

Majesty in Council, a Representation, bearing date the 26th day of July, in the year 1917, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 8th and 9th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 70, of the Act of the 14th and 15th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 97, and of the Act of the 19th and 20th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 55, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Representation as to the assignment of a Consolidated Chapelry to the Consecrated Church of Saint John the Baptist, situate within the New Parish (sometime District Chapelry) of Saint Mark, North End, Portsea, in the County of Southampton, and in the Diocese of Winchester:

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said New Parish of Saint Mark, North End, Portsea, and of the New Parish (sometime District Chapelry) of All Saints, Portsea, in the said County and Diocese, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several Churches of such New Parishes:

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that certain contiguous portions (being the portions containing the population aforesaid) of the said New Parish of Saint Mark, North End, Portsea, and of the said New Parish of All Saints, Portsea, should be formed into a Consolidated Chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said Church of Saint John the Baptist, situate as aforesaid:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Stuart, Bishop of Winchester, as such Bishop, and with the consent of the Reverend Cyril Forster Garbett, Clerk in Holy Orders, an Honorary Canon of the Cathedral Church of Winchester, and the Vicar or Incumbent of the Vicarage of the Parish of Portsea, in the said County and Diocese, and as such Vicar or Incumbent the Patron as well of the Vicarage of the said New Parish of Saint Mark, North End, Portsea, as of the Vicarage of the said New Parish of All Saints, Portsea, (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this Representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said New Parish of Saint Mark, North End, Portsea, and of the said New Parish of All Saints, Portsea, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the Map or Plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one Consolidated Chapelry for the said Church of Saint John the Baptist, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John, Rudmore, Portsea.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that Your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into Your Royal Consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to Your Majesty, in Your Royal Wisdom, shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint John, Rudmore, Portsea, comprising:—

"1. All that portion of the New Parish (sometime District Chapelry) of Saint Mark, North End, Portsea, in the County of Southampton, and in the Diocese of Winchester, which is bounded upon the north-west by the Parish Boundary in the middle of the channel known as Portchester Lake, upon the south and upon the south-east by the New Parish (sometime District Chapelry) of All Saints, Portsea, in the said County and Diocese, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the east and upon the north-east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said New Parish of All Saints, Portsea, from the said New Parish of Saint Mark, North End, Portsea, at the junction of the road called Kingston Crescent with Mills Road, and extending thence northward along the middle of Mills Road for a distance of $7\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to its junction with the road connecting it with Twyford Avenue almost opposite to the wall or fence forming the eastern boundary of the houses and premises situate on the eastern side of Stamshaw Road, and extending thence, first north-westward to the said wall or fence, and then first northward, and then in various directions, along such wall or fence for a distance in all of $2\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to its northern end on the southern side of Seagrove Road, and extending thence, first north-eastward to, and then north-westward along, the middle of Seagrove Road for a distance in all of $1\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to its junction with Stamshaw Road, and extending thence north-westward and in a straight line for a distance of 1 chain or thereabouts to the southern end of the fence forming the eastern boundary of the house and premises known as Number 76, Twyford Avenue, and extending thence, first northward, then eastward, and then north-eastward, along the wall or fence forming the eastern boundary of the houses and premises situate on the eastern side of Twyford Avenue for a distance of $4\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to the point where such wall or fence meets the wall or fence forming the southern boundary of the houses and premises situate on the southern side of Derby Road, and extending thence, first westward, then northward, and then again westward, along the last-mentioned wall or fence for a distance of 2 chains or thereabouts to the point where it meets the eastern side of Twyford Avenue, and extending thence, first westward to, and then northward along, the middle of Twyford Avenue for a distance in all of $1\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to its junction with Derby Road, and extending thence eastward along the middle of Derby Road for a distance of $1\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to a point opposite to the southern end of the wall or fence forming the eastern boundary of the houses and premises situate on the eastern side of Twyford Avenue, and extending thence, first northward to such wall or fence, and then first northward, then eastward, then again northward, then westward, and then again northward, along the same wall or fence for a distance in all of $4\frac{1}{2}$ chains or thereabouts to the point where it meets the southern side of St. Mark's Road and extending thence northward and in a straight line across St. Mark's Road for a distance of 13 yards or thereabouts to the point
