

ANNA DEBORAH RICHARDSON, Deceased.

Pursuant to the Act of Parliament 22 and 23 Vict., c. 35.

NOTICE is hereby given, that all creditors and others persons having any claims or demands against the estate of Anna Deborah Richardson, late of Hough Folds, Crasmere, in the county of Westmorland, Spinster (who died on the 5th day of August, 1872, and whose will was proved in the Carlisle District Registry of the Probate Division of His Majesty's High Court of Justice, on the 2nd day of October, 1872, by Caroline Richardson (the executrix therein named), who died on the 8th day of July, 1916, and cessate probate of whose will was granted to John Gregory White, M.D. (the surviving executor substituted in the said will), by the Principal Probate Registry of His Majesty's High Court of Justice, on the 11th day of July, 1917), are hereby required to send in the particulars, in writing, of their debts, claims or demands to us, the undersigned, the Solicitors for the said executor, on or before the 20th day of September, 1917, after which date the said executor will proceed to distribute the assets of the said deceased amongst the persons entitled thereto, having regard only to the debts, claims and demands of which he shall then have had notice, and that he will not be liable for the assets of the said deceased, or any part thereof, so distributed, to any person or persons of whose debts, claims or demands he shall not then have had notice.—Dated this 14th day of August, 1917.

WATSON, BURTON and CORDER, Pilgrim House, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, Solicitors for the 115 Executor.

I, MARGARET APPLETON, heretofore called and known by the name of Margaret Apfel, a natural born British subject, of 14, St. Thomas-street, in the county of London, Spinster, hereby give public notice, that on the 31st day of July, 1917, I formally and absolutely renounced, relinquished and abandoned the use of my surname of Apfel, and then assumed and adopted and determined thenceforth on all occasions whatsoever to use and subscribe the name of Appleton instead of the said name of Apfel; and I give further notice, that by a deed poll dated the 31st day of July, 1917, duly executed and attested, and enrolled in the Central Office of the Supreme Court on the tenth day of August, 1917, I formally and absolutely renounced, relinquished and abandoned the said surname of Apfel, and declared that I had assumed and adopted and intended thenceforth upon all occasions whatsoever to use and subscribe the name of Appleton instead of Apfel, and so as to be at all times thereafter called, known and described by the name of Appleton exclusively.—Dated the 10th day of August, 1917.
