Chancery of the Order of St. Michael and St. George.

*Downing Street,
 15 June, 1917.*

The KING has been graciously pleased to give directions for the following appointments to the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George in recognition of the services mentioned in the Commander-in-Chief's despatch:—

To be additional members of the Third Class, or Companions of the said Most Distinguished Order:—

Captain Adolphus Huddleston Williamson, M.V.O., R.N.

Was in command of H.M.S. "Vengeance" and in charge of organisation of landing parties in the coastal operations. The shooting of "Vengeance" was remarkably accurate, and contributed largely to the success of the operations.

Captain Alfred Charles Sykes, R.N.

In command of H.M.S. "Challenger," and frequently carried out duties of Senior Naval Officer. The shooting of "Challenger" during the night bombardment of Dar-es-Salaam on 21st August assisted largely in bringing about the surrender.

Admiralty, 15 June, 1917.

The KING has been graciously pleased to give orders for the following appointments to the Distinguished Service Order and for the award of the Distinguished Service Cross to
