Corunna, December 12. N. S. The Spanish Expedition Packet-Boat, Capt. Francis Clyes Commander, came from Falmouth on the 4th, and arrived here the 7th Instant, having taken a French Ship laden with Fish from Newfoundland, and brought her into this Port. The Soldiers that are to be sent from hence by Sea to Biscay, will Embark in few days. The Letters from Cadiz of the 21th of the last month tell us, that the Fleet commanded by Admiral Russell continued in that Port; That they had had for several days very stormy weather, with abundance of Rain, but that our Ships had not received any damage; That some of our Cruisers were come in; And that they had taken 7 French Prizes, two bound from Marseilles to Lisbon, one from Lisbon with Sugar for Venice, two with Fish from Newfoundland, and two Satees from Salley to Marseilles. The Success, Capt. Rogers; The Naxerano, Capt. Tito; And the John and Thomas, William Brook Commander, are arrived at Cadiz from Newfoundland. The Letters from Madrid of the first Instant tell us, that by their last Advices from Barbary, Casas was still Besieged by the Moors, but 'twas believed the violent Rains had obliged them to retire.

Dublin, December 5. On the 30th past, a Dutch Merchant Ship of about 100 Tuns, laden with Wine and Sugar from Portugal bound to Rosterdam, being forced into our Channel by the late high South-East Winds, ran ashore among the Rocks near Hoath, where she received some damage, but 'tis hoped she will get off again. On the 2d Instant came into Kinsale the Adventure of Leith in Scotland, of 70 Tuns, bound to the Camarines, who in her Voyage thither was taken by two French Men of War of 40 Guns each, and five days after was retaken by the Mountague. By a Person come from the West we are told, that the Thomas and James, Arthur Muncriffe, and the Rose of Plymouth, Charles Seager Commanders, both from Barbadoes, (who were separated from the rest of the Fleet in a great Storm) are put into Castillehaven; as also the William and Mary, Robert Aldred Master, from New-England. And just now we have Advice by an Express, that the James and Elizabeth of Weymouth arrived at Castillehaven on Friday last from Barbadoes, having been 13 Weeks in her passage from thence; she has sustained much damage in her Hull, Masts and Rigging, by bad weather. The Arabella of Cork is arrived in that Port from Antegoa.

Dublin, December 7. On Monday last, the Right Honorable Sir Joseph Williamson was sworn of Their Majesties Privy-Council here, and accordingly took his place at the Board. We have an account from Kinsale, that on the 4th Instant there came into that Harbor Their Majesties Hired Ship the England-Frigate of 42 Guns, Capt. Cooper Commander, who met on the 29th of the last month, about 30 Leagues to the Westward of Kinsale, a French Man of War called the Temeraire of 54 Guns, and engaged her from 9 in the morning till night, when the French Ship had one of her Masts shot by the Board; The England-Frigate lay by her all Night, and early the next morning renewed the fight; at which time the Mountague, Capt. Bridges Commander, came in, and soon after the Frenchman yielded, but was so disabled, that our men were forced to set her on fire; This Ship was Admiral of the French Squadron, in their late Enterprise against Tamaraica, and carried 260 men; of whom 26 were killed and wounded in this fight; and Capt. Cooper had 6 men wounded, but none killed: He has brought in 80 of the French Prisoners, the rest being on Board the Mountague. They write also from Kinsale, that the Elizabeth and Mary of London, John Pierce Master, laden with Sugar and Tobacco from Antegoa, is come in there, being very much disabled in her Masts and Rigging; as also the Rose of Plymouth, Charles Seager Master, from Barbadoes, but lost from Glandore.

Pembroke, Dec. 9. Yesterday arrived in this Harbour the Hopewell of London from Virginia; She parted on the Coast of Ireland with another Ship bound to London from the West-Indies, Robert Burnham Commander, who steered for Kinsale.
