FRIDAY, 22 JUNE, 1917.

Admiralty, S.W.
22nd June, 1917.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the award of the Victoria Cross to the undermentioned:—

Act. Lieut. (now Lieut.-Cdr.) William Edward Sanders, R.N.R.

In recognition of his conspicuous gallantry, consummate coolness, and skill in command of one of H.M. ships in action.

Lie.-Corpl. Walter Richard Parker, R.M.L.I., No. Po./S. 229, Royal Naval Division.

In recognition of his most conspicuous bravery and devotion to duty in the course of the Dardanelles operations.

On the night of 30th April/1st May, 1915, a message asking for ammunition, water and medical stores was received from an isolated fire trench at Gaba Tepe.

A party of Non-commissioned Officers and men were detailed to carry water and ammu-munition, and, in response to a call for a volunteer from among the stretcher bearers, Parker at once came forward; he had during the previous three days displayed conspicuous bravery and energy under fire whilst in charge of the Battalion stretcher bearers.

Several men had already been killed in a previous attempt to bring assistance to the men holding the fire trench. To reach this trench it was necessary to traverse an area at least four hundred yards wide, which was completely exposed and swept by rifle fire. It was already daylight when the party emerged from shelter and at once one of the men was wounded: Parker organised a stretcher party and then going on alone succeeded in reaching the fire trench, all the water and ammunition carriers being either killed or wounded.

After his arrival he rendered assistance to the wounded in the trench, displaying extreme courage and remaining cool and collected in very trying circumstances. The trench had finally to be evacuated and Parker helped to remove and attend the wounded, although he himself was seriously wounded during this operation.

HONOURS FOR THE ROYAL NAVAL AIR SERVICE.

The KING has been graciously pleased to give orders for the following appointments to the Distinguished Service Order:—

Flt. Lieut. Christopher John Galpin, R.N.A.S.
 Flt. Lieut. Herbert George Brackley, D.S.C., R.N.A.S.

In recognition of his services on the morning of 14th April, 1917, when he carried out a raid on Bruges Harbour with good results in spite of difficult conditions. Great credit is due to him for his persistence and determination. He also dropped bombs on Ostend seaplane base on the night of 3-4 May, 1917, making two trips.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the award of the Distinguished Service Cross to the undermentioned Officers:—

Flt. Cdr. Philip Leslie Holmes, R.N.A.S.
 Flt. Sub-Lieut. (now act. Flt. Cdr.) Herbert Gardner Travers, R.N.A.S.

In recognition of his services with the Army in France. This Officer has himself brought down three hostile aeroplanes completely out of control, and has taken part in two other combats in which enemy machines were forced to land in our lines. He has always shown the greatest determination in leading his flight on offensive patrols, and has on many occasions driven down superior numbers of hostile machines.

- Flt. Lieut. Edward J. Cooper, R.N.A.S.
 Flt. Sub-Lieut. Charles Reginald Morrish, R.N.A.S.
 Flt. Sub-Lieut. Henry George Boswell, R.N.A.S.
 Flt. Lieut. Charles Langston Scott, R.N.A.S.
 Flt. Lieut. Walter Travers Swire Williams, R.N.A.S.
 Flt. Lieut. Thomas Grey Culling, R.N.A.S.

In recognition of his services on the 23rd April, 1917, when with two other machines he engaged a formation of nine hostile scouts and two-seater machines. Two two-seater machines were shot down, one of them by Flt. Lieut. Culling unassisted.

- Flt. Lieut. Francis Dominic Casey, R.N.A.S.

For conspicuous bravery and skill in attacking hostile aircraft on numerous occasions. On April 21st, 1917, he attacked a hostile two-seater machine at a range varying from 40 to 100 yards, and brought it down completely out of control. On April 23rd, 1917, on four different occasions during one flight, he attacked hostile machines, one of which was driven down in a spinning nose dive and another turning over on its side went down completely out of control. This Officer has driven down four machines completely out of control, and forced many others down.

- Flt. Lieut. Charles Adrian Maitland-Heriot, R.N.A.S.
 Flt. Sub-Lieut. John Roland Secretan Devlin, R.N.A.S.
 Sub-Lieut. Rupert Forbes-Bentley, R.N.V.R.

In recognition of their services in a bombing attack on the Kuleli Burgas Bridge on 4th January, 1917, when several direct hits were scored and considerable damage done. The machines were exposed to anti-aircraft, rifle and machine gun fire during the attack, and also on the return journey.

- Flt. Sub-Lieut. Leo Philip Paine, R.N.A.S.
 Flt. Sub-Lieut. Robert Leckie, R.N.A.S.
 Flt. Sub-Lieut. Basil Deacon Hobbs, R.N.A.S.
 Flt. Sub-Lieut. Charles McNicoll, R.N.A.S.
 Flt. Sub-Lieut. Valentine Edgar Sieveking, R.N.A.S.

In recognition of his services on the night of 3rd to 4th May, 1917, when he dropped bombs on Ostend seaplane base with good results, making two trips.

- Flt. Sub-Lieut. Harold Thomas Mellings, R.N.A.S.

In recognition of his services on the 19th March, 1917, when he attacked a hostile aeroplane with great gallantry at heights varying from 12,000 to 2,000 feet.

- Flt. Sub-Lieut. Frederick Earle Fraser, R.N.A.S.
 Flt. Lieut. (act. Flt. Cdr.) Charles Dawson Booker.

For special gallantry in the field on numerous occasions, especially the following:—

On 26th April, 1917, he went to the assistance of some of our photographic machines, which were about to be attacked by twelve Albatross scouts. One of these he fired on at close range, and brought it down out of control.

On 24th May, 1917, whilst on patrol, he went to the assistance of a formation of our machines, which was being attacked by nine hostile scouts. He attacked one of the latter, which was driven down in flames and crashed. Later in the same day he attacked and drove down out of control another hostile machine.

On numerous other occasions he has attacked enemy machines and driven them down out of control.

- Flt.-Lieut. George Goodman Simpson.

For gallantry and able leadership in aerial fighting, notably on the following occasions:—

On 3rd May, 1917, he drove down a hostile aeroplane out of control.

On 11th May, 1917, while on offensive patrol with five other machines, he attacked six hostile aircraft. One of these he brought down out of control, and a few minutes later he attacked another at close range and brought it down in flames.

On 23rd May, 1917, he led a formation of five machines to attack at least twice that number of hostile aeroplanes. Both formations became split up, and a general fight ensued. Five times during the combat he drove off hostile aeroplanes from another of our machines, and one of those which he attacked was seen to go down in a spin.

The undermentioned Officers have been awarded a Bar to the Distinguished Service Cross for subsequent acts of gallantry:—

- Flt.-Cdr. Theodore Douglas Hallam, D.S.C., R.N.A.S.

(The award of the Distinguished Service Cross was announced in the London Gazette of 15th December, 1915.)

- Flt.-Cdr. Roderic Stanley Dallas, D.S.C., R.N.A.S.

In recognition of his services on the 23rd April, 1917, when with two other machines he engaged a formation of nine hostile scouts and two-seater machines. Two two-seater machines were shot down, one of them by Flt.-Cdr. Dallas unassisted.

(The award of the Distinguished Service Cross was announced in the London Gazette of 6th September, 1916.)

- Flt.-Lieut. Charles Langston Scott, D.S.C., R.N.A.S.

- Flt.-Lieut. Robert Alexander Little, D.S.C., R.N.A.S.

For exceptional daring and skill in aerial fighting on many occasions, of which the following are examples:—

On the 28th April, 1917, he destroyed an Aviatik; on the 29th April he shot down a hostile scout, which crashed. On the 30th April, with three other machines he went up after hostile machines and saw a big fight going on between fighter escorts and hostile aircraft. Flt.-Lieut. Little attacked one at fifty yards range, and brought it down out of control. A few minutes later he attacked a red scout with a larger machine than the rest. This machine was handled with great skill, but by clever manœuvring Flt.-Lieut. Little got into a good position and shot it down out of control.

(The award of the Distinguished Service Cross was announced in the London Gazette of 16th February, 1917.)
