HONOURS FOR MISCELLANEOUS SERVICES.

*Chancery of the Order of Saint Michael and Saint George,
Downing Street, 11th August, 1917.*

The KING has been graciously pleased to give orders for the following appointments to the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, in recognition of valuable services rendered in connection with the War:—

To be Additional Members of the Third Class, or Companions, of the said Most Distinguished Order:—

Lieut.-Cdr. (Act. Cdr.) Oliver Locker-Lampson, R.N.V.R., M.P.

In recognition of his services in command of a Naval Armoured Car Squadron throughout the war. Cdr. Locker-Lampson raised this force at the beginning of the war, and has commanded it throughout its operations in Belgium, Persia, Armenia, the Dobrudja, and Roumania with great zeal and gallantry, and has taken part personally in most of the fighting.

Capt. Bertram Fox Hayes, R.D., R.N.R.

Admiralty, 11th August, 1917.

The KING has been graciously pleased to give orders for the appointment of the under-mentioned Officers:—

To be Companions of the Distinguished Service Order.

Lieut.-Cdr. Henry George Hamilton Tandy, R.N.

In recognition of the promptitude, courage and resource which he displayed when one of H.M. ships was torpedoed. Lieut.-Cdr. Tandy was in his bunk at the time of the explosion, but by the prompt and resourceful steps which he took on arriving on deck, succeeded in bringing his ship safely into harbour.

Staff Surg. Gilbert Bodley Scott, R.N.

In recognition of his services with a Naval Armoured Car Squadron in France, Russia, Turkey and Roumania. On active service he has shown a devotion to duty and a forgetfulness of self which cannot be too highly praised.

Lieut. William King, R.N.V.R.

Lieut. Oswald Szulezewski, R.N.V.R.

For gallant and devoted services with Inland Water Transport throughout the operations in Mesopotamia. They have navigated their ships at high speed, night and day, in all weathers with marked zeal and determination, and have often been under fire.

Lieut. Walter Dorling Smiles, R.N.V.R.

In recognition of his services with a Naval Armoured Car Squadron in France, Belgium, Persia and Roumania. He was wounded on the 28th November, 1916, in the Dobrudja. On coming out of hospital he volunteered to lead a flying squadron for special duty round Braila, and his gallantry on this occasion was the chief factor of success. On one occasion, when in action with a light armoured car, he got out twice to start it up under heavy fire. Being struck by a bullet he rolled into a ditch and remained there all day under fire, having sent back a message to the Russian Colonel in command asking him to allow none of his soldiers in any circumstances to risk their lives to save his car. He did not escape until night.

To receive a Bar to the Distinguished Service Order.

Cdr. Alexander Riall Wadham Woods, D.S.O., R.N.

In recognition of his services in command of the landing party at the capture of Salif on the 12th June, 1917. The place was attacked at dawn and captured after a three hours' resistance at the cost of only two casualties to the attacking force. This was largely due to the skilful manner in which Cdr. Woods conducted the advance.

To receive the Distinguished Service Cross.

Lieut. William Edward Senior, R.N.R.

In recognition of his services in mine sweeping operations between the 1st July, 1916, and the 31st March, 1917.

Sub-Lieut. Alistair Gordon Cameron, R.N.R.

For his services in oversea submarines in enemy waters during 1915-16.

Lieut. Wright Charles Walter Ingle, R.N.V.R.

For services with a Naval Armoured Car Squadron in France, Belgium, Turkey and Roumania. On the 2nd December, 1916, he showed conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty when his car was bogged and his leg was shattered by a bullet whilst he was for the second time starting up the engine. He took refuge in a shell hole and crawled back to the Russian trenches on his back during the night, taking twelve hours to accomplish the distance.

Lieut. Edwin Follett, R.N.V.R.

Lieut. Edward Corfrae Ruft D'Eye, R.N.V.R.

Sub-Lieut. (now Lieut.) Robert Cowley, R.N.V.R.

Sub-Lieut. Stanley Webber, R.N.V.R.

Lieut. Isaac John Duncan, R.I.M.

Lieut. Thomas Joseph Farrell, R.I.M. (now Capt., R.E.).

Lieut. Joseph Noel Metcalf, R.I.M. (now Capt., R.E.).

Sub-Lieut. Arcel Price Llewellyn, R.I.M.

In recognition of zeal, devotion to duty and gallantry whilst serving in River Steamers for long periods during the operations in Mesopotamia.

Capt. Samuel Davison, Mercantile Marine.

For the conspicuous zeal and gallantry which he displayed on discovering an enemy mine. Capt. Davison took steps to warn shipping of the possible presence of a mine-field, and towed the mine for several miles out of the route of traffic. He then remained secured to the moorings of the mine until one of H.M. ships arrived on the scene, when he actively assisted in the recovery of the mine.

To receive the Conspicuous Gallantry Medal.

Serjt. James Francis McLoughlin, R.M.L.I., Po. 8873.

For conspicuous gallantry at the capture of Salif on the 12 June, 1917. Just before the surrender he came across 11 unwounded and one wounded Turkish soldiers. Followed by one petty officer, Serjt. McLoughlin jumped among them, shot one, and made seven surrender.

A.B. Francis George Noble, O.N. 205234 (Po.).

For conspicuous gallantry at the capture of Salif on the 12 June, 1917. When a private of Marines was fatally wounded, and was lying in an exposed position, Noble went out from cover and brought him in. His behaviour throughout was most praiseworthy.

Pte. Henry George Bartlett, R.M.L.I., Po. 15558.

HONOURS FOR THE ROYAL NAVAL AIR SERVICE.

The KING has been graciously pleased to give orders for the appointment of the under-mentioned Officers:—

To be Companions of the Distinguished Service Order.

Flt. Lieut. Robert Alexander Little, D.S.C., R.N.A.S.

For gallantry in action and for exceptional skill and daring in aerial combats. Since the 9th May, 1917, besides having driven off numerous artillery aeroplanes and damaged six hostile machines, he has destroyed six others. On the 26th June, 1917, an Aviatik being seen from the aerodrome he went up to attack it. He engaged it and fired a burst at close range, and the enemy machine stalled and went down in flames.

Flt. Lieut. Raymond Collishaw, D.S.C., R.N.A.S.

For conspicuous bravery and skill in successfully leading attacks against hostile aircraft.

Since the 10th June, 1917, Flt. Lieut. Collishaw has himself brought down four machines completely out of control and driven down two others with their planes shot away.

Whilst on an offensive patrol on the morning of the 15th June, 1917, he forced down a hostile scout in a nose dive. Later, on the same day, he drove down one hostile two-seater machine completely out of control, one hostile scout in a spin, and a third machine with two of its planes shot away.

On the 24th June, 1917, he engaged four enemy scouts, driving one down in a spin and another with two of its planes shot away; the latter machine was seen to crash.

To receive a Bar to the Distinguished Service Order.

Sqdrn. Cdr. Charles Henry Butler, D.S.O., D.S.C., R.N.A.S.

For the skill and gallantry with which he attacked a formation of fifteen hostile machines returning from a raid on England. Closing on one machine, he engaged it at close quarters. Presently he saw this machine nose dive, crash into the sea and sink. Meanwhile he had engaged a second machine, but broke off the engagement to follow down the first machine. Afterwards he lost sight of the enemy formation and returned to his aerodrome.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the award of the Distinguished Service Cross to the undermentioned officers:—

Flt. Cdr. Alexander Macdonald Shook, R.N.A.S.

Flt. Lieut. Arnold Jaques Chadwick, R.N.A.S. (since reported drowned).

Flt. Sub-Lieut. Albert James Enstone, R.N.A.S.

Flt. Sub-Lieut. Langley Frank Willard Smith, R.N.A.S. (since missing).

For exceptional gallantry and remarkable skill and courage whilst serving with the R.N.A.S. at Dunkirk during May and June, 1917, in repeatedly attacking and destroying hostile aircraft.

Flt. Lieut. Cecil Hill Darley, R.N.A.S.

For conspicuous skill and gallantry on the night of the 2nd July, 1917. One of his engines having seized whilst he was over Bruges, he dropped his bombs on the objective and managed to fly his machine home on one engine and effected a safe landing on the aerodrome.

Flt. Sub-Lieut. (now Flt. Lieut.) John Edward Scott, R.N.A.S.

For the skill and gallantry with which he engaged a hostile machine returning from an air raid on England. Descending to 8,000 feet, he fired continuously until the enemy machine lost control, descended in a spinning nose dive, and crashed into the sea.

Flt. Sub-Lieut. Ellis Vair Reed, R.N.A.S. (since missing).

In recognition of his services on the following occasions:—

On the 6th June, 1917, he attacked and drove down one of four hostile scouts. This machine dived nose first into the ground and was destroyed.

On the afternoon of the 15th June, 1917, he was leading a patrol of three scouts and encountered a formation of ten enemy machines. During the combat which ensued he forced one machine down completely out of control. Next he attacked at a range of about 30 yards another hostile scout. The pilot of this machine was killed, and it went down completely out of control.

This officer has at all times shown the greatest bravery and determination.

Flt. Sub-Lieut. Edward Robert Barker, R.N.A.S.

In recognition of his services on the occasion of an air raid on the Solway works at Zeebrugge on the night of the 15th-16th July, 1917, when bombs were dropped on the objective with good results.

Flt. Sub-Lieut. Rowan Heywood Daly, R.N.A.S.

For skill and gallantry in attacking enemy aircraft returning from a raid on England. After a long chase he engaged and brought down one machine in flames. Afterwards he engaged a second machine, but his gun jammed, and though he continued the pursuit to the enemy coast, he failed to clear the jamb, and was obliged to return to his aerodrome.

Flt. Lieut. Reginald Rhys Soar, R.N.A.S.

For courage and skill as a scout pilot. On 23rd May, 1917, he attacked a two-seater artillery machine, and as the result of a well thought out attack brought the machine down out of control.

On 12th June, 1917, he brought down two enemy machines out of control.

On 29th June, 1917, in company with Flt. Lieut. Little, he attacked and brought down an Albatross scout.

On 3rd July, 1917, whilst leading an offensive patrol, a formation of seven Albatross Scouts was engaged, and he brought down one, out of control.

On 13th July, 1917, in company with Flt. Lieut. Little, he attacked and drove down out of control one two-seater machine, following it down to within 1,000 feet of the ground.

To receive a Bar to the Distinguished Service Cross.

Flt. Cdr. Robert John Orton Compston, D.S.C., R.N.A.S.

For gallantry in action and for very good work in driving away German artillery aeroplanes.

On the 12th June, 1917, with three other machines, he attacked six hostile scouts. He got close to one, and shot it down out of control.

On the 16th June, 1917, he attacked and brought down a two-seater Aviatik.

On the 3rd July, 1917, he attacked two Aviatiks, which he drove down and forced to land.

Flt. Lieut. John Edward Sharman, D.S.C., R.N.A.S.

For courage and skill in attacking enemy aircraft. On the evening of the 14th June, 1917, while on an offensive patrol with three other scouts, he observed five Albatross Scouts. He dived on one of these, firing from his machine gun at about 50 feet range. The Scout then went down in a spin.

On the 24th June, 1917, with six other machines, he attacked fifteen Albatross Scouts. After a combat at close range he destroyed one of these, its right plane and tail plane falling off.
