

MOTOR CAR ACT, 1903.

FARINGDON, COUNTY OF BEKKS.

Notice is hereby given that the Local Government Board, by an Order dated the 7th day of August, 1917, have made a Regulation under section 9 of the Motor Car Act, 1903, which will come into operation on the 27th day of August, 1917, limiting to ten miles per hour the speed at which a motor car may be driven within the limits comprising the undermentioned roads or parts of roads in the town of Faringdon:

So much of the London Road as extends from its junction with London Street to a point in the road 50 yards east of its junction with Stanford Road;

So much of Stanford Road as extends from its junction with London Street to a point in the road 50 yards south-east of that junction;

London Street and the Market Place;

So much of Gloucester Street as extends from its junction with Marlborough Street to a point in the road 75 yards west of that junction;

Marlborough Street and so much of Coxwell Road as extends from its junction with Marlborough Street to a point in the road 50 yards south-west of its junction with Station Road;

So much of Church Street as extends from its junction with Market Place to its junction with Burford Road; and

So much of Burford Road as extends from its junction with Church Street to a point in the road 25 yards north of that junction.

Local Government Board,
Whitehall, S.W. 1.

General Order of the Local Government Board.
—Order under the Defence of the Realm Regulations.

THE LOCAL AUTHORITIES (HOUSEHOLD COAL DISTRIBUTION) ORDER, 1917.

To the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled:—

To the Councils of the several Metropolitan Boroughs;—

To the Councils of the several Municipal Boroughs or other Urban Districts and Rural Districts wholly or in part within the Metropolitan Police District;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

Whereas by Regulations numbered 2J and 2JJ of the Defence of the Realm Regulations, We, the Local Government Board, may, by arrangement with the Board of Trade, confer and impose on any local authorities and their officers any powers and duties necessary to enable them to provide for the due discharge of any functions assigned to local authorities by certain orders made by the Board of Trade under the Defence of the Realm Regulations;

And whereas the Board of Trade have in pursuance of the said Regulation numbered 2JJ made the Household Coal Distribution Order, 1917:

Now therefore, in pursuance of Our powers in that behalf, and by arrangement with the Board of Trade, We hereby Order as follows:—

ARTICLE I.—In these Regulations, unless the contrary intention appears:—

(a) The expression "Local Authority" means, as the case may be, the Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London in Common Council assembled, the Council of a Metropolitan Borough, the Council of a Municipal Borough or other Urban District, or the Council of a Rural District.

(b) The "District" of the Local Authority means, as the case may be, the District subject to the jurisdiction of the Local Authority for the purposes of the Public Health (London) Act, 1891, or of the Public Health Act, 1875, so far as the same is situated within the Metropolitan Police District, or any District or part of a District outside the Metropolitan Police District to which the Household Coal Distribution Order, 1917, applies or may be extended.

ARTICLE II.—We hereby confer and impose upon the Local Authority and upon such of their officers as they may designate or appoint for the purpose the powers and duties necessary to provide for the due discharge of the functions assigned to Local Authorities by the Household Coal Distribution Order, 1917, within their District, in conformity with the Defence of the Realm Regulations.

ARTICLE III.—Any expenses incurred by a Local Authority in the execution of this Order shall be defrayed in like manner as if the expenses had been incurred in the execution of the Public Health Act, 1875, or the Public Health (London) Act, 1891, as the case may be.

ARTICLE IV.—This Order may be cited as "The Local Authorities (Household Coal Distribution) Order, 1917."

Given under the Seal of Office of the Local Government Board, this Tenth day of August, in the year One thousand nine hundred and seventeen.
