ESTABLISHMENT OF PRIZE COURT IN SIAM.

*Foreign Office,
14th September, 1917.*

His Majesty's Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs has received from His Majesty's Minister at Bangkok the following text of a Law, dated July 20th last, which has been brought into force by a Royal Siamese Proclamation, dated July 22nd last:—

Whereas it is expedient to provide for the establishment of a Prize Court.

Be it enacted as follows:—

Article 1.—This decree shall be known as the Prize Court Law 2460, prize being defined as ships or goods captured jure belli by the maritime force of a belligerent at sea or seized in port. It shall come into force from the date of proclamation thereof.

Article 2.—In addition to the High Court of Justice already established there shall also be established a Prize Court having full jurisdiction throughout the territories of His Majesty to take cognisance of and judicially proceed in all matters of prize, including special captures, namely, conjoint captures with an ally, captures arising out of land expeditions, joint captures, or captures by the officers and crew of a ship other than a ship of war, and also including prize salvage and prize bounty.

Such Court shall decide the legality of the capture and pronounce a decree of condemnation, detention, restitution or restoration subject to payment of prize salvage, or otherwise, of ships or goods taken as prize, in accordance with the Law of Nations and the decrees, rules and regulations for the time being in force in that behalf.

Article 3.—All ships or goods captured as prize by any of His Majesty's ships of war, or captured in ports or harbours of the realm, or captured by a ship other than a ship of war, belong, at the moment of capture, to His Majesty as droits and perquisites in his office of admiralty.

Article 4.—A ship or goods taken by any of His Majesty's ships of war as prize is entirely dependent on His Majesty's pleasure, and any prize money which may be granted to the officers and crew of the Navy for the capture of any ship or goods shall be so granted by a decision according to the ancient customs in use.

Article 5.—The amount of prize salvage to be awarded shall be at the discretion of the Court, but shall not exceed one-tenth part of the estimated value of the prize.

Article 6.—The Prize Court shall consist of three or more judges who shall be duly appointed by His Majesty for the purpose, any three of whom shall constitute a quorum.

Article 7.—The Court shall be authorised to act in the event of war by Royal Proclamation, and shall after the conclusion of the war continue so to act in relation to, and finally dispose of, all matters and things which arose during the war.

Article 8.—The Judges of the Court shall have power in any case, if they think fit, to appoint one or more assessors to assist them or advise them upon matters requiring expert or other special knowledge.

Article 9.—The Law of Civil Procedure R. S. 127 shall be followed as far as practicable. But if no such Rule is applicable the President of the Court may direct such other rules or practice to be followed in prize cases.

Article 10.—Appeals against a decree of the Prize Court lie to the Dika Court as Judicial Committee of the Privy Council. Judgment of the Court after receiving the Royal assent shall be final.

Article 11.—When and as long as the Prize Court is in existence, the Minister of Justice shall appoint a registrar to the Court, and provide a proficient staff; and the Minister of Finance shall make provision from the public fund for the establishment of the Court.

Article 12.—All decrees and orders of the Prize Court shall be carried out by the Sheriff's Department of the Ministry of Justice.

Article 13.—Where the ship or goods taken as Prize is sold by order of the Court, the purchaser may, within one month from the date of the sale or condemnation of the same, whichever last happens, apply to the Court for a certificate of condemnation and sale, or of sale only, and the Court shall direct such certificate to be issued or endorsed on the bill of sale. Where the ships or goods taken as Prize, if restored to the owner by decree of the Court, the owner may, within one month from the date of the decree, apply for a certificate of restitution, and the Court shall direct such certificate to be issued.

Article 14.—All claims for the condemnation of captured ships, vessels, or goods shall be entered in the name of the Crown by the Department of Public Prosecution. All other claims of whatever nature may be instituted by the claimants.

This Law is proclaimed on the 20th day of July of the year of our Lord the Buddha 2460, being the 2444th day of the present reign.

THE RETAIL COAL PRICES ORDER, 1917.

In exercise of the powers conferred upon them by Regulations 2(F) to 2(JJ) of the Defence of the Realm Regulations and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf the Board of Trade hereby order as follows:—

1. The price at which coal delivered by road vehicle from a depôt or wharf or railway siding in lots of 1 ton or over may be sold shall, subject to the provisions of Article 13 of this Order, not exceed by more than 1s. per ton the price of the coal delivered at the depôt or wharf or railway siding in addition to the actual cost of handling and delivery, such cost to include depôt and office expenses, but not interest charges or salaries to owners, partners or directors of the business; provided that:—

(i) Where a merchant sells under the same description and at the same price coals of which the prices delivered at the depôt or wharf or railway siding are different, the price under this article shall not exceed the average price delivered at the depôt or wharf or railway siding of the whole of the coal in question with the additions herein or hereinafter mentioned.

(ii) Where a coal merchant deals in articles other than coal in the course of his business charges common to the sale of coal and other parts of the business are to be fairly apportioned in determining working costs for the purpose of this article.

(iii) The exclusion of salaries to owners, partners, or directors from working costs shall not apply to reasonable remuneration to such owners, partners, or directors in respect of manual labour or clerical work performed by them.

2. The price of coal sold or delivered in smaller lots than 1 ton from a road vehicle shall not exceed by more than 2s. per ton the maximum selling price in the same district for sales of the same description of coal in lots of 1 ton or over from road vehicles as prescribed by Article 1 of this Order.

3. The price of coal delivered from a depôt, wharf or railway siding to dealers' shops shall be less than the prices provided in Article 1 of this Order by 6d. per ton or such other amount as may be approved by the local authority.

4. The price of coal sold at depôts or wharves or railway sidings to hawkers and dealers in quantities less than 8 tons shall be less than the prices provided in Article 1 of this Order by 3s. per ton or such other amount as may be approved by the local authority.

5. The price of coal sold in quantities of 2 cwt. or less at dealers' shops shall not exceed by more than 1d. per cwt. the maximum selling price in the same district for similar quantities sold from road vehicles as authorised by Article 2 of this Order.

6. The prices for quantities of coal less than 1 cwt. shall be at the same rate to the nearest farthing as the price per cwt. Fractions of a farthing to be charged as a farthing.

7. The maximum price of coal sold in small quantities to consumers from depôt or wharf or railway siding shall be 2d. per cwt. less than the maximum price in the same district for smaller lots than 1 ton sold from road vehicles as provided by Article 2 of this Order.

8. The foregoing maximum prices are for cash on delivery and if credit be taken a reasonable charge may be made therefor; provided that such charge shall not exceed such amount as may be approved by the local authority.

9. It shall be the duty of all Coal Merchants to supply the local authority, as defined herein, for the district or districts in which their places of business are situated or in which coal is sold or delivered by them with such information as may be required by the local authority for the purpose of ascertaining whether the retail prices of house coal sold in bulk or in small quantities in their area comply with the requirements of this Order.

10. (a) Every local authority, as defined herein, shall, after consultation with the coal merchants in their area, publish in the local press and in such other manner as may appear to the local authority to be desirable lists showing the prices chargeable under this Order for the various classes of coal sold in the district for household purposes.

(b) The local authority may by publication in the manner prescribed herein withdraw or vary any or all of the prices published by them under this Article.

11. The local authority may appoint a committee consisting of members of the local authority and may delegate subject to such conditions as they may think fit to such committee all or any of their functions under this Order.

12. For the purposes of this Order the term "local authority" means:—

In England and Wales the Council of every Municipal Borough, Urban District and Rural District, including the Council of the Isles of Scilly.

In Scotland in a County the County Council and in a Royal, Parliamentary or Police Burgh, the Town Council.

In Ireland the Council of every County Borough, Borough and Urban District, the Town Commissioners of every Town not being an Urban District, and the Council of every Rural District.

13. The publication of retail prices of house coal by a local authority in the manner prescribed by Article 10 of the Order shall, so long as the prices are not withdrawn or varied as provided therein, be conclusive evidence that such prices comply with the provisions of this Order.

14. (a) No person in charge of a vehicle offering for sale coal in quantities not exceeding two hundredweights in such vehicle shall sell or offer for sale such coal unless there shall be affixed on prominent and conspicuous parts of such vehicle so as to be visible on both sides thereof, metal tablets on which shall be clearly marked in a permanent manner in a figure or figures of at least 3 inches in length the price per hundredweight at which the coal is offered for sale, and such persons shall not alter, deface, or remove or exchange such figure or figures, except at the place of loading or at the office of his employer.

(b) No person in charge of a vehicle to which is affixed a metal tablet as aforesaid, shall, on a sale of any such coal, charge to the purchaser any price greater than that marked on the said metal tablet.

Provided that this Article shall not apply to the area of any County Council in Scotland or of any Rural District Council in England or Wales or Ireland except as regards any part of the area to which the local authority may, with the approval of the Controller of Coal Mines, by order apply it.

15. (a) No person being the owner or occupier or in charge of a shop or premises where coal is sold or kept or exposed for sale in quantities not exceeding 2 cwt. shall sell or offer for sale such coal unless there shall be exhibited in some conspicuous place in the shop or premises where coal is sold or kept or exposed for sale a notice on which shall be clearly printed in figures at least one and three-eighths of an inch in length and half an inch in width the price per 112 lbs., 56 lbs., 28 lbs., 14 lbs. and 7 lbs. at which coal is offered for sale, and no person shall alter, deface, or remove such notice except at the commencement of each day upon which such shop or premises shall be open for the sale of coal.

(b) No person being the owner or occupier or in charge of a shop or premises where coal is sold or kept or exposed for sale in which shop or premises is affixed a notice as aforesaid shall, on a sale of any such coal, charge to the purchaser any price greater than that marked on the said notice.

16. No person shall sell or buy or offer to sell or buy by retail coal of any description (a) at a price exceeding the permitted maximum price on the occasion of such a sale of coal of the same description, or (b) under other descriptions than those specified in the lists of prices published by the local authority as provided in Article 10 of this Order.

17. If any person acts in contravention of this Order or aids or abets any other person in doing anything in contravention of this Order that person is guilty of a summary offence against the Defence of the Realm Regulations, and if such person is a corporation or company every director and officer of the corporation or company is guilty of the like offence unless he proves that the contravention took place without his knowledge or consent.

18. Articles 1 to 13 of this Order shall not apply to such part of the area of any local authority as is for the time being subject to the provisions of the Household Coal Distribution Order, 1917, made by the Board of Trade on the 10th August, 1917.

19. The Controller of Coal Mines for the time being appointed by the Board of Trade shall be responsible to and is hereby authorised by the Board of Trade to take all measures that are needed to give effect to this Order.

He may suspend from time to time and for any period and in any district or part of a district the operation of all or any of the articles of this Order or parts thereof as he thinks fit, and may restore such operation.

He may make such rules and issue such instructions under this Order as may be necessary to give effect to its provisions, and such rules and instructions shall be deemed to be part of this Order and shall have the same effect as if they had been included in this Order.

20. This Order may be cited as the Retail Coal Prices Order, 1917.

Signed on behalf of the Board of Trade this eleventh day of September, 1917.

W. F. Marwood,

A Secretary to the Board of Trade.
