THE MILITARY CLOTHING (DIRECTIONS) ORDER, 1917.

In pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by the Defence of the Realm Regulations, the Army Council hereby order as follows:—

1. It is hereby required that in any factory or workshop capable of producing articles of clothing suitable for military purposes or any articles or material required for or in connection therewith, work shall be done in accordance with any directions that may be given by or on behalf of the Army Council with the object of making the said factory or workshop or the plant or labour therein as useful as possible for the production of such articles or material.

2. Returns as to the nature and amount of the work done in any such factory or workshop, together with any further and other particulars as to the business of the owners or occupiers thereof shall be furnished by the owners or occupiers, their officers or servants in such manner and at such times as may be required by or on behalf of the Director General of the Royal Army Clothing Department.

3. Any directions that may be given by or on behalf of the Director General of the Royal Army Clothing Department for the purpose of this Order shall be strictly complied with by such owners or occupiers, their officers or servants.

4. Any person failing to comply with any provision of this Order or with any directions or requirements made thereunder shall be guilty of an offence against the said Regulations.

5. This Order may be cited as The Military Clothing (Directions) Order, 1917.

By Order of the Army Council,
R. H. Brade.

ARMY COUNCIL ORDER.

COTTON MATERIALS.

In pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by the Defence of the Realm Regulations, notice is hereby given that it is the intention of the Army Council to take possession of all materials of the following classes and descriptions, that is to say:—

All cuttings, clippings and remnants from cotton materials issued or to be issued by the War Department to any person holding any contract with the War Department for the making up of such materials into garments or any other articles, and all cuttings, clippings, and remnants from cotton materials produced or to be produced in or about the performance of any contract with the War Department.

If after this Notice any person having control of any such materials, sells, removes or secretes them save and except as may be authorised and permitted by or on behalf of the Director of Raw Materials, he shall be guilty of an offence against the said Regulations.

By Order of the Army Council,
R. H. Brade.

Commission signed by His Majesty's Lieutenant of the County of Merioneth.

Major-General John Vaughan, C.B., D.S.O.,
to be a Deputy Lieutenant. Dated 5th
October, 1917.

CARDIFF.

Whereas the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Cardiff (hereinafter called the Corporation), being the Urban Sanitary Authority for the said City, have made application to the Local Government Board for the issue of a Provisional Order under Sections 297 and 303 of the Public Health Act, 1875, to partially repeal, alter, or amend the Cardiff Corporation Act, 1879, the Cardiff Corporation Act, 1884, the Cardiff Corporation Act, 1894, the Cardiff Order, 1902, confirmed by the Local Government Board's Provisional Orders Confirmation (No. 11) Act, 1902, and the Cardiff Corporation Act, 1909, so as

(1) To make applicable to the water undertaking of the Corporation the provisions of section 54 of the Public Health Act, 1875 (which relate to the carrying of water mains by a local authority within or without their district), and any provisions of that Act incidental thereto, including the provisions of Section 308 (Compensation in case of damage by local authority) of the Act, and to provide that for the purposes of those provisions as made applicable to the water undertaking the limits of the Corporation for the supply of water shall be deemed to be the district of the local authority; and

(2) For the purposes of the Application or for purposes connected with, incidental to, or consequent on those purposes to make any such alteration or amendment of the said Local Acts, or of any other Local Act or of any Act confirming a Provisional Order made in pursuance of any of the Sanitary Acts or of the Public Health Act, 1875, and in force in the said City as may be necessary or desirable;

And whereas it is proposed that a Provisional Order should be issued in compliance with the said Application;

Notice is hereby given that R. C. Maxwell, Esquire, LL.D., Barrister-at-Law, one of the Inspectors of the said Board, will attend at the City Hall, Cardiff, on Friday the Twenty-sixth day of October, 1917, at Ten o'clock in the forenoon, to hold a Local Inquiry into the subject-matter of the said Application and the proposed Provisional Order.

And notice is hereby further given that any person interested may attend at such Inquiry and be heard with reference to the said Application and the proposed Provisional Order.

As witness my hand this Fourth day of October, 1917, at the Office of the Local Government Board, Whitehall,
London.

Noel T. Kershaw,
Assistant Secretary.
