PURSUANT to an Order of the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice in England, dated the 19th day of March, 1917, made in the action of Nelson v. Thompson, 1867, N. 11, whereby the following inquiry was directed:—"An inquiry what sons the testator, JOHN THOMPSON, had, and whether they are all now dead, and if so when the last surviving son died, and what children of such sons were living at the date of such last surviving son." Notice is hereby given, that all persons claiming to be entitled under the said inquiry are either personally or by their Solicitors, on or before the 8th day of February, 1918, to come in and enter their names and addresses in a book kept for that purpose in Room 317 at the Chambers of Mr. Justice Sargant and Mr. Justice Younger, at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, England, and prove their claims, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Order. Tuesday, the 12th day of February, 1918, at 12.30 of the clock in the afternoon, at the said Chambers, Room 315, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the claims.—Dated this 7th day of December, 1917.

CHAS. HULBERT, Master of the Supreme Court.

NOTE.—The above named John Thompson, late of Rosoman-street, Clerkenwell, Tripe Dresser and Brickmaker, died on the 8th day of August, 1866.

Thomas John Thompson, a grandson of the above named John Thompson, who may be entitled under the above inquiry, went to Ethelbert, in the Dominion of Canada, in 1899, and homesteaded on the N.E. of 10-29-22, and left there about December, 1905.
