

Patent to be passed under the Seal appointed to be kept and made use of in the place of the Great Seal of Scotland, granting a Charter of Incorporation to The Carnegie United Kingdom Trustees.

Whereas by Proclamation dated the 9th day of September, 1914, called the Trading with the Enemy Proclamation No. 2, certain prohibitions as therein more specifically set forth were imposed upon all persons therein referred to:

And whereas by Proclamation dated the 8th day of October, 1914, the Trading with the Enemy Proclamation No. 2 was amended as therein more specifically set forth:

And whereas by Proclamation dated the 7th day of January, 1915, the Trading with the Enemy Proclamation No. 2, as amended by the last-recited Proclamation, was amended as therein more specifically appears:

And whereas by Proclamation dated the 16th day of February, 1915, it was recited that certain territory forming part of Our territory or of that of an Allied or Neutral State is or may be in the effective military occupation of an Enemy, and it was provided that the Proclamations for the time being in force relating to Trading with the Enemy shall apply to territory in hostile occupation as they apply to an Enemy country:

And whereas by Section (4) of the last-mentioned Proclamation it is further provided that nothing in the said Proclamation shall be taken to prohibit anything which may be expressly permitted by Our Licence or by a Licence given on Our behalf by a Secretary of State or the Board of Trade or the Lords Commissioners of Our Treasury, whether such Licences be specially granted to individuals or be announced as applying to classes of persons, or to prohibit any special arrangements which may be made by any such Licence or otherwise with Our Authority for special treatment of any occupied territory or persons in any such occupied territory entitled to such special treatment:

And whereas by Proclamation dated the 14th day of September, 1915, it was declared as follows:

For the purposes of the Proclamations for the time being in force relating to Trading with the Enemy, the expression "Enemy," notwithstanding anything in the said Proclamations, is hereby declared to include, and to have included, any incorporated company or body of persons (wherever incorporated) carrying on business in an Enemy country or in any territory for the time being in hostile occupation.

And whereas certain portions of the territories of Our Allies are in hostile occupation, and under the foregoing provisions the Trading with the Enemy Proclamations apply, and it is desirable that the Licence hereinafter referred to should be granted:

Now, therefore, the Board of Trade, acting in pursuance of the powers hereinbefore referred to and of every other power them hereunto enabling, do on behalf of His Majesty grant Licence to all persons or bodies of persons resident, carrying on business, or being in the United Kingdom to pay any moneys owing by them to persons or bodies of persons being persons or bodies of persons of British or Allied nationality resident or carrying on business in territory belonging to Our Allies in hostile occupation not being persons or bodies of persons resident or carrying on business in enemy territory provided that payment is made into a special account in the name of the creditor at a bank in the United Kingdom which bank has given an undertaking that so long as the hostile occupation of the territory in which the creditor resides or carries on business continues no money will be allowed to be withdrawn from such special account except under Licence given on behalf of His Majesty's Government and no charge on the account will be allowed or recognised without such Licence.

Dated this 2nd day of June, 1917.

H. Llewellyn Smith,
Secretary to the Board of Trade.
