Shrewsbury.

Person will discover any of the laid Rise discover any other s bey be Comunical oseph Williamon's (befides His Maje. and Charges, for above the Reward heTrees,Shrubs, ed in the Holy Sibr iscoursed of, thewing Countries, manner of necessary for all Mi-Holy Bible; the like Med. Frof. Printed nhill.

of Hertfordshire, t Law, is now ready heers, befides above eing the Sens of fone im Engraved. Prop. of the Engl. 2. at the of the final P. lling to encourage its are defired to feed Tho. Benner, at the he ad of February, for nt, John Par, specia, hair inclining to carl, faced with Blue, and aged about 45, fton til-Pox, his Eyesindi and a black Hat edg'd and fwenty, dek a Lip, aged about 17, ohn Puffey, aged about ir a little curled, bleck a lufty wei fer men. upon notice given to Guinea's Reward for

Red lin'd with Green, o, Ley's Company, in Right Hon, the Lord o, of middle flame, nest of his Teeth be-cer, Southwark: Ro-egro, imail Leg, and James Galley : Wil-re, Jank brown har, ox, a Ginger-Browl , Shorediich, London, Hugh at Whitehallaring crofs, fall have ken, and one Games, made by Tho.Est, Seal, and a link gilt, and a Ring with to be dropt between them to Mr. Chronk, or to Mr. John Sail of ole Charges. the City of Oxford, hamber in Guildiell, xt, at 9 in the monpts Effate; And fode ir Debu, are then us ded the faid Dividend. Norton in the Coury n 5 or 600 l. per Aniey are, by vinne of a, before Dr. Edibu J.

will expose the sime next, at his Office is at bids most will be. prout of a Mickey. er. VVhoeverbringt t, thall have a Guinca te under the Hand of ger, fo: 79 l. 18 L. dated the 4th inflate. are defired m for near the Best Ing in

b

The Londo sazette.

Bublified by Zuebozier.

From Churchen December 27. to Sonday December 31.

Whitehall, Dec. 30. N Friday the 28th instant about one in the Morning our late Most Gracious Soveraign Lady Queen Mary Died at Kensington, after a few days Sickness of the Small Pox, Teaving His Majesty inder an unexpressible Grief and Affliction; and the whole Kingdom under the deepest and most smalle Sorrow for the loss of a Princess of so great and exemplary Virtues.

Mister, December 31. This day the House of Peers went in a Body to Kensington, and Presented to His Majesty the following Addreis.

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament Assembled, Do with inexpressible Grief, humbly assure Your Majesty of the Deep Sense we have of the Loss Your Majesty, and the whole Kingdom, doth Sustain by the Death of that Excellent, Princess our Sovereign Lady the QUEEN, most humbly Beseeching Your Majesty that You would not Indulge Your Grief upon the Sad Occasion to the Prejudice of the Health of Tur Royal Person, in whose Preservation not only the Welfare of Your Own Subjects, but of all Christendom is so nearly Concerned. We farther by leave, upon this Sad Occasion, humbly to Renew to Your Majesty, the Hearty and Sincere Assurances of our utmost Assistance against all Your Enemies. bub at Home and Abroad, and of all other Denumerations of the greatest Duty and Affection that can possibly be paid by the most Faithful Subjetts:

To this Address His Majesty was Graciously pleased to Answer,

Heartily Thank you for your Kindness to Me,but much mire for the Sense you shew of Our Great less, which is above what I can Express.

The House of Commons went likewise in a Body to Kenfington, and Presented to His Mafelly the Address, which follows.

Most Gracious and Dread Sovereign, WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjeds, the Commons in Parliament Assembled, being deeply sensible of the great Misfortune which bath befallen Your Majesty and this Kingdom Duke of Glocester. the Beath of our most Gracious Queen, do, with unspeakable Grief of Heart, bumbly beg leave to Condole the Irreparable Loss of that most Excellent Pfincess, the best of Women, to enumerate whose Vertues were to aggravate our Sorrow

We cannot at the same time but Bless God for the Preservation of Your Majesty to us, on whose Life the Welfare and Happiness of this Kingdom, the whole Kingdom under the deepest and most and the Liberties of Europe, do in so great a sensible Sorrow for the loss of a Princess of so Measure depend, humbly Beseeching Your Majesty much Piety, Clemency, Goodness, and other so moderate Your Grief under this Affliction, as not to Prejudice or Endanger Your Health; And that Your Majesty would Please to take such further Care of Your Royal Person, that we may all Enjoy the Blessing of Your Majesty's long Life and happy Reign.

We do also look upon it as a Duty we owe to Your Majesty, to our selves, and to those we Represent, to take this Occasion of Assuring Your Majesty, That we Your Faithful Commons, will always, to the utmost of our Power, Stand by, Support and Defend Your Majesty and Your Government, against all Your Enemies, both at Home and Abroad.

To which His Majesty made this Gracious Answer.

Gentlemen,

Take very kindly your Care of Me and the Publick especially at this time, when I am able to think of nothing but Our great Loss.

By His Grace the Duke of NORFOLKE, Earl-Marshal of England: An Order for the General Mourning for Her Majesty the late QUEEN, of Blessed Memory.

NPurfuance of an Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council at Whitehall, the 28th of December, 1694. These are to give Notice, That 'tis Expected that all Persons,upon this Occasion of the Death of Her Majesty the late QUEEN of Blessed Memory, put themselves into the deepest Mourning that is possible; (long Cloaks only Excepted:) The Said Mourning to begin upon Sunday the 6th day of January next; And that as well all Lords, as Privy Councellors and Officers of His Majesty's and Her late Majesty's Houshold, do cover their Coaches, Chariots, Chairs, and cloath their Livery-Servants with Black Cloth, by Sunday the 13th of the said Month; and that no Person do use any Varnisk'd or Bullion Nails to be seen on their Coaches, Chariots, or Chairs, Except their Royal Highnesses, and his Highness the

NORFOLKE and MARSHALL.