cross on the undermentioned Officers and Warrant Officers in recognition of their gallantry and devotion to duty in the Field:—

Temp. Lt. Wilfred C. Adams, R. Berks. R.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty during a raid on the enemy's trenches. He handled his men in a most gallant manner, and was largely responsible for the success of the raid. Later, he assisted in rescuing a wounded officer.
