TUESDAY, 4 DECEMBER, 1917.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 27th day of November, 1917.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.
Lord Chamberlain.
Sir Frederick Ponsonby.
Mr. H. W. Forster.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council dated the 5th day of November, 1914, entitled the Cyprus (Annexation) Order in Council, 1914, it was directed that from and after the date of the said Order in Council the Island of Cyprus should be annexed to, and form part of, His Majesty's Dominions:

And whereas by a Proclamation dated the 3rd day of March, 1915, the High Commissioner and Commander-in-Chief of Cyprus, hereinafter called the High Commissioner, declared that under and by virtue of the said Order in Council the following provisions had effect, namely:—

1. That all Ottoman Subjects resident in Cyprus on the 5th November, 1914, had become British Subjects;

2. That any Ottoman Subject resident in Cyprus on the 5th November, 1914, desiring to retain Ottoman nationality might, by notice under his hand, addressed to the High Commissioner, elect to do so within one month of the coming into operation of the said Proclamation; and any such person electing so to do must leave Cyprus within two months after the date of his election, and take up his residence elsewhere, failing which he would be treated as a British Subject;

3. Nothing in the said Proclamation contained was to be deemed to affect the position of Ottoman Subjects born in Cyprus, and resident elsewhere on the 5th November, 1914, with regard to whom a further Proclamation would be issued in due course;

4. That the said Proclamation should come into operation on the 4th March, 1915:

And whereas doubts have arisen as to the effect of the said Order in Council of the 5th of November, 1914, upon the nationality of Ottoman Subjects who were in Cyprus on the date thereof, and as to the proper interpretation of the provisions of the said Proclamation regarding the grant of British nationality to Ottoman Subjects resident in Cyprus at that date:

And whereas it is desirable to make further provision regarding the position of Ottoman

Subjects born in Cyprus, and resident elsewhere on the 5th of November, 1914:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. The following persons shall be deemed to have become British Subjects under and by virtue of the Cyprus (Annexation) Order in Council, 1914, and the Proclamation of the High Commissioner of the 3rd of March, 1915:—

(b) Any Ottoman Subject who was ordinarily resident in Cyprus on the 5th of November, 1914, but was absent from Cyprus on that date for the purpose only of his education, or for some other temporary purpose.

Provided that no Ottoman Subject coming within Paragraphs (a) and (b) of this Sub-article who, by notice under his hand, addressed to the High Commissioner before the 4th day of April, 1915, elected to retain Ottoman nationality, and, if present in Cyprus at the date of such election, left Cyprus within 2 months after that date and took up his residence elsewhere, shall be deemed to have become a British Subject under and by virtue of the Cyprus (Annexation) Order in Council, 1914, the High Commissioner's Proclamation of the 3rd of March, 1915, or this Order.

(ii.) Any Ottoman Subject who, having been born in Cyprus, was not ordinarily resident there on the 5th of November, 1914, and who

(a) shall apply to the High Commissioner before the expiration of 2 years from the termination of the present War for a certificate of British nationality under this Order; and

(b) shall have resided in Cyprus for not less than 1 year immediately preceding such application; and

(c) shall have resided in Cyprus or some other part of His Majesty's Dominions for a further period making a total period of residence in Cyprus, or in Cyprus and some other part of His Majesty's Dominions, as the case may be, of 5 years within the last 8 years before the date of the said application; and

(d) shall have taken the oath of allegiance as hereinafter directed.

2. (i.) A certificate of British nationality shall be granted to any person who has acquired British nationality in accordance with Article 1 (i.) of this Order, and who applies to the High Commissioner for a certificate.

(ii.) A certificate of British nationality shall be granted to any person coming within Article 1 (ii.) of this Order who shall have complied with the conditions laid down in Paragraphs (a) (b) (c) and (d) thereof.

set out in the First Schedule hereto, and a certificate in such form shall be prima facie evidence of the British nationality of the person to whom it is granted.

(ii.) (iii.) A certificate of British nationality may be proved in any legal proceeding by the production of the original certificate, or of any copy thereof certified to be a true copy by the High Commissioner, or any person authorized by him in that behalf.

(iv.) Nothing in this Order shall prevent the High Commissioner from cancelling at any time any certificate of nationality issued under this Order to a person as to whom it may be made to appear to the High Commissioner that he is not entitled to be deemed a British Subject under the provisions hereinbefore contained.

5. The High Commissioner may, by Order in Council, make, amend, and revoke regulations for carrying into effect generally the objects of this Order, and in particular with respect to the following matters:—

(a) The registration and issue of certified copies of certificates of British nationality:

British consignees who desire to have the merchandise entered for consumption should furnish to such persons as they desire to represent them at the particular port at which goods may happen to be a duly endorsed Bill of Lading and the original invoice covering the consignments. If, on the other hand, it is desired to export the merchandise, it may be entered for warehouse and immediate exportation without the presentation of a Bill of Lading or invoice, but on the production to the Customs Officers of satisfactory evidence to act in the matter.
